And how the ranks with fury thrill'd Whim someone stangered in his place, And our first volunteer was killed b We erped his poor fallen head, We erped his lime of froth and for the drat probe pairties, buys was deed e Gind for commence, day and home.

That marks the boroes of that fray, heir comrades living yet make most For those who fell that fatal day: mir patriot blood baptized the land, They gained a grave and won a crown ; o other but the loyal hand The put the ingrate rebel down.

—The Khan in Toronto World. The Death of May.

When rosy dawn is all aglow, With thee, my love, I'll sail away, where impld waters dark and flow, and opening leaves of lilac play.

go because I love thee so. Thou peerless one, O. month of May! With thee across the seas I'll go, Then blow, ye winds of morning, blow. to when the beams of morning throw fineir gold upon the vacant day, We'll wait the obb and take she flow,

And thou and I will sail away.

For in thy bosem flowers grow and bluebires build, sweet month of May, Consider thou and I will go; Then blow, ye winds of morning, blow. -THE KHAN IN the Toronto World some house; but it is livele of a home to me seat on the low couch by the window, over arms, as though to put her from him, he Bhe spoke quietly, sofsly even, but [there spread-the poor white skirts that she had | me?" the doctor's heart sched as he listened. He | Lennard's heart. But they were not quite | the old frank spirit flashed out.

the girl Letty who walked and talked with coho to every passing tread! The head mired her very much, and small blame to using threatening language. would have been spoken by him to her, and Dr. Lennard did not go on to the shore, fortune.

Lesty heard him like one in a dream, pasions of what might yet be.

orisd out, sharply, in her stinging pain; their branches mysteriously. so racked her heart in the first months of to dreaming. It seemed as if the still even-his absence. They were racking it now ing, with its drowsy sounds and half-veiled, sick and ailing continue to supply the life that was so dark was ended, and | boldly up to the door and knocked.

"Is was hard enough before," she often do of an evening, but she will be in soon | strong love.

quitted Fenmore, and without seeing her. peated Dr. Lennard, under his breath, as in silonce so long and so bravely.

better been left unfold, he shought. gloved hand reesing on the porch for lord of all."

like to love her husband, and that she hat, and uttered the few commonly polite change. would rather not be his wife. He was not phrases usual on such occasions.

wife took no notice of him, and Dr. Len- tiny drawing wom where a bright fire was woman now that her time of joy and pence nard second fully as cager to listen to, as burning in the grave, for the early spring | had come. she was so tell, every particular relating to | nights were chilly. Letty and her affairs. When he had heard | Laying her has and cloak on a side-table, the doctor, looking at her placid face, could all there was to hear, he rose to go, declining she motioned the doctor to a seat, and went know; and a little of its galling smart lions to the resolution as those presented to stay to luncheon on the plen of business. | to turn up the moderator lamp.

oben he came in this morning." "Very likely, my dear, he was tired then," or jet to relieve its painful whiteness. Replied Mr. Wilson. "But don't you think But in his eyes she never could be plain. face of Dr. Lennard's pacemet wite. you mode a little too freely about Miss | She was dearer to him in her pain and sorselech? She might not like it, I'm afraid." row than any other woman he had ever The tone was herivating, the speaker's known, not excepting the brillians Pauline, mild blue eyes deprecated any idea of re- and his heart stirred with unapeakable ten-sold she; "you men are always for keeping shings quiet that are all the bester for being face whiten, sending the blood with a rush several successful operations on dogs bean against that are all the bester for being face whiten, sending the blood with a rush several successful operations on dogs bean agreed that are all the bester for being face whiten, sending the blood with a rush several successful operations on dogs bean agreed that are all the bester for being face whiten, sending the blood with a rush several successful operations on dogs bean agreed that are adjournment should be several successful operations on dogs bean agreed that are adjournment should be several successful operations on dogs bean agreed that are adjournment should be several successful operations on dogs bean agreed that are adjournment should be several successful operations on dogs bean agreed that are adjournment should be several successful operations on dogs bean agreed that are adjournment should be should be several successful operations on dogs bean agreed that are adjournment should be shoul taken life can be rectified by Dr. Lennard's the inward fever, and that he had come too jaw. The tooth is then placed into the

Mr. Wilson looked at his fair-faced, smil- altered loo with Brasst Deveroux. It had ing spouse, and thought her humor rather pierced the cloud of his doubts and fears strange that morning, but, being meek and like a flook of light, while Mrs. Wilson was | what do you attribute your downfall; to gentle in spirit, he let the matter rest there, telling later her phifel story; now that drink? still smiling, went up to the nursery to overlook matters there.

Dr. Lennard walked briskly through Letty, or the torned and saw it, and the Fenrore, stopping to return the kindly greetings of the few he met, until he reached Mr. Needham's. He was two or three hours closeted with that gentleman, and from thence he west straight to Astorney Sharp's. By the time his business with him was completed, it was his dinner hour.

as he became of a fig togo to inherit, and to | She tried, but she failed. How could she day Mr. Needhom and he were as firm help is, with her heart sprobbing stormly, friends as over that gentleman and his and her breath coming thick and fast under father had been. With Mrs. Needham, too, his glances? he was a favorite; and as for the three Ail creation may say what it likes, but hisses Needham, they fairly worshipped men are selfish. A cat playing with a the ground he tred on. To-day they were mouse, sure and safe under its paw, would decired out in honor of his coming, soci- be no bad emblem for their shields, if they dental as it was. The elder staters were would only be true enough to wear it. their best pale blue glace stike, with the Dr. Lennard loved Letty with all nawest and most elegant laco borthas, and | heart; he had come to tell her so; and yet the youngest, being of a sontimental turn, there he sat, watching her changing face, and holding as a firm tenst of faith that her quickening breathing, her restless hands, man of the doctor's age were most attracted and drinking in deep droughts of subtle by simplicity, were a plain white mustin pleasure from these evidence of his power. Nothing but the inherent sulfishness Three prettier, sweeter moliques it would man could have enabled him to torture

