THE REPORTER

ATHENS, ONT., DEC. 24, 1889.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES BRIEFLY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Knight of the Pencil—Local Announcements Solled Right Down.

"The belfries of all Christendom
Now roll along
The unbroken song
Of peace on earth, good will to men."

The B. & W. is equipped for winter, having now two snow-plows built by the Rathbun Co.

We would that our wood subscribers would bring in the wood with which they said they would pay their subscriptions.

On Friday Mr. L. A. Kennedy went to Kingston where he was billed to recite at an entertainment given by the business college.

We wish our readers a merry Christmas and a happy New Year and say, in the language of Artemus Ward, "long may they wave."

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Cornwell started for their new home in Ingersoll on Saturday. A large number of friends were at the station to say good-bye.

Last week 38 candidates wrote at the entrance examination to the high school. Messrs. Kennedy and Cornwell were the presiding examiners.

Neil McCarney, of Gananoque, is reported to have been the possessor last week of a turkey weighing 51 pounds and a sow pig weighing 825 pounds.

We would consider it a favor if clerks of neighboring municipalities would send us a post card giving the result of the nominations on Monday next.

On Friday next the directors of the Unionville fair will meet at Forth's hotel for the transaction of general business and to arrange for the annual meeting.

Divine service will be held in Christ Church to-morrow, (Christmas day) at 7 o'clock, p. m. All seats free. Strangers welcome. The offertory for the rector.

Mr. C. Powell, who has been attending Brockville Business College, returned home last week with a diploma from that institution. He purposes returning for a course in stenography.

The windows of the Athens merchants present a holiday aspect, and from the samples therein displayed we think buyers will have little difficulty in finding what they require for Christmas cheer.

The windows of the REPORTER office have been frosted and illuminated by the artistic touch of Mr. P. Bristow's brush. Knights of the Ink Keg "at gaze" and "compant" appear on each window.

A correspondent to the Herald suggests that the name Carleton Place be changed to Cleronta, on the occasion of its becoming a town on January 1, next. The name is made up of the letters in Carleton.

Two nights performance was amply sufficient to convince the Edmonds' troupe that this town did not appreciate their talent, and they, so-to-speak, "folded their tents like the Arabs and as silently stole away."

There is nothing small about the Christmas number of the Aroprior Chronicle. It contains sixty pages, and is neatly printed on tonsil paper. The adv'ts are artistically displayed and the whole work is highly creditable to the publisher.

As a hint to doctors, clergymen and parents generally, we inform the public that Inspector Crewe is engaged in prosecuting several parties in Belleville for non-compliance with the births, marriages and deaths registration law.

T. Baker & Bro. will on the 1st of January 1890 open a first-class photograph gallery in Newboro. People wishing to have work done will find it to their advantage to give us a call. Pictures copied and enlarged and finished in any style.

The person that recently took the goods from my millinery room is well known. I have refrained from prosecuting and will not do so if I receive the money or goods through the post-office.—MRS. MOTT.

Rooms to Let

The undersigned can furnish rooms during the coming high school term, to a couple of young ladies who wish to board themselves. Central locality and good warm rooms. Apply over post office to MISS ADDA HANNA.

Nominations for reeve and four councillors for the village of Athens will be held in the council chamber in the town hall on Monday next, commencing at 12 noon. In the town hall (up-stairs), at the same time, the nominations for Rear Yonge and Escott will be held.

Arrangements have been made with Mr. Carson, manager of the skating rink, whereby pupils of the high and model schools can skate on the rink between the hours of four and six. This privilege will cost each pupil but a small fee for the season. Those who wish to avail themselves of this privilege during the holidays should give their signatures to Master Arthur Fisher.

The last two weeks we have enclosed bills to our subscribers in several localities, and feel highly elated over the response. Out of several hundred dollars we have received to date five or six dollars, hardly enough to pay for the blank bill heads. If it is necessary in business to spend 75 cents out of every dollar to collect it, then the REPORTER proposes to go out of that kind of a trade. A country paper at one dollar per year is no snap for the publisher, and unless paid promptly by the subscriber, the man who tries to run the paper gets left. We can fill the columns with wind, dear friends, and can warm our hands at the neighbor's fire, but printers and wholesale men cannot be paid with anything but cold cash.

Town Meeting.

A meeting of the voters of the village of Athens will be held in the town hall on Thursday evening next, 26th inst. at 8 o'clock, for the purpose of selecting fit and proper persons to be nominated on Monday following to fill the offices of reeve and four councillors for the village for 1890. All are invited. By request—J. P. LAMB.

Farewelled.

At the close of the Morrisburg model school, the principal, Mr. Alex. Wherry, formerly of Athens, was presented with a farewell address and a purse by the model students and the assistant teachers. The address recited Mr. Wherry's many virtues as a teacher and a citizen of the town and concluded with an expression of deep regret at parting from him and a hope for his future success.

