all the world over and slimbs the stairs, and goes to a conductand of dreams, here nothing at all is just what it seems? All the world over at eight o'clock, had and sorrowfill, glad and gay, These with their eyes as bright as dawn, Those almost nalvep on the way; This one capering, that one cross, Plaited tresses, or curling floss, flowly the long procession streams. Up to the wonderland of dresses. Par in the Islands of the sea

The great procession takes up its way, Where, throwing their faded flower wreaths dittle savages tire of play; bough they have no stairs to climb at all, and so to sleep wherever they fall,

By the sea's soft song and the stars' soft gleams. They are off to the wonderland of dreams. Then the almond lids of the Tartar boy and her mat is pleasant as clouds of down to the tawny child of the Himalay ; And the lad on the housetop at Ispahan Sees night, while the rose-breaths around him

Lead up from the descri his starry tenms and mount to the wonderland of dreams. itill westward the gentle shadow stools, And touches the head of the Bussian maid, and the V-kings' sons leave wrestle and leap, And Gretchen loosens her yellow braid, And Bess and Arthur follow along.

and sweet Mayourneen at even-song. All mingling the morrow's hopes and schemes With those of the wonderland of dreams. The round world over, with dark and daw, See how the great procession swells; lear the music to which it moves. The children's prayers and the evening bells. t climbs the slopes of the far Azores, At last it reaches our western shores, And where can it go at these extremes But into the wonderland of dreams?

Hurrying, scampering, lingering, alow, Ah, what a patter of little feet! yelids heavy as flowers with been, Was ever anything half so sweet? Out of the tender evening blue do believe it has come for you to be off to the wonderland of dreams, Where nothing at all is just what it seems! -Harriet Prescott Spofford, in St. Nicholas fo

WAS SHE IN EARNEST?

for somebody?" The man who had been addressed-a good-looking young fellow, wearing a costly overcoat, and bearing in his hand a traveland saw behind him a heavily built, elderly man of the farmer sort, who carried in his hand a long whip, and wore a broadbrimmed felt hat well pulled over his eye-

" Am I looking for somebody?" he repeated. "Yes, sir. I'm looking for Mr. Mark Mellish. He was to meet me here and take me down to his place. I've been walking that station platform for a full hour, and as the sun is going down and I have no idea where I am, and I ---Here he paused, evidently thinking it best not to utter the remainder of his sen-

" Mellish had good reasons for wanting to meet me," he added. "I'm beginning said the girl. to think that he never got my telegram. Have you a hotel or tavern hereabout?"

Nothing but the boarding house at the mines," said the farmer; "and when you've got there you are at Mellish's. But if you're Mr. Nelson Noble, then ----" " I am," interposed the young man. "Then," proceeded the farmer, "I've

" Good," cried young Noble, " this great, grand, stony country of yours, with its this is the first murder they've planned hald hills and nothing growing, gives a man | to do." from Connections a feeling of having got into the giant's country as Jack-of-the-

" Very likely," replied Noble, with a laugh ; " however, I'm glad you came for | There ! I swear it." 22e, Mr. ----"Bmith, you may call me," said the old mau, " and we might as well be off; him the pull up hill. Any baggage, Mr. for you below. Will you?"

"Only this," answered Noble, with a swing of the travelling-bag. "I'm only going to stay over night," and he followed her hand, she disappeared from the Mr. Smith over the rocky road and down | window. a steep slope until they reached the spot where a covered waggon, drawn by a bony old white horse, stood waiting.

" You sit maids out of the draught, said Smith, " seein' you've got chilled at | the depot. The wind is kinder seen." "Thank you," Noble answered, and shortly finding the old man indisposed to waggon and lond shouts from the driver out of the window. aroused him. "What's the matter?" he cried, thrust-

"Darn it all, the horse has done it at last. can fix it." "Let me look at the animal," said Noble. "Perhaps ha's not dead."

I know more about horses that you do," said Smith, " if you'll excuse my saying it. | bridge. I'll have to ask you to stay at my place totake you up to Mellish's." "You are very good," said Noble. " Personally, I'm not in haste, but Mr. Mellish | visible upon an elevation. horse for me." "Oh, that's my horse," said the farmer, you. Guess he had reasons for not sending and she was spent.

expected, I suppose. This way, stranger; you can't go back to those wretches!' I'll take hold of you. I know the way in | Noble said.

of a shabby-looking house. of the place, flung open the door, Noble | Good night, you goosy-gander !" who sat oroughed upon the hearth before a | Noble walked up to the house in a state of blazing fire. The girl was a handsome oresture; and as she sprung lightly and alertly to her had she spoken is beneath his window? of the cobbler's art.

She stood in the blaze of the firelight

supper as soon as ye can, for we're starved. Mighty plain doin's you'll find | haunted him here, stranger; but you'll have to stand Then he marched out of the room.

Noble sat down upon a spilat-bottomed | "Terrible work over youder!" he said, chair near the fire, and looked at the girl. pointing toward the valley. "That girl at She stood staring at him. Evidently the Smiths'-Middy, his niece-was muradvent of a stranger had alarmed her A dered last night. They found her on the curious feeling of awkwardsess came over | kitchen floor, a horrible sight-killed with the young man. Middy, as her father had an axe, they say-and old Smith and Bam caressingly, as though she were a child, and ". They have murdered her !" cried too uninformed to greet him as a woman | Noble. would. He compromised the matter by amiling; in return she frowned. been an honest one, and that she had paid "I am afraid I intrude," said the young for saving his life with her own; and now some parts persons dare not venture beyond man, gently. "Well," said the girl, "if treth is to be to Mellish's? Hour legs green long enough to walk it. You'd get a decent supper there. I could tell you how courred to Nobie. said jastingly. "For my part," answered Middy, "I wasn't feet. Heavy steps were heard going about -There will be an

The girl looked over her shoulder at him " Non haven't a bit of pride," she said "or you'd get out of a place where your very victuals are begrudged you. There's the door, and straight along the footpath is the road. Go to the left and keep on to fellish's. Escybe they want you there." Just then the feet of the elderly me were beard upon the rough steps that led from the garret, and he appeared, smiling. "I've fixed you up a bunk, stranger, said he. "Guess you can put up with it for one night." "You are very kind," said Noble.

afraid I am giving you trouble."