to hard to find in all England; and when | theo your arembling little heart so cruelly. the doctor sat talking to their father in His strange silence oppressed her; he the dining room, instead of going into the would not talk, she could not very much danwing-room after them, his great want longer, she felt, and the terror of the comof taste was evident, not their lack of ing pause made her awkward and nervous. beauty. When he did come up, he only He jeaw it all. He read her love in her stayed to drink one cap of coffee, which he restless fingers, and the flushing pulses of did so heatily that is scalded, and west | sed and white that came into her face under near oboking him; and then, with a few | his glonge. Ho was plain in the unwented polite words, he left, and the pale blue dropping of her frank gray eyes, and in the robes gave a little angry rustle, and the low, broken tomas of her voice, that tried white one a half timid sweep as he passed, to ring brevely for price's sake, but could each and all expressive of reproach, if he not, nimply because love is stronger than could have known it; but he did not, because he was not heading. There was a just then with all her soul.

soft, glad song in his heart that droweed, For a few moments he sat still in his with its low monotons, all outer sounds- obsir. and drunk the sweet picture a bright and tender light shining about greedily; then he bent forward, and took him, that blinded his eyes to all outer the tiny hot hands into his, and told the tale he had come to tell, and sued humbly Going out, he met Mr. Grimshaw, the for pardon in that he had not sold it young medical man who was attending to fore, and saved her all the poin of doubtmost of his old patients, and living a ing him, the pain and sorrow that had so pachelor life in his old house on the hill. | changed her.

The two men bowed and smiled, but they if was for my father," Letty began, did not stop; shey were both too eager bowing her lower still, and hiding her hot after other things to care to stay just then. | face against the tangles of black board that The donoor took the path to the shore, bent over her. "And you are still in the old house? " he and Mr. Grimshaw went into the house and One of the rare sweet smiles that so up to Mr. Needham's drawing-room. He seldom lighted up the doctor's grave face Yes," she replied; "still living in the had not been long there before he found a flashed across it now, as, loosening his which Miss Amy's muslin skirts were asked, softly : "And was none of it for tonged to take her into his arms then, and useless, after all, for Mr. Grimshaw and little his of it was because of hold her there, safe from every throw, as evidently admired her in white, he was so you," she said; "only a little his, though." for as human shelter could make her so; unusually assentive. She had thought it "I thought so, my derling," said he, and "Oh, Pauline! Pauline!" was his in- her mother, feeling not a little aggrieved, bent lower and lower till is rested on the

Then he turned quietly to poor, trembling, Silly little head to be so easily turned! Amy Needham, pretty little traitress down their policy.

though he want toward it; he turned into Amy felt a little inclined to pout. Poor The doctor walked with Letty as far as | the lane that led to Letty Leigh's cottage, | child ! Fate was using her hardly. At the gate of her own house, and there left and walked slowly up it, shoughtfully eighteen and a half she had set her cap at her wish a few parting words that would be smoothing his thick beard, and switching two, one after the other, and lost both. But that had brought him to Fenmore, as soon | them. As he walked his head was bent, | maid! There is a young lieutenant in her as he hoped to do that day. If possible, he and his face, at first calm and bright, grew | majesty's navy, now cruising about in the would then be leaving Fenmore that night; more and more troubled with every step he Mediterranean, who is bent on coming all the extension of the homesteading principle if not, on the following one, so he told her; took. A thousand hopes and fears were the way home when his leave-time comes, as advocated by Mr. Davin. and if he stayed so long, he would call and stirring in his heart; a thousand stinging for the express purpose of setting his capmemories; a thousand half simid antici- the jaunty true blue one it is-at you, though you do not know it. Just a little gave ber hand passively into his, and bent The night was dark, dull, and misty; a while-only a little while-and you will be her head when he raised his has and surned hasy mantle was folded over the earth | telling sympathizing young lady friends from her, and then, still pale and trem- through which the sea sounded fitfully and that "an officer in the navy is a gentlebling, she went in-doors, and in the quiet of sonorously, as it might sound in the ear of man, you know, dear; and there is someher own room broke the spell that was a sleeper. The subtle, faint perfume of the thing nicer in a sailor than a doctor; he upon her by a stormy burst of tears. fresh grass and the new born flowers was has such nasty things to do sometimes," "Oh !' it is too much, too much !" she | in the sir, and the trees rustled and shook | meaning that the dootor has, of course. "Laura does not mind that in the least. "and I cannot bear is, I cannot bear it ! " There was a boding calm all about-a But she was always odd, you know; and All the old passionate devotion had risen stillness as of something yet to come—that for me I like sailors best, by a great deal." up at the sight of Dr. Lennard-all the struck a chill to Dr. Lennard's hears, When Mr. Grimshaw left Fanmore, the vain longings and hopeless hopes that had strong man though he was, and little givan old brown house on the hill did not had forgotten him, the delusion fell away darkness, ending in darkness and the piti- Dr. Lennard brought home a bride, and to the Interior. from her then, as, with burning blushes and less sky over all. It was with an effort of the same quaint neet of a home, perched on bitter tears, she had to own how much she will that he onst such fancies from him and | the hill, and looking over the ocean; not a loved him, and must always love him till opening the gate of the cottage, walked brilliant, pampered beauty, but a grave, sweet-faced woman, beautiful only in her "Miss Leigh have gone out, sir, as she | purity and gentleness, and her exceeding thought, as she looked on the little gate by for certain; she seldom stays out as late as In Dr. Lennard's eyes she was perfection, "but oh ! it is ten times harder now; and | the door open with one hand, while with | beautiful mocking vision that he clasped, Meanwhile Dr. Lonnard, sitting in the peer out through the rising mist at this what might have been, but a slender, loving should not make the accusation of a charge the Government had a policy on this questose of a king of the charge the Government had a policy on this questose of a king of the charge the Government had a policy on this questose of a king of the charge the Government had a policy on this questose of the charge the char rectory parlor, was bearing from Mrs. stranger inquiring so abruptly for her woman, all his own, to the core of her warm of malice. New Year's Eve on which he had last "She often goes out, does she?" re- cause of the past sharp pain, wrestled with now, as he sat there. It was, taken all in black beard of his more flercely than ever, maiden name was buried the maiden sroubles on the day that a new life opened tener's; they were bright and clear, with the lane toward the church. Mercy on us, smile and the quick, firm tread, is not port the motion.

