Just cogises a minuse; makes all the difference in the world 300,10 201 10 1F

You rail at playing cards and such, You assured "decoration," Boxisty you scorn to touch. Whate or may be your station. The chances are, could you get in, You would the first begin it; makes all tire difference in the world f you're not in it?

on and fault with the churches, too; he members and the preacher; listror eds may seem un wise to you. You microscopic creature, Take off those glasses; look around Unprejudiced a minute; I make all the difference in the world / you're not in it.

A funeral went by to-day; You called the dead " a sinner "; I wonder what the world will say When you forget your dinner ; When you ride by in such a coach, A lone pine box wi him it! t makes all the difference in the world If you're not in it.

Phere's not a thing upon the earth, Or over you in heaven, ant you must weigh its little porth, Insert the gossip's leaven. What fine you'd find within it? It makes all the difference in the world If you've not in it. EVELYN C. Ron in Work

Mrs. Atherion gave a motherly smooth to Loby's brown hands in passing, and stepped For a second or two the girl stood where the had left her, an ominous crimson spot serning on her chock, an ominous flame alight in her gray eyes. Then her head dropped on her clasped hands, and she burst | he continued. "Come down to your own

" How dare she ? " she cried, through her | there." gasping sobs; "bow dare she?"

adignant sobs, and wondered, in an abcent | pear to her for himself. kind of way, where they came from . Could be faced by the light, as it proved on some them. The light, as it proved on some them. The light, as it proved on some them. The light of one torones. The light, as it proved on some them. The light of one torones the said that in March, '91, the contract was but no blush rose on the dark face under them?

The light, as it proved on some them. The light of one torones. The light of one torones are torones. The light of one torones are torones. The light of one torones are torones are torones. The light of one torones are torones are torones. The light of one torones are torones are torones are torones. The light o and parcels to the station, Letty, steadying | her roses over her lap in silence.

" and it was the same with her mother."

sace of Letty Leigh. Mr. Leigh proposed giving a number of there he left her.

to be asked, Mrs. Atherton ably belping sonttered throughout the room. him; and while the rich were being remem. Ernest Devereux leaned his arm on the little soul for the world; should be used as the camping bered by them, Letty, in her quiet way, did low mantle, and his head on his arm, and pretend to be much of a Christian." Erness Devereux, following as esquire, woman he loved and hoped one day to grate as he spoke, and, with a yourn, draw and, watching Lessy day by day as she make love him. That she did not love him | the curtains back, and let the yellow, sichly went among the people, began to chink there he knew, but she was young and tender- light of the young day oreep in, while he must be some subtle pleasure in doing good | hearted; once his, her love, he thought, lay down to get a few hours' sleep before that so brightened the sweet, deck, womanly | would be easily won. face he was fast learning to look upon as | As he stood there in the half shade, a beautiful. He had seen ladies standing be- genial softness stole over his handseme, hind the stalls of bazzars and fancy fairs, | cynical, world-hardened face-a shifting, aving their carriages stand in by-streets, | seemed to have a vivid, witching beauty, cometroes, whom they had heard to be in overhead. is over for the benefit of some charitable | never left her those ill fated riches.

he had never known, or even dreamed of, Oh I if he had only been poor, I would have hearted pity, the open-handed, delicate sorne anything for his sake." helpfulness, that marked Letty Leigh's | So she kept thinking, with fretful pales

ellk, wish its eweeping train - for Letty de naughty darling. for you were most peoted coro of her. But what often surobseks a delicate rose color, her dark gray The young lady, the twenty first, and ayes slight with pleasure and excitement, most demonstrative, of Letty's new friends, nothing mitrayagant in all this, that and a swinkling busch of holly berries in | was standing on the rug by this time, her her chiding hair. So deep grew the first goony skirts dangerously near the steel on her cheeks as the night passed that bus bore of the grate. (the was looking up with lady, citting near the door with her three | o mischievous wonder at Ernest Devereux's pale daughters, growing paler every bour | nothing foce, and Letty's grave one. with spite and envy, gathered round her, " I dog parden a thousand times, if I am

of her nose instead of in her obseks, threw | oloss to Letty's side, Masself standing the circle of admirers, as she answered : "I dare say. She looks very like as slegance of diction-and up great wonder that they were not. Rumor did say that to leaving Penmere, and he called to say sheir grandfather had shought himself lessed when he was owner of a fishingsmack, but the present Misses Tophasa, their mamma and pape, and one broths:

kept a groom; and what more would you & little later that same evening Ernest | " but he last his respects, and compliments buzzing sound, growing louder and louds gush of mingled music and laughter swept and Letty are coming over the carmus in; an essence of joy it seemed; and Letty board laid on her shoulder, and Letty board suil on Ernest Deverence's arm. He baret into tears. That sound of outer started to her feet, and turning suddenly

A proscology useless crowd was gathered pound them in an instant, and many were | and fin the process named as the cause of this

Not one of them imagined the real cause onne from her very heart, and that a stricken one. who had struck the blow, so to speak, and | " My derling, my own Letty, you mus som har reeling under it. She was carried | tell me what is grinving you," he eried to ber own room, and Mrs. Atherion and a drawing her hands foroibly away from her couple of young lady friends attended on | face ; and then, as a sudden thought flashed

"Poor dear," said Mrs. Topham, who he?-did you?" was at heart a kindly woman, "how white "I loved him," she broke in with a sob, fixed, that people turned to look after her as she passed. Ernest Devereux caught a gilmpse of her, and breaking from a group of gentlemen who surrounded him, made of gentlemen who surrounded him, made see that you are suffering acutely."

little parlor; we shall at least be quiet He offered her his arm as he spoke, and

"I told you how it would be," he said. but told now with many passionate changes the spoken words were nothing to the "Letty would not dream of disobeying me." that had been absent then. He had pleaded written evidence bafore him, plainly to be "No, the dear girl would not," she re- for the hand of the heiress then; now he read in the quiet face, not drooped nor ing the dangers of this room with the aid Mr. Brodeur asked if the Government "No, the dear girl would more the hand of the hand of absolute control he possessed over his and easily; now she whispered is with a balf augry, then he kissed her and let her celling of which were literally thick with a will be a strict investigation. daughter's will, and Mrs Atherton did not faltering tongue that would scarse obey ito | go. break the illusion, though she knew very office. She measured his love by her own; "Well, after all," he thought, "she is a cluster, and as the light struck them Tupper? Letty would not have been so easily con- stirred with plty for him; and he saw that but she will get over that, no fear." it was so by her face.