I'm bound to see you out of it." which he summoned his guest when the accused by Chakir Pasha of refusing to ten on foolsoap paper:
meal was ready; and shortly a younger give him definite orders as to his future "East Greenwich, November 6th, 1839 man came in, nodded and took his seas. "My son, stranger," said Smith, os he did so. But all Noble's efforts to make talk were fruitless, and soon ofter copper he decided to go to bed.

"All right. Early to bed is said to good for folks," remarked the elder man. He lighted a candle, and preceded his guest upstairs. A hammook swung between two beams; a couple of blankets and a pillow were arranged in it. The broken window let in the damp night air. Bunches of herbs and ropes of onions dangled from the hooks in the beams.

"Sleep well, ' said the old man, and descended the stairs again. Noble placed his portmanteau under the llow of the hammock and sat down on an old box. He was vexed by not having reached the mines that night, for his mission was to bring a sum of money, which Mellish had borrowed at easy interest, to aido over a season of trouble.

to have been paid from it at sunset. Its of Rethymo is alarming. Prisoners in delay might cause something like a riot. It was not his fault, but it was annoying, and the ill-treatment continues. all the same. forget it," he said, and had pulled off his | times in a most brutal manner. The flag-

window!" and he saw, appearing mysteri- | who has abolished that old religious cusously at the broken pane, the girl's brown | tom. Beating is still in full practice, and "Hullo, stranger ! might you be looking face and great deer-like eyes. "Come softly," in order to make it more painful, water is having a fair knowledge of this mighty Chinese tanners at San Francisco get she said-"come quick!" chin on a level with the sill.

another outcome of a lack of good sense, is often covered with spots of blood caused required to kill an adult person. But to the spring election late. I'm not foolish; I'm talking sense. Your name is Noble, isn't it?" "Yes," said the young man. "You've got a lot of money in that bag," "What makes you think so?"

Come-I want you to."

"I've heard them talking about you," said the girl-" uncle and Sam." "Oh, they're mistaken, Middy," said "Mr. Noble," said the girl, "I'm risking my life to tell you this. Uncle and Sam come to fetch you, and you haven's any proul! I've got, and many a dishonest thing I've heard, that makes me sick to

"Murder !" gasped Noble. "They know all about you," said Middy. Beanstalk did. Your depot-master trotted | "Last week they robbed the mail; they've home a while ago, saying that there were | done that before; but this time they got a no more trains until to morrow, and it is letter from you, and know just what you've going to be a deucedly gloomy night. The got there "-and she named the sum corides of spending it here was unpleasant— rectly. "Then uncle got your telegram, in fact I was getting nervous over it when offering to take it to the Mellishes. So he knew when you were coming-Mr. Mellish "And yet you couldn't be among didn't. There was no accident; the horse honester people," said the farmer; "'tisn't | isn't dead; that was all a trick; Sam took | like your big cities, where there is rob- him home. It was just to get you here. their olive gardens, were fallen upon by bers, and budgo men, and pickpockets, as After awhile uncle will come up to give you soldiers, and had, only after a daring ex-I've heard tell, and traps set for you every gome hot drink-it's full of laudanumwhere. You'd find every man a brother | don't take it-pretend to. When you are you, and bury you, and keep the money.

"Great heaven! is it possible?" gasped "Oh, my God, it is P' sighed Middy. my waggon is in the holler there. The | " Pretend to drink the stuff; then, when he horse is acting queer and I wouldn't give is gone, climb out of the window; I'll wait

"Yes," said Noble. He stared at her, half believing her, half fancying her mad, and, with a motion of A moment more and Smith came up the stairs, with a steaming glass in his hand. "A night-cap, stranger," he said. sleep with my head low."

night. I'll borrow a team to-morrow and | the road ascended, a few houses appeared ; a large one of some pretentions, in the windows of which lights were glowing, was had good reasons for wishing to see ms " That's Mellish's," said the girl. "Go to-night; he should have sent a bester and ring the bell, and get in as quick as She uttered this between quick gasps, for folks from his place. Well, losses are to be | " And you-you must come with me-

" Wretches ?" repeated the girl !" " Why ing from the darkness of the starless night man, Sam's another. I've been stuffing into a listle area of yellow light that fell you with lies, stranger, to get rid of you. I from a lantern awinging before the porch | didn's want you bothering round. I've | made a fool of you-I just like to fool city caught sight of the figure of a girl of 17. | She was off, laughing as she ran, and

Was the girl speaking the truth now, or feet, Noble saw that she owed nothing to The surprise of the Mellish's at his arthe assistance of dress. Her hair was out rival, and the fact that they had not recalico, made without regard to the fashion ; | lean to the latter conclusion, but that night | and her shoes were the roughest specimens he held his peace. Time enough, he thought, to tell his tale in the morning. That night he dreamed of Middy, Her shat reminded Noble of those of a stag at lifted in supplication; and he awakened to think of her. The tinkle of the break-Brought home company, Middy," said fast bell took him downstairs with his mind still full of her, and through the day which he spent in the mines she still It was 3 o'clook when a horseman rode up to the Mellish door with horror in his

are nowhere to be found." For now he knew that her warning had he told his tale. Judge Lynch valed in that land in those fold, I don't went you have. Way don't days, and the wengeance of those who the broad road from Bendoomah to Dodo sought and found the murderers was and Kibbim. Six persons are reported to Alas I it sould not restore pretty Middy to life, and still, though many years have memory.-Family Story Paper. Fendezcon (arguing in defence of his proposed in a short time to supply this favorite theory that personal beauty is not cold air to the butchers of Washington waman's chief attraction) -I contend then Market, and, if the project proves a suchangery has nothing to do with a young wobeauty has nothing to do with a young wo-He turned toward the fire and began to man's chief chance of getting a hunband.

I'll leave it to any married woman in the

COMMERCIAL IN CREEK.

