An' Moneyantin flux. Her temper's like her pic-crust, which They're both encommon short; An' the' I'm free-and-east like Sometimes the makes me snort. There ato't no seeme in havin' things so dum'd, all fired neal; Nor sayin' ev'ry time I step, ... Now Zek'ei, wipe your feet."

can't set down in our best room, It is so slick an' spruce ; Fact is, 'most everything we've got's Though next to godiness the book Puts cleanliness, I'm bound To say Keturah's mighty apa To run it in the ground.

Chure ain't no use in kickin'; I'm Propared to bear my cross.
Some day, perhaps, I'll wear my crown;
Keturah's she can't boss Things round in housen. An' since we're told That there nor moth at Comes to corrupt, I guess it's save To say there ain't no dust.

But oh, what will Keturah de-Within those pearly gates,
If she no longer find the dirt.
That she so dearly hates?
O'er shadowed heaven itself will be, Engulfed in awful gloom, When my Keturah enters in And cannot use a broom.

Portland Transcript.

CHAPTER XIV.

On the Thursday immediately preceding the opening of the exhibition they did not go to the library as usual, nor to Gunsler's go to the library as usual, nor to Gunsler's for their lunch. Like a number of other people, their habits were deranged and themselves demoralized by anticipation of the impending factival. They stayed at home to make themselves new bonnets for the make themselves are themselves new bonnets for the make themselves new bonnets for the make themselves and themselves new bonnets for the make themselves are themselves are the make themselves are the make themselves are themselves are the make themselves are themselves are themselves are the make themselves are themselves are themselves are the make themselves are the make themselves are the make themselves are themselves are the make themselves are themselves are the make themselves are t were infested by the spirit of unrest and enterprise that pervaded the city. The quiet walks were not quiet now, and the sense of her belated isolation in the growing in the street above the level of his head, he he feared she was terribly uncomfortable, dusk seemed more formidable here instead made desperately for a footing on a higher but, though she did not contradict him, she of less. For hardly had she passed through the gates into the Treasury enclosure than and battled his way to her side. "Oh, here soulthat she had never been more comfortable. peered at by strange men, who appeared to swarm all over the place; and by the time she had reached the Gardens nearer home sisters ?" the appalling fact was forced upon her that her steps, and i as we get into trouble, and i am so thank if was a second to good boy and you were a chump."

McGreevy's seat at the time he tendered so provided that I was a bound get a distant view of the crowds to see you! The girls had to go home for but her imagination was being lawfully contested; but her imagination was being lawfully contested; but her imagination was being lawfully contested; but her people foolish boast, for they but her imagination was being lawfully contested; but her people foolish boast, for they swarming around the exhibition, and hear of the heart was a could get a distant view of the crowds his resignation was being lawfully contested; but her people foolish boast, for they swarming around the exhibition, and hear of the heart was a could get a distant view of the crowds his resignation was being lawfully contested; but her people foolish boast, for they swarming around the exhibition, and hear of the heart was a could get a distant view of the crowds his resignation was being lawfully contested; but her people foolish boast, for they swarming around the exhibition, and hear of the heart was a could get a distant view of the crowds his resignation was being lawfully contested; but her people foolish boast, for they swarming around the exhibition, and hear of the heart was a could get a distant view of the crowds. upon ; and the formless danger, of don't know what will become of them in this were but a man and woman, and not gods. the confused clamor of the bands-which cent. When imported in casks the prea kind in which she was totally inexperienced, gave a shock to her nerves. So that denly saw a still more expeditious pedeslight figure and active gait, the words be in there-they will be all right. You it were, to protect her from the crowd; at Myrtle street, with a sense of having had Judges of liquor had told him that excellent seemed to utter themselves without con- will come, too, won't you! I think I can the same time he put himself to some trouble breakfast in the remote past, and of having beer was made in Canada from malt, and he that committee, and that in the cause of scious effort of hera-" Mr. Brion !-- oh, manage to get you through. Mr. Brion, is that you?" He stopped at the first sound of her voice, looked back and saw her, saw the man behind her, and comprehended the situation immediately. Without speaking, he stepped to her side and offered his arm, which she exhibition." And she went on to explain neighbors, "all alone by yourself." how she came to be abroad alone at that her apparent satisfaction in meeting him. " It seems to promise for a fine day, does them, I shall be all right." it not ?" she concluded airly, looking up at Paul Brion put his hands in his pockets. He was mortified, too. When he spoke, it was with tey composure.

" Are you going to the opening?" " Yes," said Patty. " Of course we are." "With your swell friends, I suppose ?" ciends? Mrs. Daff-Scott is not in Mel- I

He allowed the allusion to Mrs. Aarons disgnsting crush and scramble, I expect." " Seats ! Oh, we are not going to have seats," said Patty. "We are going to mingle with the common herd, and look on at the civic functions, humbly, from the outside. We are not swell"-dwelling upon the adjective with a malicious enjoyment of the suspicion that he had not meant to use it-"and we like to be independent." " O yes, I know you de. But you'll find the Rights of Woman not much good to you to morrow in the Melbourne streets, I of it in Paul Brion's protection—but she The carriages, in their slow progress, were fancy, if you go there on foot without an could not stir an inch by her own volition. now turning at the top of Collins street, escort. May I ask how you propose to take When she did stir it was by some violent and the hubbub around them had reached have a little elevation above the heads of the growd, and a wall at our backs, andthe three of us together-we shall see the procession beautifully, and be quite safe and comfortable." "Well, I hope you won't find yourself mintaken," he replied.

A few minutes later Patty burst into the room where her sisters were sitting, placidly te going to ask you to let han be our escort to-morrow. But you won't-oh, you won't -have him, will you?"

