INTERESTING LETTERS FROM OUR STAFF OF CORRETPONDENTS.

A Budget of News and Gossip.—Personal Intelligence.—A Little of Everything well Mixed up.

ELGIN.

MONDAY, March 30—The farmers are busy making maple sugar. Some beautiful syrup has been brought into the village for sale.

J. Gould, H. E. Warren, and W. Seed came from Ottawa to spend Easter with us. Miss H. Pennock also, from the business college, Brockville.

Miss O'Donell is visiting at M. Dwyres.

Miss Leggett of Newboro, spent a few days at Dr. McGhie's last week.

Dr. G. S. McGhie is spending a week with his father.

W. J. Mallory from near Athens, has moved on a small farm near Elgin

Mr. Southworth of The Recorder, Brockville, spent a few days last week here looking after the interests of his paper.

ELISVILLE

Sap is reported very scarce.

We think there must have been more fishermen than fish down on the marsh as the boys all came home empty handed.

A large quantity of timber has been hauled to the mill for the erection of the broom factory. From the interest taken by the people of this vicinity as well as those of Berryton, we think it will be a success.

Again the hand of death has entered amongst us and removed from our midst one of our most highly respected young ladies, Miss Maria Blair. She had a severe attack of la grippe last winter, from which she never recovered. The funeral took place on Saturday, Rev. Mr. Stewart of Morton, officiating. We extend our warmest sympathy to the bereaved family.

ELBE MILLS.

MONDAY, March 30—C. Johnson & Son commenced making butter at their factory on Tuesday 24th inst. They expect to have the milk from 150 more cows this season.

Robins, blackbirds, bluebirds, meadow larks and other spring birds made their appearance in this vicinity last week, and a large flock of wild geese went over on Saturday morning, in going in the direction of Lake Eloida.

The sugar social on Thursday evening was a success. The entertainment consisted of music, singing, readings, recitations and addresses. Rev. Mr. Wilson was present and gave good advice concerning Sabbath school work. The receipts ($7.10) were placed to the credit of the Sabbath school account.

FRONT OF YONGE.

MONDAY, March 30.—Mrs. J. Foley of Escott committed suicide one day last week by taking paris green.

Mr. W. J. Leeder of Cass City, Michigan and wife have been visiting friends in Ballycanoe.

Mr. Charles Trasdell of Junetown has one of the best sap bushes in Ontario. Mr. Pool of Caintown is second and Mr. James Herbinson third.

The death of Mr. Washington Hays took place on or about the 23rd inst. Mr. Hays was an old and much respected gentleman who lived nearly all his life near Athens. His patriotic name was Clawson, who moved to the North West some years ago at which place he died.

There is a gentleman at present employed by the Ontario Government to take photograph pictures of all the public schools.

LYN.

MONDAY, March 30.—The indications of coming spring are increasing. The song of the black bird and robin is heard, and the cans of maple syrup on draught all to be seen on our streets.

Death has been very busy this past winter, three funerals within the last two weeks, Mark Chant, Donald McCrady and Mrs. Geo. Lee.

The drug store of C. M. Taylor was burglarized about a week ago, and suspicion having pointed to two young men who were seen hanging round intoxicated, they were arrested and brought up for examination before J. Deacon, Brockville on Saturday. One of them Jarvis pleaded guilty telling the whole story, the other McNamara denied his guilt and was committed for trial. Jarvis was remanded for sentence. Those petty thefts have got to be too common and it it is hoped that this will be a lesson to others.

The Lyn branch of the Epworth League gave a sugar social on Good Friday evening. A good programme of music and readings principally by some of their Brockville friends was disposed of when the audience adjourned to the school room when the hot sugar was served to the full satisfaction of all, the proceeds amounted to about $20 to be used to defray expenses of the League.

The B. & W. R. R. have a freight car detached at the gravil pit bridge in a rather awkward position. The cost of these runs off would have been saved perhaps by a little labor spent in putting the track in order.

An outcome of the celebrated Hagerman Whiskey Case of Escott was a trial before Squire Buell last week of a party charged with perjury, which was not sustained. At the close of the court some of the parties got drunk on legal whiskey and did not know which way to go home.

LYNDHURST.

SATURDAY, March 28.—Considerable damage has been done to the mill flumes by the freshet. The water has began to recede but is still very high.

Our two landlords paid Brockville a visit on Wednesday.