The " Daily News" Reiterates 165 Charges | Me Explains How He Has Taken Elshorate Against the Turkish Government. The special correspondent of the Daily News, writing from Canea, says. The Daily News' revelations of the Turk- | the body of a man supposed to be Frencis great confusion in the siroles of the Turkich dovernment. The first step taken on the | shire road, Greenwich part of Chakir Pashs and his supporters among the European Consuls in the infand | deceased had been with har for three weeks. was to contradict the facts. But as this | On Thursday he did not come down, and failed, accusations followed. His Excel- in the afternoon she want into the room moy endeavore to throw all blame on and found him dead on the floor. "Not a bit of it," replied Smish. "I got his assistant Galip Bey, who is supposed to Police Constable Hoyward, coroner's have been given to him as a spy, and the officer, produced two boxes which had commander Ibrahim Pasha. Both are been tied up by the deceased and atensated as thwarting Chakir Pasha's | dressed to the coroner and jury. In one work of pacification. The Porte is besides of the boxes was found the following, writ-

The Turkish Government is also per-217,000 have been received from Constan- I have got the offer several times from a | 7,000,000 tons of iron ore were dug.

few friends in Louden to produce a passage sight. But when I come to think the matter over and over-no, I would Meanwhile all sorts of excesses continue gooner face death; yes, even twice over to be perpetrated in the island, and the again. I have tried to accept the offer, but It was in small bills, and the men were news daily received here from the district batches are daily brought into the prisons,

All churches within reach of the troops "The best thing I can do is to sleep and | have been descorated and damaged, somecravat and collar, when a whisper fell upon | staffs, on which flags representing their patron saints were hitherto hoisted, have "Come here," said a voice-"come to the been taken off by order of Chakir Pasha, He went to her. She had climbed upon a | before the cruel proceeding begins. The shed beneath the window and stood with her | prisoners are not only beaten hard on their 4 way to the fortress, but within the prisons

"Morning," said the girl, "will be too | ish salute-to him. They are fallen upon or hard pursued by any handling of this drug but myself. lish Parliament. the soldiers or gendarmes, who run after | Now, the coroner's jury will have very little | In China when the weather predictions them with criminal intentions. A great doubt in this matter-that is, I think so, are wrong the man who makes them is to great risks, the more so as the compro- day of November, 1889. mised authorities would have to carry out think of, I've held my tongue about. But the investigations. Moreover, the question public a soundal reflecting not only on her, | be bought in England. but also on her husband and the whole fam- A verdict of suicide while insane was ily. For these considerations no woman or returned by the jury. man will ever permit the name of the violated person to be known to the public. I know personally of several cases, but I am threatened with personal injury if I publish > pedient, a narrow escape. But I am also wrong to give definite and precise facts. Seting were invited by the Kaimakan Ali Rizz, on the 16th uit., to labor at the erection of blockhouses intended, as the Water and Pumping in Air.

SUNERN SHIPS.

The recent raising of the Sultan may Queen chain pendant. have aroused ouriosity as to how this kind "Thank you," said Noble. "Just what of work is done. The whole art and pro- borough hat, one side being turned up, thing in even that historic town. I was wishing for. Can you give me some- cess seems to depend on the two facts, that forming the ground for a number of flashing thing to make my pillow higher? I can't things seem lighter in the water than out diamonds. Smith grunted and went to the farther than water. The following process is one with a square of rubies and sapphires, is a seen in the hands of men uptown combine talk, he fell asleep under the dingy canopy, corner, where some old garments hung. As used only in peculiar circumstances, as in novel brooch. and slept until the sudden stopping of the he turned his back Noble emptied the glass a river or on a sloping shore. The first Among the new Queen dain pendants, usual and nest looking exterior, says the operation is for divers to go down and so fashionable, a domino, with the spots of New York Sun. The caus generally has a "The right kind of stuff," he said. inspect the damage through which the ship different jewels, is unique. has sunk. They make as minute an exam- In silver bookmarks, a pretty oddity is a shape, with a small watch set in one cor-Then Smith went down the stairs, and on ination as possible, learning which side is flag-staff, from which flies a pennant; at | ner; the lower end of the handle is arranghad fallen while he slept-Smith's rough slung over his shoulder, was out upon the has accumulated around her, as that makes the leaves of the book. -Art Stationer. shed. As he dropped to the ground a girl's the work more difficult. When the divers hand caught his wrist, and he was hurried have reported, they take the first step He's dead as a door nail, and you can't get away toward a road which lay like a gray towards raising. Two or more go down to the mines to-night, stranger, nohow you ribbon amid the darkness of rock and with long iron rods. These they endeavor of mild reproach which broke a silence stream was heard, and they crossed a large the holes made. Next thicker rods acteristics when I am-er-in perfect thing, including chills and profanity. are set down and worked in like manner, | health." After that the stunted pines grew thicker. | till a hole is made large enough to allow a large chain to be passed under. This process goes on in about half a dozen different places, so that the same number of chains are passed under the vessel's bottom. Each end of the chains is carried to the surrace and fastened on board a keel or hopper. Then at low tide the hoppers are pinned down-that is, the chains are pulled as laughing. " He gave me the job to fetch | the pace had been too rapid for a woman, sight as possible without overturning them. | for repartee." Now, when the tide rises the hoppers rise with the water, and as they rise, they lift the chains with them, and so raise the ship. Tug-boats are attached to the hoppers, and | blackmailer? they are moved into shallower water until And shortly Noble found himself emerg- they're not wretches. Uncle's an honest the ship grounds. The same process goes office. And that ain't the worst of it." on at the next tide, and so on, until the vessel is left nearly dry at low water. The ship is then heeled over so as to expose the damaged side. From the divers' reports the | "I do. She's a child nurse." As Smith, with the freedom of the owner fellows. Nobody was going to hurt you. amount of damage is known, and plates have been prepared. These are riveted on and the ship made water-tight. The water remaining in her is pumped out, and at the | " and I'll sell pig iron in Liverpool and next tide she floate by her own buoyancy. send steel rails to London. What Ameri-She is then towed into dry dock and over- can industries most want is free opportu-Sheep-skins are rendered waterproof and of the Pennsylvania Steel Company. short like a boy's; her dress was a faded ceived either letter or telegram made him well tarred. These are taken down and placed over the holes in the sides. The decks are battened down and every orifice plugged up, so as to make the vessel waterlight. Then tubes are fitted into the vescol and looked at them with great, dark eyes | deer-like gaze was upon him, her hands up- and attached to pumps worked on board a steamboat. The vessel is pumped dry; but, besides pumping the water out, other pumps are at work pumping the air in. This is necessary, or the first set of pumps would not work. The work goes on, the vessel being gradually filled with air, and, in consequence, gradually rising. When attached, the vaccel is moved to dock and I repairers begin work upon her. Connibalism in Africa. According to recent information cannibalism is very prevalent in some places in western Africa n at to the British settlement if not actually in the prosectorate itself, and so serious and freviduals who have gone out alone that in

have been killed and eaten. A New Cold-Air Supply. flown, her great dark eyes haunt Nelson | A company is said to have been organ-"Oh, I'll go early to-morrow, Middy," he memory.—Family Story Paper. ised in New York City to supply cold air just as steam heat and gas are supplied, shrough pipes laid in the streets. It is and saloons, and possibly summer resorts. The supply may be regulated by a cook.

their own town for fear of capture. Several cases are reported to have taken place on

A SUICIDALS LAGT SERVER.

