Way in the country—where They a let but woods and pigs and cous, An' all's outdoors and alg. An orotard swing and observy trees, An' churries in 'om i Yee, an' though Here red-head birds steal all they please, an' to ch 'um of you darn! We et out on time when we wun there, Wi e where the cellar foor was show

The table was ; an' I Let musty get by me an' out My wittles op, au' pie.
The r d heads in the churry tree In' hee hims where you get to be An' bee hives, where you got to be Bo ke rfu! goin' by—An' escop'oy there an' all, an' we—
We et out on the parch

2m' I lat at p'survet and things "At ma don't low me to an' enionen granges (don't like wings Like Parants (bes, do you ?) An' all the time the wind blowed there An' I could feel it in my hair, An lot amail clover ares where I Puri' nigh wite over my high chair,

When we et out on the porch ! - James Whitcomb Riley Opp-vided, Somerville Journal : " I love you, dear !" he solkly anid. "I know it." she replied.

"Your alightest wish is law to me!"
She choiled with conscious pride. "Hoe, darling, at your feet I kneel?"
"Is e," said she. "That's right"—

" Surely such love must touch your heart ? "Oh, yes, it's touching-quite!" "I worship you!" he murmured low,
"Oh, I know that," the said "You are my queen, my life, my all!" She tossed her dainty head. and so the love-sick fool went on, Woolng a maid of stone. Why don't young men have sense enough To let such girl . alone ?

-Boston Courter:

The annual Lenten days have come, The meckest of the year; The dress soit and the decollete gether disappear; The "light fantastic toe" retire: To rest in a ippered sase, and, in that same low melody, say :

and fare thee well."

"Thanks, Signor Anthony, Good-bye, father and of the beautiful model who,

CHAPTER XIV.

REMEMBER BOPPARD.

The night was black. The starless heavens

Whether Leonora was true or false in what I entered the hotel where that great much more I should enjoy a quiet dinner

The modern bells to pleasa. The maiden and the cavalist Do practice self-deniel, and emphasize their faith spon

And novelettes are taken up

knew that she must be-but I loved her as try and convince you." the beautiful morning, while I had never | fisrcely and the words came hissing from | slowly wandered away into eternity to give | to that county. shought of Lacoura as anything but the | between her glistening teeth. perfect night. She was to me the night | "You are a blind, blind fool! For two | I drank a glass of the strongest wine and Farmers' institute, for the abolition of which gives a subtle charm to everything; years have I drained the treasury of love and calm to the weary wanderer; but have fatied, only to stand here calmly and never a ray of welcome sunlight; never | tell you that I find some fault in you! imparting warmth; never lifting the soul's With my very life have I rot sought to bestowing happiness but not joy; bringing | and felt that for it all I was only pleasing relief but not satisfaction; hiding life's you, and have I not wondered? Now, at ungainly outlines in the silver shadows and last, when I see the scores of it all and the half lights of reflection, but never bring- | know that I have lost, shall I not suffer ? ing out tile's grandest, noblest charms as Is it balm? Is it in a moment of compassion that you offer me as a consolation in the glory of the perfect day. The beautiful night it was for the an opportunity to find some fault in you? bed morning which I waited as What woman's heart has ever taught you anxiously that night, at the opera, as ever | that ? What woman has ever saw a fault in the longiest hour in my studio; though in him at whose feet she drew life, love, it may seem impossible to one who, with truth, honor, everything, to do with what the cold distrust and disapprobation of as he would? No, no, Signor Anthony, self-supporting, heartless, frigid, moral If there had been a fault to find I should dignity tooks down upon my weak deference have found it long ago, when I let you to those promptings which I eagerly think that I was poor; when I shamed allowed to lead me when I might better | myself to be a model in the opportunity it | in execrable dialect observed that Mile. have controlled them by such a disposition | gave me to be near to you If I had seen | Steinberg did not remember Boppard and as that with which my critic may be a fault in you, the time to own it was

Pity me instead, O stronger, more re- you, when I said I had been as bad as the rooks of retribution towards which I have ever kissed me; your hand, no other, was blindly steering, and, having seen and | has ever fondled me. Is was of my own suffered. I oringe now from your condem- choosing and my own doing. And why, oh, and took all my bearings in the deceptive again. You had been thinking of your her upon the Rhine.

Thus I sat, without philosophy or theory with her child, had followed him into in unalloyed appreciation of that lovely Germany, when he left her here because vision. Never had so many admiring she was not true to him. You had been eyes been turned upon Leonara. __ver soying of me : 'She is only a model. If I the Fiorence creation jealously envised me | when I am sired of her I cannot get rid of | shall kneel at mine the next time." But feet grace and symmetry, I enjoyed their for time to think, to look at your painting note which I wrote in the simplest of Ger. portfolio.

The curtain rose. The opera began. And that I, too, am as black as night. I will old sentiments that was speaking to Mina. I still sat in the dreamy clysium without even dare to say that I have sinued and It said once turning my eyes from Leonora. She have no more any heart to love, for it will " MY MYNA: was looking at the stage, but that did not frighten away his fears, and after that, by matter; when she turned her face toward | gentleness and constancy, perhaps, I can | you are angry. I am sorry and shink that | members in either house. me I knew that she would smile again, and gain his heart.' My very life stood still I do not deserve it. Let me come to you, happier than I had ever seen her before. A you did not believe them. No, I knew that Let ms come. ptorm of applause soon silenced the music in your heart you would not, and had you | Before an hour had passed an answer and I knew that the prime doung was upon -I do not know-had you taken me for | was returned by the same bearer, written the stage; but I did not turn from Leo | that, by the God that bends above us, Sig | in faultless French, not by Mina to Carlo, opera or prima donna? They were but other way, I believe that for you I could M Authory Winthrop. It said;

the cresus of the applauce. The shouts of | thank you. I have no fault to find. The the autience rang loud and long in such fisken haired sunshine of the North is in uprostious ovation that, wondering, at last, your heart. The evening star abandons how any women inferior to Leonora could | the struggle to give light. But take heed, be granted and receive such a demonstrag | Signor Anthony ! While there throbs in tion, I carelessly surned toward the stage. | this breast a woman's heart, a Florentine's The frantic throog, the dazzling stage, pride and an Italian's passian, where Leothe bewildering array receded and grew | nora has set her love and lost, no other eyes, as she stood there, were fixed directly A thorny path be yours to see your sunrise! your honor and manliness, I remain, dim from about the central figure, whose | woman's love shall wear an easy grown. into each other's hear's. I clutched the not on you! May your day dawn in darkupholatered rail before me and gasping for | ness blacker than this night, and the first breath mustered

"Mine! My Mine!"