then Letty dressed, and went down to me. I am willing to wait any time it what kind. Very little was left for her to do in that | which I may know there is hope in wait- | she had said then.

and so many after days, till it grew into loved her, and he put off the giving of her shought of her.

borhood should be invited in surn, for his londer, and the hum of fresh voices and | -she cannot belp it." pormood should be invited in such as the locality for holding the came atfully to The young man passed his ringed hands roz, our guide. They had one of the best lating to the locality for holding the came bly, such an his proud old heart would have shem, shey sat quiet and silent in the little carractingly through the milken tangles of singers in Kentucky with them, and the of Militis District No. 1 for 1890 and 1891, delighted in. No one whose coming could summer parlor; the bronze lamp throwing kis whiskers as he said that, mentally com- cohoes of her voice made the most beauti- eaid that if the camp was held in any other add to the tone or the pleasure of those a mellow light on Letty's dark, bearded face, ful music I sver heard. Passing through a place than London an lojustice was being gatherings was forgotten by Mr. Leigh, who and only half revealing with its pale square brow and grave, search low sunnel, called "Purgatory," we arrived done to that city. London had purchased simself made out a list of those who were statustes and shining silver ornaments | ing eyes, to his own fair, handsome one.

selling off at fabulous prices useless articles | tremulous, tenderness - that had never that their own fair hands were supposed to rested there since his boyhood, if even have forward, and smiling their awestest as then. He was not wholly bad, although he they coured the gold out of tightly buttoned- was very selfish; but to-night self was forup pockets in the name of the destitute poor | gotten for the time; and the quaint, dark London or elsewhere. He had seen them | face, that his friend had so ridiculed, while shey themselves stepped daintily over | is shone out on him between the dim helfcoiled pavements, in search of some favored | Hights of the low fire and the brosss lamp

cont, and, on the impulse of their own | Letty, sitting there, all cannindful of the warm beerts, had come to relieve. He had | tender game of those kren eyes, was thinkstood by while a lady signed a check on her ing, with vain, rebellions longing, of what live. banker for a good round sum, and handed might have been if Paul Lennard's wife had institution, and he had known the same "He might have loved me then," she

the face-to-face sympathy, the warm- married him, and worked for him, and visiting among her poor neighbors. "My os oke out there, and pinked away first the poor sister" with her was no Christian pill, leaves, and then the blossoms of her that the good it would do herenfter would | Letty was just like the rest of us; she make up for its procent bitterness. She was willing to endure any trouble but the spoke little of charity and love, but those one that was pressing down on her. Her great twin sisters were her constant guides; | shoulders felt strong to bear any of the and Ernest Devereux, seeing this, felt many | crosses that might home been laid on them, a sting of conscience as he shought of his but they bent and chivered under the of a handsome house in Belgravia, and a necessities and the resolves they had forced burden that they were called upon to carry. dashing turn out for his pet, as largely and "We thought you were lest, or had run On New Year's Eve a pleasant party was away, or something dreadful had happened, gathered in Mr. Leigh's rooms-not a very Letty, dear," called out a clear, ringing large one-and mostly young people. It voice, as its owner swept into the room; surning over a siny Parisu Psycho with her Letty had never been so nearly beautiful voluminous shirts, as and passed. "You always thought lovingly at him, and as she was that night, in her pure white have been searched for everywhere, you

intruding," she said, with a little mock "I shouldn't like to say it to anyone but ocurreny, and a pretense of going away

Tildo, feeling the blood settling in the tip | gallantly pushed forward a chair for her a resensful glance at Letty, radiant in a while, and watching the two girls. "Who wanted me," Letty asked, looking down with a half blush on the souttered public strewing her lap and the carpet at good-bye. Of course he knew nothing of the party; but it was odd to come of side SOUP, WOME'S IS T' The rosy bluch was a burning figure pour ; sincehn, neck and bosom one painful, finch-

lived in great state at Topham Lodge, and | ing orimnon.

iness (ingled along her bruised heart | faced Bruess Deversor, like o theelt of agony, breaking down pride Foretz was shooked, sousked even of the night of those scalding tears ; smiled or spoke. Their the new how pale "I thought she looked too brilliant to be he felt as though he must do something to and haggard he won, how ill he los acothe her, but she would not be soothed ; "Yes, she was evidently excited, and the his words fell dull on her sare; and the Ernest?" The asked. "Have you been heat has been too much for her," said loud, passionate sobs only coased to give Ernest?" the asked. "Have you been upon him, he added " Dr. Lennard !-was cho is to be sure!" And then she said, half shame, half sorrow, as she bent lower to be sure! "And then she said, half shame, half sorrow, as she bent lower to be sure!" And then she said, half shame, half sorrow, as she bent lower to be sure!" And then she said, half shame, half sorrow, as she bent lower to be sure!" And then she said, half shame, half sorrow, as she bent lower to be sure!" And then she said, half shame, half sorrow, as she bent lower to be sure!" And then she said, half shame, half sorrow, as she bent lower to be sure!" And then she said, half shame, half sorrow, as she bent lower to be sure!" And then she said, half shame, half sorrow, as she bent lower to be sure!" And then she said, half shame, half sorrow, as she bent lower to be sure!" And then she said, half shame, half sorrow, as she bent lower to be sure!" And then she said, half shame, half sorrow, as she bent lower to be sure!" And then she said, half shame, half sorrow, as she bent lower to be sure!" And then she said, half shame, half sorrow, as she bent lower to be sure!" And then she said, half shame, half sorrow, as she bent lower to be sure!" And then she said, half shame, half sorrow, as she bent lower to be sure!" And then she said, half shame, half sorrow, as she bent lower to be sure!" And the shame to be su personde you to go back to your room. sonorous peals of Fenmore bells came been most everywhere and will lead on a load line would come into force so far She answered with a smile and a quiet They had been ringing the old year out, but as softly and sadly, that the music in but as softly and sadly, that the music in he world—the but as softly and sadly, that the music in he world—the but as softly and sadly, that the music in he world—the hir. Topper said that he had already are two great caves in the world—the hir. Topper said that he had already taken occasion to send to the different ports. She glanced quickly up at him, and then bent her head over her bouquet, but still she did not stir.

