n-doors and out, early and late-There is no limit to his sway ; For, wrapt in baby robes of state, He governs night and day. And Turk-like has his slaves to dress his

me of them. God bless him.

blocks bend before him, too,

"Why, what was Jepp doing to be so sable to write it.
much noticed?" asked Lesity, as she ted The Misses Poynton were new-made of life.

Dr. Lennard leave Fenmore last night?"

Doing her best to appear calm, Letty sat | was not finished. hand resting on Jepp's glossy neck.

Letty?" asked Judith. been here since Monday last, and he did not stay then, for my father was out." "Well, now, I wonder as that," said Judish; "bus I suppose he is too ill herself, a ring of terror in her low, clear voice. "Was Dr. Lennard ill when went away from home last night ?" "Indeed he was, Miss," replied Judithsee him-such a fine man as he was, and young man, Miss Letty-be's quite a young | gweet temper.

"But I wonder he should go away and be of us was to go with him; but I shink if found that their fieres companion was al or I'll know why."

voice giving some directions to a servant, wrack drawing nearer, till she lost all hope failed, he had nothing to look forward to and Judith got up, and rubbing the of ever emerging from out the shadow of but an exite in France or elsewhere, until what the consent of the Hon, the Minister of Police Works; corner of her shawl briskly across her eyes, | that heavy darkness. prepared to depart, for the value was that | She loved Dr. Lennerd with all her hears, | watching for him, gave up all hope of ever of Mrs. Atherson, who had never looked and ne was gone from ner. He loved her, getting their dues.

for the cup of conse, and I hope the next of winning his love openly one day had nothing to keep it up on. He might have others who tendered were Mossrs. Larkin, Continue I see you, you'll be looking more like shone down upon her like the light of a been said to have lived by his wite for some That before tendering, and in order to secure a very slight recognition, she went on her blandly, as she entered the parlor, " what forgotten all about the strange letter and So, all things considered, it was not to be brought about woman here this morning?" this hasty journey, and she west bastly | wondered at that he should puff at his signr in." was the repty.

"Oh, indeed !" said Mrs. Atherton. and Levy know it did; but she would not thin well of mysterious importance. He quite sure the old fellow can stop her."

out of the room. "I think it quite time | all," she said, slinging to him.

in an hour or so," said Letty, glanding at own that I am going." her costly little watch, one of the treasures | "Oh I fother, if it is only on my account | rade it would be for Letty, the real mistress of her brief heiress ship.

before wealth had showered upon "You know nothing of what you are his eyes." of garden and lonely stretch of yellow trap, and settling the rug across his knees. " He knows you were going to day as well and there the line sneed. In those days | Hall's boy. Good-morning, ladies." | be very uncourteous of you to leave him, the small white bed was droped with the He gave the horse a smart touch with and I don't for one soment expect that he simplest white drapecies, and on the tiny the whip on he spoke, and dashed off for thinks you would do in." inted dressing table stood a tiny painted thestation. glass that swung between thin poles de- Letty's calking had made it a hard mat. She wanted to get nway from Fourners, void of ornament, and the white boards tor for Mr. Luigh to reach the station in away from her own heart, if it could be; were sparely covered with strips of drugget. | time for the up train for London. If he | but, as is could not, then as far from everysnowy lace and lines, and on the well- next day before he could go. Seemingly he | she could get, nished dressing room table a glass, had no intention of missing it, for he was "I have Featmore," she oxied. "Ob, almost too large for the room, swung making the horse go almost as full speed lifer. Atherton I you can't know how much between its massive carved pillars. There between the high, narrow bedges.
was a thick, rich carpet on the floor, all Mrs. Atherton went indoors immediately. "Too, Lebty, I do know," said Mrs. s. history with likes and roses on a delicate gray ground, and on the walls hung some excellent, well-chosen water colors at above stated, peld to the said Thomas MoGressy in promisery notes, signed by the firm of Lexisin Connolly & Co., which said notes were duly a feel chosen water colors at above stated, peld to the said Thomas MoGressy in promisery notes, signed by the firm of Lexis of our difficult parts, or priods of any way to any one tenders, or relative positions of tenders, and the many tenders and the position of tenders, and the many tenders and the position of tenders, and the many tenders and the position of tenders, and the many tenders and tenders and the position of tenders and tenders and the position of tenders and tenders and tenders and tenders an again she wished that this ill-fated money if the first glory of the summer sun came had nover come to her—that she was still down upon them, the first terrible fury of the summer storm, the first pitiless blast i' I should know than," she said, "if he of the winter hall descended also. When loved. He would be free to come and tell | we are lowly, we would falu be high; when me so, if he did; but, as it is, his pride high we look down longingly on the lowly, draws him back, and we may die, loving humbly plodding on in their safe, if narrow, draws him back, and we may die, loving humbly plodding on in their safe, if narrow, each other, and never telling our love."

And then the picture abe had drawn

The flokie, human heart is ever seeking than said that he gave notice of his intenwailed. "Oh! he might have come and dream of such noble characters to be im- he might be permitted to offer a few said 'good-by.' If only for one little minute, printed thereon, such thrilling stories of researchs. Those charges were to the effect ditions :

the way into the parlor, the dog following friends, but to all appearances they ware which have cost large sums of money to the public treasury;

"I am going to Hulebon," she said, when admitted on all hands in Quebec that which have cost large sums of money to the public treasury;

"I am going to Hulebon," she said, when she met Mrs. Atherton to dinner, "and I there was something rotten and wrong in lie treasury; every step he went, as though seeking some kindest of leobars some three weeks balone, have written to Laure to say she may exnviting Letty to their house—a pleasant peet me on Saturday next." "Oh ! nothing in particular, liles," re- enough mansion, by all accounts, standing plied Judith, "only I suppose master felt in the midse of its own grounds on the outsed at parting; he was always main fond of Jepp—always."

A sudden faintness came over Letty, and she turned the handle of the door and she turned the handle of the suggestion members of the suggestion members of the suggestion members of the suggestion were approached by members of the said firm have a limit of dollars and additional works, for which the midse of its own grounds on the change."