"This agreer is herrible," I muttered to evening, beautiful star, filling my loneliness Leonore. "Let us go away for a while, till with hight left me her curse-and disthe frantic fiends are cobered down." A strange smile glistened about her eyes but did not touch her lips as she shook ber head. " I am ill. " said. " I must go."

"Wait a little, Signor," she replied. threatened a winter storm as I welked "The singing of the prime donne may down the hill and through the Roman Gate. make you well again." "I will not wait," I said angrily, feeling | she said, it was thoroughly Italian, at least, the cold perspiration gathering upon my | and she was quite correct in her ossertion forehead, "Come. I am going now."

that I was a blind, blind fool. Whether Leonora lifted her fan till is hid her face | she was true or false, her anger was sincere, from the rest, and from behind it, lough | and the curse of an Italian woman is not a ing till her teeth flashed like the stars at pleasant thing to bear. Physically I was not more afraid of her than I was of the "When the morning dawns the wight Lorelei; but with a shudder I remembered must vanish. Till the morning, Bignor, her words and repeated the last of them ; you are mine. I very much admire this "The first time and the last when you look baired prima donna. I am very porry, lifeless brenes!" Signor, but, place you, we will remain." She tossed me from the tipe of her prime donna, Mile. Wilhelmine von Steiner fon with berg was to reside while in Florence, wonas into rap dering how I could have read and spoken turous contemplation c :e new opera. I shat name so often during the past month a little rippling lau. had chosen my way and walked in it, and not have known that it meant my For the first time in my h a I was under Mina, Lody of our Castle Steinberg. the hand of authority, and I sat shivering | Standing in the corridor I easily discovered as each clear note pierced me, listening but | that she was being entertained at a great not again looking either at Leonors or at banquet given by the wealthy Germone of

When the curtain fell upon the last act | before I had been invited to join in this | Leonora touched me lightly on the arm, welcome and had declined, thinking how you been eleeping. Signor Au. at the onfe with Leonore, after the opera. thony? Is one a grand opera, but you are | Wish a promisonous throng I wasted in still the power of helping you; but the stor the gay company at the banques, where the fading over the distant hill before the the door was opened. Mina was founding glory of the eastern lighting. The night while I stood with the dogs to couch the will coon be forgotten, Bignor, and you will orambe that fell from the mester's table. I had followed them. At last I saw and York county; and that the control of monry, and just once more look, as you at | could not look into her eyes. At last, how. | where they had led me, and I knew that it | jails be not taken from the counties. ways have, upon your little star. It is I, mos you, who should be paling now in the morning gleaming. You will not look at rose. She would turn in a moment. She cisely what she says, and what she says boy he had made an unusually strong man Signor Authory can always understand." of ms. Intellectually from a stupid charity scholar, studying the alphabet in Boppard, is is his own heart, not this little tongue of Leonora's that maddens him. How often has he teld me that it southed his sadness i nothing he had made me what the world, her he teld me that it southed his sadness i

Why should be call it mandening now that, one identified morning, it tells him of the brautiful Samen-baired morning, only waiting to dispers for him there gloomy shadows of the night.

If o, no. We will not go to the cafe. I call in the mirror, I asked:

The world, from my father desired a leader. The fabric of my father desired was a smarter of manue. From minerally, worthless rag? Looking as my-bring in the mirror, I asked:

On more facility to ask it. wos foolish to ask it. It was not a supper I "Of what were you afraid?"

wished. I only dreamed of looking just to listle longer into your face, Signor, but it is hisden from the already. I could not see her curse.

it even if we were there. Yee, take me to my home at once. It may be that I can fall saleep there and, perhaps, forget it."

"Forget what?" I said savagely. "Dayou mean that I have wronged you, Siguor mean that I have wronged you, Siguor and always and the sale of the well, bare still remember how kind, and how ever and always kind Signor Anthony has been to me. I would only pray that you forget, forget that ever Leonors spoke

I was afraid of Mina. In the afternoon, however, I made another attempt to see her. I entered the Grand Hotel like a coward. Timidly I sent my card to the you mean that I have wronged you, Siguor another the wronged you, Siguor mean that I have is even if we were there. You, take me to I was afraid of Mina. In the afternoon, tend their line-hig. Boxter.

Wretch! Fool! Fiend! What was I at my feet. I had sat at the feect of Beinot? Mutely I obeyed. We reach the shazar and been on honored guest in the picturesque villa, where I first heard her chambers of Mordeoni. In the salons of he asked the Attorney-General to postpone sing. I stood by the vine covered baloony, the Phariteen or the halls of the Gentiles I where I had pleaded for friendship which | had ever been welcomed; holding slike the | Assorney General agreed. she had granted with such lavish genero.

She had granted with such lavish granted with such Leonora had none. Mins might have wrong I will soknowledge it and make it this I must wait patiently for hours. spectors. been far inferior in beauty - indeed, I right, if it be possible. If I am right I will Time stood still. Each tick of the great Mr. Wood Hastings) - From the Council threw myself upon the wicker divan where | market fees.

was ringing still : "Ich glaube die Wellen verschlingen Am Bnde -chiffer and Kahn; Und das hat mit inrem Singen Die Lorelei gethau." The clock was striking nine, and, springing from the divan. I wrote upon a card the old name, Carlo, and beneath it : " Romem. ber Boppard," and hurried to the Opera

For half an hour -I was kept waiting after I had sent the card, but I had not the courage to rebel. Then it was returned to me, without an intervening salver, by an insolent fellow who leered and smiled and before I stained my soul with the lie I told

CHAPTER XV.