"No, dear," said Elizabeth, serenciy not if you would rather not. Why should we? It will be broad daylight, when there can be no harm in our being out without an nelves." "Much happier than with him," added Patty, sharply. And they went on with their preparations in it; she had noticed him for any more. They watched the disintegrafor the great day that had been so long de- some time, and that he had seemed not tion and dispersion of the great mass that sired, little thinking what it was to bring a frocks and the new bonnets, and, each derela's prince. carrying an umbrella, set forth with a In short, there is no need to make a mysseen of the coremonies of the day, bliss- on the morning of the first of October in perfect gravity. "I am very happy to fully ignorant of the nature of their under- the year 1880, when she was plunged into have been of any service to you." heard their voices and the click of their stances of her life-at the instant when she stood. gate, and stepped into his balcony to see was struck by the larrikin's elbow and felt " Dod't you want to see this rost of it costumes, that had a gala air about them, of the crowd-Elizabeth King met her Soat two of the three aweet faces; and he whom, hungring if unconsciously, her tender "O dear n rouned to think of such women being earth had longuel. huatled and battered, helplessly, in the liero crush of a solid street crowd. But hay had no fear whatever for themselves. lowever, they had not gone far before show perceived that the idea of securing a good position early in the day had occurred the crowd had thickened to an extent that street, don't you ?" -- and she pointed down | sort. He had a leathery, sun-dried, weather-some occasions, and this was one of them. Eleanor was chilled with the colid, and it was not to be shought of that able should run the risk of as illness from impredent exposure—no, not for all the exhibitions in the world. So they compromised the case over each other's should be with the world. So they compromised the case were watching in the said should be able where they would be able to see they would be able.

CHAPTER XV. ELIZABETH FINDS A PRIEND.

"I am afraid you cannot as very well," There were sounds stranger to me."

Perhaps Mr. Brion knows."

I am afraid you cannot as very well, "I am perison the war trivial, I suppose," and the world. So they compromised the case over each other's should also coald be met without the said and standing on tip-toe to catch the said away and placed them to the said dames Stantise, presented their endorsement by a responsible party, handed then to the said admes Stantise, of the use of the said dames Stantise, where they would be able to see they would be able to see the party steps—where they would be able Treasury steps—where they would be able to see the procession, if not the Exhibition to see the procession, if not the Exhibition to see the procession, if not the Exhibition that was what you cames here for—in case the crowd should be too great the common of the House of the common of the outside their rooms from morn till dewy eve her. It filled up the street in all directions, for so much as a giance into Myrtle street and condensed into a solid mass on the together in a corner and look on quietly—

Sir John Thompson moved that Mr. Mc
Sir John Thompson moved that Mr. Mc together in a corner and look on quietly—silent, but apparently amiable.) "It is Greevy, member for Quebec West, not havfor so much as a glance into Myrtie street from the balcony.

But in the afternoon it was found that half a yard more of ribbon was required to complete the last of the bonnets, and Patty volunteered to "run into town" to fetch it.

At about 4 o clock she set off alone by way of an adjusting road which was an omnibus.

At a bout 4 o clock she set off alone by way and a subject of the state of the case and condensed into a solid mass on the together in a corner and look of quiety—ing attended this day at his place in "And your sisters?"

"And your sisters?"

"And your sisters?"

"And left you here alone?"

"And left you here alone?" of an adjoining road which was an omnibus and there was no prospect of restoring com- more fully, and by the time she had done about, do you suppose ? once, in the purchase of a little precious of the show was over. In a fever of anxiety, the show was over. In a fever of anxiety of the show was over. In a fever of anxiety of the show was over. In a fever of anxiety of the show was over. I route, intending to expend threepence, for munications with Patty and Eleanor until so the Governors' carriages were in sight. "O no," replied Elizabeth, promptly, and Means. time, but every omnitous was. The pave had to walk the whole way. The pave had to walk the whole way. The pave to part from them, she kept her eyes turned hob-nailed boots, and bumping heavily upon had to walk the whole way. The pave to part from them, she kept her eyes turned hob-nailed boots, and bumping heavily upon had to walk the whole way. The pave to part from them, she kept her eyes turned hob-nailed boots, and bumping heavily upon heavily upon had to walk the whole way. The pave to part from them, she kept her eyes turned hob-nailed boots, and live to part from them, she kept her eyes turned hob-nailed boots, and live to part from them, she kept her eyes turned hob-nailed boots, and live part from them, she kept her eyes turned hob-nailed boots, and live part from them, she kept her eyes turned hob-nailed boots, and live part from them, she kept her eyes turned hob-nailed boots, and live part from them, she kept her eyes turned hob-nailed boots, and live part from them, she kept her eyes turned hob-nailed boots, and live part from them, she kept her eyes turned hob-nailed boots, and live part from them, she kept her eyes turned hob-nailed boots, and live part from them, she kept her eyes turned hob-nailed boots, and live part from them, she kept her eyes turned hob-nailed boots, and live part from them are the and live part from them are the first part from the first par who jostled and obstructed her. Collins street, she expected them to emerge; and then him, she drew her feet back another inch or how you happened on him, and what he has as sugar, rice or corn. In Canada so far when she turned into it seemed riotous with she saw, presently, the figure of their good two; upon which the right arm as well as been saying and doing." when she turned into it seemed riotous with abnormal life, and she went from shop to abnormal life, and she went from shop and could not get waited on until the shop and could not get waited on until the usual closing hour was past, and the even-usual closing hour was past, and the even-usual closing beginning to grow dark. Then she got what she wanted, and set off home by way what she wanted, and set off home by way what she wanted almost covered him, burled almost covered him, the interesting in each of their good the count of the what she wanted, and of the Gardens, feeling a little daunted by along with a velocity that was out correspondingly, in fact it was prothe noise and bustle of the streets, and of all proportion to his bulk; and from unromantic necessity of the situation could carried by the first of the streets, and of all proportion to his bulk; and from unromantic necessity of the situation could carried by the situation carried by tancying she would be secure when once time to time she saw his quick eyes flash calm the tremulous excitement comthose green alleys, slways so peaceful, were ing over other people's shoulders, and that municated to her by these things. reached. But to night even the gardens he was looking eagerly in all directions. It Oh, how hideous, how simply insupportable seemed hopeless to expect him to distin- it would have been had she been cast upon guish her in the sea of faces around him, but another breast and into other arms than far from it. I wish you knew his name, being of a very poor quality, and to preserve would be called to the matter to-morrow. only wonder is that we are not all baldhe did. Sunk in the human tide that rose his! As it was, it was all right. He said | Elizabeth."

a tobacco-scented individual was dogging always seem to turn up to help us as soon spoken of this first half hour with pride, when presently, as she hurriedly pattered on hearing the heavier tread and an occasional artificial cough behind her, she sudcompletely blocked."