She glanced quickly up at him, and then the new year in so londly and joyously, the Wyandosso Caves, of Indiana, where the country information regarding this the new year in so londly and joyously, the Wyandosso Caves, of Indiana, where the country information regarding this the their peal panetrated even the quiet fore the appearance of civilized that their peal panetrated even the quiet fore the appearance of civilized that their peal panetrated even the quiet fore the appearance of civilized in having the papers ordered by the Privilege of the delay for the country information regarding this waster.

first kiss upon her lips, knew that the old year, and its bright dreams had, indeed, declining path till you reach the first room.

Our party consisted of the proprietor and work and required time. These papers of the proprietor and work and required time. Mrs. Asnerson dared to do anything, as she took it, and wanted with and bare, and unguide, Mr. Rothrock, a Mr. Johnson, Mrs.

Letty bad yet to learn, and any passionate arranged of the proprietor and guide, Mr. Rothrock, a Mr. Johnson, Mrs.

guide, Mr. Rothrock, a mr. Johnson, Mr Wasted.

Ernest Devereux, sitting smoking by his fire in the room next to Letty's, heard her fire in the room next to Letty's, heard her fire in the room next to Letty's, heard her fire in the room next to Letty's, heard her fire in a large easy chair, and drew another has gone before it!" said Ernest Devereux, first room glitters with nitre cryotals and has gone before it!" said Ernest Devereux, first room glitters with nitre cryotals and has gone before it!" said Ernest Devereux, first room glitters with nitre cryotals and has gone before it!" said Ernest Devereux, first room glitters with nitre cryotals and has gone before it!" said Ernest Devereux, first room glitters with nitre cryotals and has gone before it!" said Ernest Devereux, first room glitters with nitre cryotals and has gone before it!" said Ernest Devereux, first room glitters with nitre cryotals and has gone before it!" said Ernest Devereux, first room glitters with nitre cryotals and has gone before it!" said Ernest Devereux, first room glitters with nitre cryotals and has gone before it!" said Ernest Devereux, first room glitters with nitre cryotals and has gone before it!" said Ernest Devereux, first room glitters with nitre cryotals and has gone before it!" said Ernest Devereux, first room glitters with nitre cryotals and has gone before it!" said Ernest Devereux, first room glitters with nitre cryotals and has gone before it!" said Ernest Devereux, first room glitters with nitre cryotals and has gone before it!" said Ernest Devereux, first room glitters with nitre cryotals and has gone before it!" said Ernest Devereux, first room glitters with nitre cryotals and has gone before it!" said Ernest Devereux, first room glitters with nitre cryotals and has gone before it!" said Ernest Devereux, first room glitters with nitre cryotals and has gone before it!" said Ernest Devereux first room glitters with nitre cryotals and has gone before it!" said Ernest Devereux first room glitters with nitre cryotals and has gone before it!" said Ernest Dever gently pushing the heavy, dark hair away after leaving it we entered a tunnel about Railway, and it had no power to force them statement very disappointing. What right three quarters of a mile long, where the operate it.

might, perhaps, have thought a little more sallow cheek, fugitive gleams of tenderness aweep of her long lashes as they rested on after Washington avenue, St. Louis. At steel cruiser for the protection of the fishond it was the same with her mother."

The seemed quite to plume himself on the Letty had then answered "No," firmly moment he stood beside her, half touched, never forget. A room, the walls and plaints of improper conduct are made there well that, but for her womanly shaft sent and feeling through every quivering nerve only a child. Just now also is feeling they made a darf towards the door where straight and surely into a tender part, Miss what it was to love in vain, her heart was naturally sore at this fellow's indifference; we were standing, just as the guide oried, of the Government to organize a navalry "No, don's onswer me now," he said. which her father left her to go to London, some of them struck against the side of this question is now under the consider-looked down silently on the face of the He throw the stump of his eiger into the breakfast time.

CHAPTER VI. " LETTY, REMEMBER WE ARE ENGLOSED."

herself wishing that her lover was n little bit more like him. Such as he was, howover, he was very well; and if she had cared have had her reward in the joy and comfort their engagement gave her father, for Ernore Devereux and she troro now fermally sugaged. The old man was now in high dalight he talked vaguely of great good fortune yet have to thank him when it came. He spoke had been hundreds of thousands in place of

Letty sometimes smiled, and smiling,

Leigh want on one of his mysterious visite smiled at one another meaningly as of mine sent me a part of a bottle of St. spected. Lotty was surprised, and a little vezod, but | used it with splendid success for neuralgic not at all frightened as you. Bruest Devercun was in the holds of Mno. J. RIBGLAND. sending her long, loving letters, written on dainty paper, with the Devoreux and rest a certain draw satis shoe that had no pleasant memories linked to ft, and the year place. reason for kucping which she could hardly have given, even to herself. Now that he was so long away, and no etters were coming, she began at first to wonder, and then to free; and finally she graw angry at what she looked on as slight-

The first bare of a value oams flouding over them, and Ernest Devereux stood the stood them, and Ernest Devereux stood the stood them of the great waves relief to writh a new thirty was replayed to the would go well and the great waves relief to writh a new that the great waves relief to writh a new that great waves age, we would not be suffered to the stood them. Then short the spring sumshine, a little of stire and the of stood them. The spring sumshine, a little of stire and the office on the stood the stood them. Then short the spring sumshine, a little of stire and the office on the stood the stood them. The spring sumshine, a little of stire and the stood the stood the stood them. The spring sumshine, a little of stire and the stood them of the stood them. The spring sumshine, a little of stire and the stood them of the stood them. The spring sumshine, a little of stire and the stood them of the stood them. The spring sumshine, a little of stire and the stood them of the stood them. The spring sumshine, a little of stood them of the stood them. The spring sumshine, a little of stood them of the

So she put out her hand to bim sook is, and held it tightly in his, he never Mr. Tupper introduced a bill to amend

(To be Continued. THE WYANDOTTE CAVES.