Through the night the rebellion in my heart was constantly muttering: "I have of the suprise. I found that it was changed | man, just as we had always spoken together, The orchestra finished the overture. to night and I thought; 'I will tell him for it was my boy's heart with all the same

"You have not forgotten Boppard, but nors, for what did I care for the orchestra, nor Anthony, could I have won you in no but by Mile. Withelmins von Steinberg to who was the star of the evening. The fees it. You have rejected me. You have have watched your progress year by year meteor upon the stage would flash and in spurned me. You have bidden me catch a flame expire and be forgotten. A'cyone, this last moment for sweet revenge to find with interest and pride, and have seen you able. Why should I surn from her to that you that, when you might have made of me for no other, I could not lend myself to which was inferior?

It was some time before I even realized your way, Bignor Anthony, I have only to the strength of the application. would have no cause to blush for my old play fellow. Owing, as I do, all that I am or ever can be to the generous support of your father, I feel that I am doing as he would have me in refusing to see you or to write to you again. When he returns to time and the last when you look into the to the generous support of my father," I torney General says the hon. gentleman eyes you love may it be across this lifeless | muttered, and my thoughts carried me | would be able to give valuable advice with prime donno. Then, with a shudder, I A night wind swept over me. It chilled snee and I heard him saying to me: position does he place the hon, gentleman broke the spell and shrank behind the our. my forehead and was gone. The fragrance while you are perfecting yourself in art in? Of the revenues one third come from Now the first faction fight in ould Ireland, they tain away and yet not away from the eyes of a flower was in the air; it charmed my to please her, she will be perfecting herself the timber. The hon. gentleman or his ser ses and was gone. Leonora, star of the in other things to please you. You are firm has large transactions with the Pro-

proficient in many things to be worthy of a | Without reflecting on the hon, member for What had be not done for me? He knew | was a bad one, and it ought not to destroy for me the fescinations of the elections. world, that there might nothing come be- | Hon. Mr. Mowat I believe that is true. tween my beart and Mina. The while he Mr. Clarke replied that the Attorneyhad been siving the same opportunities to General might have ascertained that it was Than they all got blind dhrunk-which con Mins, to perfect he wished as a woman, which not true had be wished to know about the be had given to meet on a man. When he matter. In conclusion of his speech he discovered that the last and strongest asked the hon. Treasurer when the public new opera and most of all this figuren- into the eyes you love, may it be across this temptation had stolen through the studio accounts would be brought down. door, how pungent was his gentle admoni- Hon. Mr. Harcourt replied that he could tion: "The one you have would make a not set a day, but that it would be early. remarkably beautiful night, while Mina's | The following patitions were presented face is wonderfully expressive of the truth, the light and the becaty of the morning." What had Mina done in appreciation of those opportunities? What had I done?

Florence, and I remembered that a month | whom the offer or cometh." If there remained anything more in the | 5,748; mayflower Assembly and District power of a mortal to perform for me, my A sembly No. 2,622, praying for legislation in its clear and explicit warning; in its purposes, for examination and licensing guaranty of untrammeled indep very pole. Ob, I would that Leonors had the corridor to catch occasional glimpose of His work was done and he went away from against defective scaffolding. Florence, leaving me unrestrained, to follow that which, cooner or later, would of Kent, for an extension of the Torrens mos you, who alould be pating now in the mooning glearning. Not will not look at me, Signor. Then, I pray you, give me as a listic farewell supper at the Cafe Royal, for I have tried very hard to be good to algo, "No, no. Not to night," I ground, "Signorine, did I not my that I was all?" "Will not the morning be soon among, the through the throught the throught the through the throught the through the throught the throught the throught the throught the through the throught the

The Speaker took the chair of 8 o'clock. The following petitions were precented : From William B. C. Barolay, of Arnne to William Barolay Craig-Mr.

From the Town Council of Cornwall, praying for an Acc to consolidate the dabt.

—Mr. Mock. From the Fort Eric Ferry Railway Company, proying that an Act may pass to legalize certain bonds and for power to 42.

beg you on my knees, Signor, to hurry with about his lips.

The day before there was not a mortal in Mr. Meredith said it was usual for the not speak to me again. I would rather re- Florence who would have dared to lough at Government to make an explanation of member the old voice than hear the new. me. I and done as I would, in reckless Cabinet changes, but as the member for Only take me in silence to my home." independence, only to find Florence always Ottawa (Mr. Bronson) was not present and the Rhine, when to mine I owed every protection from the jears of the world; for now that Mine had come to Fiorence, even now the fiorence is the Mine had come to Fiorence now that Mine had come to Fiorence now the fiorence now Beyond the confines of the walls which she was breathing and her her after the walls which a grown to the walls which a grown the walls which a grown to the walls which a grown the walls which a grown to the walls which a grown the wall which a grown the walls which syes, I could, at least, be colmer, and in justice to Leonora I could for get for a moment the tumult of doubts and fears which had possessed me. And thus, I had foresten for the moment that the formal control of the formal control of the first to introduce Christianity into that answering them, because they involve a character of the first to introduce Christianity into that answering them, because they involve a character of the first to introduce Christianity into that answering them, because they involve a character of the first to introduce Christianity into that answering them, because they involve a character of the first to introduce Christianity into that answering them, because they involve a character of the first to introduce Christianity into that answering them, because they involve a character of the first to introduce Christianity into that answering them, because they involve a character of the could first to introduce Christianity into that answering them, because they involve a character of the first to introduce Christianity into that answering them, because they involve a character of the first to introduce Christianity into that answering them, because they involve a character of the first to introduce Christianity into that answering them, because they involve a character of the first to introduce Christianity into that answering them, because they involve a character of the first to introduce Christianity into that a character of the could first to introduce Christianity into that answering them, because they involve a character of the could first to introduce Christianity into that a character of the ch Time's ever-changing diel:

The man die do not understand me to Dight and I do not understand me to Dight and I do not understand you. You

Dight and I do not understand me to Dight and I do not understand you. You

Dight and I do not understand me to Dight and I do not understand you. You

Dight and I do not understand me to Di not again; for I will not let you go till you of the hotel again, but I would go to the may regulate the erection and construc-Mins might have had many faults; tell me what fault you find in me. If I am Opera House in the evening, though to do tion of scaffolds and appointment of inclock seemed to pause upon the threshold, of the county of Hastings, for the exten- de Vere tells of the conversion of King I always loved her. I thought of her as of Cintching my hand she turned upon me turn, look back and grin at me before it sion of the Torrens system of land transfer Laughaire; place to the next. In feverish excitement | Mr. Smith-From Frontenso County refreshing the tired watcher; bringing rest to win you and to night discovered that I the models posed. Then time moved on The Attorney General in the absence of again and I awoke wish a cry, as my boat | Hon. Mr. Ross, presented a bill to consoligrashed into the rocks and the water covered | date and revise the laws respecting the me, and, looking up above me, on the cliff | Education Department; also a bill to amend desires like the mists out of the velleys; gratify each wish which you expressed, I saw a phantom grinning, and in my ears and consolidate the Public Schools Act; And the kingdom built by the King of kings. also a bili to consolidate and revise the High Schools Act. These bills were read the first time.

The Astorney General presented also the ollowing bills, which were read the first To regulate the charters of Loan Com-To increase the efficiency of the local courts of the county of York.

To further amend the laws respecting the solemnization of marriage. Mr. Meredith presented a bill to amend the Ogtario Controverted Elections Act, which was read the first time.

The Astorney General on motion to adourn made a brief statement respecting the Cabines changes made since last session. What a man of courage, conscience, and | He said : Three appointments were made, honorable promptings would have done at two of them being changes in the composit solute and accomplished pilot of this life's bad could be in Rome; for I had never such a time I did not stop to consider, and tion of the Government and the third an uncertain sea, for in due season I reached | been from Fiorence. No, your lips alone I did not care. I surned sharply upon the additional appointment. The hon. memfellow, knocked him down, and quietly | ber for Ottawn is now a member of the walked away. So far as I felt any senti. Government without portfolio. We were ment concerning the act it was one of satis- anxious to have his assistance, but his nation and humbly ask for charity. Re- why should I turn to find some fault in you? faction. Mina would hear of it and then, private business makes it impossible for member I had not your chart to guide me; The momens when I entered your studio, at least, she would know that she had not him to accept a portfolio. He is one of I had not your sun to shine above me. I to come back to you, I saw that you were to deal with the yielding little Carlo whom the ablest business men in the Dominion should have known it and made my calcul. afraid of me. You had changed since in should have known it and belongs to the eastern part of the Proations accordingly, but I did not know it the night you asked me to come to you whom she had so easily driven away from vince, and is familiar with the interests, feelings and wishes of that section. The Government felt that it would be advisable to get his assistance, especially during the session of Parliament, and at other times when he is able to come. It is quite in accordance with the constitution and with had so many of the grander lords of dere to love her she will be false to me, and knelt for the last time at Mina's feet. She the British practice in this country to have members of the Cabines without portfolio the smiles of that beautiful woman, and hev. Mo, no. I will not love her.' I saw the morning found me kneeling again. At this moment Mr. Bmith and Mr. Abbott with the pride of art in that which is per- is I fals is, Signor Anthony, and I turned, This sime it was through the medium of a in the Dominion Government are without

Mr. Meredish-Benators. Mr. Mowat -- At present there are members of Cabinets without portfolio in Quebec, Nova Scosia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island, and in Britain it has been a common thing to have such

Mr. Meredish premised his remarks by in every action, every expression, she was | while I was saying those words to you, but | Mine, if only for the sake of those old days. | saying that he meant no personal reflection on the gentleman to whom he would refer. He said My hon. friend, contrary to the principles laid down by his predecessors, is content to maintain his Cabinet of lawyers, for, except the ornamental Minister who has just been added in the person of the opera or prima donna? They were dut of the day of the day of the cabinet way. See! I conthe satelites of an hour. It was Leonora have been as black as night. See! I conthe satelites of an hour. It was Leonora have been as black as night. See! I conremarks gave some the reasons for bringing a name expire and as forgotten. A cyone, shis last moment for oringing alone gordess of the Pleiades, was immut. some fault in you. I use the time to tell become a great artist. For that reason, if the member for Ottawa into the Cabinet, there was one more potent than all, I think -that is would help to carry the Ostawa district at the last election. The Attorney-General-He was no appointed until after the election.

Mr. Meredith -- But there was a pretty good understanding. On public grounds, however, the appointment was an objectionable one. The provisions of the statute wisely explade from membership in this That "ain; Patrick at midnight he first saw th lorence, if he bids me see you I shall obey. House anybody holding a contract or office Till then, rejoicing in your success, praying of emclament under the Government. The reason is that rightly or wrongly men must | And twas all a mistake between midnight ar be influenced by considerations of that kind. The hon, gentleman has a timber license under the Government. The Atback to the day when we arrived in Flor- regard to the lumber interest. What wishing her to be proud of you. She will | vince. The hon, gentleman may easily be wishingiyou to be proud of her. There find himself where his interest as a lumberare other things besides art in which you man would point in one direction, his duty | At last, both the factions so positive grew.