we should miss them," he quoted, with a laugh. He could afford read) as illustrating the kind of interest he had stayed quietly in the house, and carried. took for one happy moment, when the de- a little jest, though she was so serious, for meant. He had lately seen the crowd at busied herself in the manufacture of Mr. Borden said that in view of the took for one happy moment, when the delightful sense of his protection was too lightful sense of his protection was too strong for her, and then—reacting violently from that mood—released. "I—I am mortified with myself for being such a fool," and then—reacting violently she she was nappy in the conviction that the his street, busined her said that the find a little jest, though she was so serious, for the opening of the Trocadero Palace, and the United that the opening of the Trocadero Palace, and she was nappy in the conviction than could be given to the opening of the Trocadero Palace, and she was nappy in the conviction than could be given to the opening of the Trocadero Palace, and she was nappy in the conviction than could be given to the opening of the Trocadero Palace, and she was nappy in the conviction than could be given to the opening of the Trocadero Palace, and she was nappy in the conviction than could be given to give have the unable to reach take if in a coordance of the House. They required the United did frighten me. I don't know use and comfort to her after all. "But I described the festival at Cologne fired her shall have some," she said, and she opened this resolution affirms a principle which it would be folly for any member to deny. bourne to night—I suppose it is the upon her uncomfortable but inoffensive foreign travel, and made her forget for the was not an old acquaint and I've got a nice cutlet and mashed potation." And she went on to explain neighbors, "all alone by yourself." "Oh, don't mind me," said Elizabeth, ance.

bour, and to explain away, as she hoped, cheerfully, "If you can only find Patty along, Mr. Brion. I'm sure they'll come if Canada. He also asked if Spain had given and Nelly, and be so good as to take care of he said, "and I stood with the throng in you ask them."

aim disappear with an easy mind.

Elizabeth had ceased to see or care for the was." "Whom do you mean by our swell great spectacle that she had been so anxious "And were you not impressed?" to witness. Moment by moment the crowd bourne, I believe if you allude to her about her grew more dense and dogged, he replied, gently. And she thought Oil is the best pain-cure we ever used. It of the Minister of Justice that Canada But she is not swell. The only swell person more pitilessly indifferent to the comfort we know is Mrs. Aerons, and she is not our of one another, more evidently minded that the fittest should survive in the fight for Then he made the further curious statement existence on the treasury steps. Rough that this crowd was the tamest he had ever to pass. "Well, I hope you will have good men pushed her forward and backward, seen. seats," he said, moodily. "It will be a and from side to side, treading on "I don't call it tame," she said, with a her feet, and tearing the stitches of her laugh, as the yells of the larrikin and his gowo, and knocking her bonnet awry, until | fellows rent the air around them. she felt bruised and sick with the buffetings | He responded to her laugh with a pleasant that she got, and the keen consciousness of smile, and his voice was friendlier when he the indignity of her position. She could spoke again. " But I am quite delighted scarcely breathe for the pressure around with it, unimpressive as it is. It is com- reign her, though the breath of all sorts of un- posed of people who are not wanting anypleasant people was freely poured into her | thing. I don't know that I was ever in a | 90, men 26. face. She would have struggled away and crowd of that sort before. I feel, for once, gone home-convinced of the comforting that I can breathe in peace." propelling power in another person, and its height. this was exercised presently in such a " It will soon be over now," he murvery early indeed, and to take up a certain way as to completely overbalance her. | mured encouragingly diately behind her, and the stout woman, | would part. That was what they thought, quite unintentionally, pushed her to to the exclusion of all interest in the passthe edge of the step, and flung her upon the ing spectacle. Even as she spoke, the shoulder of a braway larrikin who had noise and confusion that had made a solitude fought his way backwards into a position | for their quiet intercourse sensibly subsided, whence he could see the pageant of the The tail of the procession was well in sight street to his satisfaction. The larrikin half | the heavy crowd on the Treasury steps was turned, struck her savagely in the breast | swaying and breaking like a huge wave with his elbow, demanding, with a roar and upon the street; the larrikin was gone. 1 occupied with their bonnet-making, her eyes an oath, where she was a shoving to ; and was time for the unknown gentleman to shindun with excitement. Elizabeth, Elizabeth, Elizabeth, Elizabeth, Elizabeth, Elizabeth, and seen in the posterior of the Bedford family for 300 years. headlong into the scething mass beneath stranger to her.

round the waist with a strong grip and strongly in the direction of the Exhibition. lifted her up and set her safely on her feet " If you don't mind waiting here for a few escort. We shall be much happier by our again. It was a man who had been stand minutes longer, you will be able to get Times. They had an early breakfast, dressed as a gentleman was followed by an instinct notice them. Then she withdrew her hand, hemselves with great care in their best | tive identification of him as a sort of Cin- and said, with a little stiff bow and a bright | You will have to speak to mother.

hom start. He took note of the pretty herself about to be crushed under the fee

CHAPTER XVL " WE WESE NOT STRANGERS,

"Stand here, and I can shelter you a mind how to answer him. So she four to a great many people besides themsgives. Hittle," he said, in a quint tone that con- herself walking beside him along the foot-Even sleepy Myrtle Street was awaks and treated refracilegly with the foarse excitement into it, was terming with holiday life. They took their favorite route through the miss that the Fiture and those sylvan gladge alive with traffic; and those sylvan gladge alive with traffic; and the time thay got into Spring street posed shoulder and the crush of the The arm was irresistably pressed upon her the striking features of his countenance embarranced their progress and made it devices and slow. And they had scarcely passed the Treasury buildings when Eleanor, who had been suffering from a slight sore throughout the form a slight sore throughout the form had been suffering from a slight sore throughout the form had been suffering from a slight sore tingling blush from had to foot. It would start, she suddenly cought sight the maternal anxiety of her careful elder have been horrible had it been anyone else, of them sitting comfortably sister. "O, my dear," said Elizabeth, com- Lam so serry," he said, "but I cannot a bench in an alley of the Fitzery Gar I am so serry, he said, "but I cannot ing to an ar-upt standstill on the pavement, ing the first of the stands of the stands of the stands about for hours in the three areas a upave the grown are the procession has the procession h

"Now, look here, Elizabeth," said Patty, ness that are practically handsomer than off his hat to her with profound respect with strong emphasis; "you see that many kinds of beauty, and his was of that And so they parted—for a little while.

you have been doing."

morrow, very tikely."

never see or hear of him again."

