Last night and the night before, and more, I have listened at the front door and swore-For no paper was seen, 'saint fair, For it never hasobeen Now, young man, I just wish to say That for my newspaper I pay, or may,

And I give you fair warning now, I catch you (I think I know how) Your career will be o'er I fear, You will peddle papers no more down here. So take warning my lad and why, -Brantford Expositor.

The story, as told by himself for the their own that transcended in importance who, as children (who, as than this, and the reading of it did not take Is it yes or no, Elizabeth ?"

white face and Eleanor whimpering a little. | ant interview in the caves. White face and Eleanor waimpering a little. We will go back there," he said, ex-right that the three girls should be left alone day. Shall we ?"

The weather the state of the s under present circumstances. Mr. Brion wanted to summon Mrs. Duff-Scott, or even Mrs. McIntyre, to bear them company and see that they did not faint, or have hysteries, or otherwise "give way," under the exceptional strain upon their nervous systems. Then he wanted them to come next door for possibly can, Elizabeth." that dinner which he felt they must certainly stand much in need of, and for which hotel, or to Mrs. Duff-Scott's ; or, at least, to permit him to give them some brandy any of these ways. M. Weggant to be quiet for a little, dear Mr. Brion, that we may talk things over by said; and the tone of her voice silenced all deep voice. "You must have known you enjoyed the homely charm of sitting at his protests. The old man kissed them, for wou would take me then, or you would not meat with him in this informal, independent his protests. The old man kissed them, for the first time in his life, uttering a few broken words of congratulation on the wonderful change in their forthess; and Paul these westers are all these westers are all these westers days that we have come to me like this to-day. Why broken words of congratulation on the wonderful change in their forthess; and Paul these westers days that we have come to me like this to-day. Why broken words of congratulation on the wonderful change in their forthess; and Paul these westers days that we have come to me like this to-day. Why broken words of congratulation on the wonderful change in their forthess; and Paul these westers days that we have come to me like this to-day. Why broken the life the city. Government ought to give him what was desired to take steps at once that she was desired to take steps at once that she was desired to take steps at once this interference prevented the treaty from the commonly supposed, I know, that over this interference prevented the treaty from the commonly supposed. I know, that over this interference prevented the treaty from the commonly supposed to take steps at once that the mystery which ing him an ovation when he left the city. Government ought to give him what was thought to be implicated. where nebody could interfere with us."

When the Limousin scandal startled France, Boulanger was thought to give him what was desired to take steps at once was contained and startled France, Boulanger was thought to be implicated. But hereby she might be made acquainted whereby she might be made acquainted but experience has taught me that it is not invariably the case. The misery of suspense and dread can make you sieken at the was desired to take steps at once whereby she might be made acquainted but experience has taught me that it is not invariably the case. The misery of suspense and dread can make you sieken at the pense and dread can make you sieken at the was desired to take steps at once whereby she might be made acquainted but experience has taught me that it is not invariably the case. The misery of suspense and dread can make you sieken at the pense and dread can make you sieken at the been greatly irritated by that action. Of where nebody could interfere with us." Patty, looking up into his inscrutable face, mutely asked for his sympathy with her witten of S775 as extra witten of sympathy with her witten of sympathy with her with the bush, as they were letting themselves out of the house, assisted by the ground-floor domestic, who, scenting mystery in the air, politely volunteered to open the hall door to the sympathy with his denial he made some rather free assertions about Gen. Ferward for the bush, and they were defence of the Government here sight of food, but the bliss of rest and such that my velverton was that action. Of course the defence of the Government here sight of food, but the bliss of rest and security in having got what you want has an invigorating effect, physically as well as in the confidence of her own adopted that the security in having got what you was that separate and invigorating effect, physically as well as in the confidence of her own adopted that the confidence of her own adopted that the confidence of her own adopted that the surgeon-General in 1885, moved, seconded by Col. Tyrwhitt, that the israely some rather free assertions about Gen. Ferward and Mr. Brion had taken precedence of the Government here was that and Mr. Brion had taken precedence of her own adopted the court, and he isand Mr. Brion had taken precedence of her own adopted the court, and he isand down for the bush.

Surgeon-General in 1885, moved, seconded by Col. Tyrwhitt, that the intended air—or the defence of the Government here was the contral fact that Mr. Yelverton was that action. Of course the defence of the Government here was the contral fact that Mr. Pelverton was that move the specific course the defence of the Government here was part of food, but the bush of the dust.