Preparations to Hill Elimself. Mr. Carttar, coroner, held an inquest last week, as Dover Castle, Greenwich, on sh excesses and horrors in Grete caused Sumnar Ross, aged from 45 to 50, who 74 years. commisted suicide as his lodgings, 69 Deron-St. Paul street car hands get 15 cents per > Mrs. Woodings, the landledy, said the Mrs. Mackay has a sapphire worth $180. New York shop girls average $4 per week. Some kid gloves are made of celskin. larquette, Neb., has no salcons. leolared against Sunday work.

abe figure ' 6 ' had evidently been written plexed by the recent mutiny of four lotter.) This is to certify that I, Francis battalions of redifs (reserves) who have Sumnar Rose, have committed suicide by stready been sent home, and of three more | swallowing an overdose of strong Turkey battalions who mutinied since. They feel opium, and that no persons in this house, uneasy lest other troops may follow these or any other, have had either hand or act examples. Indeed, signs of a rebellious or part, directly or indirectly, in my tendency are becoming manifest not only destruction. The whole business is my among the remaining troops, but even own. My reason for committing suicide | tickets were sold. among the famous Albanian gendarmerie is because I have rained myself in the recently recruited to replace the Cretan cursed borse-racing. I have made a fair 60,000 women. men. Troops and gendarmes alike com- listle fortune at the game for years and | French banks have photographs of ph in, the former of the scantiness of their years; but 'easily got, easily spent,' until employees.

food, clothing and payment, the latter of at last I have lost all. I cannot brace up Lancaster's Central Labor Union will the non-payment of their salaries. Since my mind to go back to Australia to my open a library and a labor bureau.

my mind would not listen to it on any ac-Count. So I must now throw up the sponge. Government control of railroads.

Considering the most decent style of destroying my life, I applied strong opium as a month's notice before leaving. The misbeastly methods of suicide, such as shoot- discharge. ing, throat-outsing, drowning and all the | Pittsburg horseshoers were refused ress; but, of course, I am well aware that all forms of suicide are bad enough. But I | the union was to regulate wages, etc. now think that this style of destroying life | Detroit's Grocers' Union thinks the is the best, as it is the most decent, cleanest often poured over the body of the victim drug and its effects, I have swallowed the from $1 to $1.25 per day, while union men contents of this box, containing 370 of those at their sides get from $2 to $2.50. opium pellets, minus 35, which I am well | Cleveland unions are already planning ing-bag—turned as the words were spoken, "Well, Middy," he said, fanoying this only they are periodically scourged till the floor aware is more than ten times the amount to get some of their advocates elected at be doubly sure of my end, I have taken | New York has a Working Girls' Vacation this extraordinary amount of opium. My Society. It sends sick and destitute girls on selling at a moderate profit. Having per. "Lift the sash and put your head especially in the district of Rethymo, are paid, so, as you can understand, I will reported to be packed with them. The "I'll go in the morning Middy," said ant-colonel beating a peasant simply because he did not make the temenah—Turk. namely: I have put a sample of the Detroit barbers want shorter hours. save it), having deducted his cash discount, put that into two tin boxes, enclosed in two from $6 to $8 per week. This regime, never heard of previously, different offices in London for my lodgings business. The average cost of parcels is 11 stated: He goes into business to sel is especially fels by the gromen. They do at 49 Devonshire road, East Greenwich. I cents. not venture to go out in order to get water, have taken this precaution in order that | The Liberal and Radical Unions favor or to collect their clives, now in season. the jury may see that no other party had the Eight Hour Day Bill before the Eng-

> number of cases of violation of women that Francis Sumnar Rose did kill himself | killed might be given, if it did not expose to by swallowing an overdose of strong Tur. At New York the Franciscan Sisters of danger or compromise the victims or the key opium with his own hand and free will, St. Mary rent rooms to poor girle for $1.50 accusers. It is obvious that any official knowing the same to be far more than doubly per week. inquiry on the subject would expose them | sufficient to cause death .- Signed this 6th | FRANCIS SUMNAB ROSE." Dr. Adams said death was due to apois so delicate that it is a point of honor plexy following opium poisoning. Such with any injured woman to avoid making opium as that produced (crude) could not

Christmas Commodities. A crystal vinaigreste, in the most delicate the names of the victims. A gentleman of of wine colors, is new, the cover incasing i the highest standing confessed to me some being of filigree gold, over which rough days ago that his own sister, with two sapphires are strewn effectively. other young women, while returning from | Pendent from a golden pipe is seen a conch of pearls, the link invisible, forming In Paris one of the latest features of don't take it—pretend to. When you are particularly requested to avoid compromissound asleep Sam and uncle mean to kill ing his sister. I repeat then, it would be that the Christian population is subjected green tree-frog forms an expensive brooch, presents a veiled widow weeping over the to forced labor. Thus the inhabitants of the effects being obtained by the appropriate use of emeralds, the eyes being of authorities ironically pretend, to secure pubto the diamond and ruby, while a realistic- is recalled now by the incident of the sudlooking sea-turtle is a flashing mass of den death in a railway station of Mrs. emeralds, the bordering of the shell being of Bruce, the widow depicted on the tomb. diamonds, the eyes of rubiss. How They Are Raised-Pumping Out

A new brooch simulates a large Gains- line, where her effigy is the most striking of it, and that air is lighter bulk for bulk An opal, in the shape of a heart, framed The new canes which are occasionally

"No." was the coolly spoken reply: you did not." "And I remarked just before entering the house, 'Mrs. Lushiy, the moon is full.'

"Yes, you did." " And you didn't say a word." " Not a word." "Permit me to remark, Mrs. Lusbly, that you loss the opportunity of your life

Extortionists. "Why do you call that colored man "Because he is employed at the post-"No?" "No, sir; his wife takes hush money." "You don't say so!"