do, that she did not love him as she would his hisses. As it was, he merely raised his that they must thank his wife for the Lesty, glad and happy in her prosperous very much cut up about it, as far as I can | " He hoped he was not intruding, but he matronhood, never forgot the past. Safe understand, for though there's no doubt he found he had more time on his hands than among the treasures in the pearl and ebony was marrying her for her money, there is he expected to have. He was going in the work-box, that used to hold Ernest Devequite as little but he liked her well; how- morning, and he had come to bid her good- reux's scented missives, lay a tiny drab satin shoe. Looking at it, she often recalled for the Continent, I think. And then the Letty listened gravely, thanking him, as the time when that little shoe, all stained ble for the Government to act upon the very next spring after that Mr. Leigh died, in duty bound, and even asked him if he and torn, had dragged the veil from her eyes, and burned hot blushes of shame into | the claims of some settlers. He suggested the world; and how she has borne her | Xes, he would come in, he said, and the her face by the told. She thought of that it would be better not to press the dreary lot since is almost more than I can girl's eyes, dropped hitherto, raised them- that time now, not with bitterness, not selves quickly, and flashed a half-startled sadly even, but just a little wistfully, for Mr. Wilson had coughed and fidgeted glance into his. But he never heeded. He she felt and knew that but for it she would The second homestead policy was undoubt- to Heaven?

The chain had worn in deeper than ever rankled in her heart even yet, whenever she by Bir John Thompson. Settlers went fought my best for the country. Can't you, "I have to call at Attorney Sharp's, and Standing in the full light, her face turned | thought of it. But, withal, there was no into the Northwest Territory between 1888 upon this day, do a little for me?" then round by Mr. Needham's; I shall have to it, her arm have to the sibow, where the bitterness. Safe and unepeakably content and 1884 with the assurance that on comto work very hard indeed to pull up for this | white eleaves fall away from it, Dr. Len | se Paul Lennard's wife, his only true wife | pleting certain improvements and residing | kind hearted woman. "Go out in the hour's gossiping," he said, smiling. "If I nard saw has elearly for the first time that in heart and soul, though she was his second for a certain period on a homestead they gorden and pick yourself a bouquet," can possibly make time, Mrs. Wilson, I will day, and the terrible change in her shocked | wife, she had pity, and pity only, for the | would be entitled to take up a second him. To most men she would have seemed | memory of the misguided woman, who, in | homestead. Parliament might, if it con-He gave that lady's hand a warm clampy simply plain at that moment; the heavy her wilful blindness and jesloney, went an indexed best, repeal that law, but Parlia. I tion of the Red Oross upon Mrs. Grimwood, and his face were a pleased smile as he said | masses of her thick hair braided away from | near wrecking both their lives. This poor, | ment had no right to repeal it if by so doing | wife of Commissioner Grimwood, who was it. Apparently he did not deepair of being her face tightly, with the headlessness of brilliant Pauline, who had frested herself with. hilled in the recent rebellion in Manipur, able to call again. As he stepped down the garden pathway, his step elastic, his head sombre folds of her black dress falling venomous spite, had worked, by means of carried out. He was not in favor of a up. Mrs. Wilcon looked after him, well heavily and dully round her, showing in | that same piblical spite, great ill both in her | second homesteading policy, but he believed leased.

See is another man, George," said Mrs. powerful contrast the pallor of her sunken brightness of her power was said forever, and the recoiled came into the country while the second Wilson to her husband," to what he was large eyes; her arm, too, so wan and blon of it only brought a graver chine to the homestead law was in force. shrunken, with no ornament, either of gold | clear, gray eyes, and a more chastened | Mr. Trow said the sympathies of Parlia. light of gladness over the comely, winsoms | ment, if with anybody, should be extended

False rooth within will drow, A dentist of Mossaw is reported to have proach; but him. Wilson turned round on derness as he saw how changed and worn discovered a method of supplying the sim, almost sharply. known, and play as lottekes nowe lives are in to his heart, till its pulses throbbed madly, as well as human beings. The tenth been agreed that an adjournment should and the breath seemed to many in his throat. | are made of gutta percha, porcelain "Perhaps you are partly right, Alice," | "What if the chain had ween in too long! or metal. Holes are made at the root of anid he; " but I don't see that any mis- What if the deligate frome could not bear the false tooth and also upward into the popular the would move the adjournment whole. knowing all poor Letty's little secrets." late to move her from the gulf his own arm, cavity. In a short time a soft granulated to be would have on opportun-"You cannot see it," said Mrs. Wilson, strong in its pride, had pushed her into?" growth finds its way from the patient's because you know nothing whatever about He know she loved him. He saw it then, jaw into the holes in the tooth. This the matter, and would not, my blind love, if he had moved seen it before. He had growth gradually hardens and holds the

if it was to happen over again under your known, though he had not said it, the true | sooth in position .- Chicago Mail. The Devil's Assistant Always Around, Boston Post : Prison Missionary-To reason why she had refused to share her

" What if he had some too late !"

