COUNTY NEWS.
INTERESTING LETTERS FROM OUR STAFF OF CORRESPONDENTS.

MONDAY, JAN. 20.—Mrs. P. Frank Clow died yesterday morning after a lengthy illness.
Miss Addie Booth, daughter of Mrs. Norman Booth, is reported as being very low at her sister's, Montreal, where they are spending the winter.

SATURDAY, JAN. 25.—Everyone is jubilant over our alighting. The grip has nearly disappeared from this section.
We regret to chronicle the death on the 21st of Miss Rebecca Slack, daughter of Warren Slack.
S. T. Barr has returned, like the prodigal, and is again running a blacksmith shop here. He is doing a rushing trade right from the start. They say that since his sojourn in Athens he can fix a horse's foot about right.

THURSDAY, JAN. 25.—At a mass meeting held last Wednesday night a majority were in favor of building a new Methodist church. A committee was appointed to wait on the congregation to solicit subscriptions. If there is a sufficient amount raised, material will be got on the spot at once and the building commenced immediately.
A great many are sick with grippé. H. C. Chisholm has gone to Peterboro where he is employed by the Singer Co.

THURSDAY, JAN. 25.—Miss R. Slack, daughter of Warren Slack, died on the 20th day of Jan. and was buried on the 23rd. The funeral services were held at the home and her remains were placed in the vault at Elgin.

MONDAY, JAN. 27.—On Wednesday last, the messenger of death spread its wings over this locality, and gathered in two of its old inhabitants in the persons of Mr. Allen Preston and Mrs. Bennett. Mr. Preston, as a devout member of the Methodist denomination, Mrs. Bennett, who had been a resident of New York for two or three years, was formerly a resident of Singleton's Corner.

his very heavy attack of pleura pneumonia. Numerous parties drive to Phillipsville to hear the revivalist. If everything is favorable, say we go up some night this week!

CORRESPONDENCE.
The Recent Revival.
Editor Athens Advertiser.
Dear Sir,—I believe true Christianity should be held up to the public and talked about as much or more than any other thing, as it is the most important part of our lives or should be. We are commended by God's word first to seek the kingdom of God and His righteousness and all other things for our good will be added.
I have watched some time expecting that some report of the revival services held in the Methodist church by the Rev. K. C. Horner would appear in the Advertiser and give you readers the good news of a free and full salvation that many of the people of this place have sought and found to the joy of their souls. The meeting commenced the first day of December and Mr. Horner closed his services on the 26th. Since that time to the present, thank God, the spirit of revival has been marching on and increasing in power and its influence is felt all over the circuit. The work is genuine and there is a soul in it and a saving power that reaches all classes, young and old. Mr. Horner's plain practical preaching has done much good. He sold the people in plain English that sin is sin and also told them that Christ was a mighty Saviour that could save to the uttermost.
Mr. Wilson, our minister, is doing all he can to encourage the work by getting all classes to work holding cottage prayer meetings from house to house. This is a step in the right direction. A working christian is a happy christian and a happy christian is a working christian. One thing is very cheering in this revival meeting that must convince the people that it is genuine. We find say from 20 to 30 that have used tobacco for 20 years are willing to give it up and say that they have no desire for it now; several others that were willing to go to their neighbors and make wrongs right between them. This is the christianity that the world wants as ordered, part being left at the Giles' cottage and the rest at a friend's cottage for them. The defendant put in an affidavit for some of his friends, work and use of animal. Plaintiff repudiated all responsibility for goods ordered, but gave judgment for work in return, and claimed the benefit of the statute of limitation in the case of part of claim for use of animal. Taken altogether it was a contradictory mass of evidence, and considerable relief was experienced by the audience who had been given judgment for plaintiff for $1.00 and costs.