That concert with Larkin Connolly & Oc. to obtain the midse of the midse of the outsaid and suggestion members of the suggestion members of the suggestion members of the suggestion were approached by members of the said firm have several times before she could manage to more, she thought, for the time being; and more, she thought, for the time being; and the Canadian Tammany Hall. That certain members of the said firm have declared that the said members of the Canadian Tammany Hall. That certain members of the said firm have declared that the said members of the Canadian Tammany Hall. That certain members of the said firm have declared that the said members of the Canadian Tammany Hall. That certain members of the said firm have declared that the said members of the Canadian Tammany Hall. That certain members of the said firm have declared that the said members of the Canadian Tammany Hall. That certain members of the said firm have declared that the said members of the Canadian Tammany Hall. That certain members of the canadian Tammany Hall. That certain members of the canadian Tammany Hall. That certain members of the canadian Tammany Hall. The members of the canadian Tammany Hall the members of the canadian down to the table, and poured out a oup of thought Mrs. Atherton, as she sailed hair would have to be plaited and twisted was a strong combination of men with incurred the ill-will of Larkin, Connelly & Co. coffee, and while that was being drunk by leisurely down stairs, but she said poshing. | up artistically for the journey, or rather common interests. Members of both polit. | because they then compelled them to carry out the tired woman, for Judith had walked a When the letter was finished, is was such for inspection at the specifications and property their ostimates of the works in conformity with the specifications and property of the works in conformity with the specifications and property of the works in conformity with the specifications and contract, and what it is and contract, and property of the works in conformity with the specifications and contract, and what it is a specification at the speci long distance that morning, she went back to the window and knelt there, with one it, so she tore it up and began to write to take her breakfast in peace and quiet, who was a well-known Liberal. Then That during the winter of 1996 and '87 the said to take her breakfast in peace and quiet, who was a well-known Liberal. Then "And didn't the doctor call here. Miss hand burning and unsteady; writing at all correctly?" asked Judith.

"No," replied Letty, "and he has not and managed at length to write a letter that and managed

Is was now noon, and the children were some one pops in to see us. "Ill !" cried Letty, with, unknown to and as Letty stood quietly watching them changing to look up, she was associates per cubic yard, and even less, in the same "morewore and ill than ever I thought to of all the children round. He had been a strong to the payment of the said sum of 35 cents his father before him -a fine a man as you had soured what would, perhaps, under no fatigue; she was a true woman, and her surprising that under these circumstances | That the correspondences | That the correspondences | could see in a long day's ride. And he's a circumstances, have been a very sound or morning dress was a fright. So with a few should have been losing tween Henry F. Perley and Larkin, Connolly & circumstances, have been a very sound or morning dress was a fright.

his years maybap, but he's had sore natorly miserable, soon attracted Dr. Len. | the hall. nard's notice-his pity and help also, when | "Why, who is come, Mrs. Atherton?" "Yes, yes; I know he has," said Letty. he saw the real condition of the boy. He was Mr. Leigh's salutation to that lady, as taken here. He was elected as an indethe dead mother, to whom this little weak- | him. "Well, Miss," spoke up the good woman, ling had been far dearer than the other | "No one, my dear sir," was the reply; her lap vigorously, " I think, if I may make | him up to his own house, and while he saw | Hulston." so boid as to judge, that it is not his body was hopeless, he so much as his mind that is ill and alling. Set about saving the poor, wayward soul. Last night when I saw that he was going | As a natural consequence, the lad poured | at Mr. Leigh's cloudy face. off like that, carrying his own bag, which out all the love of his passionate heart on | "Confoundedly hard," he thought, "if I wasn't right, and refusing in his quies, the doctor. For the guerdon of a smile, he have gone through all the bother of the mournful way, all help from John and me, made himself almost gentle; for a word of | past few weeks, and come here only to find as though he couldn't bear to trouble us, pornise, he subdued as well as he could his my last chance slipping out of my fingers; my very heart felt fit to break; and I put | fierce, quarrelsome mature, and sat | I may pack off back to Calais as soon as I on my bonnes and cloak, and followed him | patiently over his books in the village school | please, after this." right off to the station. I dared not let room, without esizing, as formerly, every 'Just like her perversity, and the perfor you know what a gentleman master is to neighbor. Such a change was too great not | was thinking; "but I'll see to it that those | with the said works; fairly trembled less they should fall on her, brought Dr. Lennard and his many and comfortable. But he did not look very stated that he had first consulted the Hon. the sereen for the benefit of the said Thomas Mo-

she hoped, she knew; still he was gone. He had lived a gay life; he had frothed " I will go now, hims Iresty," said the old | What probability was there that he would | and flowed among the creme de la creme, a woman; "and I'm sure I thank you kindly ever ours to come back again? The hope pennilses heir of a good old name, with blessed moon, that hope was dying out, it years, but that it is such a vulgar way of the influence of the Hon. Thos. McGreevy, then "Thank you, Judith. Good morning," had died. The thought of spending a life- expressing it, and Ernest Devereux and his and now a member of the Parliament of Canad replied Lotty, absentedly, to this little time at Fenmore wisdout his love was a kind so shrink from valgarity. He could and a member of the Quebec Harbor Board b speech, and, kissing Jepp once more, she heavy blackness; and sitting there in her live so no longer and he knew is; not be. specialized of the dovernment of the partnership with them own little room, looking out on the shifting | cause his wits were growing less keen, but | selves Robert H. McGreevy, a prother of the grey see and the palely shining yellow | because dearly-bought experience was said on Thos. McGreeve, giving him a 30 per Atherton face to face. She did not stop, sands, she felt that blackness surge and sharpening the wits of many round him. knowledge and consent of the said Hon. Thomas but with a deep courtesy, which met with settle round her, never more to be lifted up. The great shark had gobbled up all the McGreevy Hearing the sound of wheels on the gravel, little fishes in its neighborhood so long, that That among the parties tendering were a con way, out into the lane, and toward her and looking down, she saw the trap stand. | the little fishes were growing outlious, and | ing before the door, evidently waiting to the great shark found it necessary to move

"Judith was passing, and I called her down now, to bid her father good by. so savegely, nor that the down quehion of & Co., of Beaucage, and of Gallagher were pe was warmly muffled already, for the day! oleser round his neck.