Prisoner—No, to signing the pledge.
Hissiemary—How could thut be? Prisoner-No one Litteral and Physiothera. Boston Post : John-Wasse goes a great Justice was prepared to bring down the papers as to the Washington negotiations. Bir John Thompson said the permission was hourly expected from Bugiand. If it did not come to-day he would sak a day's Mr. Bowell, answering Mr. McMillan said that raw sugar was not ex-warehore without the duty first being paid. Bir Hector Langevin, answaring Tarte, said there was no record in the deartment of the removal of Mr. Ferley bor and the appointment of Mr. Boswell. Mr. Haggord, in reply to Mr. Feather been passed to fix the cattle space in ocean steamers. The inspection was made by Government veterinary inspector, who had power to prevent any vessel from carrying cattle which had insufficient space for the

Mr. Haggart, answering Mr. Sproule, said the Government had no official information that the United States has established a quarantine for sheep and lambs going from Canada to Buffalo and other Mr. Dewdney, replying to a question by Mr. Coatsworth, said that the Government had made a settlement with the Temper-no longer indebted to the Government. No serious complaint had been made against ance Colonization Society, by authority of

ment in the Northwest to prevail. (Laugh- | tinue.

which he characterized as savers, unjust Mr. Dewdney said that the very unfair attack that Mr. Davin had made on him would justify him in calling the attention ; her wish a tew parsing words share would be paramount in wishin the business the heart of hope, listle of the House and the concern to her of the heart of the h month of the present session. He opposed Mr. Dovin said that Mr. Dewdney now considered these homesteads when given but it made all the difference in the world | been filled. as to whose ox was gored.

Sir John Thompson said that the discussion of a private transaction had nothing to do with the question embodied in not pertinent to the discussion.

been exhibited on a former occasion-the the table. the word "exude"?

see that he has gone too far.

altogether a new light in them, as though Miss, you fright me!" cried out the grave, somewhat stern gentlehe was rather pleased to hear of poor the same breath, flinging the door wide man we have known hitherto, and his friends and neighbors did not fail to notice policy, but simply that the provisions of who, by being located at a shipping point Mrs. Wilson was not usually a goesip; The doctor turned quickly, and saw Letty it. It was a thing so marked and unlooked the Act of 1883 should be carried out, might give certificates which would enable so day she rather surprised her husband by within a yard of him, her face deathly for that they could in no way account for entering into the most minute details of white as it showed in the light of the lamp, it; but as we who are wiser know," Love It was claimed that it would only be fair without examination over there. Lessy's history — some that would have her eyes bright as with fever, and one un works wonders," and "Love is still, the hot wonders, "Love is still, the hot wonders," and "Love is still, the hot wonders," and "Love is still, the hot wonders, "Love is still, the hot wonders, "Love is still, the hot wonders, "Love is still the hot wonders, All the little world of Fenmore had support. Instinctively he put out his hand As years flew by and little feet pattered altered, should be treated as they had known of Letty's engagement to Ernest to help her, but she would have none of been led to expect they would be treated. What reason could there be in the name N. Y., says: "The aurrounding country through the old house, its master seemed to be in the name of the letty's engagement to Ernest to help her, but she would have none of the letty's engagement to Ernest to help her, but she would have none of the letty's engagement to Ernest to help her, but she would have none of the letty's engagement to Ernest to help her, but she would have none of the letty's engagement to Ernest to help her, but she would have none of the letty's engagement to Ernest to help her, but she would have none of the letty's engagement to coundrel for breaking the engagement height, and fronted him, calm again; the grow younger and handsomer than ever. when the change came. Mrs. Wilson alone Letty he had parted from in the morning, And when friends, looking at the kindly, should not be granted? Certainly there are not for from the village, and are having knew that the break had not come from to all appearances, but that she could not intellectual face, and hearkening to the rich him but from Letty herself, and so she at will banish that deathly pallor from her tones of the genial voice, complimented Dr. only a very few. It was better that no manon, New York, reservations, many are

Government involved. to settlers should be faithfully carried out. | taken in English. Mr. Tisdale hoped this matter would be allowed to stand until the Northwest bill was considered. Sir John Thompson said it was impossi- the sunny side of life! motion, which for the first time advanced | children are all daughters ! these cases could not be adjudicated upon. so certain that newspaper men do not complied with what the law required to entiale them to that right. Mr. Mills said that he saw no such objec-

to the poor settlers. He approved of the principle of second homesteads. Boores of tion of introducing the electric light, but settlers in the Northwest had in conse- the difficulties in the way are the exquence of the repeal of the second homestead law gone to Dakota. Bir Heeter Langevin said shat he had and coasty. spoken to Mr. Laurier at the beginning of __Mand, to her woosr-Well, I hope pap the sitting. Although the indications re- didn't give you a cold reception ? Bertietake place at 6 o'clock, they did not want | The proportion of Anglo-Baxon words in Mr. Davin to loss his place on the order the English Bible is 97 per cent. of the

Mr. Davis-Do a understand from the hon, the leader of the Government that the nestion will stay at the head of the paper? His Hector Langevin-We will give the hon, gantlemen a chance to discuss the

Mr. Lourise sold that according to the rule of the House if the adjournment of a tebate were carried the motion would go so the bottom of the paper. He would bject to that, because he was camious that the House should divide on the question-At the opening of the sitting Bir Mester Langevin had told the House of the open-dition of Sir John, and saked him to conhours closeted with that gentlemant, and from themes he went straight to Attorney Bharp's. By the time his business with head blood stinging to her face. The is would not come and he went back to the Needham's to partake of is with them.

Mr. Needham had been a friend of old Mr. Lemman's whore Paul was a dark-oyed, ourly-hes ded by, who thought it must be particularly to have a change of the service of the s THE PRINCE OF WALKS.

sement which had been come to with and to the consumption of the debate on Beetdedly Unconventional Way. which, according to the order paper, would some up this evening. It had been arranged, he cold, that this debate be sustanted. It was an important subject, indeed. He is one of the hardest working men in Grand Reitain, and the fact that he gets through his work without fuss, and up from the march in moureful tense.

The man who runs away with the notion withed out into the shade outline of the shade outline of the shade outline of the frogget indeed. He is one of the hardest working men in Grand Reitain, and the fact that he gets through his work without fuss, and up from the march in moureful tense.

