A Philadelphia despatch says : One of those fierce freshmen-sophomore contests which mark and disgrace student life at nearly all the colleges took place yesterday at the University of Pennsylvania. It was the annual bowl fight, and Freshman Harry Eugene Hayward, of this city, was chosen " Bowl man." The " Sops" got out a large wooden bowl, built at the Navy ward for the occasion, and then getting Hayward, fought over him for a half hour, almost getting him into their bowl. His classmates finally rescued him. Hayward was more dead than alive, black in the face, and covered wish bruises from the terrible drubbing, wrenching, and trampling under foot he received. Then the freshmen returned and tried to capture the bowl and Football player Beaumont succeeded in tured to-day on the Spanish frontier. knocking down a half score of opponents