On Thursday, 26th inst., nominations for a school trustee for the village of Athens will be held in the model school. A member retiring, a new one will have to be nominated, though his term of office will end in January, when the incorporation of the village will render it necessary for all the members of the public school board to resign and a new board will have to be nominated and elected.

In reporting an entertainment given by the students of the Brockville Business College, the Recorder says:—"Then followed the presentation of a diploma to Mr. W. C. Earl, of Athens, an old student of last year, who has this week finished his examination. Mr. Earl has been a very popular student, and when, after a few complimentary remarks, the principal of the college presented him with his diploma, the boys gave him a regular ovation."

The vestry of the Presbyterian church was comfortably filled on Thursday evening last the occassion being a pink social for the benefit of the Sunday school scholars. Rev. Mr. Flemming performed the duties of chairman, announcing the different numbers. The entertainment consisted of recitations, singing, &c., by the children. Refreshments were served during the evening, and taken altogether a very pleasant evening was spent.

A woman whose features were hidden by a long veil considerably mystified several of our up-town residents on Saturday evening. The clues as to her identity furnished by her visit to one of the hotels were simply these: she was possessed of a sister Mary and of a desire to vocalize for "change." It was declared to be too late for her to sing and she departed as strangely as she came and all enquires made with a view to learning her name or residence proved unavailing. She will be known in local history only as "The Woman in White."

Township Candidates.

The free and independent electors of the township of Rear Yonge and Escott met at the Wiltsetown school house on Saturday evening last to decide upon their line of action regarding the coming municipal elections. The meeting was strictly non-political in its complexion and the utmost harmony and good feeling prevailed. Torrance C. Brown was chosen chairman and Thos. Moulton secretary. The meeting passed a resolution pledging itself to support the nominees of the meeting, when the following ticket was dicided upon:

Reeve, Jas. B. Saunders; and for Councillors, Chas. Johnson, Thos. Moulton, Geo. P. Wight, and Seabury Scovil. One or two other nominations were made but the parties declined.

An Acknowledgement.

The old-time Methodist ministers often look back over the many hardships they endured during their itineracy, when this country was but thinly settled and the means of locomotion far different from what it is at present. Occasionally a gleam of sun-shine shone athwart their pathway during their journeyings up and down the land. The Rev. L. A. Betts, gave us an item the other day, which illustrates the pleasant side of the picture. In 1863 he formed the acquaintance of Stephen Seaman, of Chantry, and since that time he has been the recipient of many little acts of kindness, as he never visited his place without receiving a $5.00 bill, or more often twice that amount in household necessities. A few weeks ago a fine chenille shawl was sent to Mrs. Betts by Mr. Seaman as a Christmas present. This last token of affectionate remembrance is highly prized, and Mr. and Mrs. Betts feel that they would be wanting in due appreciation did they not publicly acknowledge their sense of gratitude for the many acts of kindness bestowed upon them by Mr. Seaman.

Statements and note heads $1.75 per thousand at the REPORTER office.

THE B. & W. MARKET TRAIN.

Early last week the back country was placarded with the announcement that on Saturday last, the 21st inst., the Brockville and Westport Railway would carry passengers to Brockville and return for one half fare, and carry all kinds of market truck free, while the town authorities would provide free cartage to and from the train for all goods or merchandise going or coming into town. The Recorder says in Saturday's issue that there were about 200 passengers on the train and 4 cart loads of produce. The Times puts the number of passengers at 150, but says nothing about the loads of truck for the market. The passenger coach on the B. & W. will seat 50 and there were not more than 15 persons in the 2nd class car when the train left here. Regarding market truck there was one small package (probably 10 lbs.) of butter taken on here, and that by a lady who obtained the lot from her daughter for home consumption. About one fourth of the passengers on that train were from this vicinity and 75 would be a good round figure to place the number of passengers at. There was only one lady from Athens who availed herself of the opportunity of half fare and free transportation of goods and from the size of the parcel and the quality of the goods she brought home the total value would not exceed five dollars. The people of the country are not to be beguiled with any claptrap by the Brockville papers that they can save such an awful lot of money by paying even half fare to Brockville to purchase their goods. The merchants of the villages along the line of railway are selling goods at figures that will keep the trade at home, despite all the frantic efforts of the Brockville papers to the contrary.

A moment of your time, reader, may perhaps be profitably devoted to the following:—Those who take an agency for a reliable enterprising house, learn their business and stick to it, "get on" in the world. People who have any idea of engaging in any canvassing business will do well to write George Stinson & Co., Portland, Maine—the great art and general publishers. They offer the most exceptional advantages to those who are sufficiently enterprising to be willing to make a push in order to better their condition. It costs nothing to try. Women make successful canvassers, as well as men. Full particulars will be sent to those who address the firm; their full address is given above.