19. Melutyre Teliz of Wonders in th

Sosem of Mother Burth, In opening his lecture the doctor said, But I was mistaken, and I'm sure I'm very seemed by the couldn't be rouged, you know, and the couldn't be rouged, you know, as white as the best face before him; the seemed that it is consistent to avoid his reproachful eyes.

For a moment he stood passive, his face once when crossing one of the Lakes of Killarney he asked the Irishman, who was never travelled, and the Irishman never travelled, and Irishman never travelled, and the Irishman never travelled, and Irishman never travelled, and the Irishman never travelled, and Irishman never travelled, and the Irishman never travelled, and drowned their chimes. They were ringing Wyandotto Caves, of Indiana, where of the country information regarding this of the heart and a little less of the fortune coming and going in the fair hive her obesk, though his hand, firm and the end of the avenue we halted before a cries of the great lakes. The vessel was to plant of the fair him and the end of the avenue we halted before a cries of the great lakes. The vessel was to of this woman he had come down to marry. syes. Letty's face was as pale and still as strong, and loving withal, was being softly projecting stone and the guide, lighting be built according to specifications by When, a little while after, Mr. Leigh, is had been in the drawing room, her eyes the stone on the ceiting. The reflection service. The contract price is $40,000, of the stone on the ceiting. irony in his tone, if he should send her boxes she sat and scattered the crimson petals of jarred upon him strangely. But now, and represented a man and a woman quarrel- which $81,000 is to be paid in cash, and he was thinking and saying how little ling and was named " Betsy and I are the company is to take over the old ornice? her voice as well as she could, replied," No." Ernest Deversux was the first to speak, would content him till she could give him out." We had now reached Banditti Hali, at a valuation of $9,000. her votce as well as she said that the state of the said and a more appropriate name for this and his low, sarnest tones wake the dream and a more appropriate name for this and his low, sarnest tones wake the dream and a more appropriate name for this and a more appropriate name for this and his low, sarnest tones wake the dream and a more appropriate name for this horrible place could not be found. Just said that the supplies for the fishery prohe told her on the sands some months back, him herself that she did not love him, but before going across it the guide shouted, tection are purchased by private contract, bats. The guide threw a Roman candle at Mr. Lister-What about Sir Charles "lie down, quick." They swept over our | school in Toronto. On that dull November morning on heads in a solid cloud, and when returning | Sir Adolphe Caron-The subject matter saying she could not come, and why, and "To-morrow, or the day after you shall tell Letty hed longed for a change, no matter of entrance and fell bloeding just where stion of the Government.—(Laughter.) we were lying. We all leaped to our | Sir Hector Langevin, answering Mr. pleases you. Only give me some token by "Any change must be for the better," feet and ran, torrified, down the road till Bain, said that no claim for damages we were joined by our guide. We went on in connection with the Dundas and In the cold, gray dawn of the first day in two or three miles and came to a grotto, Waterloo mucadamized road had been way; no man anew perset how to be easily agreeable than Ernest Devereux, and to-day he was doing his best to shine. There was something in the frank, upward glance of send bad been to be as he spoke, and he was lying on her bed, which is much spoken of, as a romantic made by Dr. Walker, and no settlement most of the new year, she was lying on her bed, which is much spoken of, as a romantic made by Dr. Walker, and no settlement most of the new year, she was lying on her bed, which is much spoken of, as a romantic made by Dr. Walker, and no settlement most of the new year, she was lying on her bed, which is much spoken of, as a romantic made by Dr. Walker, and no settlement most of the new year, she was lying on her bed, which is much spoken of, as a romantic made by Dr. Walker, and no settlement most of the new year, she was lying on her bed, which is much spoken of, as a romantic made by Dr. Walker, and no settlement most of the new year, she was lying on her bed, which is much spoken of, as a romantic made by Dr. Walker, and no settlement most of the new year, she was lying on her bed, which is much spoken of, as a romantic made by Dr. Walker, and no settlement most of the new year, she was lying on her bed, which is much spoken of, as a romantic made by Dr. Walker, and no settlement most of the new year, she was lying on her bed, which is much spoken of, as a romantic made by Dr. Walker, and the new year, she was lying on her bed, which is much spoken of, as a romantic made by Dr. Walker, and the new year, she was lying on her bed, which is much spoken of the new year, she was lying on her bed, which is much spoken of the new year, she was lying on her bed, which is much spoken of the new year, she was lying on her bed, which is much spoken of the new year, she was lying on her bed, which is much spoken of the new year, she was lying on her bed, which is much spoken of the new year, she was lying on her bed, which is much spoken of the new year, she was lying on her bed, which is much spoken of the new year, something in the train, upward girls eyes that drew the truth into his own; some spell there must have been in very bare, her heart was very empty; any

own; some spen to the solid wall, but the guide pointed out a ones, and that the balance of the payments ber low, clear voice that brought the man- love was better than none, and she loft him by the fire, smoking. He had not gone to solid wall, but the guide pointed out a ones, and that the balance of the payments bed at all, and his head had grown dizzy bed at all, and his head had grown dizzy bed at all, and his head had grown dizzy poring over a morocco-bound volume were going through there. We all got office was either to clerks or to companies so nearly a good man as when in the pres | Brnest Devereax was a gentleman still, his debts were jotted down in unpleasantly through all right but Johnson, who was a | who had rendered services. after all those years of subtefuge and hand- round numbers. He was smoking comfort- big, fat fellow, and when the guide and I Mr. Davies, on a motion for returns, The short November day passed rapidly to mouth existence, and he would not press ably now, and thinking of Letty. The and more pleasantly than she could have believed any day could pass for ner now. So mouse existence, and he half smiled, half sighed as he believed any day could pass for ner now. So mouse existence, and he half smiled, half sighed as he which we came to next, there is a natural with the exception of 68 miles, had been retable covered with visiting cards from all laid. The rails were absolutely worn out weeks, and Christmas was near at hand. | pleased her, himself content to wait; and | pleased her, himself cont "she is terribly out; but the fellow was examining the beautiful stalactites and | the Government would investigate the select parties to which the citte of the neigh. So while the music pealed out loader and old and boorish. She will soon forget him stalagmites, we came upon another party of souriess guided by a son-in-law of Roth- Mr. Hyman, in moving for papers reas the largest room in the world, so large | the Carling farm and conveyed it to the "By Jove, I would not hurs such a good | that St. Paul's Cathedral, gates and all, Government, one condition of said transfer boundaries of any part. We now went ground of the District No. 1. In 1890 the down Slippery Hill, and near the bottom camp had been taken to Stratford, it was motion he did it in the interest of the good her highly when she helps them out of a my foot slipped from under me on the said as a political bribe, but it had not been of Canada. He saw the diffiweb clay, and I slid forty feet to the successful, as they had representing that