(To be Continued

Quartermaster-General.

A Fact at a Glance.

London employs 500,000 factory hands.

Half of the surfree of Russia is forest-

Pepper cost £15 an ounce in Henry VII's

The annual drink bill of the world ex-

Doctors say that the left leg is usually

A sewing machine works twelve times as

An ostrich's egg weighs about four pounds

A sunflower in a season will produce 12,- 000 seeds, while a poppy bears 32,000.

land in 1802.

ceeds £1,000,000,000.

fast as the hands.

for his neckties.

stronger than than the right.

value £2,000,000 per samum.

-equal to forts hens' eggs.

The Alps stand in six different States.

plane, and in so doing caught sight of her felt in the secret derths of her primitive I have been so anxious about you. But sensation, and, though he had had to bear Exhibition some day when we go there—to- this kind of poor beer from 5 cents to 10 where is Miss Patty? Where are your anxions responsibilities for herself and others, she had no natural vocation for in-"Oh, Mr. Brion," she responded, " you dependence. Many a time since have they going to do now !" "Which way were they to come !" he I saw you." he says. "And I knew, even wery much, in the absence of more pro- the liquired eagerly. "And I knew, even wery much, in the absence of more pro- the House would remember that the malt inquired eagerly.

By the Gardens.

But the gates are she calmly replies. Whereas good luck, until they saw the Royal Standard hoisted duty had been doubled, and the revenue and heard the from this industry had been largely in-"I will go and find them," he said. He spoke to her with studied coldness saluting guns proclaim that the exhibition creased. It was therefore only fair that trian hastening by, and recognized Paul's Con't be anxious about them. They will while necessarily holding her embraced, as was open; and then they returned to increased protection should be given. "I can't," she replied. "I promised I barrassing to her than silence. He remarked pleasantly, upon the whole demand. The would not stir from this place, and I must that he was fond of crowds himself—found Mrs. McIntyre was standing at her gate Government proposed to discourage as far not, in case they should be in the street, or them intensely interesting—and spoke of when they reached home, and stopped as possible the manufacture of alcohol from Thackeray's paper on the crowd that went them to ask what they had seen, and beets and things of that kind.

> the streets, as I am doing now. They put And so, with apparent reluctance, but the last stone on the top of the cross on atmost real alsority, he left her, flinging one of the towers more than six hundred > > "And were you not impressed?"

> >
> > General Rufus Ingalls, late QuartermasterOf course I was. It was very pathetic," General, U. S. Army, who says "St. Jacobs Mr. McNeill asked if it was the opinion ' pathetic " an odd word to use. Why pathetic? She did not like to ask him.

fact that Patty and Richard were safely out | "Oh, I wish I could feel so !" she cried.

advantageous position that we have already A sudden wave of movement broke "Yes," she replied. In a few minutes accorded before the streets fill. We shall against a stort woman standing immeagainst a atout woman standing imme- the crush would lessen, and he and she

"You had better take my arm," he said, But as abe was falling a moment so as she hastily disengaged herself before it agonizing at the time, and so delightful to was leafe to do so, and was immediately remember afterwards comeone caught her caught in the oddy that was setting enough to maintain an upright position his arm, and waited; but they did not talk bicycle with. soriously incommoded by the bustling and had hemmed them in together, until at last souffling that rendered her so helpless; but they stood in ease and freedom almost alone as her graduating essay a paper on "How she had not noticed his gradual approach upon that coigne of vantage which had been to keep house on $12 a week;" do you to her side. Now, looking up with a little won with so much difficulty-two rather think you could keep house on $12 a week, for Kingston sob of ralief, her instant recognition of him imposing figures, if aryons had cared to Susan and becoming color in her isco-" Thank resolve to see what was to be tery of the matter. At half-past 10 o'clock | "Don't mention it," he replied, with taking. Paul Brion, out of bed betimes, the most wretched and terrifying circum- Still they did not move from where they my ninters.

put it as a request, and be began to descend, the principal provisions with regard to the occupation of homostead lands. He hour's time? And we couldn't do it in hair open book to his experienced glance, and an hour. Let us make Nelly tie up her three pocket-handkerchiefs, and push on and get our places. Otherwise provisionally delighted him. He was as glad as she was that fate had selected him to deliver her in her moment of peril, out of the many who might have held out a helping."

I don't know," said Elizabeth. "Where how have you got to deliver her in her moment of peril, out of the many who might have held out a helping."

I have been so anxious about you."

The many who might have held out a helping to the many who might have held out a helping."

I have been so anxious about you."

The many who might have held out a helping to the many who might have held out a helping."

The many who might have held out a helping to the many who might have held out a helping to the many who might have held out a helping to the many who might have held out a helping to the many who might have held out a helping to the many who might have held out a helping to the many who might have held out a helping to the many who might have held out a helping to the many who might have held out a helping to the many who might have held out a helping to the many who might have held out a helping to the many who might have held out a helping to the many who might have been so anxious about you."

The many who might have been so anxious about you."

The many who might have been so anxious about you."

The many who might have been so anxious about you."

The many who might have been so anxious about you."

The many who might have been so anxious about you."

The many who might have been so anxious about you."

The many who might have been so anxious about you."

The many who might have been so anxious about you."

The many who might have been so anxious about you."

The many who might have been so anxious about you."

The many who might have been so anxious about you."

The many who might have been so anxious about you."

The many who might have been so anxi "I have not the least idea, I tell you. He claimed that on the basis on which

On the Thursday immediately preceding would not will make yourself at hig as you can," herself right in his system. If never saw mooning about in the gardens, and she has work to attend in his place at 3 this afternoon.