"You had better write to Misses Poyn- "Don't stay away longer than you can desired har not to go; and seeing that her con," she said to Lotty, as she was going belp, father. I wish you had not to go at things were all packed, and herself getting you sold them whether you are going or "Do you indeed?" said he. "Then, like mission. But Mrs. Atherton was equal to canada and from officials of thes department in name of the Hon. Minister of Public Works in name of the Hon. Minister of Public Works in name of the Hon. Minister of Public Works in name of the Hon. Minister of Public Works in name of the Hon. Minister of Public Works in name of the Hon. Minister of Public Works in name of the Hon. Minister of Public Works in name of the Hon. Minister of Public Works in name of the Hon. Minister of Public Works in name of the Hon. Minister of Public Works in name of the Hon. Minister of Public Works in name of the Hon. Minister of Public Works in name of the Hon. Minister of Public Works in name of the Hon. "I will write this morning. It will do thing. It is more for your soke than my should be, and she laid the case down so postion therewith and the amounts thereof, in-

you are going, do stay," oried Latty. "I of the bouse, to go away and leave a guest to kin, Councily & Co., and to saviain members of said Minister; She went up stairs to her own room as | would rather have you stay with me than | his own resources, that Letty, though mot | the said firm individually. she spoke, and once there, looked herself onything this viels could give me. Do stay, convinced, began to feel very uncomfortable. The room was as small on 10 was the first all couch was a tiny nest of missed that he would have to wait till the thing that would jur on that sore heart as man, sitting wish his white, sorrowful face, sick of the menotony of our lives that we looking out on Fammers, in the chill dusk would have hailed any change as a relief? of a November evening, gray, murky and Tolling along in the lowly valleys, we have misorable. Else sow, in imagination, that booked up toward the chining mountain pale, comparied faces, no plainly as if she peaks, towering so awful in their because. and not Judith, had stood on the platform, so grand in their strength, and looged, with and watched it flying past. Sine felt with passionats, rebellious longing, to receit a shrinking paid, that the settled look of those glowing summits first, to catch the heart was not cold to her, and again and glant hills, and found, when too late, that

He put her arm from about his need, a

That outburst over, Letty got up and turned, we too come find it stained with rushed her hair away from her face, and tears, and let us thank God if they are the pect me on Saturday next."

Harbor Board of Quebec. For years him, the said Thomas McGreevy, in his efforts in concert with Larkin, Connelly & Co. to obtain it, so she tore it up and began to write to take her breakfast in peace and quiet, who was a well-known began to write to take her breakfast in peace and quiet, who was a well-known began to take her breakfast in peace and quiet, who was a well-known began to write to take her breakfast in peace and quiet, who was a well-known began to write to take her breakfast in peace and quiet, who was a well-known began to write to take her breakfast in peace and quiet, who was a well-known began to write to take her breakfast in peace and quiet, who was a peace and quiet, who was a well-known began to write to take her breakfast in peace and quiet, who was a well-known began to write to take her breakfast in peace and quiet, who was a well-known began to write to take her breakfast in peace and quiet, who was a well-known began to write to take her breakfast in peace and quiet, who was a well-known began to write to take her breakfast in peace and quiet, who was a well-known began to write to take her breakfast in peace and quiet, who was a well-known began to write to take her breakfast in peace and quiet, who was a well-known began to write to take her breakfast in peace and quiet, who was a well-known began to write to take her breakfast in peace and quiet, who was a well-known began to write to take her breakfast in peace and quiet, who was a well-known began to write to take her breakfast in peace and quiet, who was a well-known began to write to take her breakfast in peace and quiet, who was a well-known began to take her breakfast in peace and quiet, who was a well-known began to take her breakfast in peace and quiet, who was a well-known began to take her breakfast in peace and quiet, which was a well-known began to take her breakfast in peace and the peace and take her breakfast in peace and able-is just the time of all others that | Brates, Laughter.)

rooping by to their dinners from out the Letty did not escape this fate-why | the old flag. one school of Fenmore. The narrow lane should she? Heiresses are only mortals, Mr. Tarte said that this combination was schoing again to their calls and cries; and breakfast was scarcely over when, had subsidized the organ of those who McGraevy, been executed for the sum of 27 cents as they went tearing and hurrying past, one | sinrtled almost, to see her father pass be- | were charged with treason to the old party, | works: little fellow, looking up, saw her and smiled. Fore the window, Ernest Devereux with the It was a cripple boy, the son of one of the bim. Mrs. Atherton saw them, too, and respondence would show that for the last because the last of Public Works, and in particular sharpers, and once the plague and terror sattled the ribbons of her cap complacently sight or ten years these men had the conoripple from his hirsh, and the misfortane | hastily, too disturbed to remember her | Conservative party in Quebec. Was it | per cubic yard; man still, though he's aged and grave for This child, deformed, neglected, savage, as Mr. Luigh and his companion came into accused of having betrayed the old flag and the said Thomas McGreevy, and was conducted

did what no one had ever done before but | she came gracefully forward to welcome

be obeyed, and he had said positive as none | to be marvelled at; and when the children | boxes are unpacked before the hour's out, he had gone away like as he wanted, with | most tamed, they prowded about him and | The two gentlemen had walked from the | way I had to pass right before the window drearity, her heart and brain both numbed harder than usual, and there was a sullen of master's carriage; but bless you, Miss | with sharp pain. She had no reason for light in his blue eyes that reminded one ir. | to the close of the season of 1886; "The last glimpse I had of his face as seemed as one who, standing out alone on liked very well; but Letty the heiress he the train was tearing past, I shall never some rugged headland, pointing into the was not only willing, but eager to marry. | missioners, and that their resident engineer for forget, Miss Letty-never, were I to live a sea, saw ou one side beavy storm-clouds | His chance of ever doing that seemed small | carrying out of the works was Mr. Woodford hundred years; a face, so white, and drifting up to overwhelm her, and on the enough just at present. The respite he had Pilkington; That in concert with Larkin, Connolly & Co. other side the clear light of noon; out the | won, with infinite pain and endless prom-A step sounded in the hall, and a soft away every instant, and the dark cloud was but a short one; and if this throw Pilkington from their positions, and that they such time es his oreditors, wearled of