What He Wants,

His Vocation Would Be Gone, "Young man," said the temperance orator, "if there was no liquor in the world you would not be standing 'round on the corners, out of work." "But you would," came a voice from the Circumstances Alter Cases. Moneybags (to Hopeful)-See here, vo scamp! You'll have to out down your colonce raised to the surface, tug boats are legs expenses. Now, when I was a boy-Hopeful-That's all right ; I have a rich | unto death. fother and you hadn't.

> Drown Prince of Denmark, who is at present serving his year in the ranks of the common coldiers, is the tallest Prince in Europe. Heretofore the Emperor of Bassia | used from now until Obristman. has had this honor, but Prince Christian, was received at the ciation his regiment | tale. one ordered as the guard of honor and Prince Christian was obliged to "present arms" while the rest of his family greeted the Emperor. The only mark which distinguished the future King from the peasants about him was the Maximilian decoration which he were on his broast. -One reason why girls cannot be logical

Yesterday morning the body of Mrs. Scatts, who was cook on the steamer Quinto of the sime also was burned, was found on the shore a shore distance from the place whom the steamer was destroyed. The $45,000. body hore but few marks of injury. When Ane girl began to set the table. Soon she waid:

"Y'm bright. I'm sharp," txolaimed the Oborius, one of the passangers, He word you?

"Yes, you're guilt adjed," observed the by getting his son appointed a page in the by getting his son appointed a page in the state of the youth constitutes the most significant.

"I'm bright. I'm sharp," txolaimed the Oborius, one of the passangers, He swore that had the crew lowered the life that in the neck—The time not a life would have to move. I'm going to by getting his son appointed a page in the south constitutes the most significant.

No une is satisfied with his own fortune page in his thrifty kirs's record.

"I'm bright. I'm sharp," txolaimed the Oborius, one of the passangers, He wore you?

"Yes, you're guilt adjed," observed the judge prior to giving him 90 years for relation.

So une is satisfied with his own fortune nor dignificant when his own with. into the Quinte disaster at the Mayor's How are you? Thermometer - My

THE LABOR FIELD.

Pithy Presignaphs for Cauadian Work Detroit leads the entire country in stove Ohio's oldnes shoe-cutter, is dead,

New York has a bar-tendere' union. St. Louis has a palsos made of coal. Viutoria's crown is worth $600,000. The Barbers' National Convention h One sheet of paper recently made was less wide and 72 miles long. Vice-President Morton's saloon charge San Francisco building trades will for an eight-hour league.

England's unions have decided continue piece work. Wheeling (W. Va.) union stores will labelled as such. For the Paris Exposition 28,000,000 | Tardy, Artistik Talers," staring from a Berlin has 340,000 workingmen an In the Lake Superior region this year The locomotive firemen's position can never be taken by machinery. A boycott brought an Indianapolis hat store to time on early closing. The French papers think the gum our women chew is India rubber. Governor-elect Boies, of Iowa, favore In Germany the law makes servants give charter of incorporation on the ground that the union was to regulate wages, etc.

arise in this way: The dealer caters to the their respective lines. When they offer wants of the public. Having studied his ing of presents hurts business, and they

oplum that I have already taken-I have They work twelve and fourteen hours for he marks his prices so as to leave him a wooden boxes. I have posted them at two | English postoffices do all the express | the expenses of running his store. Shortly

The South is astisfied to lose its negroes to- the North. They prefer Northern dragged along in semi-idleness for three or object. Don't let your ad. grow stale. Have dinary table upon a common chair can In Iceland there are no prisons and no police. Only two thefts in 1,000 years.

druggists from getting a liquor license. At Peoria, Ill., the street railroads must keep the whole street in repair.

New York women bookbinders get $3 to 89 a week. They are organizing. day for playing on the Sabbath. against an obnoxious boss.

The Veiled Widow. Visitors to the ruins of Dynfermline Abbey, so long the burial place of Scottish evening dress, catered to by dealers in royalty from the days of St. Margaret and upon thousands, that self-interest is thus your ideas, as he ought; but the general ber an exquisite piece of statuary by Foley | parties? As taste runs toward the fanciful, a in the modern church adjoining, which reformer English Minister at Washington, and himself celebrated as the governor of A glistening lizard has the natural colors | the Prince of Wales. It is one of the love. effected by means of emeralds blending off liest productions of modern sculpture and

She was a great favorite of the Queen and A small brush, with handle of chased gold | held a position in the royal household to and brittles of fine silver wire, is a late | the last. Curionely enough she will be buried in London instead of at Dunferm-A Hint For Your Lover's Christmas, a good many valuable points under the silver handle of the ordinary right angle and from the shadows beyond—for night the instant Noble, with his portmanteau damaged, and how the ship lies, and if sand the bottom is a small clip to insert between be required, without taking the deepening the had fallen while he slept—Smith's rough. pieces, a spring pushing the coins up so that one may drawn out at the top by a gloved profit (if he has no bad debts) will leave of the Forth from Grangemouth into acshumb or finger. The other end of she him a small, but fairly healthy, margin. count. From the loch itself several routes "A small drop of ink, falling, like dew, handle has a spring top, and is fitted to But he has the store, the stock and the are practicable. A cutting could be made upon a thought, proclaims that which makes with long iron rods. These they endeavor to place underneath the ship, forcing them through, and the store, and the store, the store and the store and the store, the store and the store, the store and the store, the store and the store and the store, the store and the store and the store, the store and the store, the store and the store and the store, the store and the store and the store, the store and the store and the store and the store, the store and the st Not a word was spoken, not a moment them through, and then working them was lost. At last the rearing of a rapid backwards and forwards so as to enwas lost. At last the rearing of a rapid backwards and forwards so as to enstream was heard, and they crossed a large the holes made. Next thicker rods

Bleep is Necessary. In this age of hurry and worry, with ita consequent nervous exhaustion, of which so I much is now heard, the necessity of taking sufficient sleep cannot be insisted upon too hours a sufficient quantum of sleep. Testing a Spring Chicken. Young Husband-Seems to me, my dear, this chicken is pretty tough. "Did you examine it closely ?"

To lay down any hard and fast rule for the brain workers require more than the drones of society; in fact, every brain worker, if he wishes his powers to last, out of every twenty four.

Weekly. How to Eat in Company. roit Free Press.

He Would Live Always. A man who was deeply in debt was sick "Ah," he sighed," if I could only live until I had paid off my dabts." PRINCE CHRISTIAN, the oldest son of the "Humph!" succeed the doctor, bluntly ' you want to live forever, do you ?"