Mr. Spenker—Is the hon, member for mooning about in the gardens, and she has only the stiching that is undone-you can ing attended this day at his place in this mend it in five minutes. We wouldn't have House, pursuant to order of 13th August, be minded little trifles of that sort-not in the taken in custody by the sergeant-at-arms beer had always been made exclusively from gentlemen opposite. raise correspondingly, in fact it was prome where Mr. Brion found you, and what the excise duty upon beer made from sugar, he thought the best course would be iron, ruined by bleaches and washes, and you have been doing."

corn and rice, the object being to prevent for Mr. Cameron to table the statement cut so far back on the head for bangs that for Mr. Cameron to table the statement to day, and the attention of the House there is hardly any left for back hairs. The

"The boy stood on the burning deck," to see the man hanged (which she had never how they had enjoyed themselves. She Resolutions embodying the proposals were toes just coming on the table. Bring them favored nation clause should protect

Mr. Foster said a great many representatheir flags all over the place. One old stood by all horsemen from the turf to the Spanish Government. The contention as to grant their flags all over the place. One old stood by all horsemen from the turf to the Spanish Government. The contention as to grant their flags all over the place. One old stood by all horsemen from the turf to the Spanish Government. The contention as to grant the stable to the saddle. Very the alleged special concessions could not tive made his appearance upon the scene, me-he thought I must be as overcome as he high authorities on the subject of horse and hold till 1892, because until then the United cattle ailments, concur in the opinion of States was making no special concession to conquers pain," This department has the | would be able to enter into preferential nation clause which the latter might have with another country. Sir John Thompson replied that he di not desire to give his own opinion.

The House went into Committee of Supply. half a million more to improve the present Mr. Davies said that there was a great Beauharnois canal than to build the Sou waste of public money in purchasing stores for the Intercolonial He had heard that The average age that women marry at is this leakage went to some extent to the political fund of the Conservative party. A rabbit can jump nins clear feet on level He had not sufficient information to lay a charge, but he asked Mr. Bowell to investi-Photographs were first produced in Eng-charge had not been made, he would enleavor to ascertain where the leaks were. The Speaker announced that a vacancy The flower trade of London exceeds in McGreevy, and that, in accordance with

Mr. Laurier said be understood that there was a protest against the seat of the circumstances he ventured to doubt that a place in the House that he is credibly in- of such is the kingdom of heaven." warrant for a new election should have been formed and believes that by satisfactory The following epitaph is in Lanesboro, S. Mr. Amyot said there was a protest, and the 19th mat against Mr. Cochrane, mein The third-class railway fares in Hungary | only average one penny for six miles. Covent Garden has been in the possession Cashmere shawls are made of the hair of a diminutive goat found in Little Thibet. issue a warrant. A mile of railway permanent way, with two sets of rails, takes up 12h acres of land. Five thousand advertisements appear ing within a little distance of her, tall home comfortably."

According to a cycling paper, blacklead would take place. The matter as to whether me in his place in the House yesterday, I she best thing to lubricate the chain of a would take place. The matter as to whether me in his place in the House yesterday, I she best thing to lubricate the chain of a would take place. The matter as to whether me in his place in the House yesterday, I she best thing to lubricate the chain of a would take place. Canchi on the Piy.

He-I see by the papers that a girl read

She-Oh, George, this is too sudder -To build and fit up a hancom cab costs of such vacancy, a warrant should forth- $200 towards the liquidation of the deposit -The Duke of Fife is always measure

-There are more than 2,000 Smiths the London Directory. The Cunard steamer Aurania, which passing the North German Lloyd streamer Mr. McGreevy was endeavoring to antici- would recommend for appointment to the losing his memory. Belle Below, head-waitress of the Walton House, Clayton, N. Y., committed snields by drowning on Sanday night.

was a but considering the difficulties arining out of the last campaign I have about concluded to get a Winchester." Western editor. "I have been using a county or his riding by di day or at some early date bring the matter to the attention of Parliament. I shall read the statement of charges, and then I shall place it on the table of the House. It is as a vacancy in the position of Governmen lighthouse keeper in the Government light-house on Presque Isle point, county of Northumberland. 2. That one Hedley H. Simpson was an mons for the electoral district of the cast its length. "You see that, and that"— of them and the populous valley in the opposite direction. "If there is such a crowd now, what will there he in half an hour. Let us make Nelly tie up her three pocket-handkerchiefs, and open book to his experienced glance, and the provisionally delighted him. He was a striking distinguished and now. Let us make Nelly tie up her three pocket-handkerchiefs, and that "— ostentatious nose; his menth was large, and his light gray eyes deeply set and small. When he had turned and left her, Elimboth face, and that "— when he had turned and left her, Elimboth for the consideration of the electoral district of the cast riding of the said county of Northumber-land, and a supporter of the Government.

When he had turned and left her, Elimboth face, and general appearance, or can be consideration of three months recidence formerly necessary.

When he had turned and left her, Elimboth for the consideration of the said county of Northumber-land, and a supporter of the Government.

When he had turned and left her, Elimboth for the consideration of the menths recidence formerly necessary.

When he had turned and left her, Elimboth fell distinguished and attractive face, and Elizabeth fell in love with it there and then. Similarly, the other amendments for the consideration of the menths recidence formerly necessary.

When he had turned and left her, Elimboth fell distinguished and attractive face, and Elizabeth fell in love with it there and the said Hedely H. Simpson to allowing persons taking advantages of cancelled lands. Persons who entered and deliver to one James Stanley two of cancelled lands. Persons who entered and county of Northumber-land, and supporter of the consideration of the said county of the said county of Northumber-land, and supporter of the consideration of the said supporter of the consideration of the said county of Northumber-lands and supporter of the consideration of the said county of Northumber-lands and supporter of the consideration of the said county of Nor some responsible person, he (the said Ed-ward Cochrane) would procure the appoint-ment of the said Hedely H. Simpson to the Gentle, said office of lighthouse-keeper for the Government lighthouse on Presque Isle Point.

5. That the said Hedely H. Simpson, in pursuance of said corrupt bargain, did make Sleep.

least—to have seen the procession, and attending this House, and that Mr. Speaker finally carried out.

This was agreed to.

issued by the Speaker, and what the prac-

Sir Richard Cartwright, upon motion t fused, on the ground that it may disclose

Sir John Thompson deprecated motions would be folly for any member to deny.

Mr. Prior made an appeal to the Cov ernment to deal more liberally with British Columbia, and pressed its prospects and sidies and public buildings. He considered

After Recess.

Mr. Mousseau favored the project, ment of the St. Lawrence canal system.