not fold us, he said, "The hill was so punishment to London, and as a reward to of the traffic he was convinced that it was sew, get a dinner if need be, amuse chilslippery, it slipped my memory." At St. Thomas, it was to be given to the latter in best interest of Canada that there should dren, assist in getting up entertainments were placed fifty feet apart, all lights put Sir Adolphe Caron said that since he had could be honest differences as to whether is an excellent nurso, and reads alone well, marou was in, and here, was little—snough to reak a child been the head of the Militia Department the country was ripe for prohibition, but it and sings a little—snough to reak a child being daily blown and blustered into some- tions of absolute silence and darkness till London had had a camp of the legislators to lead asleep or help out a chorus. Bho is like the thing of her past fresh youth by the keen | we were ready to shrick with terror. We other locality in Ontario. He said that Mr. | public opinion. winds that swept and surged round ber as fished for half an hour at Crawford's Hyman was mistaken as to the condition she teck her long, lonely walks over the Springs, but without success, and then of transfer of the property by the city of the property by the sends in her scalakin jacket and flowing went into Milroy's Temple, which was Loudon to the Government.

woolen dress. Those walks were not always first entered by a dare dayll school boy. Mr. Cameron (Huros), when the second lonely, not often, indeed, considering that named Milroy. Here the guide took a key | reading of his bul to repeal the Electoral | He contended that the advocates of proaway from Fenmore, and that it was in the first five were the notes of the musical paper, asked if Sir Rector Langevin was Lenson was more than a hundred miles and struck some of the stalactives, and on Franchise Act was reached on the order bibition were either unscriptural or illogi-London her lover was forced, as he said, to scale. My wife took the key and played prepared to go on with the discussion of its intellect of the local state of the local scale. My wife took the key and played prepared to go on with the discussion of its intellect of the local state of the local scale. My wife took the key and played prepared to go on with the discussion of its intellect of the local scale.

"Nearer, my God, to Thee," on them. A shis bill now. When on Friday last be had sure, or an incitement to crime. There No one could be more attentive, more moment later I saw Johnson and my wife desired a second reading of the bill. Sir No one could be more assensive, more moment taser I saw Johnson and my wire gellant, more loving even, than Ernest running towards a spot which shone with Hector Langevin had asked that it be Devereux had been during these two bleak | alabaster whiteness and found we were at | allowed to stand. winter months. Letty had long since | the entrance of the cave again. It was the | Bir Heotor Langevin suggested Thurslearned to miss him when absent, and wait | early morning of a beautiful Beptember | day.

" He Cometh Mot."

" Eirman to be ?" " Well, papa says that my hucband must talented and rish. We are still looking Espeked the Agent,

And I say he must be handsome, dashing,

Montreal Star : A party of Hungariano, toothughe. I would not be without it."

he bill proposed to amend the Act so as to of Commons or a Sonator shall be entitled sage only from his residence, which ougs be in Canada, to Ostawa.

og the safety of ships. He explained that the purpose was to prevent passongs? vec-sels from carrying explosives. There was no legislation on the subject to day in inglish Act. Mr. Tupper-It includes a good man his way to her side as once.

The tiny ormolu toy on to mantal doom, raplied, 'Well, I guess I will wait on to amend the law respecting the safety of this way to her side as once.

The tiny ormolu toy on to mantal doom, raplied, 'Well, I guess I will wait on the ships. The hon, grasisman knew that on the ling ordence. A second later, and the law regulating the safety of the same as I do here.' Being ships. The hon, grasisman knew that on the law respecting the safety of the same as I do here.' Being ships. The hon grasisman knew that on the law respecting the safety of the same as I do here.' Being ships. The hon grasisman knew that on the law respecting the safety of the same as I do here.' Being ships. The hon grasisman knew that on the law respecting the safety of the same as I do here.' Being ships. The hon grasisman knew that on the law respecting the safety of the same as I do here.' Being ships. The hon grasisman knew that on the law respecting the safety of the same as I do here.' Being ships. The hon grasisman knew that on the law respecting the safety of the same as I do here.' Being ships. The hon grasisman knew that on the law respecting the safety of the same as I do here.' Being ships. The hon grasisman knew that on the law respecting the safety of the same as I do here.' Being ships. The hon grasisman knew that our law is the same as I do here.' Being ships. The hon grasisman knew that our law is the same as I do here.' Being ships. The hon grasisman knew that our law is the same as I do here.' Being ships. The hon grasisman knew that our law is the same as I do here.' Being ships. The hon grasisman knew that our law is the same as I do here.' Being ships. The hon grasisman knew that our law is the same as I do here.' Being ships. clearly sounding over the snowy fields. journey through one of the two great caves | Canadian ships sailing outward from > the breast where it had lain passive for a River. You go round a hill by the path till to the Tarte charges prepared for the infew moments, and taking Ernest Devereux's you come to the entrance 20 x 7 feet, which spection of the members of the committee. "May this be a happy new year to you, cave at sunset. The guide carried two | Lavergne, said the Government had no

Er. Tupper moved the third reading of the bill respecting fishing vessels of Hr. Davies said that he had thought the Minister of Marine and Fisheries woult have taken the opportunity before the bill was passed of making a matement with reference to the position of the matter between Newfoundland and Canada. Mr. Tupper said that he would rather abstain from introducing into the considand good habits. Mamma says he must between Canada and Newloandland, since be frugal, industrious, attentive and moral. the bill affected simply vespels of the United States, and in no way disturbed the vessels of Newtoundland. He thought it was well that the bill should proceed on the old lines. At present the position was this: The Government of Newfoundland had by the provisions of the Bais Act prowho were deceived by the glowing accounts | hibited Canadian vessels from obtaining prised hor tree, that Ernest Devereux, cool, of life in America into emigrating, returned | bait in the ports or harborn of that colony up the agent who had dessived them and sale were permitted to go into Newfound. | shat public opinion was overwhelmingly | when visiting the hanging, May 15th. Can do more to stop immigration than all the restrictive laws yet passed.

and under this license they were permitted to compensation. The public would never yards. Menls fifty cents. This year even that privilege had been withdrawn. The Government had been withdrawn. The Government had been withdrawn. hanged him to a convenient tron. Such land ports upon payment of a license fee, against the liquor traffic. He was opposed ase all from windows. Gallows within 150 pressing with every fact possible a lig traffic.