-A great many "buy" words will be -A child looks upon the most humble quent has become the kidnapping of indi-quent has become the kidnapping of indi-trip to Fredensborg, is several inches taller —The traveller, like the bird, may than that monarch. When the Emperor | sometimes be caught by putting salt on his WHAT MAKES YOU BLUE?

Why do you yield to the bluss ? You can be gay if you abooss; Have your full measure Of joy and of pleasure. What though you've bills overdue? What though no meiden leves you? You can longs, You can obuil. Whed in the world makes you blue? -A con hos nine lives and occasionally a Baromasian (to alcoholic thermometer -I am happy to-day. I am away up. -First Turkey-How do you feel? Sec-

DO YOU ADVERTISE?

Reach the Public.

-METHODS AND MEDIUMS Internal Property Probing Mocessary to Secure the Best Receire-"Pakes"-Relative Champness

Compeditor

The Non-Advertisor !

We have all seen him ! He usually had a small, dark shop in an becure street. He was consistent in that he was careful that the opacity of his windows should prevent the prying public from sacrilegious familiarity with his dusty and shelfworn weres; and he was consistent too, in furnishing the public with svidence of his business incapacity in the shape of signs written in chalk or charcool on shingies, barrol heads and box covers, and displayed in delightful irregularity hither and hither about his premises. "Slow & dry goods box in Italic letters "on a bender," alternated with Roman capitals struck by lightning, always impress people with the idea of an artistic outfitting emporium. " Hear is the spots for your city; standing and character give infinfine dress customs," bashfully peering, on ence. Both are factors in securing the pane, always carches the fancy of fastidious | humbur, sither to its news or advertising for art. THE PHILOSOPHY OF ADVERTISING. Why do people advertise?

goods? Why do they buy and sell goods? the family circle. It relates a history of To accumulate money from the profits on the day's or week's events and its advertisa rise? Commonly the merchants' profits | readers that they attain, with them, to the constituency he seeks out the sources of something special that strikes the fancy supply in the required lines and by reason | the reader does not drop into town to make of his shrewd business skill and his ready | a tour of the stores of Brown and Robinson cash buys at the lowest possible figures and D'Smith, but saves time, trouble and such a stock as he deems will meet the money by going directly to Jones, on the also true that cheapness increases the con- they would have called the attention of the sumption of any given class of goods; so public to it. the cheaper he buys the more he may count | Circulare ? bought his goods and laid them down at they are expensive. A hundred dollars reasonable. margin of profit after paying goods; he sells goods to make money. Here the advertisement comes in. The merchant leases a shop, engages a staff of cierks and bookkeepers and puts in a stock. He is ready for work. If every additional trade? He must advertise! Cincinnati actors are arrested every Sunsell to them at prices that will be good news lay for playing on the Sabbath.

As Findley O 200 golds workers at make they want and that he should let them favor you've been queezed out.

And when you get your suppy ready put it At Findley, O., 800 goblet workers struck invite people to do business with him? into the grinter's hands early. Isn't it natural that people should be Give the printer a chance.

served to the mutual advantage of both THERE'S MONEY IN IT. Does it pay?

Let us make a calculation ! to do so a good staff of clerks is necessary. every day or every week, and it is largely mingle with other fellows.

The freshest and best goods must be kept to the regular, scientific and liberal use of If we go out they say we the season. It goods are not sold in season owe their standing in the business world they are sacrificed without profit, if not to day even at a discount off net coss, to the detiroration of the trade. How has business been going :

considerable sum for intesest on invest- it would branch off and enter the look determined to deprive the newspaper ment, deterioration of stock, etc. We find | near the mouth of that stream. Up to this | wits of one joke, at least .- Washington will add to my profits by the sum of the Ocean, the route passing through Loch a like medium, bring into such extended net profit on such tradeless the sum I am | Lomond has a number of points in its | notice the matchless virtues of Dr. Pieros's obliged to spend to get such trade. His reasoning is sound !

THE SCIENCE OF ADVERTISING. You will advertise! Good enough; but how?

mented, or by the histus between his recognized the urgent necessity for augadvertisements and his business, he will menting the naval defence of the country, lose the confidence of that oustomer, and and Parliament has voted a sum of about powerful as a good advertisement is it can- swenty millions for the purpose. Any

not make truth out of folsehood. Tell the truth ! tive. Specialize; talk business to your is pre-eminently one to aid in the defence oustomers. State your offer plainly, of the nation. Were it carried out a passage briefly. Don't resort to discumiscusion. would be afforded to ships of war through Don't fret about your space. A reader the heart of the country at important often gete the same of a few well-displayed strategical points. Fewer ships would be lines when he would not stay to peruse a required, as a greater number could by regular rate Blustration of redundancy. means of the canal be concentrated at any And be particular about what you write. | point in a given time. Glasgow and Edin-Everbody can's write good advertissments. | burgh and the towns on the two firths Funny ? Yes, it is; but there are men who | would, at all avents, be rendered practispend large sums in getting good ads. cally impregnable. Men-of-war would written. Last year a Chicago paper paid constantly be in the vicinity of the canal, a prize of $1,000 for the writing of a single ready for service on oil advertisement for the purpose of booming | island, and for the protection of the canal itself in its own columns. A Buffalo Steelf, and thus the firths would be seenrely A.A. with us. Send 20c, for terms. A colored to a resident bas resident the resident to the specialist has paid thousands of dollars in guarded. The antional advantages of the prizes for copy. One gentleman is employed oanal in times of pages would also be great. In this work by a Philadelphia mercantile By providing this highway for British firm, and earns a larger solary than any ships and phone of foreign nations the trade regularly employed namepager writer in of the whole country would be stimulated and these men know the importance of "good copy." If you can't write oreased. the best of ads. it will pay you to get some-body who can do so to put your matter into attractive shape before it goes out to