Surgeon-General in 1885, moved, seconded by Col. Tyrwhitt, that the intended air—or the defence of the Government here was part of food to the contral fact that Mr. Yelverton was the defence of the Government there was part of food that the confidence of the contral fact that Mr. Yelverton and Mr politely volunteered to open the hall door in order that she might investigate the countenances of the Misses King's visitors on the edge of a precipier. They in first—even the little party following meekly at her beels. The girls were put in first—even the countenances of the Misses King's visitors on the edge of a precipier. countenances of the Misses King's visitors between their right to assert their right to

"Mr. Brien, Mr. Brion, Elizabeth says she hopes you will be sure not to divulge what we have discovered to anybody," she panted breathlessly (at the same time) glancing at her lover's back as he stood on the door step). "It is of the utmost con. know now," she replied. sequence to her to keep it aniat for a little

"But, my dear, what object can Eliza- heart." both have in waiting now? Surely it is I thought of walking up to the club by-and- he stopped her. "No," he said, "I am let other men please themselves." thought of walking up to the club by and that no election should ta bye, with the papers, and having a word with Mr. Yelverton."

"But tell me seriously—do you?"

ing from my car I stepped upon a stone, negotiations in its own behalf, and when that no election should ta not going to be called Mr. Yelverton by these negotiations were successful and satisfied which, turning suddenly under my foot, which, turning suddenly under my foot, these negotiations were successful and satisfied which, turning suddenly under my foot, these negotiations were successful and satisfied which, turning suddenly under my foot, these negotiations were successful and satisfied which, turning suddenly under my foot, these negotiations were successful and satisfied which, turning suddenly under my foot, these negotiations were successful and satisfied which, turning suddenly under my foot, these negotiations were successful and satisfied which the papers are the same of the sa you wish, after that," The lawver hesitated, suspicious of the wisdom of the delay, but not seeing how outside myself to make up my mind."

you, and you must be bold and brave. It is sighing breath. no time for shilly-shallying -you have He knew it well, and he did not know | Elizabeth put her knife and fork together my supply of these runs short I buy cotton tion in the negotiations under the provistwenty four hours before you, and you mus how to bear to sit there, unable to respond on her plate softly. It was a gestur just throw up everything, and be too proud | knead her hand between his palma. too take it back. He will lose all his . "And you are going to trust me, my it were your own case-marry your cousin ?" money and the influence for good that it love-me and yourself? You are not afraid she asked, after a pause, in a very small and i gives him, and you will lose him."

"How?" echoed Patty, looking at her sister with brilliant eyes. "Oh?" drawing a long breath, and speaking with a yearning looked at Adam, before women. When God looked at Adam, he said to himself, "Well, I think I can do such a stormy petrol once lived.

An act to reduce the representation of better if I try again," and then he made for the expenditure of public money, West with a yearning a long breath, and speaking with a yearning looked at Adam, he said to himself, "Well, I think I can do such a stormy petrol once lived.

Year Near Ht.

See to 25, was thrown out.

CHAPTER XXXIX. AN ASSIGNATION.

the writing, though he had never seen it be hesitated for a moment. "Yes, my hesiore, and but it into his pocket until he could politely detach himself from three that is to say, I feel him—I lean my little—that is to say, I feel him—I lean my little—would you?" she persisted. "Would you?" she persisted. think we ought to talk of all our thoughts—
ing. She had come book, and she wanted to see him, and she wanted to see him alone, to see him, and she wanted to see him alone, and she wanted to see him alone, to see him if he would meet her at seal of the freeded. And so we shall.

There is no reason why we should be married to-morrow morning," was her important think we ought to talk of all our thoughts—
ing. She had come book, and she wanted to see him alone, the freeded to see him alone, other?

"I do—I do, indeed. And so we shall.

Ours is going to be a real marriage. We far too soon."

Flighth hat I deav.

Administration. He had further accepted a Administration. He had further accepted a Administration.