He stood in the hall, giving some parting | his rooking chair failed to give him ease. directions to Mrs. Atherton, the well-pleased | "By Jove!" he thought, as he sat there, Thee was all, but it means a great deal, smile still on his face, struggling through a "if she goes to day it's all up, and I'm not Mrs. Atherton rang the bell sharply, and | was chill, and the night would be chillier | by Mr. Leigh, had sought Lessy in ner own when the servant oume, bade her to re- still, and is would be deep night before he room, whither she had fled on the unlookedmove the breakfast things, her tone imply- could reach London; but Letty, kissing for interruption. She had to tell her that ing that they abould have been taken away him, draw the high collar of his cost still her father did not wish her to go to Hulston. as she had promised she would; nay, he | ment of Public Works of Canada, the said Hon ready to start, it was not a very pleasant clearly, and showed so forcibly how very "But," she urged," I was going before I

for there are my boxes ready corded before It looked out on the same little strip | talking about," he said, getting into the | "Yes, to be sure," said Mrs. Atherton. , with the great sea boundary line; "I shall send the trup back with Mrs. | as I do; but he knows, too, that it would Letty was seesly possess

Mr. Wallage introduced a bill to among the Act for the prevention and suppres of combinations in restraint of trade. He sold that the proposition was to strike out sorrow on that we can face had its origin in "smiles of the morning. Bome have gone to and C, and "unreasonably" in paragraph something connected with herself. She their graves with that longing unsatiafied; D. Provision was also made that the Act loved him too well not to know that his others have reached the peaks of those should not be applicable to strictly legist-D. Provision was also made that the Act

Mr. MoMulian asked if in view of the potitions for the prohibition of the liquor traffic the Government Intended to introtuce legislation to meet them.

THE M CHERT SCANDAL. Department of Public Works had been the said alterations enabled them to realize, to

Mr. Landerkin-But they are loyal to area of the wet basin in the harbor of Quebec ;

rapid bounds she escaped up the staircass, ground? With many others, he had been | were consulted, took place at the suggestion of pendent Liberal Conservative. Mr. Laurier | received 887.00); had never asked him to repudiate his party. | the said Thomas McGreevy the sum of $20,00. He had never asked him to give up any of | in fulliment of the arrangement above men

> permission of the House he would proceed | That on the 33rd May, 1897, in fulfilment of the fonce that he is credibly informed, and that he was made between the Quebec Harbor Com elieves that he is able to establish by satisfact missioners and Larkin, Councily & Co., for all believes that he is able to establish by satisfactory evidence, that in 1882 the sum of $375,000 the very evidence, that in 1882 the sum of $375,000 the necessary dredging and removal of material in the west basin of the Quebec harbor works to carry out the works of the harbor of Quebec, the Quebec Harbor Commissioners called for tenders for dredging in connection the detriment of the public treasury, and sums the detriment of the public treasury, and sums

That Mesers, Larkin, Connolly & Co. tendered, the control and direction of Henry W. Perley ad were awarded the contract for the said and appointed by the Quebec Harbor Commi That in order to secure the influence of Hon.

me. But for all he looked so, I don't think | kindly generous deeds so forcibly before her | comfortable in mind, whatever he might be | Minister of Public Works, Hir Hector Langevin, | Greey, who then was and continued to be for a he saw much as was going on; for once, as I went nearer to the edge of the platform, a porter came along, pushing a heavy trunk before him, and to get out of his trunk before him the boy through a long time thereafter the proprietor of the Ad
That the trunk before him the low, the said contract algorithm the hold him the low, the first of him deed to be for a long time thereafter the proprietor of the Ad
Chintse covered rocking on the little works there will be the said contract the number of these and all long time thereafter the proprietor of the Ad
Chintse covered to the low of the l Co. continued to perform the work of dradging under the apple of prices therein mentioned up Letty, he never so much as saw me."

The faithful servant's eyes were brimming with tears, and Letty, her face present close against the glass, looked out on the leaden sky and the leaded sea in silence. That is one chance of sease. His one chance of sease. How many the face possing it over and over to herself, half the leaded sea in silence. That is one chance of sease. His one chance of sease. How many the face in an undustry to her the sold of the sease of the season of 1886;

That is order to help Larkin, Councily & Co.

the close of the season of 1886;

the idlest village gossip, but she kept recommended in an undustry to her seald the chance of sease. His one chance of sease. His one chance of sease in the close of the season of 1886;

the idlest village gossip, but she kept recommended in an undustry to her seal did give to have an did give in an undustry to her the close of the season of 1886;

the idlest village gossip, but she kept recommended in an undustry to her seal did give to have an did give in an undustry to her the close of the season of 1886;

the close of the season of 1886;

the idlest village gossip, but she kept recommended in an undustry to her the close of the season of 1886;

the close of the season of 1886;

the idlest village gossip, but she kept recommended in an undustry to her the close of the season of 1886;

the close of the season of 1886;

the close of the season of 1886;

the idlest village gossip, but she kept recommended in an undustry to he commended in an undustry to he Hon. Thos. McGreevy agreed to give and did give | Canada acted as engineers to the Quebec Harbor Com-

> Mr. Henry B. Perley and Mr. John Edward Boyd, That in the same year, 1983, tenders were called for a cross wall and look in connection with the plans and specifications prepared in the Depart-Henry F. Perloy, Esq. ;

tractor named George Beaucage and one Joh That it was on the suggestion of the said Hon. " My dear," asked Mrs. Atherton, carry Mr. Leigh to the station. She had into deeper water, or be gobbled up in turn. Thomas McGreevy that Beaucage consented to make a tender That with the knowledge of the said Thomas McGreevy the three tenders of Larkin, Councily his position in the master, as he alleges in an setion recently entered by him against the said Thos. McGreavy in relation to the said contract | Works out of the proceeds of the said contracts, the Supreme Court of Montreal ;