The man who runs away with the notion withed out into the shade out into the startight.

How lonesome everything occupied. The monotonous creaking of the discount of the march in moureful tense. Orown being colled upon and therefore the does it well, is proof that he has a genius for work. He makes more specifies every how often Little Ben and I had listened to fortunate to the helpisse.

The tears came to my eyes as I thought or by the ambulance to the helpisse.

In the man who starts those sounds; and the stars—how often Little Ben and I had listened to fortunate to the helpisse.

The tears came to my eyes as I thought or by the ambulance to the helpisse.

The tears came to my eyes as I thought or by the ambulance to the helpisse.

The tears came to my eyes as I thought or by the ambulance to the helpisse.

The tears came to my eyes as I thought or by the ambulance to the helpisse. Mr. Tupper told Mr. Brown, of Monok, I've heard him speck two or three times, and now, seeing me alone beneath them, rang of his colling or he must drift away that no flahing licenses were issued during and have read some douese of his addresses, how shore golden lights sorrowed with me nto the myriad ranks of the commonplace, erament and the Government of Canada interest in them, and that, now an asylum shimmering pearls upon the boy's cheek. on the subject of the copyright laws of had been opened for them, his fondest Mr. Davin, in moving that it should be Canada, and all other papers relating there- hopes had been realized, and in the privienacted that all settlers who went into the to not already brought down." He asked lege of opening it, his dearest ambition had Northwest between June 1st, 1888, and why the copyright Act passed by the Camabing their dian Parliament in 1889 had not been proimprovements be granted a second homeclaimed. He did not acknowledge that the be inferred. His manner is singularly stead, explained the course he had taken in | Parliament of Canada had not the right to | magnetic and his speeches are full of sound regard to this matter last session, and re-called the promise made then by Mr. Government make representations to the

Kingston and Jones' Falls.

his dead wire, when that the dead wire, when the dead wire, which says it has never been dead to make an address to the dead wire, when the dead w Houses of the Connection Parliament would presented by any other country in the Gorden and Forest, which says it has never isfactory group in a certain soil, and yet proclamation of the Act of 1889.

> ment to contemplate, that the interests of | States. duct of the hon gentleman during the first rights of Canadians should be denied. Panama hat from fiber prepared on the in the office of brigade-major for military An 'Alpargarteria' (manufactory of hemp of the hymn to be sung. The congregation of the late Lieut. Col. Lewis. Mr. Burn- | while the 'petate' (a fine palm fiber mat) | of the descons coming toward the pulpit, > department were economizing by leaving beautiful graces of Colombia into artistic gregation that I had forgotten to give such unoccupied these places, because he was of | work, all of which cannot fail to find ap | notice, announced the number of the hymn ing to do with the question embodied in opinion that expensive staffs were not preciative purchasers, thus leading to a again and proceeded to read it. The feel-the resolution, and was, therefore, out of necessary for the efficiency of the force. The Speaker said that this matter was words from the Speaker, "A message from made by private parties but will have a first line of the hymn: His Excellency the Governor General, place within the Colombian building, "Lord, what a thoughtless wreach was Mr. Davin said that he would bring the signed by his own hand," the House ross because they present an interesting and Il'-Homiletic Review. matter up again by moving for the papers to its feet and the papers with regard to important feature of her industries so exrelating to it. The same malice which had the Washington negotiations were laid on | clusively Colombian that her exhibit would

The Speaker-The hon, gentleman mast moved the adjournment of the Rouse.

The Speaker-The hon. gentleman of Justice it was revealed that as last to have been the burial place of a king or

Mr. Davin-Then I will say he is Mr. Mulock called the attention of the States army to whom great credit is due too, and that was troubling him not a little it were, and pulling away at that thick Letty Leigh was no more, and with the Canadian castle trade. He it may find a permanent place in the open their eyes with astonishment. If he represented in London, until the agentkind lady's eyes as she told it, and in her "Yes, sir. Since master died she have before her, as Mrs. Lennard, of the hill. husband's, who sat listening though he had been lonesome and restless like; and she The doctor, too, was changed on that day heard it all before. Not so her other lis- often goes on to the shore, happen, or up The upright, handsoms man, with the ready by urging both sides of the House to sup-

A Big Indian Council.

position would have ventured or cared to heart, and warmed it into life and light with tell them, half proudly, half laughingly, Nearly all the speeches are made in the Mr. Watson contended that every pledge | Indian dialect, but the minutes are all

Hardly Possible. Harrisburg Telegram : Parson - Look on Lady-My life has no sunny side. My Ho Reports Received. New York Herald: Figge - Why are you more than once during this recital, but his followed her through the hall, and into the have been a more thoroughly light-hearted edly a bad one. The resolution would give Digge-Becouse we know so little about

In the suburbe. Obloago Weres: "Madam," said tramp, "I am an old Union soldier. " Certainly, my poor man," returned the Lady Katharine said, As she buttered her bread, They tell me that strawberries Grow in a bed."

Said the Princess, "they grow In the ground, for I've seen 'em, And I ought to know." Bombay, India, is considering the que tremes of keps and moisture, rendering proper and pasiefactory insulation difficult amounted all to the same thing. Good bys, garden on the grown

Thank You! THIS IS THE UNIVERSAL TESTI-MONY of those who have suffered from CHRONIC BRONCHITIS, COUGHS,) COLDS, OR ANY FORM OF WAST-ING DISEASES, after they have tried

Of Pure Cod Liver Oil an

IT IS ALMOST AS PALASABLE AS MILK. IT IS A WONDERFUL PLESH PRODUCER, It to used and midered by Physicians. Avoid all miletions or substitutions. Sold by all Druggiets at 50c, and $1.00. SCOTT & BOWNE, Belleville.

ilen Forman Sketches Bis Character in a The Idol of the Kining Camp Passes Away.

ithat no fishing licenses were issued during licenses were issued during like the Grand River, that and April for the Grand River, that an order prohibiting fishing with seines in that river was sent out on the 23rd of March last, and if the prohibition were continued until after the cione season the fees for licenses would be refunded.