AT ANNA SO GOT BELVEY THE P. that class of "consum" which are in results equal to printing (or painting) your oard on paper and burying it, or using up $10 in furnishing 91 worsh of publicity in manly sones. He looked up with become we've seen people who seemed afraid of tear glistened, at the fair, perfect type of the merest mention of their names in the all that could be lovely in women the newspapers when they had by some lapse | stood before him, and as he looked long The Emiles of Advertising - Perfect got into police court or become connected earnestly, intensely, his voice broke in a with a sealy transaction, who said trembling troble. Outside on the bric advertisements aren't read," yet they swashed pave could be heard the low, dult -Writing | Ads. - Don't Hamper the patronized every railway, theatre, direc- sog of the rain drops and the soft, plaintive tory, fair prize list or other advertisement gurgle of the organ grinder as he gyrafed mansoleum and every transitory and iner-tistic dodger, circular or card fake that merry invitation of the man next door to any glib-tongued agent presented; and " have anozer one 'fore we go home " broke we've lived to see several such congerns upon his ears with a startling distinctness attain distinction-in the hands of the that made his tired head ache. sheriff. Of course any degree of publicity is useful; it is desirable, if not too costly. There's the rub. Reach your oustomers ! No Ontario retail grocers advertise in | was no answering tremor in her voice. could not reach through them the people | plaster or a pill --- "

the key to the situation. THE BUST ADVERTISING MEDIUM. The newspaper ! One of standing and influence One that circulates among those you would reach. Circulation means publi-

a sheet of wrapping paper, through a murky | desired result. A newspaper that endorses on worshippers. The groser whose columns, depreciates the value of its space den is littered with pieces of barrel heads | to its customers ; a newspaper with poor decorated in charcoal usually has time circulation or with a circulation among a enough on his hands to improve his taste | class that is unlikely under favorable circumstances to yield patrons, is a poor medium. The respectable, carefully conducted newspaper goes into the bosom of the family; in thousands of homes it is Ask why people trade! Why do they go she family; in thousands of homes it is into business? Generally to buy and sell a daily or weekly visitor and is as one of the transactions. How do these profits | ing patrons' names grow so familiar to the requirements of his trade. Supply and demand regulate prices, of course, but it is if the others had anything worth offering

They are all very well in their way, but actually die with apoplexy, leaving the Servants of England demands shorter hours amount of purchasing agents' expenses, written advertisements in a good paper will himself actually ignorant of the existence -I'll show you where the Mellishes live.

Onio's Labor Commissioner says girls of the League or Brotherhood. You must be desired by the entire population. Some—I want you to."

of the League or Brotherhood. You must be desired by the entire population. Some—I want you to."

of the League or Brotherhood. You must be desired by the entire population. Some—I want you to."

of the League or Brotherhood. You must be desired by the entire population. Some—I want you to."

of the League or Brotherhood. You must be desired by the entire population. Some—I want you to."

of the League or Brotherhood. You must be desired by the entire population. Some—I want you to."

of the League or Brotherhood. You must be desired by the entire population. Some—I want you to." tary and cannot take the place of legitimate Dispatch.

newspaper advertising.

Be liberal? Your advertising bill is as much an in- may be of interest; "I was born armlees vestment as your rent. If it is well done, and although I am devoid of those useful you should spend as much in advertising as | adjuncts to the human frame, the arms, I in rent. The experiences of the world's am not helpless, for by diligent practice I most successful men warrant that observa- have become able to perform all the necestion. Get a good, clean medium; see that | sary offices of life as easily and readily as it reaches the people you would induce to | those who are blessed with arms. Having man in his employ is worked as hard as a trade with you Write your advertisements | been born armless I have not lost them, reasonable employer wants to see him in a heat style, or get them so written. therefore, I suffer no loss whatever, and so worked the expense of the merchant for Don't weary your readers. Don't try to am quite as independent as any one. Why, rent, fuel, light, taxes, insurance and help get the worth of your money by growding I can wash, dress, shave myself, prepare will be little over what it would be if things your space, or you will defeat your own my own food, and while seated at an orfour days every week, while the deteriors. be strupulous about carrying out all you son can with hands. I have been travelling accumulations of out-of-style goods-will promise; it is worth something to have a for the past eighteen years and have never Norfolk (Conn.) women prevented the be very much less. How is he to get this reputation for strict advertising probity employed any assistance whatever, but Don't think you can advertise enough in a have performed all the necessary offices of week or a mouth to do all year, for you life for myself. I was born in Woodstock, can's do it, any more than you can eat County of Oxford, Province of Ontario, Can-He wants more people to know that he has enough at a meal to do you a month. Keep ada, on the 6th of July, 1855, so therefore what they want and that he stands ready to your name before your readers and don's am now 34 years old."

interested in anything relating to their the composing room; if you do you'll very much reading matter. means of supplying them? And isn't it a likely make a botch of it, even if you don't If we omit jokes folks say we are nothing fact, proven by the experience of thousands know it. Of course he will try to help out but fossils. build " of the ad. is much safer in his us for not giving selections. hands than in yours. Anyway he would only | If we give selections people say we are laugh if you asked him to set display lines | lasy for not writing more and giving them Many a good ad. is speiled by limiting the paper taste of the compositor in its display. Mr. Jones has been in business for some When you send reading notices lat them time. He has done a fair business, but in | tell a plain, business story and not too long these days only a large trade can secure a one at that. But the most important | just. mercantile prosperity in any branch. Cus- thing, after a good medium is secured, is so | It we remain in our office attending to tomers must be promptly attended to and be always at it. A good journal works our business folks say we are too proud to in full lines and the stock must be up with such that our modern merchant princes

Moral : Begin now ! MASQUETTE. Forth and Ciyde Ship Canal.