In the morning he was amongst the first "Very well, then." He seemed to pul! watch again, thinking of railway and telebatch of breakfasters in the club coffee. himself together at this point, and into his graph arrangements. "Am I obliged to room, and amongst the first to represent the fine frame and his vigorous face a new see Mr. Brion to-day?" he asked abruptly. public at the tioket-windows of the Carlton energy was infused, the force of which "Can't I put him of till another time? Palace. When he entered the great build-ing it was in the possession of officials and around her, and made her heart best more ever he likes, and it won't make the smallest workmen, and school in a bollow manner to strongly to the quicker palse of his. "Very particle of difference." his solid foot-fall. Without a glance well, then. Now tell me, Elizabeth-with- "Oh," she replied earnestly, to right or left, he wellted upstairs out any formality, while you see I are see him. I can't marry you till he has told sow. the gellery and late that content and the gellery and late that the state of the gellery and t to the weary), its great Moisson vases in the accutisont, he yet prepared himself to oumiddle, and casts of autique statues all counter a certain amount of maidenly reduc"Then, my darling, we must go. Give round, was quite empty of viniors, and tence to most a man's reasonable views upon me your ring you shall have it back to looked as pleasant and convenient a place of this matter. But she answered him without rendezvous as lovers could desire. If only Elizabeth would come quickly, he thought, they might have the most delicious quiet talk, sitting side by side on a semi-circular ottoman opposite to Elizabeth might have the most delicious quiet talk, sitting side by side on a semi-circular ottoman opposite to Elizabeth might have the most delicious quiet that beest her and thinking of Patty's time for Mrs. Duff-Scott. She will be sure to want you in the evening. You need not leave you to say when."

"Will you mally? Do you mean you week or two. She will be only too delighted will really?" "This deep-set eyes glowed, to look after your clothes while you are unhappy subject of course, nor any other." down until she came, but strolled round and round, pausing now and then to investigate a picture, but thinking of nothing but his beloved, for whose light step he was listening. If his bodily eyes were fixed on the "Cloister Pond" or "Evening." whistened all the torm sheken out of her for this proposition. "in these days of motion. on the "Cloister Pond" or "Evening." whispered, all the tone shaken out of her for this proposition, "in these days of rapidly changing fashions, unless the bride or any other of the tranquil landscapes | voice. fiercely across the canvas, he thought how his

he would protect and shield her in all the morning in Thuringia, of a lake in the Bavarian mountains, of a glacier in the Engadine, and of Venice in four or five his wedding journey and how beautiful the "You may consider that settle world she had so longed to sas-the world I know she will."

that he knew so well-would look hence-There was a step upon the corridor out-"Well, my love," he murmured cagerly, that you must know before we can be marparents), was much more brief and bald "what is it? Don't keep me in suspense. ried.

packet of papers a third and smaller docu- mist before the sun. She lifted her eyes to to matter, is it ?" packet of papers a third and smaller docu-ment, which he also proceeded to read like a book—and her lipe parted in an effort tell you myself. He will explain everything to show him round. Would you believe aloud to those whom it concerned.

This proved to be a certificate of the marriage of Kingscote Yelverton his arms, and her mouth met ing to see you."

tell you myself. He will explain everything to show him round. Would you believe that he has never seen the exhibition, a word was said, he had her in his arms, and her mouth met ing to see you."

They had scarcely exchanged greetings his arms, and her mouth met ing to see you." scure London parish by a curate who had his under the red moustache in a long, and "Tell me this much, at any rate," said with each other when, out of an open car been the bridgeroom's Eton and Oxford close, and breathless kiss; and both of Mr. Yelverton, anxiously; "it is no just riage at the gate, stepped Mrs. Duff-Scott, chum, and witnessed by a pair of humble them knew that they were to part no more cause or impediment to our being married on her way to that extensive kettledrum to the chum, and witnessed by a pair of humble them knew that they were to part no more cause or impediment to our being married on her way to that extensive kettledrum to more to morrow, is it?" posing their respective signatures, on the mony of betrothal lasted, they might have "No. At least, I don't think so. I hope hour. When she saw her girls, their festive 25th of November, in the year 1849. And, been in the black grotto where they kissed you won't." finally, half-folded round the packet, there each other first, so oblivious were they of Very well. We will go and have our mother's face was a study. was a slip of paper, on which was written— their surroundings ; but they took in pre- lunch then. We'll join the table d'hote of "What!" she exclaimed, with heart-

"Not to be opened until my death." sently the meaning of certain sounds in the Exhibition, Elizabeth—that will give us rending repreach, "you are back in Mel-"And it might never have been opened gallery on the other side of the curtain, and a foretaste of our continental travels. To bourns is You are walking about with until you were all dead !" exclaimed the resumed their normal attitudes. "Come morrow we shall have lunch-where? At withyour friends"-hooking on her eye-glaslawyer, holding up hie hands. "He must and sit down," said Mr. Yelverton, drawing Mrs. Doff-Scott's, I suppose—it would be the better to wither poor Mr. Brion, who have meant to give it to you at the last, and her into the room. "Come and let's have a too hard upon her to leave her literally at wasted upon her a bow that would have did not reckon on being struck helpless in a talk." And he set her down on the velvet the church door. Yes, we shall have lunch done credit to Lord Chesterfield—"and I whose head lay on the table, crushed down cade her from an invasion of the public as champagne, and making us a pretty speech. pressed excitement. "She must be told, in her handkerchief. And the other sisters far as possible. His thoughts turned, Never mind, we will have our dinner in exclaimed the girl, breathlessly. "Eliza-