Mr. Kirkpatrick obtained an order of the House for a return of all papers in connection with the complaints of the high nection with the complaints of the high the hearts believe shad his is thought of making his hearters believe shad his is the formation with the complaints of the high the high his hearters believe shad his is thought of making his hearters believe shad his is thought of making his hearters believe shad his is thought of making his hearters believe shad his is the complaints of the high the high him hard and fast into the house I found water in the Rideau Canal between the solution of the high condition of the high the high him hard and fast into the house I found that lay so cold and still in the centre the top and the between the top of the hill of prosperity. Drive or he driver. He can were the man ways teers that fell in cold drops upon may face and hands.

Bo young, he was, to die—cally ave—and yet he faced the grim reapes with a comile on would run him for Congress, and shed him in America, we had him the high had had he h rubber, ivory, nuts, wax, gums, fibers, etc., for about three-quarters of a century. Mr. Edgar said it was a most unfortunate | while the mineral exhibit will doubtless | There are two other plants which have condition of affairs for a Canadian Parlia- be the richest ever shown in the United vanished from the South Atlantic States -

English authors should be paramount in | "Within the building Indian women | forum. Mr. Burnham obtained an order for cor- spot, all hand work, yet stripping and respondence relative to the vacancy caused | weaving the fiber in threads as fine as linen. | "notices," and then announced the number districts Nos. 3 and 4, through the death sandals) will be seen in full operation, had opened their hymn books. Seeing one up to be exchease belonging to the Crown, ham found fault that this position had not will be turned out by the native hand loom waited with open book. He reminded me Sir Adolphe Caron replied that the country. Hammook makers will braid the ladies' meeting. I then stated to the con-A few minutes before 6 o'clock, on the articles. These latter exhibits will be own-may be imagined when I read the

not be complete without them. his absence. They were racking it now his absence. They were racking it now with tenfold power, and if ever she had de- hasy lights, was a picture of his own life, overwork for any great length of time be made, the principal of which and probable and interesting and int Mr. Davin—Can it be out of order to use rangement by which the debate on the better recently discovered antiquities in of George IV., King of England. It is "Madame," said the tramp as he defied prohibition resolution had been postponed, solid gold, weighing an aggregate of 48 said that George married several times, the remnant of a Kossuth that might have pounds, consisting of helmets, idols, birds, but as his wives were not of royal blood Mr. Jamieson asked a promise from the animals, ornaments, etc., valued at more the marriages were not recognized as legal. | tress of a house on the outskirts of Boston, Mr. Davin-To be frank, I do not see Government that the resolution would keep | than $80,000. These objects are all curi- Had this regal reprobate lived in this age | "I learn from the neighbors that you are o that I have. I have had a great deal of ex. | its place on the order paper notwithstand. onely and delicately hand wrought, the and in this country he would have gone to theosophist. I am delighted to know it, perience in a Parliament quite as great as log its being put off.

work of people who lived ages ago, but Kingston penitentiary for bigamy instead for I am one myself. It can not be -yes, this. I do not think any hon, gentleman Mr. Laurier remarked to Mr. Jamieson whose history is lost to the world. These of to a throne, but he didn't, and as a conwhich he was even then passing; The simple country girl who spoke held which he was even then passing; The simple country girl who spoke held which he was even then passing; The simple country girl who spoke held which he was even then passing; The simple country girl who spoke held which he was even then passing; The simple country girl who spoke held which he was even then passing; The simple country girl who spoke held who spoke held

The way in which America come its name is one of the features of a valuable old volume which has just been secured and Asia had been named after women. More particularly are there invitagons The geographies were the standard ones of skip and posture, when the host decides or five copies of this ancient geography in mutual gratification. A man and a woman existence, most of them being in the cele- previously unknown to one another brated libraries of Europe. It is one of may take part in it. They call this the rarest of these volumes that has just skipping tanthen (dancing). The reason been secured for the world's fair.

Few Spare Hours. Mr. Hayseed (arriving at city hotel)-I Hwa Pao. "Western eviquette requires," s'pose I kin hear the gong here when it rings | he says, " the man in search of a wife to fer dinner, can't I? Clerk-We have no gong. We have breakfast from 6 to 11, dinner from 12 to 6, upper from 6 to 11. Mr. Hayseed-Jehosophat! Bow am to git time to see the city !- New York | hall, where, to the emulous sound of flute

A Captain Erece Elia Life, & Duluth despatch says : The schooner- | ward, another prance backward, round and rigged screw steamer May flower went down | round the room until they are forced to four miles from this port at 5 p'clock yes. stop for want of breath. After this they terday afternoon. Capt. Theodore Zeerbst will become acquainted "-only after this, of Houghson was drowned. The crew of observe-" and then by occasional attenfour men were reconed by the sug Sheldon, | sions over a bottle of wine, or exchange of which had her in tow. Toe hayflower was confidences at the tex table, their inti-Smith of Storgeon Bay and was valued at |

Beauties of the Quoon's English. Chicago Tribune : Johnny (looking up from newspaper) - Mamma, who does con sume mean ?" " Johnny's Ma-You ought to know bot ter than to ask such a simple question Johnny. It means to burn. Johnny-Then the people in New York ofty burned nearly 500,000,000 pounds of Dont's for the Summer Girl. Don's squint-oarry a sanabada. Don't wear a red vail if you value your Don's wear soarles shore in our oly Don't wear a Leghorn has with a rous Don's fidges .- Music and Drama.

Intense Hantism. New York Judge ; " The curtain falls as the burglars are heard sawing the bars, and graph slarm for help. What happens then ?" " Yen years clapse, and as the curtain rises the messengar boy arrives."