Mr. Mulock urged the immediate improve

Mr. Bowell explained that it would cost

The Speaker announced that he had re

Mr. Cameron (Huron) moved that Mr evidence the charges preferred by him or

Huron. He stated that he had abandone reference to these matters. As to the alle-

I say, as before, that no such corrupt agree-for my political benefit other than as above

Mr. Amyor called attention to matter

1890 the House was told the cost would be croft, was unknown. People were saking who was Bancroft. No clue could be 2318,000, but this year the cost was cinted

HOUSE OF COMMONS,

OTTAWA, Aug. 20, 1891.

It had never been doubted since the com complete as possible.

langes canal.

The item passed.

Sergeant-at-Arms:

in connection with such payment."

tice in such cases in future should be?

the manufacture of beer from malt. "But, my dear, I don't. So leave off Mr. Mills (Bothwell)-Will the hon. asking silly questions. I daresay we shall gentleman say which is the good quality? They consulted with Paul for a few would make the duty upon the British "I took you to my heart the first moment seemed to gratify the two younger sisters centage would be higher, as follows: British, and not their own wisdom, justified them. over the great dome, and heard the from this industry had been largely into make conversation, which was less em- spent an enormously long morning not un nad no doubt the manufacturers could, if such investigation no evidence should be re- in it, or borax, if you prefer it.

mittee existed. By all means let the investigation of all committees be as full and notice of the termination of this treaty, as one year was required. tions had been made to the Government in advantages upon the notice of the House. himself from the steps into the crowd like a years after the foundation stone was laid. They were trying to get an authoritative statement from the sea, and she saw The people were wild with joy and hung out to get an authoritative statement from the dredging at Victoria, besides railway sub test a penny-wise policy would be foolish.

> The House resumed into supply. Mr. Bergeron opposed the proposed construction of the Soulanges canal on the north side of the St. Lawrence, for which $300,000 custody and treatment of army horses and trade arrangements with Great Britain, notmules, and thousands are treated. withstanding any treaty having the favored harnois canal on the south side of the river. on which a large amount of money had been

Mr. Bowell said that although a direct | The Honorable the Speaker: Suc,-I have the honor to report that reached Quebec at 3 p. m., and at once mad diligent search for Thomas McGreevy at h home, his office and other places, and could no had occurred in the representation of find him. Later I was informed, on what I con Quebec West by the resignation of Thomas | sider good authority, that he left Quebec by the Grand Trunk Railway, but I was unable to fine his destination. I have no doubt that he les the law, he had issued a warrant for a new Quebec several hours before I left this city. Your obedient servant, HENRY R. SMITH, Acting Sergeant-at-Arms.

Mr. Speaker said he had no knowledge | vestigation and report thereon to Sir | ments of this same style, $250. with respect to the protest. According to Adolphe Caron, Mesers. Dickie, Tisclate, his reading of the law he was obliged to Skinner, Mulock, German and Cameron, o

Mr. Amyot said the resignation was not | the last clause of his charges, which is of g valid whilst there was a protest against general nature, on the ground that it was Wooden-Weren't you afraid of the light-Sir John Thompson said it did not follow only three charges for investigation, sometimes in a single issue of the London that because the warrant had been issued Mr. Cochrane-In answer to the charges

> naturally come before the Privileges and the charges made against me, and that Elections Committee, and would be reported never made any corrupt agreement with Mr. Laurier said the House had not yet gations made in paragraphs five and been informed that a writ had been issued | six of the second branch of the charges, Mr. Speaker said that a vacancy from ment as is stated in paragrah five was made death was different from a vacancy from between me and Goodrich, sither directly resignation. Where there was a vacancy or indirectly. I desire, however, in relafrom death, on the Speaker being informed | tion to this charge, to say that Goodrich paid with issue. His attention must be drawn which had been advanced by persons other to the yacancy before he could looms a than myself several years before on the conwarrant.

Mr. Laurier said that since the House was | not a candidate nor interested except as one | may have."

pledged to pay the expenses of the funeral of my party, and none of the said money of Sir John Macdonald the Speaker must be | was received by me for any personal use nor Paware of the late Premier's douth. Mr. Mills (Bothwell) said it seemed as if stated. It had been understood that I "O dear no, thank you! I have had quite enough, and I am very anxious to find charges which had been referred to them. An arrangement mas made between Simpson sible and decent vehicles for conveying and Goodrich by which Simpson was to prisoners. Nothing is gained either for > waernet had beer issued. Mr. Kirkpatrick considered that resignation was null and void, and that some modification should be made in the relating to the Kingston dry dock. He Mr. Cameron (Huron), upon the orders of posed, it was stated that the probable cost bud in her hair. Mr. Hayseed-Gosh he day being called, said : I rise to a ques- | would be from $250,000 to $450,000. tion of privilege. I desire to say to this House that I have been credibly informed, of to be $450,744. There was a strong and I believe, that a member what sort of a nowspaper plant have this present Parliament has been guilty you?" saked the Eastern man of the wild of trafficking in the patronage of his desire to my that I have been credible med. Last evening I notified the men

"I have been a great applicant for said dice.

3. That Edward Cochrane then was, and every Winter, and last Fall my London, it is extremely difficult to find now is, the member for the House of Com- friends as well as myself thought a street, standing in some part of which, because of my feebit condition, and either at one end or looking down some great distress from constant cough-ing, and inability to raise any of the reader exclaims, believing that he can name accumulated matter from my lungs. | a dozen streets where not the ghost of a that my time was close at hand. | tree is visible | nevertheless, one who is con-When nearly worn out for want of demned to live more than half the year in sleep and rest, a friend recommend- hitherto without success. Any one who ed me to try thy valuable medicine, cares to repeat the experiment will discove.