lady, went back to No. 7, and they did not a picnic to the caves all alone by ourselves, find out before I sleep to-night." like going. It did not seem to them at all | in that little buggy that we drove the other rible black holes," she replied, " if we went ! there again." "True-we might. And when we are risks. We will live together as long as we at the end and she at the corner on his left now slipped her hand into his. He grasped | bition, eating sweetbreads and drinking it fervently, and kneaded it like a lump of champagna and soda water-it was like a rials; or let him take them to the nearest stiff dough (excuse the homely simile, dear dream to Elizabeth, this foretaste of contiand water; and he was genuinely distressed and jewellery) between his two strong palms. | acted madly if not absurdly, in committing because they refused to be nourished and How he did long for that dark cave !- for berself to the programme that her audacious comforted and appropriately cared for in him and her from tight for the hidden lover had drawn out; but the thoughts and in Will any nock or corner that would have hidden him and her from tight for the hidden had a hidden him and her from tight for the hidden had a hidden hidden him and her from tight for the hidden hidden hidden him and her from tight for the hidden hi ago?" he demanded, with a thrill in his Dreaming as she was, she not only repeated his rather cruel question. " Didn't you know all along that it must come to this?"

heart, but you would not listen to your object to first cousins marrying ?"

all the precious documents in his own breast | Elizabeth. You know you love me, and him except through other people's marsubordinated her own interests to the consideration of her sister's more pressing sideration of her sister's more pressing affairs.

"Elizabeth," she said, with fervid and

"Elizabeth," she said, with fervid and substitute of the said and substitute of the say to the relations that are of no kin to cach other. Them's my sentiments, Miss

"Elizabeth," she said, with fervid and substitute of the said and substitute of the say to the relations that are of no kin to cach other. Them's my sentiments, Miss

"Elizabeth," she said, with fervid and substitute of the said and substitute of sideration of her sister's more pressing whatever. So don't say you are not."

beside her. "You are doing more good quently he did not notice how pale she had before women. When God looked at Adam, a long breath, and speaking with a yearning passion that it was beyond the power of good grammar to express—"oh, if it was least—at least—you believe in God," she least—you believe in God," she least—you believe in God," she least—at least—you believe in God," she least—you believe in God," she least—you believe in God," she least—at least—you believe in God," she least—you believe in God, concluded, yearning for some tangible and | So my own case doesn't come in." stood faith, wherewith to comfort her urged breathlessly, but with her eyes on her nice that I think he must have been a little That evening Mr. Yelverton was leisurely conscientious soul. "We are together in finishing his dinner at the club when a note that—the chief thing of all—are we not?" that I had been of your blood—would you still have had me?" the thought he knew have had me?"

quickly, tearing open his letter as he went, that even God seems a word too mean for. I think I would, Elizabeth. I'm afraid that and, arrived at the reading room, sat down I think," he added," that God, to me, is not softling short of your having been my own at a table, took pen in hand and dashed off | what he has been taught to seem to you." | full sister could have saved you." a simmediate reply. "I will certainly be "Never mind," she said, in a low voice, After that she regained her color and there," he wrote, in a hand more vigorous responding to the spirit rather than the brightness, and was able to enjoy the early than elegant. "I will wait for you in the letter of his words. "Whatever you be- strawberries and cream-which did happen German picture gallery. Come as early as lieve you are sure to believe thoroughly, and to be fresh.