favor. The loch is about 20 feet above Pleasant Purgative Pellets, those tiny, sea-level, while the ground from Stirling to | sugar-coated granules which contain, in a He draws on his resources for a few within a few miles from the look is less concentrated form, the active principles of hundred dollars in advertising space. He | than 50 feet above sea lavel, being occ. | vegetable extracts that Dame Nature deuses the fund judiciously, and he finds that siderably lower than the ground on the signed especially to promote a healthy at the end of the year his trade has grown direct route between Maryhill and action of the liver, stomach and bowels. forcibly, says the London Hospital News. to $75,000. The extra sales leave him a Falkirk. Near Loch Lomond, howprofit of $3,75% one of which to pay his ever, the ground rises considerably, and a advertising bill. He finds he has drawn a very deep outting would be required. The Recently the Duke of Fife sold a farm to its regulation is not possible, for, naturally, better class of oustomers; he does not supply of water from Luch Lomond for two of his tenants under highly interesting accumulate old stock, his reputation as a looks would be greatly superior to any that circumstances. Messrs. A. and G. Shand merchant has risen and his name has be- could be obtained on the direct route. One | are the occupiers of a holding near Macduff, come a household word. You can't bury or two looks as each end would be suffi- and they represent the oldest family on the should take from eight to mine hours' sleep this merchant again among the cobwebs clent, whereas if the ordinary system of antate, the same farm having descended in and loneliness of a non-advertising looks were adopted on the direct route pro- | succession from father to son for over 300 enough, whereas Sarah Bernhardt finds six store. He has out his business eye teeth bably eight or ten would be required at years. It is now their freehold, bought railways and roads crossing the line than on | crofts, at the rate of 26 years' purchase. the direct route. Further, on this route vessels could enter or leave the canal at the | Don't hawk, hawk, blow spit, and dis-Many men embark in business enter- western and in deeper water than by the gust everybody with your offensive breath, prises and lose money. Many men squander direct route. As the cutting required on but use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy and end Young Wife-I know it is, and I can't | money in their efforts to advertise and yet | this route in any case would be very great, it, 50 cents, by druggists. understand it at all. I picked it out myself. derive but little benefit from the outlay. It is estimated that the cost would probably be seven or eight millions. From a national "Indeed I did. I looked in its mouth studied. Like every other investment it rethe first thing, and I could see it hadn't quires to be treated on business principles. route may be taken from Greenook to before, go down and examine the damage. restriction."—Interview with the President even out its first teeth yet."—New York You pay so much money for so much licity. The shrewd advertiser will secure tance would be about 48 miles; by the Simpson's died 'n' been buried since I ben publicity among the people he desires to Look Lomond route, vis Vale of Leven, gone? Well, I never! It jest beats the reach and see that he gets the worth about 60 miles, and by the same route, via Datoh how luck runs agin me ! I was sick, The knife should be held by the handle of his money. The advertiser starts Tarbert, about 75 miles. From the great 'n' lost Decoration Day. Jane Thompson only. Do not touch the blade with your out with something he wishes armaments which European countries are sent for me to nuss her when Mariar finger. The fork should not be held with the public to know. The advertisement building up, there is an increasing risk had her quiltin'. Fourth o' July it up 'n the whole hand except when outting. In will not make his goods better than they that Great Britain may sooner or later be rained; 'n' now I've lost 'Bail's funeral raising the food to the lips hold the fork ut are; it will not furnish the readers of it involved in war. Were two or more first. 'n' I always set such store by buryin's too the end of the handle, prongs upward, between the first finger and thumb, the handle resting on the second finger.—Dethem. That is its object; the merchant's menes extent of the empire, ecattered deacon, and could frame onlyoffers and the quality of the goods must answer for themselves. And just here it globe, would tax even the great resources may be remarked that mendacity never of the fleet to guard it. Only a comparapays-it never has from the days of An. tively small number of ships of war would Favorite Prescription-the sure remedy for scheme, therefore, which tends to increase the naval resources of the country is And make your advertisements attract worthy of national support. This scheme

> The death is announced of Rev. Edward Bradley, "Cushbert Bede," the author o "Verdant Green," perhaps the best stor of Oxford University life after ! Ton Brown." His " Little Mr. Bounces, will

Amesing Ignorance of an Ambitious and Aspletog Young Man. "Phyllis! Darling!" There was a tremor in this full, riol

"What is is, Clarence?" said the beauti ful girl, surning the rereend dessling loveliness of her face towrds his, but there Quebec papers. Why? Because they | "Have you a pain? Perhaps a porous

"Do you mock me whose trade they compete for. Here is springing to his feet, while all the pent-up agony that had twisted his internal economy with a gas-plier twist tortured his features into an awful look of despair. "You know how madly, passionately, love you. It is true, you are righ and

" Owe for your last week's board," came the cold, calm, matter-of-fact and business. Arue, alas i soo scue. Due is will not always be thus. I am young-" "And callow," shipped in the maiden. Not noticing the interruption be continued: "I will work, cerve a name for myself, and paste it on each successive rung on the ladder of fame, until wealth and position are mine. For you I---" "Listen to me, Clarence Coughdropp-" and there was a cold, steely glitter in her eye-" I asked you a question last nighta simple every day question that every school boy and school girl in the land could have answered with their eyes shut-you stared at me in blank amazement. You ram mber it, do you not?" "Yes," he faltered, "I remember. It was whether I favored the League or the Brotherhood ?" " And you told me-told me without the shadow of a jest, but in dead earnest, that you never heard of the League or Brotherhood and did not know what they meant. Is it not so?"

Clarence bowed his head. He could not continued the now thoroughly aroused

A Woodstock Armless Man. The following statement made by Barnum's "Armless Man" to an interviewer,

What Editing a Paper Is. Editing a paper is pleasant business-if

Unless you are a printer don't try to run | If the type is large it doesn't contain If we publish original matter they blame

in agate and body matter in four line pion. | what they have not read in some other If we give a complimentary notice we are censured for being partial. If we don't every one says we are un

our business .- Insurance Observer, London. A Talking Barber.

No one nowadays can put a joke on them as a garrulous tribe. The "talking barber ' has disappeared. No class of artisans talk less, unless it be boiler-It is proposed that this route should start | makers. In none of our first-class shops from the Forth at a suitable point above does a barber speak until he is spoken to " "clerks, bookkeepers, etc., 5,400 00 Grangemouth, passing Stirling, and fol- by a customer. If the customer is chatty lowing the direction of the Forth and and the barber responds he is soon brought $10,595 00 Clyde Junction Railway to within a short to quietude by some signal from the Now to this ought to be added a very distance of the Water of Endrick, where proprieter. The barber has evidently

The Power of Ink,

A Fife Farm,

Hard Luck, Aunt Susan Turner (just returning from

Poor Widow Badget ! The tried to write love postry to the "Affliction sore Long time I bore."

Had the lone creature used Dr. Pierce's nanias down. If an advertiser beguiles a be available to protect the 3,000 miles of the weaknesses and peculiar ailments of customer with offers that are not imple- coasts. The present Government have her sex-she might have scoured the deagon's favor by the cheerful character of

> Let the Good Work Go on. Young lady-I want a very stylish has and something awfully becomin Milliper-Now, here is one that I think would suit. The broad brim is especially anitable for you. Young lady-That won't do at all. Show me something with a narrow brim. (Sotto voce)-The sleighing season is coming on and Harry must have half a > show at least. Many a man has cast a shadow on his life by standing in his own light.

DOME SECO A GENTS MAKE $100 A MONTE BUSE, St. Thomas, Ont.