Ostawa, the principle of his appointment continually of Mina. He understood the Mr. H. E. Clarke said he had been surenfrit of rabellion so easily provoked by | prized to see a statement made by the hon. | Don't be always dividin'-but sometimes ec opposition; and the spirit of opposition so Attorney General on a platform in the city quickly aroused by intervention. He had | thee his Government had received a major-

Mr. Conmee-Against the Port Arthu & Fort William Electric Street Railway. Mr. Harcourt-From the Synod of Niagara, in regard to certain trust funds I understood now what my father meant | and certain conveniences of conveyance. by the last sentence he had spoken to me Mr. E. F. Clarke-From George Stephen before he went away : " Woe so the world | son Assembly No. 9.00 5, K. of L ; District because of offences, and woo unto him by Assembly 125 K. of L. : Local Union, No. 46. Journeymon Plumbers; L. A. No. father did it in the letter which he left me | in regard to holding of land for speculative adence. of stationary augineers, and for protecti

Mr. Clancy-From the County Council surely lead me, the unconditional inclina- system of land transfer on the same terms as the system was introduced into Toronto

Mr. Magwood asked for an order of the oass of Horsh Perth the judges' report was dated the 19th of December, 1890, and it was received by the clerk on December the 11th, 1990. The new writ was dated two of the wildest radical newspapers in December 30th, 1990, and was signed and England, are defending the Prince of Wales completed on that day. That writ had in the matter of the recent bacoarat been forwarded to the returning officer on scandal.

the Sist December. He supposed this would cover what was means by "the

Mr. Metcalfe moved for a copy commission is read with respect to fish and game protection, and of any instructions accompanying the same or connected therewith.

Mr. Mowat said the papers would he laid pefore the House. The report had not yet Mr. Meredish-Wes this postponed on seconds of the elections? Mr. Ross-We wars fishing at the

Mr. Moredith called whether the report of the Prison Reform Commission would be

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.

St. Patrick's Day (March 17th) s usually celebrated amid a plenisude of mud, but this spring the weather is exceptional, for dubbed "we are gotting the heaviest of our winter in the middle of March. The Irish claim Montaigu. St. Patrick for their pairon saint, but some say that he wee born in Boulogne,

The Irish poets make many references to St. Patrick, some religious, others patriotic and still others comical. Aubrey

They entered the circle; their hymn they ceased; The Druids their eyes bent earthward still: On Patrick's brow the glory increase As a sunrise brightening some broathless hill the warriors eat silent; strange awe they felt The chief bard, Dabtach, rose up and kueit! Then Patrick discoursed of the things to be of the death which is life, and the life which i and how all things were made by the Infant And the small hand the Magian kings adored. his voice sounded on like a throbbing flood hat swells all night from some far-off wood, And when it was ended-that wondrous strain risible myriads breathed low, "Amen." 'hen whispered the King to a chief c ose by, It were better for me to believe than die."

atrick the Apostle, the son of Calphurn, These pagan interments endured no longer ; And Hire he commanded this song to learn, Though ha e is stro g yet love is stronger o the Gaels of Eire be gave a Creed; He bade them to fear not Fate, Demon

Patrick Barefield Cassidy wrote : And you ask the thoughtless question Why I ce ebrate the day? Friend, I celebrate no triumph Woo in battle's bloody fray-Triumph of one king y deep A

Of one faction, class or creed, While a strife-distracted nati p Wept the fratricidal deed! 'Tis not these my memory hallow Friend, it is a sacred cause-'Tis the bringing to a people Christian light and love and laws. Gentle Patrick the Apostle Bore no fiaming battle brand;

These the weapons that he wielded; Ireland bowed to Heaven's away ; Who'd object but brutish bigots If we celebrate his day? Lawrence G. Goulding True as the needle's to the pole, as this dull eart goes round.
And certain as the lightning's flash evokes rumbling sound; The Irish breast, where'er it beats, at home

Patrick's Day. James Murphy Far from the fair Green Island Of the loving heart and and hand, We meet to-day by the rushing spray

With thoughts as deep and fervio As when in early dreams We saw arise in morn ng skies Green Ireland on the streams. John Philpot Curran : When St Patrick this order established, He called us the "Monks of the Beraw Good rules he revealed to our Abbot,

And he said, on the word of a saint, That the fountain should never run dry. It has been seen above that there is doubt as to whether St. Patrick was born o France or Scotland, and whether he was born is the year 872 or one year later. Samuel Lover would have it, in the followtainty regarding the day of the month that too early. If early, then it is too late; if and they treated Mile de Montijo with to have been flected by him by the massage cause we should have learned their lesson,

And who wouldn't see right, sure they b'ackened should perfect yourself, for one should be as member of the Government in the other. That each kept a birthday, so Pat then had two

Combine eight with nine, and seventeen is th simply and successfully endeavored to ity of the votes of the people in the general go let that be his birthday." "Amen,' said the "If he wasn't a fwins, sure our hist'ry will show. | she houses painted. As no applicant will promptly and cheerfully returned. be granted free point if he or she owns a That, at least, he's worth any two saints that we And we keep up the practice from that day

Read This, Young Men.

Bosets are just as healthy in their place as roam beef. Pure candies promote diges. tion. It is all a mistake that they injure the testh; it is not possible for them to do so Is would be a singular thing if sweets were injurious to health, becomes they are in everything we cat in the way of fruits, vegetables and the grain one of which we make our bread. Any injury resulting from the use of sugar, sandy or preserves is caused by their being used too frequently or in too large quantities; but averything we eat and drink is liable to the same objection. If taken before meals or directly after, Both sweets and note are promote of digestion; the observation and the gentleman fifty-nine years of age, instincts of the excilined merid on this point have led to the use of both ht the end of meals. If sweets are taken only at meal time, not between and floats oucess, they will not only agree with the healthy stomach, but tend to make a person fat as

Member of the Legislature, House for a return showing the date of the corriforate of the possificate of the judges appointed to try the absence position in the North Perth alsotter sens.

Mr. Riowas, in reply, stated that in the C. Harour," Hember of State Legislature.

Brig.H Monds. Battor suits more than ever conform to | The prevailing state socialism is filling the regulation man-of war suit and have the larger towns with good things-excel-naval insignia embroidered upon the orlier, lent museums, splendid libraries, free eleeves and shield; these suits are also reading-rooms, parks, botanical gardens, made of washable goods.

yokes below which are tucks.