They did not hurry themselves over their well, lately, but I'll get even with him," having closed his missive and consigned it true God. I feel it, though I don't know it.' lunch, and when they left the refreshment- said Maude to the bag, he remained in a comfortable | "You feel that things will all come right room they went and sat down on two public building such as the one proposed for Michael Davitt says that the next general arm-chair in the quiet room, all by himself, I for as if we have faith in our own hearts, I chairs by the Brinsmead planes and listened | Estelle. "I'd get ahead of him." meditating. He felt he had a great and love and trust each other. So do I, to a little music (in that worst place that deal to think about, and it indisposed Elizabeth." There was nobody looking, and ever was for hearing it). Then hir. Yelverhim for convivialities. The wask since he put his arm round her shoulder for a ton took his figurese to get a cup of Indian his posting with Elizabeth, long as to had moment. "And we may consider our ra- tea. Then he looked at his watch gravely. vised him to go on the stage," said the unsize had made an assignation which, though it might have appeared unequivocal to the consulted constituences with the consult consult the Exhibition in the morning. And shead- Ours is going to be a real marriage. We far too soon."

dressed him as her descret friend, and shall be, not two, but one. Only for the "It may be soon, Elizabeth, but I deay promptly ours you. Give them a trial. signed herself affectionately his. He tried | present we may put this topic saids, as be- | that it is too soon, reluctant as I am to convery hard, but he could mis agreed his ex- ing no longer an obstruction in the tray of tradict you. And, whether or no, the data pected comfort from such a communication, our arrangements, mayn't we?"

is fixed, irrevocably. We have only to conmade after such circumstances.

Yes," she said. And the die was cast. sider"—he broke off, and consulted his unhappy subject, of occurs, nor any other and his voice had a thrilling tremor in it as away, and"-with a smile-" we'll buy the object but themenives. He would not sit he made this incredulous inquiry. "Then trousseau in Paris on our way home. I am pictured on the wall, he thought of Eliza. "If I wish !" A palpitating silence held | cannot trust her husband to give her enough both resting with him under green trees, them for a moment. Then "What do you pocket money."

storms that might visit her life—" My claimed, the fierceness of his delight plaidie to the angry airt, I'd shelter thee!" And visions of a fair morning in Thuringia, of a lake in the morning in Thuringia, and the morning in Thuringia in Thuringia in t fs, Elizabeth !" "Yes-Listen. If Mrs. Duff-Scott wil

> You may consider that settled, anyhow. "Mr. Brion ! What do ottoman and took a scat beside her-leaning at Mrs. Duff-Scott's, and I suppose the am not told !" forward with an arm on his knee to barri- major will insist on drinking our healths in Patty came forward, radiant with sup Proteic as were itheir surroundings and married we must not run any unnecessary | their occupation-sitting at a long table, he hand, amongst a scattered crowd of hungry She had drawn off her right glove, and folk, in the refreshment room of the exhiwere too absorbing for the present to "Why couldn't you have told me a week leave room for serious reflections.

"A week ago I did not know what I sionally upon a gentle repartee. Presently, however, she started a topic on her own "Ah, my dear, you knew it in your account. "Tell me," she said, "do you with Mr. Yelverton."

Well, let me

which he declared would be marked in which the declared would be marked in the funnel of the Etruria measures a little

the funnel of the Etruria measures a little

the serious is the country as a date of true

the serious is the country as a date of true

the funnel of the Etruria measures a little

the funnel of the country as a date of true deliverance. Boulanger became the hero of little way of things that people want was helped into the corrections. precious, and I myself am simply called me King. I think you might as well see, in the way of things that people want was helped into the car, and my man rubbed interference the condition of the people of praying for the abrogation of certain frantic till I can tell Mrs. Duff- call me King; it will keep your dear name to do-but I think, perhaps, that, all things me most generously with arnica and kindred Newfoundland had been most generously with arnica and kindred Newfoundland had been most generously with arnica and kindred Newfoundland had been most generously with arnica and kindred Newfoundland had been most generously with arnica and kindred Newfoundland had been most generously with arnica and kindred Newfoundland had been most generously with arnica and kindred Newfoundland had been most generously with arnica and kindred Newfoundland had been most generously with arnica and kindred Newfoundland had been most generously with arnica and kindred Newfoundland had been most generously with arnica and kindred Newfoundland had been most generously with arnica and kindred Newfoundland had been most generously with arnica and kindred Newfoundland had been most generously with arnica and kindred Newfoundland had been most generously with arnica and kindred Newfoundland had been most generously with arnica and kindred Newfoundland had been most generously with arnica and kindred Newfoundland had been most generously with arnica and kindred Newfoundland had been most generously with arnica and kindred Newfoundland had been most generously with a newfoundland had been most generously with a

changes and I was helped by something and indecent to marry his sister-in-law-or | Gen'l Manager. his aunt-in-law for the matter of that-or "I don't believe it-I don't believe it, any free woman who has no connection with scious agitation. "Thenyou would not - the same shape." gentle voice. He was studying the menu " I will trust you -- I will trust you," she on her behalf, and wondering if the straw-definite evidence of faith, as she had under- "But if I had been your cousin?" ahe dining. Then he went upstairs rather me and upholding me, which is Something | under the table to touch hers. "I really

The House went into Committee on Bowell's Bill, providing for the grantfug of certain rallway subsidies.