7. That the said Hedely H. Simpson, in and in excellent health and do consistency of the lime salts as to be pursuance of said corrupt bargain, received tarnly attribute it to thy Boschez's of the consistency of hard lime or plaster

the patronage of the Government in and for said county, corruptly entered into other nollys? He did not know. The brothers upon one side of the face. The bandage corrupt contracts with other person or per-bad not quarreited. There might which had been tied over the head to retain sons in the years 1888, 1889 and 1890; that be some reptile found there. How the lower jaw in position was still intact, such person or persons would receive from | was it that the Department of Public | and the fact that it was left there instead of the Government the position of keeper or Works had been transacting business so long being removed after the muscles had keepers or attendants of other bridges on with a supposed contractor? The Government become fixed, as is the usual custom, sughome to make themselves new bonnets for the occasion, and took a cold dinner while at their work, and two of them did not stir at their work, and two of them did not work of them did not stir at their work, and two of them did not stir at their work, and two of them did not stir at their work, and two of them did not stir and that the remainder of the not stir and that the said cansel at their work, and two of them did not stir and that the said cansel at their works, and two of them did not stir and that the said cansel at their works, and two of them did not stir and that in pursuance of such and the said cansel; and that in pursuance of such and the said cansel; and that in pursuance of such and the said cansel; and that in pursuance of such and the said cansel; and that in pursuance of such and the said cansel; and that in pursuance of such and the said cansel; and that in pursuance of such and the said cansel; and that in pursuance of such and the said cansel; and that in pursuance of such and the said cansel at the said cansel; and that in pursuance of such and the said cansel; and that in pursuance of such and the said cansel; and that in pursuance of such and the said cansel; and that in pursuance of such and the said cansel; and that in pursuance of such and the said cansel; and that in pursuance of such and the said cansel; and that in pursuance of such and the said cansel; and that in pursuance of such and the said cansel; and that in pursuance of such and the said cansel; and that in pursuance of such and the said cansel; and that in pursuance of such and the said cansel; and that in pursuance of such and the said cansel; and that it is the said cansel; and that it is the said cansel; and the sai 2. That mid Edward Cochrane during the obtained money under false pretensions. periods aforesaid made such corrupt offers | Sir John Thompson said it was underto other persons, which offers were not stood that notice of these motions should be given to the Government. That had been attending this House, and that Mr. Speaker do issue his warrant accordingly.

The motion was carried unanimously.

The House went into Committee of Ways

Continuing, he said: I den't propose to departed from for an unexplained reason. While it might be true that a fictitious don't propose at present to follow up the statement I have made by any motion in I that the public interest had not an any motion in I that the public interest had not an any motion in I that the public interest had not an any motion in I that the public interest had not an any motion in I that the public interest had not an any motion in I that the public interest had not any motion in I that the public interest had not an any motion in I that the public interest had not an any motion in I that the public interest had not any motion in I this House. I am not the guardian of the thereby, and that there had not been any

Minister of the Crown, could propose to de-Sir Jo'm Tho npson said that the charges fend in Parliament and before the country hear distinctly. Under the circumstances Their hair has been burned by the curling-

Mr. Davies said that with respect to the thin and broken off at the ends. Thorough brushing is excellent for the announcement made by the Speaker at "Oh, don't you believe it! I'm certain would not interrupt him. It had been had received the resignation of Mr. thin, after brushing it well (morning is the she was conscious of being watched and you are !" he exclaimed, in a tone of relief. To be cared for and protected was a new we shall see him again. He will be at the thought wise to raise the exclaimed, in a tone of relief. cents. Therefore, it was intended to add new election by decided warrant for a it morning and night both is better), rub on Well, well, never mind. What are we going to do now?"

New of the last to move a resolution of the statement made by Mr. Amyot that Mr. | roots of the hair. Repeat this application | boy, and your father is a trump." "Well, her steps, as if with an intention as we get into trouble, and I am so thankful boasting of how they trusted each other at minutes, and he took them where they article when in bottles 38 per cent, and I am so thankful boasting of how they trusted each other at minutes, and he took them where they article when in bottles 38 per cent, and I am so thankful boasting of how they trusted each other at minutes, and he took them where they article when in bottles 38 per cent, and I am so thankful boasting of how they trusted each other at minutes, and I am so thankful boasting of how they trusted each other at minutes, and I am so thankful boasting of how they trusted each other at minutes, and I am so thankful boasting of how they trusted each other at minutes, and I am so thankful boasting of how they trusted each other at minutes, and I am so thankful boasting of how they trusted each other at minutes, and I am so thankful boasting of how they trusted each other at minutes, and I am so thankful boasting of how they trusted each other at minutes, and I am so thankful boasting of how they trusted each other at minutes, and I am so thankful boasting of how they trusted each other at minutes, and I am so thankful boasting of how they are the trusted each other at minutes, and I am so thankful boasting of how they are the trusted each other at minutes, and I am so thankful boasting of how they are the trusted each other at minutes, and I am so thankful boasting of how they are the trusted each other at minutes, and I am so thankful boasting of how they are the trusted each other at minutes, and I am so thankful boasting of how they are the trusted each other at minutes, and I am so thankful boasting of how they are the trusted each other at minutes, and I am so thankful boasting of how they are the trusted each other at minutes, and I am so thankful boasting of how they are the trusted each other at minutes, and I am so thankful boasting of how they are the trusted each other at minutes, and I am so thankful boasting of

The hair must be kept clean and free from go into Supply, proposed in amendment the dandruff if it is to be kept healthy. The following resolution: Resolved, "That it very busiest people-women I mean-ought spry. You were quite lame when I last is the undoubted right of the Committee on to wash the head and hair at least once a met you." Public Accounts to investigate all circum- month. Always wash the hair in rain-water ... Oh, yes; I was awfully lame then, stances connected with the payment of any or distilled water. Hard water will make it But that was before I got a verdict for of the several sums of money referred to harsh and likely to break off. Use plenty of $5,000 against the railroad company."-N.

warm soapands with a few drops of ammonia | Y. Herald. After washing it in water, if there is mproper conduct or relations on the part of much dandruff on the scalp, rub it well a Minister of the Crown, or any other party, with the beaten white of an egg, then wash it with another soapsuds water and the lished in Ontario on the 1st inst. : Beg dandruff will all come away. Then rinse Island, Prince Edward; De Grassi Point in amendment to Supply which touched the the head and hair with clear, warm water, privileges of the House. They required and finally with cold water, for its excellent more consideration than could be given to tonic effect upon the hair and to avoid taking

> Frost at Denison, Tex., last night. Floods in Westmoreland county, England. Harrison has begun his tour of Verment. Charleston, Ark, fire-swept last night. Loss $50,000. Bismarck has partly completed five has selected for use in her American tour > chapters of his memoirs. The captured Nicaraguan revolutionists play, "What Women Will Do," and have been exiled. Abbott, alias Almy, the Hanover, N. H.

murderer, has been placed in Manchester A son of ax-Governor Allison, of Florida, was shot in a row at Quincy, Fla., yester-

Fred. Mason, Secretary of the Steel Stock Ranch Company, Denver, was shot dead yesterday by a herder named S. W. Berry, who escaped. A despatch from St. Louis says Dr. Kingsbury, of the U. S. Geodetic Survey, has re turned from Alaska. He says that the U S. survey gives that country three miles more territory than the old survey, and that the country is filling up with gold The London Times, in a long editorial expresses the belief that the proposed intercontinental railroad to join the United ceived the following report from the acting States and South America will not be a Canadian Depot, 44 and 46 Lombord St., Toronto, Cal success, and that the States of the northern part of South America will not go out of their way to join commercial fortunes with > the United States. Two Queer Zpitaphs.