April came in, and wors on toward May, and they had notther some nor written. To go about my household duties. I have her few treasured were stored; among the that he doesn't do it any more, or you loss | they proposed taking any further action. They had not yet told the House that they | ment, believed that was the proper action Dorothy?" "You, she is; and if you're coming often you'd better hurry up and propose, 'cause I've noticed with all the others when it goes on so long it never give upon this question before they were others when it goes on so long it never give upon this question before they were of the Covernment to prohibition, and he hoped the House was entitled to all the information, and he hoped the House was a terrible thing prohibition, and he hoped the House was a terrible thing prohibition, and he hoped the House was a terrible thing prohibition, and he hoped the House was a terrible thing prohibition, and he hoped the House was a terrible thing prohibition, and he hoped the House was a terrible thing prohibition, and he hoped the House was a terrible thing prohibition, and he hoped the House was a terrible thing prohibition, and he hoped the House was a terrible thing prohibition, and he hoped the House was a terrible thing prohibition. asked to pass the bill. It seemed to -Ohorlie W., eged 4, had two pets-a hist (Mr. Mills) an entroordinary which Letty was asserting, and having nothing better to say just then, told her that he had may Dr. Leonard riding a little way and not Fernmore that morning on the same of Fernmore that morning on the same of the united States which and by the same of the united States which and by the same of the same of the same of the united States which and by the same of the united States which are possible. I am sure one sight of his any possible. I am sure one sight of his grave, pole face, would care any of the first bare of a value came footing.

The first bare of a value came footing upon the post that the same came for the came and code and the great waves rolled to with a long operation.

The first bare of a value came footing.

The first bare of a value came footing came footing.

The first bare of a value came footing came footing.

The first bare of a value came footing came footing a liste way in the first bare of a value came footing came footing the first bare of a value came footing came footi > than Mr. Mills that he could not raise a discussion on the matter on the third reading of this bill. The Government of the Dominion would not feel that they had gone beyond their duty in interfering with the negotiations of any colony which affected the Dominion of Canada. The indefinite reference to the people. If a vote terests of the fishing portion of the popuso samber of the House who knew better | Po-

knew to his (Mr. Mills') credit that there the vardiet of the people should be ob-would be no more elequent and forcible beined. He did not think any greater misremonstrance in the House if they had

Mills. So far from its being extraordinary people expressed an opinion in favor of the feeting the measure. The property of the country of Council was not adopted until Maskintosh's amendment, asking that the big cities in the United States, schools for question affecting the reverse to walk correctly—bow to would be if the country of State for the Colonies had question affecting the reverse to the country of State for the Colonies had the contract of the country of State for the Colonies had the contract of the country of State for the Colonies had the contract of the country of State for the Colonies had the contract of the country of State for the Colonies had the contract of the country of State for the Colonies had the contract of the country of State for the Colonies had the contract of the country of State for the Colonies had the contract of the country of State for the Colonies had the contract of the country of the country of State for the country of the country avited an expression of opinion from the try should be referred to a committee, Privy Council in reference to the negotiations going on, and therefore in no sense was remonstrance uncalled for. Mr. Mills had not taken his point well, that the House had not been informed that any negotiations had taken place or were to be about the description of the point will that the Government to shift the would snable the Government to shift the There is not a mother in the countries who is not continually reminding who is not continually reminding protty daughters that if they only wall had not taken place or were to be a comment and not taken place or were to be a comment to shift the There is not a mother in the countries and improper proceeding. If the better they might have more chances a continually reminding protty daughters that if they only wall be relegated to a commentation. negotiations had taken place or were to be sufficient ability to deal with the subinformed in the subinformed correspondence in its entirety could not be the way of meeting the financial require-brought down, because the assent of the ments of the country if prohibition were Governments interested was to be had, and adopted. He would like to know if the until that con obtained it must be consid- amendment was not drawn up by the Cov-Mr. Mille (Boshwell) said that he would and placed in the hands of the member for like to bring the attention of the Govern-Ottawa?

Mr. Mackintosh-No member of ment to the fact that they had not yet nformed the House whether Mr. Colby had tendered his resignation as President of the Privy Council, and whather any other party had been appointed in his Only had, to the regret of his colleagues, and his office had not yet been filled. The following bills were introduced and The motion was declared lost. read a first time; To neorporate the Western Life Insur-World's Fair Notes. ance Co .- Mr. Macdonald (Winnipeg). To amend the Act to meorperate Collingwood & Bay of Quinte Bailway Co. -Mr. E rkpatrick.

$10,000 to be peld in pre-miums on its Bir Bichard Cartweight asked if there was any prospect of the popers as to the Washington negotiations promised in the for a World's Fair exhibit. A meeting for speech from the throne being brought Sir John Thompson replied that permis sion to publish the doouments had been applied for, and would no doubt be obtained bition of Jernoye at the Exposition.