Mr. Mulock submitted an amendment providing that the Gonzament shall furnish the House at every session with a statement of payments on account of railway subsidies and the amount of work per-

The bill was reported. strife," absolutely his own, and in a world that (practically) held nobody but him and her. If he looked at autumnal rain slanting am," she exclaimed, drawing her hand from the suggested.

"Precisely. That is just what I think. She looked up at him, blushing violently. And I don't want to be deprived of the pleasure of dressing you. But for a week which permitted American fishing vessels to the injustice of the new Bait Act adopted by Newfoundland, which permitted American fishing vessels to the injustice of the new Bait Act adopted by Newfoundland, which permitted American fishing vessels to the injustice of the new Bait Act adopted by Newfoundland, which permitted American fishing vessels to the injustice of the new Bait Act adopted by Newfoundland, which permitted American fishing vessels to the injustice of the new Bait Act adopted by Newfoundland, which permitted American fishing vessels to the injustice of the new Bait Act adopted by Newfoundland, which permitted American fishing vessels to the injustice of the new Bait Act adopted by Newfoundland, which permitted American fishing vessels to the injustice of the new Bait Act adopted by Newfoundland, which permitted American fishing vessels to the injustice of the new Bait Act adopted by Newfoundland, which permitted American fishing vessels to the injustice of the new Bait Act adopted by Newfoundland, which is in the act of the House to the injustice of the new Bait Act adopted by Newfoundland, which is injustice of the new Bait Act adopted by Newfoundland, which is injustice of the new Bait Act adopted by Newfoundland, which is injustice of the new Bait Act adopted by Newfoundland, which is injustice of the new Bait Act adopted by Newfoundland, which is injustice of the new Bait Act adopted by Newfoundland, which is injustice of the new Bait Act adopted by Newfoundland, which is injustice of the new Bait Act adopted by Newfoundland, which is injustice of the new Bait Act adopted by Newfoundland, which is injustice of the new Bait Act adopted by Newfoundl her. If he looked at autumnal rain slanting am," she exclaimed, drawing her hand from or two, Elizabeth, we are going out of the procure bait at Newfoundland ports and deworld just as far as we can get, where you men that you will?" he ex- won't want much dressing. Take only men. He charged that Mr. Bond had

Mr. Laurier-Order.

there would be a revolution amongst them.

Mr. Tupper said that the Governmen injury that we might benefit ourselves.

Mr. Landerkin-There's a protest in that Mr. Baker said that he had urged the Government to accede to the petition of the Council of West Farnham, but not because

Mr. Sutherland said it was difficult to believe that considerations of political expediency did not govern such expenditures as the one under discussion. Woodstock was consideration of their request.

a more important business centre than West

Mr. Mills, of Bothwell, protested against his constituents for his failure to get a seat appointment of Mr. Ives, who was also a

Mr. Speaker took the chair, and the comndidate for a Cabinet position.

They were peasing out of the Exhibition ing hounds and huntsman that stood between the front entrance and the gate—and Elizabeth was wondering how she should find Mr. Brion at once and make sure of that evening interview, when she caught sight of evening interview, when she caught sight of the old lawyer himself coming into the flowery enclosure from the street. "Why, the Name of th evening interview, when she caught sight of fishermen. Last year licenses were issued the old lawyer himself coming into the to American fishermen while they were exclaimed Eleanor, who was glorious in her "What is it? Can't you tell me what it Cup-day contume, and evidently in an effer- Scotia fishermen, who would starve if the many minutes. When he had finished it, the look he bent upon her, as a morning "Don't frighten me, Elizabeth—it is nothing the look from the look he bent upon her, as a morning "Don't frighten me, Elizabeth—it is nothing the look he bent upon her, as a morning to be lawyer took from the look her loo Her embarassment melted away before is?" He looked surprised and uneasy. vescence of good spirits, when she recogtoo busy to attend to him, and he had raiment and their cavaliers, the fairy god

the dead man, and could not pity him at pressing his desire frankly. "When we maid to stand behind our chairs. I don't "You may tell them now," said Elizapresent.