Ohook to the Summer Bourder. -I true sturiled by the dishonesty of these and three-quarter miles. people last night. A latter from Carten doted April 50th anyo time Kyrte Ballow is to join the company of Rev. George C. Milla, who is star.

There are 32 national cometeries in th United States, and they have 527,179 graves, about one half of which are marked "unknown." -- Coliniold eggs, with dainty satin bags attached to the tops, are the latest things for " tallies " in pragressive games. Into these are dropped gold and silver some (such as are used for descenting) during the gress of the gastra.

-But more vegetables and loss ment this

Longwood at gair makes a speech without saying something. had pointed out the constellations to him, off in business must situer keep in the front hand. He glides deftly between the rooks form that lay so cold and still in the centre | the top and the bottom of the boap is On a motion made by Mr. Bowers for and whizipenis of British politics, and is of the room. The white shroud was drawn almost entirely one of wise, percistent papers relating to the subject of the herring level by the Tories as the representative and displayed the yellow curis and displayed the yellow curis and lily white face of the dead child. A subject of the Bay of Fundy and its and Reformers on account of his broad which members from New Brunswick took wiews, while even the Radicals have a lips that more than one rude miner had it is not a cure-all. It is not a cure-all. It is not a cure-all. part. Messes, Bowers, Forbas and Gillmor made good spacehes, in which they called the attention of the Minister of Marine to the depiction of the herring fishing grounds, and called upon him to take measures to prevent the versus being

White even the Radioals have a lips that more than one rude miner had
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies, and no man had ever yet
loved to kies to kies to kies to kies to kies to kies to kie an Order-in Council of April 21st. The society was to rebeive 100,000 acres, but had not yet selected all of them. They had paid the Government $100,000, and were paid the Government $100,000, and were no longer indebted to the Government. No correspondence between the Imperial Gov. | readers, that he had always felt the greatest | leaving, as he raised from that caress, two As he turned to me he said, huskily : "Tom, why couldn's it hev been me?"

-Detroit Free Press.

Eighty years ago a Scotch botanist found a species of honeysuckis-lonicera | the shape of a good situation Mava -ou Paris mountain in South Carelina. He sent seeds and roots of it to stated, that notoriety brings cash, and She spoke questly, sortily evan, but | the sort state | spread and the plant has silence, and then | She spoke questly, sortily evan, but | the sort state | spread and the spread a before the Government for further consideration. The whole department of the Interior was made a donkey-engine to the avarios of the Lieux. Governor of the terenos which had pigeon holed in Downing interesting one. A communication refor as human shelter could make her so; unusually attentive. She had thought to but the cruel bond was on him still, so he cruel bond was on him still be cruel "Colombia's World's Fair building will was placed in the list of lost plants. "Oh, Pauline! Pauline! Was his inward ory, wrung out by a sharp pain, a sharp trial," could you not have spared me
sharp trial," could you not have spared me
that last horrible, venomous sting?"

"Oh, Pauline! Pauline! Was his inher mother, feeling nos a little aggrissed, taked and girl's flushed one, as, with one long kiss on sharp trial," could you not have spared me
that last horrible, venomous sting?"

"Colombia's World's Fair building will be honest dealing in fair was not prevait. (Laugh.

Bir John Thompson said he was conthe mother, feeling nos a little aggrissed, the mother flusted and girl's flushed one, as, with one long kiss on the mother flusted in the list of lost plants.

That soil must be honest dealing in fair
while Amy, highly pleased, talked and girl's flushed one, as, with one long kiss on the mother flusted in the list of lost plants.

Bir John Thompson said he was placed in the list of lost plants.

That soil must be honest dealing in fair
while Amy, highly pleased, talked and girl's flushed one, as, with one long kiss on
the mother flusted in the list of lost plants.

That soil must be honest dealing in fair
while Amy, highly pleased, talked and the recently a ment in the Northwest to prevait.

Bir John Thompson said he was plants.

Bod of the plants.

That soil must be honest dealing in fair
while Amy, highly pleased in the list of lost plants.

Bir John Thompson said he was plants.

Bod of the plants.

The first plants and of the story plants and of the story plants and of the plants.

Bod of the plants and of the story plants and of the story plants and plants are plants.

The first plants and plants are plants.

Bod of the plants and of the plants and of the story plants ar proclamation. He still entertained the the interior will be partitioned and expedition, commenced hunting for it, and Then he turned quietly to poor, tremning.

The head to be so easily turned and expedition, commenced numbing for it, and it is entirely possible to design soil, and it is entirely possible to design soil. unfortunate that the interests of the more than a hundred varieties, both rough slopes of Paris mountain, where she this a basis for not advertising at all is as the girl Letty who waited and sale and so was a sweet little creature; him, for she was a sweet little creature; h be asked to make an address to Her world. The interior will be filled with the been found but in this one place, and in expect a crop just the same. forgot the dearer words that the dearer words that the dearer words the dearer words the dearer words the dearer words that it reappears after having been extinct been spoken, that one day she had hoped rest, and so remain empty for ever after. He jesty's Government to the products of the country—coffee, cocoa, that it reappears after having been extinct been spoken, that one day she had hoped rest, and so remain empty for ever after. Gordonia Altamaha and Illicium parvi-A Hymn for the Occasion. After the morning sermon I gave the manipulated by shillful workmen of the | that I had forgotten to give a notice of the

What Disloyalty! Bh. Oatharines Standard : There is an

Bathing Dont's Don't stay in too long. Don't keep your head dry. Don's bashe on a full stomach. Don's bashs more than once a day. turned his back on the theorophist and Don't bathe in high winds or rain. Don't drink spirits before or after bathing. Don's remain in your bashing suit to Don't lose an opportunity of learning o awim .- New York Press.

