INTERESTING LETTERS FROM OUR STAFF OF CORRESPONDENTS.

FRANKVILLE.
FRIDAY, Oct. 9.—A number of sheep in this vicinity have been killed by Jogs.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Dowley are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dowley.

Richard Bros. have started business in the store lately occupied by J. G. Stacey.

The entertainment given in the Methodist church Thursday evening, Oct. 1st, under the auspices of the Epworth League was a grand success. Here was a large audience and the entertainment was much appreciated. The choir of the church with some help rendered some excellent pieces of music. Rev. A. A. Radley and Miss Ladonna Eston also sang and did their part remarkably well. The Raton family furnished some excellent instrumental music for the occasion. The committee had procured Prof. L. A. Knolly of Athens for the evening and he gave some very fine readings and recitations. Mrs. Byron Lovrin, of Addison, also gave two recitations, which she rendered excellently. Miss Louisa Mulvaugh and Miss Minnie Richards gave recitations which added very much to the evening's entertainment. Rev. R. Orrer, of Addison was present and made a short address. N. H. Beecher, of Toledo, was appointed chairman and he filled his position well. After a successful entertainment the audience rose to their feet and sang God Save the Queen.

FRONT OF YONGE.

MONDAY, Oct. 12.—Mr. Thomas Williams of Wexford is at present very ill and is under the care of Dr. Lane of Maloryville. Mr. Williams took second prize on his beautiful team at Lansdowne fair.

Mr. Archibald Ferguson took in the cheap excursion to New York. Archie is amazed.

It is an advantage for an individual at times to play the dummy match and at the same time it is an advantage to the locality in which he lives, financially.

Mr. Jacob Hogboom who was very ill has again quite recovered, and is able to walk out, and view the beautiful fall scenery.

The doctor of the Malawaska will get a rest this fall, as we understand that Mr. John Ferguson and Mr. J. R. Thomson intend taking a rest.

The protracted meeting held in the Methodist church, Gaintown, is meeting with great success.

The sound of the hammer may be daily heard in the new house of the Rev. T. Kane, which is nearing completion.

We raised a sufficient quantity of beech and hickory nuts this year to feed our own squirrels and those of the adjoining farmers. We also support twelve line sparrows.

CHANTY.

MONDAY, Oct. 7.—Miss Ida Knowlton is quite ill.

Mrs. Morris, from near Burritt's Rapids, is renewing acquaintances in this vicinity.

Another old landmark passed quietly away last Sunday morning, in the person of Mr. H. A. Alford. The aged gentleman had been falling for some time but was confined to his room but a few days. He was born near this place in Jan. 1807, his people coming from the State of Connecticut. In Feb. 1829, he was united in marriage with Sally Day. Eleven children were the fruits of this union, six of whom passed over the river before him, the five surviving are Mrs. J. Shaldon, Mrs. A. J. Copland, Mr. G. J. Alford, Mrs. W. M. Prather, of Kansas City, and Miss Julia Alford. After fifty-five years of happy married life death took his aged partner (May 1884). His children were all with him when he passed away, excepting Mrs. Prather. His remains were interred in the family burying ground Monday afternoon, the grandsons acting as bearers. The sermon was preached at Harlem by Rev. Parley, from Eccles. 8 chapter and 11 verse. Mr. Alford was a consistent member of the Methodist church for over half a century. In politics he was a staunch Reformer.

MONDAY, Oct. 12.—Our correspondent seems to have forgotten to report us lately, so we will send you a line or two. We have "peace in our borders" and are enjoying life well. We can boast of neither a fair high school, still manage to exist. We have our lodges of Foresters, Workmen and Sons of Temperance all in flourishing condition. Four ministers of the gospel every Sabbath, besides our S. B. and usual number of week night services.

Our people seemed to enjoy the fair in the neighboring villages, and spread in pronouncing them all good—Lyndhurst a decided success—Delta a marvel in its way. Although it seems prosperity has spoiled Delta, and that as Toronto is called the Hog so even should Delta be called the Hoglette. This for Newboro, their fair like their H. S. will be, when once firmly established—a thing of beauty and a joy forever. Anent Newboro H. S., the people of that town have the idea that they should have a H. S., and for that purpose have made quite a stir among their neighbors. Among other places a meeting was announced for Elgin, which is the seat of government for South Crosby, and they came on with their force of speakers, but even all their eloquence failed to convince the people here that their duty was to help Newboro have a H. S. How few we feel well disposed toward Newboro and are perfectly willing to accept a limited number of income scholars from their town. We have several from their next neighbor (Singleton's Corner), as well as from several other localities. In fact, our school is likely to become a formidable rival for year H. S. as Athens, thanks to our teachers, Mr. Berton and Miss Baker, both people from your school.

NEVER DESPAIR.

RE-PUBLISHED BY REQUEST.

I want to tell you how my dear father received the "second blessing."

He was converted when about twenty-two years old, and very soon joined the First Congregational Church, under the pastorate of Rev. N. H. Beecher. He was a very earnest man, and he was very much loved by his family. He was a very good man, and he was very much loved by his family. FRANKVILLE.

MONDAY, Oct. 12.—The Methodists and Catholics church are in rapid progress of completion, and these, besides decorating the locality, indicate an advance in the morals of Brockport.

On Mr. Henry Hunt's farm, some time ago, three rooms were traced to a hollow tree that was down. The cavity was large and about forty feet long. In the process of securing the room it was discovered that the entire forty feet had been filled with honey comb. The honey was all gone.

Mr. Hunt is one of the most devoted men to his bees that I have ever met. In his case it is pure love that actuates him. His farm is a large one on Fern Island.

His beautiful and spacious farm mansion on a little bay has a fine view, and the grounds will soon be adorned with a handsome, variegated apiary. Not far from T. I. Park, Wells Island, there are several good bee-keepers.

The crops, fruit and flowers are good on the islands. Many farmers have what they call little "fairy" scenes, a novel sight to see a whole gang of shepherds leading a separator and a span of horses on one of these little islets, and away they go from island to island. Messrs. Ferguson and Avery, well known farmers of Cainville, are having a grand time of it here—each ready when the work is done.

The islanders reap another and better harvest annually from the thousands of visitors who resort from all parts of the world to this far-famed fountain of health and pleasure. Every island or part of an island which is visited by an American or other wealthy foreigner becomes a source of profit to the whole country around. Example: Mr. Cause, of New York, bought a location of Mr. Hunt, built a cottage, and in one year has spent $5,000 among the people. Mr. Hunt, though a friend of the government, quivers when they call little "fairy" scenes a novel sight to see a whole gang of shepherds leading a separator and a span of horses on one of these little islets, and away they go from island to island. Messrs. Ferguson and Avery, well known farmers of Cainville, are having a grand time of it here—each ready when the work is done.