That the said tenders were transmitted to the Department of Public Works of Canada for ex-

mination and extension : That while all the tenders were being examined and the quantities applied in the Depart-Thomas McGreevy, then and now a member of the Parliament of Canada, and a member of the lusbee Herbor Commission by, appointment of formation which he offered to communicate before the result was officially known, and high he did communicate to the firm of Ler-That to the knowledge of the said Thomas McGreevy the tenders of Mosses. Gallagher and Bequeage were lower than those of Larkin, Conknew of his visit. He must see that I was, | notly & Qo., but that in consideration of the tenders of Lachin, Connolly & Co., and that he suggested to that firm, and so certain members bereof individually, to make arrangements in case, and to so manipulate metters as to render the tenders of those two parties higher than hose of the said figm, or, as all events, to secure he constact for Lackin, Connolly & Co., and > eagreed out no engrecoed by him : shee Harbor Works was awarded to Larkin, onsolly & Co. on a report to Council made by se Hon, the Minister of Public Works, under date 90th May, 1983; That a few days theregiver the anm of $45,000 was, in tultiment of the courage arrangement above stated, paid to the could above stated, paid to the drift of Larkin to promissory notes, signed by the firm of Larkin do as follows; "I never communicated in any way to any one tenders, or prices of the pale November Hghts, comming this coupling curtains of pilot can be constructed and suggested with the construction of pilot can be constructed to the state of the construction of th noises from them for my use, people, or adno reason to suspect Mr. Parley of having done wrong in connection with the matters laid before the Houss by Mr. Turte. If he last Parliament, but he left the gistement

Co, had with Thomas McGroevy, its a mamber of the Faritament of Cana had done so it was out of his (bis Elector's knowledge, and having known him for many years as a faithful officer of his department he could not make up his mind that he had violated his trust and thereby others by obtaining from the Department of Public Works information, figures and calculations, which he communicated to them;

That to the knowledge and with the consent of the said Thomas Moffreevy, and for the purpose of securing for themselves his influence, Larkin, Connolly & Co. took into partnership with themselves his brother, Robert H. Mowith the control of the security per cent interests. enment. In so far as Mr. MoGessery was broovy, styling him a twenty per cent. Intere

And then the picture she had drawn

The flokic, human heart is ever seeking the gave notice of his intenseemed so pitiful to her, that she buried after change. Discontented with our post, her face in her classed hands, and hurst tired of our present, how many of us only the gave notice of his intention of the said contract the said Thomas McGreevy was the agent or one of the said contract the said Thomas McGreevy was the agent or one of the said contract the said that he gave notice of his intention of the said contract the said Thomas McGreevy was the agent or one of the said that he gave notice of his intention of the said Thomas McGreevy was the agent or one of ber face in her classed hands, and burst into passionate sobbing.

I shall never see him again!" she be turned in the book of our life! We be turned in the pook of our life! We allow the passionate sobbing to the face of the agents in the pay of Larkin, Connelly & Co., in dealing with the Department of Public Works and the member from Queton, into passionate sobbing.

That he endeavored to obtain and did the face of the agents in the pay of Larkin, Connelly & Co., in dealing with the Department of Public Works and the member from Queton, in the second to obtain and did the pay of Larkin, Connelly & Co., in dealing with the Department of Public Works and the member from Queton, in the second to obtain and did the pay of Larkin, Connelly & Co., in dealing with the Department of Public Works and the member from Queton, in the second to obtain and did the pay of Larkin, Connelly & Co., in dealing with the Department of Public Works;

That he endeavored to obtain and did the pay of Larkin, Connelly & Co., in dealing with the Department of Public Works;

That he endeavored to obtain and did the pay of Larkin, Connelly & Co., in dealing with the Department of Public Works and the pay of Larkin, Connelly & Co., in dealing with the Department of Public Works are the pay of Larkin, Connelly & Co., in dealing with the Department of Public Works;

That he endeavored to obtain and did the pay of Larkin the alterations in the works and more favorable contruth and worth, and when the page is that since 1883 or 1883 the secrets of the the said more favorable conditions and the said alterations enabled them to realize, to brushed her hair away from her face, and stood for a few seconds gazing dreamily at stood for a few seconds gazing dreamily at her own dark reflection in the mirror.

"Any change must be for the better," West (Mr. McGreevy), who, according to the works large only hiots upon it.

"Any change must be for the better," when the contractors by the member for Quebec only hiots upon it.

"Any change must be for the better," when the contractors in dealing with the content of the public interests, very large profits; the deriment of the public interests of the deriment of t abs. "It was only last night that he laid his arms about its name about its name about its paws on his obest, and I do believe there was more than one tear on its coat when be put it from him."

Why, what was Jepp doing to by, what was Jepp doing to why, what was Jepp doing to why what was Jepp doing to why was was Jepp doing to who where the the was drawing near to her, though the department, and so she was guilty was drawing near to her, though the doing to was drawing near to her, though the department, and so she was guilt was drawing near to her, though the was the was the was a on numerous important occasions. It was of Public Works, in the plans of the graving dock sion from which he would have some diffioulty in extrinating himself. with the men named in the correspondthat by-and-bye. "At parting, Judith!" she said. "Did expect her. It was not in time for the early late breakfast, her hair pushed into a silk member of Parliament, and at the expect her. It was not in time for the early late breakfast, her hair pushed into a silk member of Parliament, and at the expect her. It was not in time for the early late breakfast, her hair pushed into a silk immediately and the expect her. It was not in time for the early late breakfast, her hair pushed into a silk immediately and the expect her. It was not in time for the early late late breakfast, her hair pushed into a silk immediately and the expect her. It was not in time for the early late late breakfast, her hair pushed into a silk immediately and the expect her. It was not in time for the early late late breakfast, her hair pushed into a silk immediately late late breakfast, her hair pushed into a silk immed

Railway Co .- Mr. Taylor. B. Eddy Company-Mr. Mackintosh.

That the said Thomas McGreevy used

Friday, 39th inst. Corried. the Conservative party because he had manner as to concest from the eyes of Parliston to the public the corrupt character of common law as well as the statute law of the public the corrupt character of common law as well as the statute law of the public the corrupt character of common law as well as the statute law of the public the corrupt character of common law as well as the statute law of the public the corrupt character of common law as well as the statute law of the public the corrupt character of common law as well as the statute law of the public the corrupt character of common law as well as the statute law of the public the corrupt character of common law as well as the statute law of the public the corrupt character of common law as well as the statute law of the public the corrupt character of common law as well as the statute law of the public the corrupt character of common law as well as the statute law of the public the corrupt character of common law as well as the statute law of the public the corrupt character of common law as well as the statute law of the public the corrupt character of common law as well as the statute law of the public the corrupt character of common law as well as the statute law of the public the corrupt character of common law as well as the statute law of the public the corrupt character of common law as well as the statute law of the corrupt character of common law as well as the statute law of the corrupt character of common law as well as the statute law of the corrupt character of common law as well as the corrupt character of common law as well as the corrupt character of common law as well as the corrupt character of common law as well as the corrupt character of common law as well as the corrupt character of common law as well as the corrupt character of common law as well as the corrupt character of common law as well as the corrupt character of common law as well as the corrupt character of common law as well as the corrupt character of common law as well as of the Imperial codification of 1879 That Larkin, Connolly & Co. paid in money kin, said that the sale of registration | hundreds of different processes.