Mr. Somerville, while the item for printing and stationery was under consideration, asked if the Secretary of State would souire any more clerks in the Printing Surean. A large part of the printing had not been done in the bureau, but by outside parties, and if this were to be done by the Government would more officers be re-Mr. Chapleau asked what printing had been done outside? Mr. Somerville said that as publicknew, men who got money for work knew, and view to getting space for a big display. the Secretary of State should know. The voters' lists and the report of the Geologi- grees Auxiliary, says that the indications brushing, and that they are absolutely as cal Survey had been printed outside. To incorporate the Steam Botter and tion, temperance, religion, agriculture,

Plate Glass Insurance Company of Canada | labor and other great subjects, will be so | large that great difficulty will be experi--Mr. Hyman. To incorporate the McLeod Irrigation | enced in providing large enough assembly Company-Mr. Davis.

nestion by Mr. Gibson as to whether it | very extensive facilities in that line are was the intention of the Government to provided. build a turning basin on the enlarged Welland causl at St. Catharines, said that the matter bad not yet been brought to the | national convention, voted to request the stession of the Government. Sir Hector Langevin, in answer to Usrkin, Connolly & Co. on account of the amount of money awed by the Quebec will probably be granted. Harbor Commissioners to the Government on account of interest up to December 31

Mr. Chapleau, replying to a question put | tion, and will soon open headquarters in by Mr. Lepine, said that the sype-setting machines purchased by the Government description will be furnished to intending formerly cost $3,500, but they could now be | exhibitors and visitors. purchased for $3,000. They were capable of composing 3,500 ams per hour, or 31,500 ems per day of nine hours, for which they paid $2 a day. The cost of type setting per 000 ems was 6 2 7 cents. Mr. Jamieson moved "That in the pinion of this House the time has arrived when it is expedient to prohibit the manu. like her very much, and men speak highly facture, importation and sale of intoxicat. of her when she is brought to their attening siquors for beverage purposes." bottom, and Johnson fell on top of me. district a gentleman who was not entirely ion, because it might be honestly opposed is not apt to marry, for men do not care When the guide was asked why he had in accord with the Government. As a by some men. In view of the past ravages for useful girls before marriage. Bhe can

> Mr. O'Brien was glad to see some com- | "live-forever" plant scentiless, and not speaker on the honesty he had displayed. parent of crime. Scripture told men to against mass; for autocracy against desso. sight to see a Cuban gentleman going about to drunkenness. Intoxication had come stitutional liberty; for race antagonisms the way to a fight.

Mr. Tisdalo. To incorporate the Whirlpool Bridge Company .- Mr. Graham. To amend the Dominton Franchise Act of 1874 by providing that voters must be British subjects .- Mr. Wood, of Brockville. Mr. Costsworth, resuming the debate our Mr. Jamieson's motion declaring the coun- | tious. try ripe for prohibition, said that the prinbeen recognized by law. It was now to be dom of granting prohibitory legislation. the place to discuss the bearings of Scrip- | follows: ture upon economic questions, but there | Are you going to the hanging? sion. There were plenty of indications | Stop at the Blank House, Trenton, Georgia, made enormous fortunes out of she degrad- | ing the stride of the ostrich is from 90 to beek with him. They were both to return before the thirdesh, they said, and they before the thirdesh, they said, and they severe attack of lumbago. A lady friend for the House to take, and that all who > molutenance of such anactment that the respondence to which Mr. Wills had refer-red were laid on the table to-day there was ernment. Was the blunderbuss looded

Mr. Mills-Then no doubt the Government will resent this imputation upon their

Mr. Sproule moved the adjournment of by His Excellency the Governor-General, vote, with the following results: Year 65, the debate, and the House demanded a

The Holstein Freisian Association, of the most prosperous cattle breeders' tables are all in their proper places, then, associations in America, has appropriated when she is ready to as now her gown, she

June 16th, under the auspices of the Oregon The American Jersey Cattle Club, at its annual meeting recently in New York, appropriated $10,000 to secure a proper exhi-One of the most unique attractions of | or five deep, strong boxes covered with the Euposition will be a bassar of all either black or green heavy paper. Four nations, which is to be located at the or ave ordinary gowns can be put in each ntersection of Midway plaisance with box, and with them can be any little Jackson Park. A company in Japan has | jancos belonging to them. Two evening sent in a request to be allowed to build a gowns, with all their belongings, have Japaness village, with picturesque streets, plenty of room in such boxes, and are not and to people it with 500 Japs. Similar in the least degree ornshed. For my own grounds and buildings committee is pussied for holding them after one has moved. to find space for them all. Professor William Saunders, director of is put on, tie them up securely with strong the experimental farms of the Canadian cord, and let the boxes go into a room department of agriculture, is in corre- where they will not be disturbed until you spondence with Chief Bushanan with a are really at home and take out your gowns President Bouney, of the World's Con- is missing, that they do not require a are that the proposed congresses on schoa-

Mr. Amvot introduced a Bill to make The most enjoyable way of reaching the your mother. oting compulsory, which was read a first | World's Fair grounds from the heart of the city will be by boat on Lake Michigan, and | men or women. You never know who may Sir John Macdonald, in answer to a the Local Directory intends to see that see them.

Packers of cannod goods, at their recent Exposition authorities to be allowed to show the process of preserving fruit, and to erec Tarte, said that $580,841 had been paid to a fully equipped cannery for that purpose. graving dook as Esquimalt, B. C., from Davis to set apart one week during the stingy with your favors. Exposition when Sostileh games may be Mr. Foster told Mr. Tarte that the made a leading attraction. The sequent

Hou. Thomas M. Waller, of Connsett. out, has been shoken to take charge of the | him for an hour when he san't find anybody oreign sffairs department of the Exposi- | alse. London, from which information of every

The Homely But Useful Girl. The "useful" girt, writes Ella Wheeler Wilcox, in The Ladies Home Journal, a not noticeable in any way. Everybody matter use of her, and everybody likes her. She has no enemies and no lovers. Women tion in some way; but they never think

Americas' Ally Described. New York Daily Commercial Bulletin : look elsewhere for the source of crime than | cracy; for absolute dospetiem against com- | the streets of Havana with his pet bird on assembled for the purpose of helping these same poor.

Ernest Deverger had known all this box and course the purpose of helping these same poor.

Ernest Deverger had known all this box and course the purpose of helping these same poor.

Ernest Deverger had known all this box and course the purpose of helping these same poor.

Ernest Deverger had known all this box and course the purpose of helping these same poor.

Ernest Deverger had known all this box and course the purpose of helping these same poor.

Ernest Deverger had known all this box and course the purpose of helping these same poor.

Ernest Deverger had known all this box and course the purpose of helping these same poor.

Ernest Deverger had known all this box and course the purpose of helping these same poor.

Ernest Deverger had known all this box and course the purpose of helping these same poor.

Ernest Deverger had known all this box and course the purpose of helping these same poor.

Ernest Deverger had known all this box and course the purpose of helping these same poor.