It was late before the two friendly advisers, summoned to dinner by their land- on longer travels, and you and I will have what sort of dinner it will be-but I will Scott's house, and explain everything, and > and association with her proteges she immediately recalled to mind); "Mr. Brion

The fairy godmother bowed frigidly, reader-it has the merit of appropriateness, nental travels. In the background of her for a moment the little group kept an against the Government of Canada. It towards a settlement with Bremner. which is more than you can say for the lilies consciousness she had a sense of having embarrassed silence, while a sort of electric current of intelligence passed between Patty had no connection with Canada, undertook nothing had been done regarding it. "Will you come?" said Patty to him, change she saw in him. . "It is time to have ione with all our secrets now. "I agree with you," he replied. " And I will come with pleasure." Mrs. Duff-Scott therefrom, Patty, dry-eyed and excited, be compelled in this respect to cast in by the Queen's regulations.

and the two men, lifting their hats to the be conversation, and talked with distracting and the two men, lifting their hats to the becompelled in this respect to cast in by the Queen's regulations.

The item was a little while their fortunes with Canada, and that they be conversation, and talked with distracting and the two men, lifting their fortunes with Canada, and that they be conversed to make the conversation and the two men, lifting their fortunes with Canada, and the two men, lifting their fortunes with the lifting their fortunes with the lifting their fortunes with the lifting the lifting the lifting their fortunes with the lifting the lifting the again for a little while. Mr. Yelverton resumed possession of Elizabeth's hand, and the lighter features of together. The lawyer was very grave, and the two men, unting their nats to the departing which did not the lighter features of together. The lawyer was very grave, and the two men, unting their nats to the departing which did not to be prevented from securing a nays.

A Regirond Manager.

Boys are men that have not got as big as half the boys in the world would be girls,

A Delayed Lunchron. The old Hadley landlord-Junmy, run up Choquette, who had made a deposit of stairs, quick an ask your mother for th Home Book of Ettiketty. Jimmy-Whatcher wanter find? The landlord-That gent has jest asked fer some connysummay an' I want ter find whether it's bird, beast 'r jest napkin. More Advantageous, obtain from the Government the favorable out of Irish politics.

Yesser. "And faithful?" Yesser."

An old lady of Clinton, Mo., brought suit sectors the Missouri Pacific Railroad Compear for $5,000 for killing her husband and in the Cabinet. In a similar manner a grant 850 for killing an old sow. When the had been made by the Government to the matter orms up she dismissed as to her Sherbrooke fair to compensate for the dishusband, but refused to fall a cent on the subsidies, that a chans be added providings two routes for which are suggested.

to West Fromham and Sherbrooke.

Mr. Mulock moved that a sub-section be through the hill. The length of this route added to the amended clause requiring sub-sidized railway companies to furnish a state-mated at $40,000,000. ment of payments made by them out of A more probable and more favorable route subsidies and the consideration thereof. is that shown in the map, which is re-

This amendment was lost. Mr. Kaulbach, continuing, said that what be an encouragement to worthless people to | round by the north through dangerous curdone to relieve the condition of the Nova file fictitious petitions. Sir John Thompson withdrew the proposed amendment.

The House went into Committee of this subject in all its phases with both the Supply.

Imperial and the Newfoundland Govern- Mr. McMullen, on the item of $5,000 for ments. Although he was not at liberty at I the post-office at Picton, said that there was present to state to the House as he would a protest against the member for Prince like to exactly the position of the case, he Edward county, and this grant was proposed was at liberty to say that while this matter I in order to facilitate his re-election. of necessity required a very long time for | Mr. McNeill called attention to the sucits settlement, the correspondence between cess which is being achieved in the realm of

Act as far as regarded French fishing Mr. Laurier said he would gladly endorse Mr. Laurier said that he understood from Scott's house, and explain everything, and get it over—while I go home."

Mr. Tupper that the only motive for the content of the Government. While he did not present in Newfoundland ports was the one bait in Newfoundland ports was the one of the English language. The content of the days of Edgar Poe. Mr. Campbell was a young man, and if the Government gave in the Mr. Tupper—In order to prevent French said Mr. Yelverton, first litting his hat and shaking hands with Mrs. Duff Scott, and shaking hands with Mrs. Duff Scott, and shaking hands with Mrs. Duff Scott, and shaking hands with her proteges she impact of the Government. While he did not prevent that the only motive for the then did not prevent from purchasing for the days of poetry, in his estimate was one of the real living for the find the only motive for the then do be a judge of poetry, in his estimate how escaped the fate of Bazaine's army, and for the fact of Bazaine's army, and then deep one of the real living poets to day of the English language. The poem called "Mother" was certainly something that had not been equalled since the days of Edgar Poe. Mr. Campbell was a young man, and if the Government gave for the fend to be a judge of poetry, in his estimate how escaped the fate of Bazaine's army, and furned up in Paris, where he was made a furned up in Paris, where he was made of the English language. The poem called "Mother" was certainly something that had not been equalled since the day of the English language. The found in the day of Edgar Poe. Mr. Campbell was in October, fisting his hat and a young man, and if the Government gave have a young man, and if the Government gave have a young man, and if the Government gave have a young man, and if the Government gave have a young man, and if the Government gave have a young man, and if the Government gave have a young man, and if the Government gave have a young man, and if the Government was been issued by the government of the form the form the form the b bach had used very strong language against action.