A CHINAMAN who travelled in Europe has for use at the world's fair. The early | written an account of his observations and | Twenty-fourth is responsible for more misnames of the wantern world were "The impressions. Mr. Yuan-for that is the chief than he can shake a stick at. The Land of the Holy Cross," "Atlantis," writer's name—was a good deal pusaled by news columns of the Free Press tell of the "Hesperides," "Iberica," "Columbia," what he evidently regards as our free-and-burning of a terrace, the destruction of and " New India." In 1507 a geographer easy methods of courtship. " Besides | much property and the unhousing of eight of Frieburg received a letter from Amerigo | invitations to dinner," he writes, "there poor families. These calamities are to be Vespucii, detailing the manner in which are invitations to tea-parties, such as are laid at the door of Her Majesty, for the the Italian claimed to have discovered this occasionally given by wealthy merchants it was who stirred up the small boy, and country. The geographer was so impressed or distinguished officials. When the time it was the small boy who set off the firewith the letter that he proposed that the comes an equal number of men and women oracker. In other words, this is the Queen new world should be given the name of assemble, and tes, sugar, milk, bread and who fired the loyalty of the small boy who America, in honor of Vespucii, as Europe | the like are set out as aids to convermation. | fired the fire-cracker that fired the terrace. Sold Dr. Lennard, confidentially.

"Letty told him," she said, "the servent graph of the day, and were given official recognition by the day, and were given official recognition by the day and were given official recognition by the day and were given official recognition by the day, and were given official recognition by the day, and were given official recognition by the day and were given official recognition by the day, and were given official recognition by the day and were given official recognition by the day and were given official recognition.

I deprive the day, and were given official recognition what are the day and were given official recognition.

I deprive the day, and were given official recognition and the day and were given official recognition.

I deprive the day and were given official recognition.

I deprive the day and were given official recognition.

I deprive the day and were given official recognition.

I deprive the day and were given official recognition.

I deprive the day and were given official recognition.

I deprive the day and were given official for this ourious proceeding on the part of Europeans was well explained by a recent writer in a Chinese illustrated paper, the write to the girl's home and agree upon some time and place for a shipping motch" (scilices, a donce). "The day arrived, youth in red and maid in green,' they come by pairs to the brilliant and spacious and drum, the youth clasping the maiden's waist, and the maid resting upon her paraner's shoulder, one pair will skip for> loaded with stone for Duloth from Portage | many will deepen, the maiden's heart be-Entry. She is owned by Lestham & come alled with love, and they will mate." -There are 647 employes in the G. T. R. shope at Biratiord. Yvatta Guilbert, the reigning concerthau faverite of Paris, is said to earn $800 an evening, and fer a couple of songs in a drawing room she receives $400. Her ather and mother are concierges and a few years ago she was poor and obscure. There has been bitter rivalry between two then for the possession of the " amen' pew in the Green Farms, Connections Congregational Church, and John J.

Alvord was legally enjoined from entering they used on petition of John J. Elwood. The esagragation has taken sides and a disruption of the church is threatsned. BY BRAUTT'S SATURES. wee handkerchiefe, a box of candy a novel she ought not to ove Some books and eyes, bor tiny purco; ley Cusar, that to-morrow she With atombling efforts will rehearss : I'mo niskles glued by tutti-frutsi, resobud which a paper wraps ; trees to teach her moral dut knother, which her fortune map Wish this array, and more besto Was her small handbag over nd, still, for more, and more she sighed

This binshing, charming, high-school maider. -Three and a half millions of people and always on the seus of the world. A recent surroy bas established the nuve-Blow York Herald : Mr. Summerboarder | which 249 have a length of more than four

MYAJE HO SETELL US That's What Advertising Makes of a

There comes a "burry call" in eve man's life. He bas the observe to b a man of wealth, of position, of weight in the community. If he misson to he remains practically a nebody. When the call comes

GOOD SEED WELL SOWN. That's What Judicious Advertising Proves

Riches, sure and abundant, come to those who advertise. They may come in trade. But the main fact remains, just as Dolls' Dressmaker : Don's - dages. Don's-obow gum. Don's-bise your finger nails. Don't-tell secrets in the street care. Don's-use a pin for a tooth pick. Don's -- pick up pins off the street. Don't-abuse a book of any kind. Don's-play wish knife, fork or spoon. Don't-sit whhile your elders stand. Don's-wear rings on dirty hands.

Don's-forget that you may be old. Don's-forges to read the " Do's." -No Dards. Boston Record: One of our very swelless young men made a call on a young lady as her home in a suburban town recently.

The girl who opened the door was greenvery. Our exquisite proffered his card. " I wish so see Miss L-," he said. The girl caught him by the coat sleeve and dragged him in with a jerk. "Go right in !" she excinimed. "We don't need no tickets. Go right in !"

It Did Met Work. stopped at this very house and asked for assistance and you gave me an excellent breakfast. It all flashes upon me now." "Yes," said the lady, smiling. "I seem to remember it, too, but if I'm not mistaken you sawed half a cord of wood for me before you got the breakfast." Then the tramp went sadly away in search of an oldfushioned phllanthropist.

Queen, Fire-cracker, Small Boy. Twenty-fourth, and the small boy of the Young lady-And now, Jane, what's the next thing to do after putting the meat and potatoes in the stewpan? Village girl-Please, miss, wash the baby.-London

D. C. H L 95. 91

PROMPTLY CURED BY Cures Also: Neuralgia. Lumbago, Sciatica, Sprains, Bruises, wounds, Swellings, Soreness Frost-bites, Stiffness, All Aches The Chas. A. Vogaler Co Baltimore, Md.

Toronto, Out. Piso's Remedy for Catarrh is the Best, Essient to Use and Cheapest. Sold by druggists or sent by mail, 50o. F. T. ... rzeitine, Warren, Pa., U. S. A.

Canadian Depot

Mr. Summerboarder—Yes. I mw them SURELLY TO THE EDITOR:—Please inform your readers that I have a positive namedy of one named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently a small be gied to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who named they will send me their Express and Post Office Address. Respectfully, V. A. GAGE. W. C. 103 track sections (2). Testing the Contract of the property of the Contract of the contract