Record for 1891.

The results of the labors of the teaching staff of the Athens high school, during the past year, as shown below, are very satisfactory to the ratepayers of the district, and must be highly gratifying to the teachers themselves. A comparison with the number of successful candidates attending other school and collegiate institutes in the East will serve to show the excellent relative standing of this school. For several years, both in attendance and work accomplished, it has made rapid advancement and now ranks among the very first. The liberal, intelligent policy pursued by the trustees and the faithful work of the teachers have secured for the school its present prosperity, and we extend to them our congratulations on their bountiful harvest of Primaries, Juniors, and Matrics.

ELGIN.

SATURDAY, Aug. 22.—The Lawn Concert held at Rufus Brown's was a grand success both financially and intellectually. About $23 was realized at the gate.

A. G. Austin who has been attending the high school in Cornwall has been successful in getting a second class certificate. We think this pretty good for a boy of fifteen.

Quite a number from here attended the Catholic picnic at Westport.

A. Warren and family have returned.

The Ladies Aid are soon to have a Harvest dinner by which they intend to clear off the remainder of the debt on the parsonage.

J. S. Randolph is erecting a fine dwelling house.

Miss Pennock is improving her building with veranda, paint &c.

DULSEMAIN.

FRIDAY, Aug. 21.—The Misses Allyn of Delta and Miss Sliter of Lyn were the guests of their cousins, the Sliters here recently.

The Misses Webster of Greenfield and Miss Rachel Webster of Malakoff paid their cousin Miss Chattie Sliter a visit this week.

A number from here visited the T. I. Park and Alexander Bay on Tuesday per steamer Island Queen and were well pleased with the trip.

Messrs. Cross, Ferguson and Weart start their steam thrasher this week. They have bought a new separater and expect to do better work than ever.

Miss May Scott of Redan and Miss Lillie Leacock of Easton's Corners are spending their vacation with Mr. and Mrs. Herb. Leacock.

Miss Minnie Scott of Redan and Mr. Delbert Dobbs from near Athens were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leacock last Sunday and Monday.

LYN.

MONDAY, Aug. 24.—Mr. Henry Booth who has been ill for a long time passed away on Sunday morning.

Mr. D. H. McDonald, of Saginaw and Liberty Buell of Omaha, have returned home after spending several weeks with friends here.

Miss Stella Bullock has gone on a visit to friends in Chicago.

A few mornings ago, as Sheldon Brown was returning from the cheese factory, his horses took fright at a cart standing at the blacksmith shop, throwing him against a fence, bruising his face considerably, but breaking no bones.

The Presbyterian S. S. have decided to take their excursion to Westport on 2nd Sept. Everybody is going.

Our school opened last week. An attempt was made to raise the grade to 6th form, but did not succeed. It is a mistake that all common schools are not graded higher. Some of the pupils who passed the entrance exam. will never get any further, as all cannot afford the expense of high school course.

FRONT OF YONGE.

MONDAY, Aug. 24.—This is poor harvest weather and grain is being destroyed.

Tramps are wandering from house to house looking for a hard days work and at the same time praying that it may not be found.

L. T. Cain is erecting a fine house on a lot purchased from H. Powell of Caintown. Mr. G. Burnham and D. Tennant are the contractors and builders.

If any person ever calls us an egotist again, we will most assuredly give them ten dollars in Brockville jail. Do you moind?

Pumpkin fairs will soon be the order of the day, and then cometh the Judges with pebble glass spectacles.

Mr. Jacob Hogaboon of Caintown walked last week to Mr. D. McDonald's residence in Quabbin a distance of seven miles. He is 88 years of age.

Our school in Caintown has opened again, and Miss Slack is looking as fresh as a daisy, or the flowers which she displays in her school room windows. We admire flowers in a school house window.

ALGUIRE'S CORNERS.

MONDAY, Aug. 24.—Wm. H. Rowsome is seriously ill.

Our school is progressing rapidly under the skilful management of Miss M. Bellamy.

Owing to the favorable weather, farmers are completing their harvesting rapidly.

Miss Minnie Moles is visiting friends at Lansdowne.

Mrs. Lewis King is visiting friends at Brockville.

Mr. and Mrs. Gord McLean and Miss Bertha Brown are visiting friends at Smith's Falls.

Mr. Alvah Johnson has been engaged as butter-maker for the Butterfly creamery.

Mr. Rich. Ferguson has recently purchased a Maxwell Binder.

Messrs. T. R. Moles and A. Taylor intend going on a trip to the North-West on 1st. Sept.

Mr. Gord McLean and wife, Miss Bertha Brown, Miss Lizzie Moles, Mr. E. W. Moles and Mr. Ford Wiltse have been enjoying an outing at Charleston Lake.

Miss Kelly and Miss Connelly were the guests of Mrs. Lewis King last week.

Mr. McEwan is the guest of his sister Mrs. Wm. H. Rowsome.

Threshing has commenced in our vicinity and farmers report a good yield.

Mr. Andrew Ferguson is home on a visit this week.

Miss Emma Pollah spent Sunday with friends in Addison.

Brockville Cheese Board

Special to Reporter.

ASHWOOD HALL, Aug. 20, 1891.

The meeting of this date seems to have been looked forward to by salesmen and shippers with more than average interest, due to the fact that there is in the market an element of speculation of more than ordinary magnitude; as a result business was not satisfactory to the officers in charge of the board. It took a lot of bidding and many calls to sell a few hundred boxes of the "stuff."

The wildcat nature of the market had a bewildering effect on the "cute salesmen" many of them refused good offers that they could not get again.

The offering was light. About 5,200 boxes, 2709 white, the bal. colored, of these only 2,290 were sold by the officials. The prices paid were better than on any other market in the country, 9⅞ was ruling, with 9 9/16 is the high point made, while only a few of the other markets had 9½ as the high point. Special cable reported 46 shillings for Liverpool market of cheese.

Cable report for corresponding date of last season was 41 shillings. Prices paid ran from 8½ to 8¾, with 8¾ as ruling.

For the first time in many weeks white cheese lead the market. It is to be hoped that salesmen will accept of the high prices current and keep out of that kind of a market made last season by the high flyers of prices. The conditions surrounding the cheese market in general appear favorable to a successful wind up in first hands this season.

A pious old gentleman attending an evening service in one of our churches recently, and while in the attitude of prayer was grestly annoyed by what seemed to be an especially persistent mosquito. First it perched upon his neck, and his impulse was to fetch it a whack, but a sense of decorum restrained him, and he gently dislodged it with his hand. Next he felt a tickling sensation on one of his ears, and up went the other hand. It was not long before the pest was fooling around the back of his neck. This time the annoyance was too much for him, and with his eyes still closed, he made a grab for it. What he caught was a feather from the hat of a young woman who was devoutly kneeling behind him.