For boys over 10 the single or double-breasted sack coat, loosely fitting and slightly following the lines of the figure, is emigently suitable; the suits with vests are also work by the property of the suits with vests are also work by the property of the suits with vests are also wide in the room for expansion work. also worn by boys of this age, the coat sion, so perfect the appliances of tram, being the jaunty three-button cutaway.

girl. The Derby is always en regle, and excess of population, but also a social and the imported crush hat which is so easily political dominance which is neither Brit-rolled up and put out of the way. The ish nor American, and for which only a most noticeable feature seems to be the continental parallel can be found. To an hair was sent from China to Europe. dark trimmings of the felt hate, even the outside observer the resulting condition of lightest shades being bound and banded things osoms profitoial and not without For younger boys the two or three piece suite bound with braid and trimmed with days; the materials in vogue are the wide- lation has onabled the artisen class wale diagonals, tricots, cropes, etc. The silk sailor is a novelty for little boys tages, but there is justification and the English walking hat of stiff felt in for the view antertained by many gray and the suede shades. Suede oricketing caps are shown in tan, of permanent prosperity unless a check can brown, blue and black, and a nobby little | be found. The gravest problem before Politeness at Home. A lady furnishes us with a glimpse of her home life by the following questions: masses of unemployed were besieging the Government offices with demands for relief to the sterner s x. We once heard of s allant and heartrending conclusion

While a beautifully dressed dame was pro-wreathed her lips and she was about to say, " It is of no cons-quance at all," when she caught sight of the culpris-her husband. The smile vanished, the gorgeous oun of courtesy slunk behind a bank of of szure hos which means, if properly interpreted, a lingering death by torture on the return home. God help the husband !

our informant murmur d, and hastily

It is the oddest thing in life that a man can behave like a day in June when among strangers and like a Dakota tornado in his own household. If lunching in any other house than his own he swears that the chops are tender, even when he knows that they can't be torn into shreds by a buzz saw. But has there ever been an instance, in which a man did not howl and sheolize were tough? If there is such a case is is not on the glowing pages of the recording angel. On the contrary, that faithful ranging from a few well known words of one syllable to polysyllabic expressions the roof and endanger the salvation of the

The fact that as a general rule men fee at liberty to vent their spleen on those whom they really love best, find it possible to purr in society, and then go home to soratch and yowl, presents a problem so tangled and herrifying that we give it up exasperated a hundred times, but they control both features and speech. The is bottled up, stored under the waistcost,

In commemoration of the one hundredth sail on the Cupard steemship Bothnia.

dog, or does not belong to a temperance organization, it is reasonable to suppose at Dover, the County Seat and Capital of the State. The sheriff is and this is what he says : "I have used your August Flower for several years in my family and for my own use, and found it does me more good than any other remedy.

I have been troubled with what I soupriess, when food seemed to rise up in my throat and mouth. When I take it and recommend it to other as a great remedy for Dyssought solace in a plate of escalloped oysters and ohi ken salad.

We fear, however, that the root of the difficulty is in human nature, that all men are alike in this respect, because they are | hours. all made out of the same raw material. If we had been consulted when the work of creation was going on we should have suggested that every act of impoliteness be followed by an attack of inflammatory rheumatism or gout as a natural and inevitable consequence. If men had been built on that plan one of the greatest | obstacles to domestic bliss might have been removed. We are inclined to think, though, that the sin of which our corresof Him he spoke who reigns from the Cross; pondent complairs is not wholly confined little tragedy which forces us to this unmena ling the drawing room a mysterious sound was heard as of something ripping. It was the shrill screech of torn silk, the loud lamentation of a costly train that was being divorced from the embroidered waist. The lady surned with blanched cheek and heard a pissone voice, lile the wail of a persurbed ghost, crying, "A thousand pardons, madame !" A forced smile, resembling artificial flowers,

But to fast in Lent, and by ho black deed To insult God's Son, and His mother Mary.

O'er another, at the cost Of a hecatemb of haroes, and, perhaps, of freedom lost ! Nor a victory ignoble

In his breast of peace the Gospel, And a shamrock in his hand!

his home when she chops on his own table scribe of events has a list of expletives, strong enough to break the furniture, lift Expands with joy as morning breaks to hail S

In this glorious Western land, anger they dare not show to their clients, To golde us in what we should do; not dissipated in the circomambient air. It But first he replenished our fountain With liquor the best in the say and when their own front door is shut with

On the eighth day of March it was, some people down on a pin. While others declare 'twee the ninth he Formistakes will occur in a hurry and shock, was bad was horrid. Till with all their cross questions sure no or If the child was too fast-or the clock was as we do soward utter strangers we could out down the salaries of our preachers, be-

Was all on account of St. Patrick's birthday. Some fought for the eighth-for the ninth more

Till Father Mulcahy, who showed them the Faid " No one could have two birthdays, but such which the system uses. In addition to testimony of the Governor of the State of Maryland, U.S. A., a mem ber of the Maryland Logislature, Hon. Wm. C. Harden testifies as follows: "748 Dolphin St., Batto , Md., U. S. A., Jan. 18, '90. Centiemen : I met with a severe cooldens by falling down the back stairs of > @ @ GREEN, Sole Manufacturer Woodbury, New Jersey, U. S. A.

AUSTRALIAN CITIES. Suits - Seaside Exciors - Hate for How They Grow and Expand at the Ex-

There are many new ideas in plaited suits; they are made of plain or enecked material, either plaited back and front or with stitched strops from shoulder to waist and a buttoned belt, the web of each side forming pockets; and others have yokes below which are bucks.

Manufact places of interest and act seement.