& Bridge Co.-Mr. Montague.

At the Mikado's Court.

Order Your Oremation Urn.

urns, which, instead of adorning the dining.

material as old fachloned " toby " jugs.

For Wide-Awaka Mousawives.

To keep salt dry for table use, min one

I the men's soft felt hats by lesting the slips sonk in vinegar for a couple of house,

Turn lamp winks down below the top the tube when not lighted, and you will not

The Times of India recently contained the ontside of the lamps,-Home Question.

The latest oren', according to the Jewel-boldly, her honest, motherly face all aglow, and one brown, sinewly hand smoothing agreet than the osaler public duty; I extend to you my help." the general election of $1897, in the hands of one | garding the Government steamer Stanley, arrangements above mentioned and through the | year, he said, was shamefully maglooded by | pried them all, fencing, wrestling, rowing, efforts, the influence, and the intervention of the Department of Marine and Fisheries. swimming, riding-that no one of them has Mr. Tarte moves that Mr. Tarte, a member in the said Thomas McGreevy, and without any Re contended that the Government was the many advantages of boxing, says a ... And is this your final decision?" mut-

That in the execution of the works of this | corried. The House adjourned at 4 45.

for his eyes kept wandering up and down. grave little face, with its wistful eyes, once as if he was seeking for someoue, till I so fierce in their light, glancing up softly at hearth, and everything looking home like is brother becoming a member of the firm, and his brother becoming a member of the firm, and That the said Julien Chabot was merely a by men representing the said Thomas Mein that connection a sum of about $120,000 while being a member of the Parliament of That in 1886 tenders were asked for by the | a bevy of ladies of the court, all but one in Quebec Harbor Commissioners for the con- European dress, and following the ladies struction of a work called the " south wall, or | the gentlemen of the palace in black fronk-That Mr. Thomas McGreevy procured from | coats and tall hate. His Majesty wears the public officials the tenders received and showed them to Mesers O. E. Murphy, Donnolly and B. H. McGreevy, for whom he was acting in order to give them an undue advantage over their braided with gold lace, and on the small, That they had the said tenders in their posses- band. His bow in recognition of all bare sion during several hours, after which they were and bended heads is the stightest possible returned to Henry F. Perley, then in Quebec, by the said Thomas McGreevy; work for their own profit and advantage : That changes detrimental to the public inter est, but of a nature to secure great profits to the sarrying out of the works, and in the conditions of the Japanese Jove must be measured by and securities set out in the contract, through I levelty with a micrometer. the influence and intervention of the said Thos That from the year 1883 to 1990, both inclusive. the said Thomas McGreevy for the consideration above indicated received a sum of about 200 Review, in to order one's cremation urn

Larkin, Connolly & Co. sums of money ; That the moneys expended in connection with the works mentioned in the present motion are | made in gold, while the more ordinary moneys voted by the Parliament of Canada, and amount o about five million dollars; That certain members of the firm of Lerkin Connolly & Co. paid and caused to be paid large sams of money to the Hon. Minister of Public and that entries of the said sums were made ou the groun of that home The grown 1882 to the present session the said Thomas McGreevy has clears lived in Ottawa in the same house as the Hon. Minister of Public Works, and that he seems to have done so in order to put in the mind of Larkin, Connolly & Co. the impression that he had over said Hon. Minister an absolute control, and that he was of salt.

his dealings with them, undertaking to obtain his so-operation, or declaring that That before the Board of Quebec Harbey Commissioners he often also used the nome of the specially, but without limiting the scope of such | he troubled with the oil running over on Narotamdas, of Bomboy, who has plosed committee do report in full the syldence take before them, and all their proceedlings on the at the disposal of the Government the reference, and the result of their enquiries; and munificent sum of Es. 100,000 for the that rule 78 of this House as to the selection of committees be suspended, and that said com- purpose of constructing a luncity saylum Sir Hector Langevin said this method ! oldinana of Bombay, to a Justice of the buing a matter of privilege, and there being McGreevy directly participated, the contract for a court appointed by the House, which was Peace, a fallow of the Bombay University, the cross-wall and lock in connection with the biss Committee of Privileges and Elections, and a Demander of the Eunicipal Corthis moster abould be sent to that court. poration. His name is generally associated His name was connected with this matter | with all public movements and charitable of privilege by Mr. Tarte, and under those inetitutions, and he is a member of the circumstances he thought he should make most ancient Hindeo families.

We have selected two or three lines from letters rendered himself punishable by the Goy. Croup. freshly received from paplace, and it was for him to say what to their children in the emergencies the Committees on Privileges and Elso because they come from good subtions he would be there ready to give because they come from good, sub- In flavoring peddings, if the milk is rich. stantial people, happy in finding | lemon flavoring is good; but if she milk to Mr. MoGreevy said he was not present what so many families sack -a med- poor vanilla makes it richer. when this matter was referred to in the icine containing no evil drug, which with Mr. Curran which was read on his mother can administer with conbehalf. To that statement he still adhered. | fidence to the little ones in their | is greatly improved by being first boiled, He characterized the whole statement most critical hours, safe and sure then skimmed. which had been made by Mr. Tarse as a | that it will carry them through. falsehood, and energe from beginning to RD. I. WILLITS, of Mrs. Jas. W. KIRK, end. It was a foul conspiracy made to injure him by a cautain olique, because he would not be their instrument in aiding troubled with Croup have depended upon them to obtain what they would. Those and never saw any it in attacks of Croup

parsons even forged his name to decurrents | preparation act like with my little daughto gain their ands, and he was ready to it. It is simply mi- ter, and find it an inspeedy investigation would take place. He was prepared to defend himself, and could promise the House that the result of the little folks must be a treatment for investigation would be his complete vindi-cation. The member for Montmorency hood, whooping cough, croup, diph-(Mr. Tarte) had placed himself in a post- theria and the dangerous indiammations of delicate throats and lungs. @ Mr. Tarte denied that he been sesociated