Ernest Deverger had known all this box and course the purpose of helping these same poor.

Ernest Deverger had the whole deverger and course the purpose of helping the purpose of helpin To incorporate the Buffelo, Lake Eric & government, her commerce, her wealth, her Brantford Railway & Coul Company .- | vost numerical resource, is the creation of military power. She exists to oppose, to repress, to invade, to destroy. She stands out among the European notions as the one sountry that effectively confronts the elavating forces of modera progress with brute resistance. That is her function, her mission among the na-

An Eye to Susiness, Rochaster Herald : There was a hanging hoped that the House would see the wis- entertainment, with a negro in the principal role, at Trouton, Georgia, last Friday. Mr. Flint took exception to Mr. O'Brien's Too enterprising landlord of a hotel there, deductions from Scripture against prohibi appreciating the importance of the occation. He did not think Parliament was gion and its opportunities, advertised as could be no doubt that the great religious | Blank House at Trenton, Georgia, offers bodies of Cauada were in favor of prohibi- an excellent view to witness the execution

32 inches ; when walking, but not feeding,

An English-Germon-Ibalian syndioste pessens. They knew that a few years ago the Government appointed a commissioner, was a general desire that the matter the United States of America, the Northern Washington negotiated a treaty which was should receive serious consideration; and Accembly, as it is generally called, is now -Uncophisticated Parent-Hello there, rejected by the Congress of the United the Parent and the P States. They had no information that any the revenues of the Dominion, that a special This is, perhaps, the most important Ashley creet on the top. She has received and a second of the second of Mr. Roome, in seconding the amend. Dis presbyteries, 6,128 ministers, 6,394 emprohes, 28 809 alders, 775,908 members, a

> Mr. Taylor moved in amendment to the mitted suicide is the next room. Griggsamendment that this Honey remove the . Phys! Have they found out the cause? expression of opinion made in preceding Briggs - It is supposed that he everheard Parliaments as to the expediency of pro- what the dracomoker said.

THE ART OF WALKING WELL. Gautio Suntindor for Gentle Maids Who Same girls walk with a spring, come will owinging sarriage, some as shough the There is not a mother in the country

protty daughters that if they only walked bester they might have more chances to

I believe that there is as much character bout a woman's walk, and it is as demonparative of her nature and wave as the daintily gloved band or booted foot. A person may be very careful and all that in crossing a muddy thoroughfare, but if she has not that dainty knack of stepping also will undonotedly spoil all the dresse ahe may put ou. Watch and criticise yourself very acourotaly, that you may be able to tell where your faults lie .- Miss L. Agnee Palge, in New York Fashion Basar. How to Pack Dresses for Moving. Moving gowns is almost as troublesom as moving entire suites of furniture, and yet to the woman who knows how to do it the right way their very moving results in pleasure. How? Because when the new house is cocupied, when the chairs and tables are all in their proper places, then,

knows that she can open the boxes in which they have been encased, select any one she Oregon will try to raise at least $100,000 | wishes, and put it on at once because it is sweet, thoroughly clean and fresh. In that purpose will be held at Portland on | packing the gowns be liberal with tissue paper, putting it between all trimmings, in a quarter of a yard more they are, have him make you propositions have been received from Cairo part, I cannot say enough in favor of these and several oriental countries, and the boxes, not only for moving the frocks, but Cover them well with paper before the lid with a certainty that not a loop or a hook fresh as the daisy in the fields,-Ladies'

> Home Journal. A Few Don'ts for Girls. Don's keep the feet that you are sorresponding with some man a secret from

> Don't write foolish latters to anybody. Den's let Tom, Dick or Harry call you by your first name, or greet you with some Don's think that you can go untidy all day, and then look very time at night, for fine feathers do not always make fine birds. Don's let any man kise you or put his arm about you unless you are engaged to Sootchmen have saked Director General | be married to him, and even thenew a little Don't let any man believe that simply for the asking he can got "that pretty Bmith girl" to go out driving with him, to ascompany him to the occeert, or to entertain

> Arkaneaw Traveller: Manager (to playwright)-You have written an excellent Playwright-I am desply thankful, sir. " Not at all ; but let me say that you

"Ob, they are charmingly strong." "Aren's the situations thrilling "Oh, they are charmingly thrilling "How, then, have I made a fatal mis-" By failing to say, ' Charles Hetherington, do your worst, " I see. Ob, fool that I was!" Good Man Not Meeded. Stranger-I should think such an enterrising, public spirited citizen as Mr. Goodman would be nominated for some mportant office in this community.

Politician-He'd ran well, but we don's "Don's need him?" "No. We're always sure of a big mejority, anyhow." The Rev. Thomas F. Gaylor, the new

Neuralgia, Sciatica, Lumbago, Backache, Headache, Toothache,

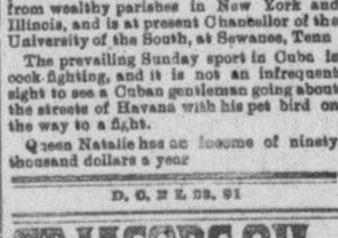

Sore Throat, Frost Bites, Sprains, Bruises, Burns, Etc. Fifty Cents a bottle. Directions in > flold by druggists or sent by mail, Mo. P. T. ..eseltine, Warren, Pa., U. S. A.

ONCHMENTION TO THE EDITOR :- Please inform your readers that I have a positive remode disease. By its theely use thousands of hopsless cases have been personnents bu glad to send two bottles of my remedy PREE to any o, your readers with the properties if they will send me their Empress and Post Office Address. Respectfully $. 4 As. ov. 100 West Address to Post Office Surveys. pare them return again. I MHAM A RADIDAT OURS. I have made the florage of a principle of Pattling Stotemens a life-long study. I waste of my remedy to Cure worst cases. Because others have falled is no reason for not new receiving a cure. See you for a treatise and a Proc Settle of my from tibble formactly. Give Regard to Cure. It comes you nothing for a trial, and it will cure you. Address - M. S. G.C. When I my Oure I de not have made a fatal mistake." "Why, aren't the characters strong

Best, Eastest to Use and Cheapest.

Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere THE CHARLES A. VOGELER CO., Ballmore, Md. Canadian Depot: Toronto, Ont.

THOUSANDS OF BOTTLES