Those are for the multitude, and the multitude, and the multitude in Australia is unquestionably becoming southern in its taste for excitement and amusements. For the rich are much, the theatre and clubs, as expensive and almost as luxurious as those of Pali Mall or Piccadilly. For the children of A hat is to a boy what a bonnet is to a Thus the cities have acquired not only an grave dongers, but ourionaly interesting, as illustrating new forms of national growth, possibly incidental to extreme democratic soutache are used for Sundays and holi- development. The concentration of poputo secure unequalled present advan-Australiane that it will sap the foundations turban for a wee cion of masculinity is well | Australia is, apparently, how to get a suffi-

You'll fracture your bouce," And "Do not go climbing You'll fall on the stones
And "Do not be whistling.
Tou're not a mere bird,"
And "Good little children dubbed "Our Dot."-Countess Annie de oient agricultural population to stay upon the land. The temper of the country is not favorable to the patient industry of the facm, with its ramote results and slow acoumulation. Within the last few years the carious phenomenon has occasionally And where can a boy be ?"
—Annu Hamilton, in March St. Nicholas presented itself of a serious dearth of labor in country places, while in the towns > works. Sent, sometimes at the Government expense, to the rural districts, the "unemployed" soon drift back to the mingled wants and delights of city life .-

Work a d Wages. Denver has 5,000 anemployed men. Detroit printers want 37 cents per 1,000 New York has a Hebrew Painters' wine; and you know that those who soil Brooklyn woodworkers will demand eight Australia sent $70,000 to the London dock strikers.

The machine threatens to throw hun- flow into the wine, and the wine, which is dreds of stoneoutters out. The Gurle' Shoe Fitters' Union of San Francisco has 300 members. Butte, Mont., claims to be the best organthe wine and water have exchanged places, ized union town for its population. Indianapolis' colored plasterers won 40 cents an hour and the eight bour day. The San Francisco types distributed $825 to strikers in other trades last month. Brocklyn housesmiths want eight hours; $3 for fisters and $10 50 to $12 for helpers. New York painters insist on the enforcement of $3 50 and eight hours on April 6th. Trade union statistics show that $2,000,-000 workers in Germany average $150 a "I agree with you," affably continued year wages. By the efforts of union men $1 50 will be the lowest pay for unskilled men on the World's Fair Work. In Southern Oregon there is a forest 10 000 square miles in extent, and if the | get it." timber were out and put on the market at | 310 per 1,000 feet the proceeds would pay Hamilton man, as uncle paused for breath. ournational debt twice over. The estimated Yes," continued the Boxon, "yor are amount of merchantable timber on the entitled to compensation, and as time is black clouds, and a look shot from the eyes | tract is 400,000,000,000 feet.

Snowing on the Straw Stack. " The Khan" in the Toronto Telegram . Zesterday a prisoner in Toronto jail looked up through the barred window of his cell and saw the white snow flaking softly down. It made him home sick, for he sound asleep in front of the tool house, passes over the roller below it is claimed snowing on the pigs lifting the wet straw | that this simple treasurent entirely rewith their handy and skilful snoats, snow- moves the dust ing on the pamp, on the back kitchen and on his poor old mother's grave. A fresh grave with a fresh smell of earth on it, for this is the first snow that ever whitened it. He couldn't go to the funeral because he was in jail. The heart one princely remedy above all others ! that loved him so well ceased to beat, and | Made expressly for women, it is adapted to the sharp agony of shame and grief was her special needs, and fulfills every require her best friend. Yes, the snow that fell on the big jail roof was the same snow that whitened the grave in the country churchyard, and his bursting heart travelled down through the | the " Favorite Prescription " is master of frozen sods and lifted the heavy tid, and | the situation. Positively guaranteed to in despair. During the day they may be lay down and wept beside the dear mother give satisfaction in all cases, or money paid whose tired hands were folded, whose lov. for it returned. The only medicine for ing lips were cold, whose beautiful eyes | women sold on trial / were closed, whose faithful feet would haste because it would affect their business, is to help him never no more,

Ex Empress Eugenie inher recently pub. to Troy from Chateauguay, Que., where he a bang a series of explosions occurs which lished volume of letters tells an interesting | was born in 1841. He was the seventh son knocks dom suc felicity into kindling wood. story of the way in which Napoleon III. of a seventh son, and leaves a seventh son Nothing is right; nothing can be made snubbed the ladies of his court who were after him. For many years the deceased right. If there is a fire on the hearth, it rude to Empress Eugenie when he was woo. had a very large patronage from people must be put out; if there is none, then one | ing her. The ladies were bitterly opposed | afflicted with rheumatism and other dismust be built. The dinner is too late or to the match which they saw on the horizon, eases, and many remarkable ourse are said late, then it is too early. The feathers of | marked coldness and disdain. One day in | treatment. the lord of creation are roffled and he acts | the park of Compagne, within sight of her as though he had stepped on a tack or sat | enemies, the irritated girl complained to the Emperor of the treatment she received There is, of course, no reason in all this. | 55 their hands. He listened calmly and but then we are not governed by reason | smilingly. When she had finished the story We are creatures of moods. We are like of her grisvance he cut off a leafy bough, the old ledy of Florida, who when she was | and twining it in the form of a garland good was very, very good, and when she | p'soed is on Eugenie's head, saying loudly enough to be heard, " While waiting for If we could once persuade curselves to | the other." Heat day the ladies treated | loss it behave towards our dearest ones as politely | Mile de Montijo as their future sovereign. The Witty Irishman, and find our rarest happiness in the home | When told by a doctor that his liver was rather than in the club -New York Herald. | almost gone, said, " Faith, it's glad I am, it's allers bothered me." The liver, more than any other organ, is the index of the body. With a morbid anniversary of the death of John Wesley liver the whole system in out of gear! Most fashions has adopted the accordion plaited there will be a pilgrimage of Methodist powerful for the restoration of this "citade! night dress. It is made of soft silk. clergymen and others in July, to Epworth, of health," is Dr. Pieros's Golden Medical the hirthplace of John and Charles Wesley, Discovery. Its action is direct, prompt, say is gospel. If you do you may become says the New York Tribune. The arrange- | effectual | Recommended by sminont ments are being made by Rev. J. T. Dock | physicians, it has gained a universal repuing of Boston university, and the party will | tation as the " Great Liver Regulator Correct the liver, and you cure many ills ! Mrs. Sabra Carter proposes to donate the The "Golden Medical Discovery," is wartown of Wilmington, Mossachusetts, anted in all cases of liver disease and blood have resolved to confer the degree of