ROW THEREO IS NUMBERED

Mr. McGreevy-We will have more of | The Process That Civat the Scamst Mr. Torte-My sincere wish is that the The comstress, whether she wants No. words used by my hon. friend may prove 80 or 60 or 120 thread, knows from the may be artfully arranged and pierced with true. He talks of forgery. Mr. Speaker, if number just what kind of sewing it can a jewel handled degger or quains or nament. the latters I have referred to as signed by be used for. When 840 yards of yarn | -New York World you knew," replied Judith. "He went late in the evening, and he would not as much in the evening, and he would not as much as lets John drive him to the station; he was not a very becoming tollet for a lets John drive him to the station; he was not a very becoming tollet for a lets John drive him to the station; he was not a very becoming tollet for a lets John drive him to the station; he was not a very becoming tollet for a lets John drive him to the station; he was not a very becoming tollet for a lets John drive him to the station; he wish Larkin, Connolly & Co. had agreed to give them money to this Bouse, and at the same time of the station; he send of cotton, the sound her. It was not a very becoming tollet for a personnel her. York World

Public Works, and at the same time of the station; he send to sail group and the same time of the station; he shall be send to sail group and the same time of the station; he shall be send to the station; he shall be sh Respecting the Nisgara and Grand Island was of three-cord, the number being de- to furnish Canadian servants? Well, telegraph business, and for other purposes three No 20 brand ownsend cogether.

To amend the Act to incorporate the smoother. Empire Printing and Publishing Co.-Mr. As thread numbers were already established, they were not aftered for the mow a Canadian servent, saying that she has Respecting the Lake Temiscamingue article, says the Dry Goods Review, and had one and wants another. American Colonization Company—Mr. Trow. No 60 six cord and No. 80 three-cord were girls seldom want to set a place under two No 60 six oord and No. 60 three-nord were | girls seldom want to get a place under two Mr. Bergeron moved that the the time left identical in both size and number. To or three days after they come, even if they for presenting private bills be extended to of or this the six ord has to be made of could have just the situation they are lookyarn twice as fine as that demanded in | ing for. They will wait till they have Sir John Thompson, in moving the first making the three-cord variety. The No. spent the last cent, and then take the first reading of a bill to codify the criminal law | 60 cord is made of six strands of No. 120 | of Canada, said the object was expressed by yern. The three-cord spool cotton is of lar, too, about the amount of work they do, common law as well as the statute law of | Six cord spool cotton is always made from | wages. One lady complained to me that Canada. The bill was drafted on the lines | double its numbers. Thread is a simple | her last girl (American) wanted to go out thing, but it is simple there are 2,000 every evening in the week beside Tuesday

Boxing for Boys, There is absolutely nothing in the way o | papers for 80 girls. If the Government which plies between Prince Edward Island | recreation so beneficial in every respect to a | would allow me to have an agent over there of and the mainland, complained of the char- boy as boxing. I am positive—and I know | I could have 150 sent over at one time and acter of the service there. That astrice last whereof I write, for as boy and minu I have no difficulty in finding places for them." pledged to construct a funual beneath the griter in "Harper's Young People." As | sered the young man, hoarsely, as he an all round developer it is unequalled; not | gathered up his coat and hat and prepared the motion after being amended was one of the boy's muscles remains inactive; to depart. back, stomach, legs, arms, are all called | "It is," replied the beautiful creature, "Four years ago," writes Col. David mendation for boys is the very thorough | known humories, had placed at her dis-Wylie, Brockville, Oat., May 1888, " I had drilling which the disposition of the boy | pour a severe attack of rhenmastem, and could must undergo. If a lad is quick to lose not stand on my feet. The pain was ex. his temper, boxing will ours him; it will stood on the stope outside a moment later no one to wish him a 'Go Topoed,' it would have laid heavy on my mind to my dying day. Bo I just waited about till I saw him get into the train, and settle himself between the from any other.

The by an order in Council dated 10th May. It has by an order in Council dated 10th May. It has by an order in Council dated 10th May. It has by an order in Council dated 10th May. It has by an order in Council dated 10th May. It has by an order in Council dated 10th May. It has by an order in Council dated 10th May. It has by an order in Council dated 10th May. It has by an order in Council dated 10th May. It has by an order in Council dated 10th May. It has by an order in Council dated 10th May. It has by an order in Council dated 10th May. It has by an order in Council dated 10th May. It has by an order in Council dated 10th May. It has by an order in Council dated 10th May. It has by an order in Council dated 10th May. It has by an order in Council dated 10th May. It has by an order in Council dated 10th May. It has been decided to may discount of Canada decided to may decided I did. I had my ankles well rubbed and the absolute necessity of keeping ocol and three months at $3 a night, and nothing That the said sum of twelve thousand five | then wrapped with | in antire possession of his wite in order to | to show for it."-Clothier and Furnisher. I think, he was heading the printed words, and the sight of that wish Charles Temple on his former visit. Siving him an interest of thirty per cent. in succeeding the printed words, and the sight of that wish Charles Temple on his former visit. Siving him an interest of thirty per cent. in succeeding the printed words, and the sight of that wish Charles Temple on his former visit. Siving him an interest of thirty per cent. in succeeding the printed words, and the sight of that wish Charles Temple on his former visit. Siving him an interest of thirty per cent. in succeeding the printed words, and the sight of the printed words, and the sight of the printed words. The boxer who cannot control his temper is practically at the mercy of a cool, skilful pponent. One cannot spar successfully His Imperial Majesty comes first and all graceful lady, dressed in a manys satio tollet of Parisian style and mouve bonnet, undirected action. He need do no running | Hebrews are forbidden to pass outside the That the said Thomas McGreevy received with parasol to match, all borns with the stores kept by utmost charm and becomingness. Behind Her Imperial Majesty, also passing singly, Full exercise of the brain is favorable to | have been sent here from Athens to restore realth and longavity, and prolonged brain | order work is not necessarily injurious when unassended by hurry, anxiety or excitement. young and strong it is not injurious. There | to-night was perfectly levely. are cortain occupations which are very | George-What was the text? inclination which rigid muscles can make, tive engineers. Then the speculator often That the contract was awarded to one John yet withal accompanied by a glance, becomes a wreck through the tension on phy, Connolly and E. H. McGreevy, who did the will, for his lips almost smile, his eyes are plers and lighted, his all is, one might almost dare to say, gental, and these nods