This unique epitaph is found in California: "Here lies the body of Jeemes Harsbrick, who was accidentally shot on the banks of the Pecos River by a young man. He was accidentally shot with one of the large Colt's revolvers with no stopper for the cock to rest on. It was one of the member for Quebec West. Under these Cameron, of Huron, having stated from his old-fashioned kind-brass mounted. And

C. : " Here lies Jane Smith, wife of Thomas Smith, marble cutter. This monument was he was one of the attorneys who signed the | ber for East Northumberland, can be estable erected by her husband as a tribute to her | lished, that such charges be referred for in- memory and a specimen of his work. Moun-

Wagg-We had a terrible thunderstorm as I came up in the train this afternoon. too indefinite. There would therefore be | ning Yagg-No; I got behind a brakeman. Wooden-Behind a brakeman? What earthly good did that do ?

Wagg-Why, he was not a conductor. Two Views. Miss Emersonia Russell, from Beacon Hil -Don't you think Mr. Bowles' countenance would arrest the workings of the interior mechanism of a horologue ! Miss Calumetta Porcine, from Michigan avenue-I don't know. But I think it would stop a clock .- Jewelers' Circular, That is, Bost Men. Brooklyn Life: "There are two social functions that a man always attends, no matter how many previous engagements he " What are they ?"

"His own marriage and his own funeral, Making Criminals Conspicuous. Rochester Herald : Rochester has covered patrol waggons, and they are both sen-my sisters."

Then allow me to be your escort until The Sciale Zeitung of Berlin mays Prince arrangement was in no way for my benefit, and I derived no adverse and is personal or political and I derived no adverse and is personal or political and I derived no adverse and in the complex of the complex not adverse and in the complex not adverse and i Old Mrs. Haysond, reading from a nows-Avenue Theatre, New York, the heroine of said that in 1888, when the dook was pro- the piece wears nothing but a simple rose-

The phrase "Leafy London ' has necome ommonplace, but is it correct ! Certainly it is, answers Sir Herbert Maxwell in the Vinetcenth Contury good he gives the challenge direct to any was are of the contrary opinion. England, he says, is a leafy country and London a leafy city. And sufferer from Asthit is not only in rural England that trees enrich the landscape. In London itself, grimed, fog anothered, overgrown London has often tried to find such a street, Boschee's German | that the same instinct which prompts men his Phrase Note to be Still Correctly

Syrup. I am con- to embosom their country home in greenery fident it saved my has caused them to stick la a tree whorever a courtyard or a street somewhat wider than life. Almost the first | usual affords a chance of its growing.

German Syrup. C. B. STICKNEY, of Paris. With the exception of one fact, 1. That the said Edward Cochrane, while Picton, Ontario." which was badly decomposed, all the parts were distinctly recognisable, the most distinctive feature being a large bony growth

Women and the Steam Engine. It takes sand to run an engine; so it does. There is usually a great bustle about an and admiration to men and of fear to horses; When an engine goes off the track it usually takes a man or more along with it :

An engine is known by its company; so is a woman. An engine will sometimes blow a follow up if he puts on too much pressure; so will

A Summer Story. Miss Brown AUGUST. Sweetheart. DECEMBER.

Misquoted. "Thank you sonny," said the grocer, receiving a $5 bill from a small boy (it being

Better Than Physic.

"Way, Sharp, I'm glad to see you so

The following new post offices were estab-Lake, Victoria, N. R.; The Mettawas (re-

Besides "A Yorkshire Lass," of which the London critics spoke in a very un-English though very complimentary way last winter, the repertoire which Miss Eastlake will include Jerome K. Jerome's latest Wilson Barrett and Sydney Grundy's

A little girl says : " I don't like peaches. The whiskers on them fill my teeth with Curos Promptly and Permanently Sore Throat, Swellings, Frost-bites, Sprains, Bruises, Burns, Scalds.

DIAMOND VERA-CURA

DYSPEPSIA AND ALL Stomach Troubles. INDICESTION. Nausea, Sour Stomack, Giddinass. Heartburn, Conselpation, Fullness, Food Rising, Disagreeable Taste, Mervous-

At Druggists and Dealers, or sent by mall on receipt of 25 cts. (5 boxes $1.00) in stamps. Canadian Depot, 44 and 46 Lumbard St., Toronto, Cal.

treatment is our specific remedy called the ONIGOT ENGLISH PRESORIFYION, I has extraordinary success in curing Sparmatorrha. Nights Lesses, Nerrousness, Weak Parts. The results of indiscretion. Is will invigorate and dure you. In years modules a gnarantee. All druggists self is. Slot per box. Can qualify sealed. Write for scaled letter to Eureka Chemica' Co.: Detroit, Micha

EPILEPSY OR FALLING SICKNESS

THE BEST COUGH MEDICINE. BOLD BY DECOMETS EVERYWHER

TO THE EDITOR:—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send tore bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their Express and Post Office Address. Respectivity, Y. A. CLOWING.

Miss Brown,

New Post Offices.

(summer office), Earnscliffe, Simone, S. R.; Heron's Mills, Lanark, W. R.; Kepler, Frontenac; Long Branch, York, W. R.; Mainsville, Grenville, S. R.; McMillan's Corners, Stormont; Osaca (re-opened) Durham, E. R.; Parliament street, Toronto, Centre ; Shallow Lake, Grey, N. R. ; Silver opened summer office), Essex, S. R.

" Clito."

D. C. N. L. 36, 91

RHEUMATISM Lumbago, Hoadache, Toothache, NEURALGIA. SCIATICA. Sold by Druggists and Dealers Everywhere.