All Right Once More,

Atlanta Constitution : The Billville Banthat she does not intend to have the town | ner, which was closed out by the sheriff three weeks ago, has resumed publication his usual spirits. He says: "We are still doing business at the old stand. We sattled our financial difficulties by promising to marry the sheriff's mother in-law. Please omit flowers."

the following easignments in Ontario Bayavilla-H. McQuarrie, general store, assigned to F. H. Lamb, Hamilton. Freel. Sheriff of Kent Co., Del., and lives | son-John Rose, general store, assigned to

Assignments in Ontario,

The Bradesreet Mercantile Agency report

C. H. Scott, Hamilton, Toronto-Wm. Ashall, jeweller, assigned to E. R. C. Clarkson, Toronto; W. A. Randall, grocery, assigned to T. McDonald, Toronto. Pigmies vs. Gianto. Lilliputian as they are in size (bsinggro larger than mustard scode), they schieve results that their Brobdingnagian opponents utterly fail in. We was so the efficacy of call Sick Headache. A pain comes in the back part of my head first, shat of their gigantic compatitors, the old. and then soon a general headache, ctyla pill. Try the little giants, when dys-

after eating, I pressure after eating appear at once. How is This ?

Philadelphia Times : Nobody has aver I feel this coming on if I take a little August Flower it relieves the church his creditors begin to get nume, and is the best remedy I have say and want to have an expert to exemine ever taken for it. For this reason Hop. Gilbert Molkichtm, who became prominent in the Government's service at the time of the Fenian raids, and after-wards held important positions in Montreal, died suddenly at Winnipeg on Saturday

THA TABLE GOSSIP

OHE OF THE SEVEN WONDERS. Oh he's a really wondrous man, With a really woundrous head, Who really keeps him wondrous still When there's nothing to be said?

A JOYPUL LITTLE PARAPERAGE. The Lurd so loved the world that He Spared not His own dear Son.
But gave thim freely up, that we,
Unworthy and undens,
From Satan, sin a d seif set free,
By faith with Him made one,
Might never perish, but endere Forever glarious, grad and pure.

—By William Murray, Hamilien.

-London has 200,000 factory girls. --- What has become of the short-waistall

-A boy who is made much of frequently amounts to very little. -Labor is restless. In 1890 there were 6,000 strikes in the world.

-Some of the summer birds have come and are heartily sorry for it. -- During 1890 $400,000 worth of human

> Mischlevous Tommy,
> He hears every doy,
> A homily simple > Beginning this way:
> "Now Tommy, you musta's," > And "Tommy, you must";
> And "Tommy, stop funning, > You'll kick up the dust";
> And "Do not so swimming. And "Do not go swimming, > Or you will get wet."
> And "Do not go satting, > Or you will upset";
> And "Do not be wreetling,

Are seen and not heard-Which Tommy on hearing Exclaims, Deary me! What can a boy do.

A WINS-AND-WATER TRICE.

It takes Time as Well as Skill to do it, But it May be Done. The game, or puzzle, or trick, or experiment, or whatever you like to call it, which is given here requires some skill and patience. You take two wine-glasses of the same size; fill one with claret or any other dark wine, and the other with water. But don's do it on the dinner table at all events, not while the table-cloth is on itfor unless you are careful you may spill the St. Paul carpenters want eight hours this | Next you cover the glass of water with a card, and put it upside down on the glass filled with wine, so that the two brims fit xactly on each other. Then you move the card between the glasses just sufficiently to leave a small opening between the -two glasses. The water immediately begins to the lighter of the two fluids, mounts into the glass on the top. It sakes rather a long time-nearly an hour-to complete the experiment, but you will then see that > and the water has driven the wine into the "upper house."-Boston Globe. Time is Money. Toronto Telegram ; "You say that you are not a vagrant," judicially declared Uncle Baxter, " that time is money and that you having plenty cannot be accused of having no visible means of support." "That is it excessly," gently murmured the tramp from Bullock's Corners.

dear to every freeborn British subject, you are certainly entitled to compensation and I shall make it my business to see that you " I thank you," gratefully responded the

the court, "and as you have been most illegally deprived of your liberty, something money I'll give you a month's worth at And then during the rest of the court uncle couldn't understand why all the prisoners pleaded guilty off hand. Carpet Cleaning by Compressed Air. A new system of carpet cleaning, which is said to be very successful, employs comknew that it was snowing on the old straw pressed air for removing the dust. The stack behind the barn, snowing on the machine consists of a skeleton roller, over spotted steer that the ili-natured cow and parallel to which is an iron tube refused the shelter of the shed, snowing on pierced at intervals with holes. The iron the lazy sheep lying on the naked knoll, tube oscillates in a horizontal direction enowing on the old mare standing up when in operation, and as the carpet or rug

The " Prescription " has riumphed, fair woman is tree! Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the

No condition so critical as to defy it No emergency so great as to baffle it! As a woman's restorative and regulator

Seventh Son of a Seventh Son. Andrew Caron died in Troy, N. Y., on

The Best Time To work, while you can. to sow wild oats-never. To sing, when you feel like it. To ory, is while you can't help it. To laugh, is when you can afford to.

The best time to think, is before you act. To take care of your health, in before you To make a good resolution, is when you intend to keep it. To judge another, is when you are in the same predicament. The best time to stop your meanness, is before you begin, -Ram's Horn. The denoing girl who sets the London Just don's think that all the parsons

Senators of the University of St. Andrews

$10 000, she income so he used in keeping disorders to benefit or sure, or money Doctor of Divinity. Many a rosy-cheeked maiden is air as she is painted.

D. C. N L 13, 91

PROMPTLY CUREDOBY Cures Also Neuralgia Lumbago,

Best, Eastest to Use and Cheapert.

Sciatica, Stimness, All Aches. The Chas. A. Vogeler Co. Baltimore, Edi

Canadian Depot: Toronto, Ont. Piso's Remedy for Catarrh to the

"until I become sick and vomit.

"At times, to, I have a fullness and you'll make no mistake—they'll dis-