his nerves; also the politician, says; the New York Ledger. Take a book- Geographical Magazine," Mr. R. E. Perry, keeper using one part of the C. E. U. S. N., started for St. John's, nothing but figures year after year; he man. He was to take a sealer at that recovers; in fact, the other brain cells are | north and of Greenland on Marwagian snow called into use. American business men, | shoss, using the inland iso as a highway. That during the period aforesaid he was the and use it as an ornament till it should as they grow older, do not reduce the nerv. Mr. Perry hopes to bring back complete agent and paid representative of Larkin, Con-nolly & Co., on the Quebec Harbor Board of shops confess to having had several orders natural decline. Business and domestic geology and other aspects of that region. issioners in Parliament, and in connect lotely, while silveremithe have been equally troubles wear upon the nerves. Cramming For good wear, let me recommend an That the said Thomas McGreevy exacted and favored. An enthusisetic "cremationist" in schools is very bad in its results. The outing dress of "outing dress of the subsidies voted by Paris of my acquaintance has a comple of delight brain of the child suffering from overstudy per yard; ten yards will make a plain full ment for the construction of the Bale dea ful little old silver urns which ornament robs the blood of elements provided for the chirt, deep hem. A blouse waist with saffer his sideboard, and should any guest hap growth of the body. As a result, the child collar, full sleeves with waist-band. This pen to admire he is told that those are for is studied, although the parents may have dress will stand repeated visits to the washthe host's ashes, which are to be divided been fine animals.

and sent to two old, valued friends in these fascinating little cases Some are even Long Way to Got Broken. A great sheet of plate glass that fell and went to finders in Brooklyn the other day room, are for the present used as potpourri | had a queer history. It was about twelve jars, are of Derby stoneware, the same feet square and was worth $1,300. It could could not have been carried to Brooklyn easpoonful of corn starch with one capful | across the Brooklyn Bridge, and had to Varnish the soles of your shoes, and it | passenger platform. After all that, just as will conder tham impervious to dampuess, I it reached its destination it was smached.

Hot the Divine Nine, Detroit Free Press : "Miss Knippy," said the Vassar professor of Greak mythology one you tell me the names of the divine "Yes, cir; there is Buok Ewing and record of the generous gift of Hurkisondos and the second To Meet the Etata. A City of Mexico despatch says : delayed telegram from Acapulco states the Esqueraido had left that post after having All Achies sought many favors, which were refused. The Esmeralda is well armed and equipped. Bhe received telegrams from the United A Exampantila telegram says the captain of a fighting-boat there claims his vessel was nocely ran down before daylight by a large steamer without lights bound north.

" Stop | stop | Who is Buck Ewing ? sunited at the poor professor's ignorance and answered in oborus : "Why, the catcher, of course !"

> carpentere of Milwaukee have decided to give no most employment

Thirds of Windom than Come in at the Open In mixing asks dough nee ones of exacts the same size for measuring the differer If a cake cracks open when haring it to isher bucause the oven is too has and coan the outside before the inside i beated, or else the calts was made too stiff. Two or three rose-get whom leaves put it. when making oreb-app will give it a Beat the yelk of an our and spread on The molasses to be used for singerbre

THE RAPPY BOUSEWIFF.

Windows.

Oil-cloths should never have soop used upon them, as the lye will destroy the colors and the fluish. - Ladies' Home

MOTHE AS 2D WHICH WHAH.

flowers or frings, or a collar as ness har can always be conceated by a velved ogllaretee, to which snything can be appliqued-besds, medallions, miniatures, mil-buttons, flowers, brooches and even Then there are passementerie bands in every width, jeweled with medieval, Egypion and modern effects that are very pretty. The Medici flat collars are not supensive, or a searf of diaphanous gause surer. The early manufactured thread | other day. " Why do I specially advertise rived from the number of yards to the because they are not afraid to work. They Respecting the St. Lawrence & O tawa pound, just as it is to day. No. 60 yarn come here and say they want places, and made No. 60 thread, though in point of | want them right away; they don't want to Pacific Railway Co. in connection with its | would equal No. 20 years, being made of | for a situation. They will often go to a place at 9 or 10 o'clock of the day they When the sawing machine came into come here to apply They are willing to Respecting the E. B. Eddy Manufactur- | the market as a great thread consumer, | wash and do all kinds of work, don't care ing Co., and to change its name to the E. | nareasoning in its work and insxorable in | to go out evenings, and stay a good while ise demands for mechanical accuracy, six in a place. They want the same wages Respecting the River St. Clair Railway | cord cotton had to be made in place of the over here that the American girls get. If old and rougher three-cord, it being much I they have been receiving $2.50 a week in Canada they want $3.50 or $4 here. Often a lady comes here and asks for place that offers. They are very particu-Mr. Haggart, in answer to Mr. Lander- kinds of it, and each kind goes through and Friday afternoons, and refused to work couldn's find any time to go out harself upon for vigorous service. But what I as she sank back listlessly into the Turkish consider its best feature in its recom- divan which her father, who was a well-

Anti-Hebrew Outbreak at Corfu. A Corfu cable says: The anti Hebrew

and become flustered. A boxer must ever about April 27th is becoming more venebe on the alert, his wits constantly alive, mour. Yesterday rioting was resumed. looking for an opportunity of assault; he | Two Hebrews were killed and a number must be able to not instantly and with cool | injured. Troops dispersed the rioters and deliberation, as distinguished from wild, now surround the Hebrew quarter. lungs; these are all continuously in action | Hebrews are closed. The prefect of Corfu has been summoned to Athens to explain the situation to the Government. Troops

Why She Adored Blun. Where the nerve force is limited, the effect | New York Hereld : Ethel-I just adore

Early this month, pays " Goldthwaite's brain day after day, dealing with | Mewfeundland, with a party of five or six becomes tired, listless and, after a while, | point which would convey him far up the incapable of work. Give him a vacation | west coast of Grasuland to Whale Sound, tub and always come book looking as it

Lumbago, Sciatica

Bruises Swellings, Soreness Frost-bites

A SURELY TO THE EDITOR:-Please inform your readers that I have a positive remed.

D. O. N L 90, 01

Baltimore, Md.

THE BEST COUGH MEDICINE