Dr. Barrett, much to the chagrin of some of his contemporaries, is working up a good practice and goes about his duties with an air of quiet determination that says:—Gentlemen, I have come to stay.

Geo. Ackland V. S. was in the village to-day.

D. W. Green, proprietor of the woolen mills is preparing to build an office on Front St. This will be a great convenience to customers as "Mud" St. is not very enticing.

The lecture which was announced for to-night has been postponed.

Miss Mary Fair, who has charge of the Long Point school, is spending her Easter holidays with friends in this place.

Our fishery inspector is around with blood in his eye, threatening to fine any one seen carrying a spear. So, boys, keep dark.

GREENBUSH

MONDAY, March 29th—On account of the busy strife we have just gone through in the Dominion election, especially myself having had to poll 16 votes on the 5th inst and swear them all in too, I have been very busy seeking office. I am not certain whether I will be successful or not. This is the excuse I offer for not giving your readers the lively events of the past month.

Mr. Benjamin Maud was united in marriage to Miss Haskin of Elbe Mills on the 18th inst. We extend congratulations.

Richard Codd is recovering from loss of strength caused by the amputation of one of his toes.

Sugar making has commenced. We expect the Buster House to give their annual ball shortly. Invitation cards will be sent out in a few days.

Mr. John Lennix, Spadina avenue, is the happy possessor of a little Jim. He is said to be very speedy. John says on account of his thinness of flesh that he intends to recruit him up before putting him to training.

Mr. Johnson, late of Newbliss, has leased the farm of J. M. Keeler. He took possession the 1st inst.

Charley the Ripper is the first person to offer new maple syrup on Brockville market this season.

Mr. Henry Maud, jr., leaves for British Columbia in a few days.

ADDISON.

MONDAY, March 30.—Mrs. Witeman and Mrs. Armstrong of Chicago are spending a few days with friends in this section. They are daughters of Martin Wiltse of Glossville, and have a large number of relatives and friends in this section.

The Bully of Mt. Royal came in contact with the proprietor of the Florida House recently, when a dispute arose between them. The proprietor came off best man, and the bully had to retire much to his discomfort.

Mr. James Wiltse of Chicago is visiting his many friends in this vicinity.

Mr. W. Booth and lady of Carleton Place are spending a few days with friends in this locality.

Miss Adda Smith of Fairfield East is the guest of Ezra Wiltsie's family this week.

Sugar making is the order of the day, that is where the sap runs.

Mr. A. Church of Mount Pleasant has been confined to his house for the past week with the mumps.

The lone widower of Salem St. is sadly in need of a housekeeper. Won't some fair one come to his rescue, as he says he has everything provided. Possibly he had better advertise for a helpmate in the REPORTER.

WESTPORT.

A gloom hangs over our pretty little burg on account of the death of one of our most respected citizens in the person of Mr. Duncan Wardrobe, proprietor of the Wardrobe House, which occurred on Monday night, March 23. He had been a painful sufferer for the past month of a disease which baffled all medical skill and to which he finally succumbed. Some hope had been held out for his recovery, yet all were painfully aware that a fearful struggle was being waged against the disease, which after a painful lingering proved fatal. His funeral which was conducted under the auspices of the Masonic Fraternity, took place on Wednesday and was largely attended by his friends and acquaintances who had assembled to pay the last tribute of respect to one who by his strict attention to business and gentlemanly conduct, had endeared himself to all. The funeral cortege, one of the largest ever witnessed in Westport, wended its way from the home of the deceased to the Presbyterian Church headed by the Perth band. The representatives of the different Masonic Lodges marched immediately after the band, after which came the hearse followed by the members of the deceased's family and a large number of friends in conveyances and on foot. Rev. D. Y. Ross delivered a touching address at the church from the text, Set thine house in order for thou shalt die and not live. On the conclusion of the church service the body was taken to the lawn fronting the church where the impressive rites in connection with the Masonic burial service were performed after which the cortege proceeded to the vault where the remains were placed. On the life character of Duncan Wardrobe it would be useless to make much comment, the highest encomium he would have desired would have simply been to, Paint me as I am. He was widely known as a kind indulgent parent, a loving husband, an entertaining host, and a true friend, whose honesty and uprightness challenge comparison. Though engaged in a business which is universally condemned and from which he was making preparations for retirement, yet he remained firm to the principles of true manhood always aiding and respecting any good cause. In religious belief he was a firm adherent of the Presbyterian faith, and in his last moments testified to the merits of his God.