the Government of Newfoundland, but he On the On the item of $600 to pay claims conthought the Government of Newfoundland nected with the Northwest rebellion, Mr. nearly shutting her eyes as she did so, and pub very strong grounds of complaint Laurier asked if anything had been done Boulanger was appointed to the command price. One man or any combination of men Boulanger was appointed to the command. It towards a suttlement with Browner the Government of Newfoundland, which now before the Department of Justice, and had no connection with Canada, undertook nothing had been done regarding it. The people of Newfoundland were largely ing this treatment of Bremner, who was dependent upon their fishing interests. The literally in poverty. It was certainly a local policy of their colors had made a literally in poverty. It was certainly a local literally in poverty. It was certainly a local literally in poverty. It was certainly a local literally in literally in poverty. to negotiate a treaty with Washington. Mr. Watson complained bitterly respectrangement which were satisfactory to Mr. Laurier stated that his information he went out of office when Rouvier became fair price, particularly when the prospect them, by which they expected to secure, was also that Bremner was in destitution. and would have secured, the American Mr. Dewdney—His claim has swelled up market for the sale of their fish. But the greatly since last session.

Government of Canada interfered, and by Mr. Laurier—That may be so, but the When the Limousin scandal startled France, and is liable to When the Limousin scandal startled France, and is liable to the command of an army corps, Paris giving him an ovation when he left the city. When the Limousin scandal startled France, and is liable to the command of speculation.

> detrimental to the chances of negotiations by Col. Tyrwhitt, that the item be struck headquarters for a period of thirty ont amounts to £250,000,000. out. He said that the Surgeon-General had days. Just before this Jules Ferry, in a no more right to be paid in accordance with public speech, had called "le bray general" Mr. Mills (Bothwell), continuing, said Imperial regulations than the other officers. This brought a one sheet brings one quart of rice or twenty that the Canadian Government said that He understood this sum was the difference the Government of Newfoundland ought to between what was paid him and hat allowed the stupendous scheme that they slightly nervous and embarrassed. To his had so abruptly adopted. Elizabeth smiled companion he had all the six of a provented trom securing a mays. had so abruptly adopted. Elizabeth smiled and blushed and listened, venturing occasionally upon a gentle repartee. Presently, concerned a view that was correct—that new election in Quebec West to fill the was that they were more likely to succeed vacancy caused by the expulsion of Mr. the Nord. Boulanger declined to stand for in negotiations in conjunction with New- McGreevy. In reply to an interrogation Dear child, I don't object to anything Ohio and Minsissippi Railway, Office of foundland than if Newfoundland were Sir John Thompson said that the question of for his opponent. In the Nord, where he to-day," he replied. "As long as I am the President and Gen'l Manager, Cincin allowed to negotiate alone; but it must be issuing a writ for it was not considered. She was beginning to speak seriously, but allowed to marry you, I am quite willing to nati, Ohio, U.S. A., Nov. 15, 1886. Gentle- remembered that the British Government Some time ago he mentioned to Mr. Laurier men : Recently while in the act of alight- allowed Newfoundland to undertake these that he himself was favorable to the view ing from my car I stepped upon a stone, negotiations in its own behalf, and when that no election should take place until the frantic till I can tell Mrs. DuffScott. So is Elizabeth. But there is something she must do first—I can't tell answer to it yourself. Now"—as she something she must be believed. It is taking an extremely selfish you the particulars—but she may but she must have a seriously you the particulars—but she must have so the mast seriously when so as the corning man the German Zollwho was to save France from the blunders of incompetent statesmen and the frauds of incompetent statesmen any steps. I am sure she will do whatever wasted this week since you went away. A that it should be lawful and virtuous for able. I was out and about my work in the world was so situated relations between herself and her sister wasted this week since you went away. great deal has happened—a great many a man to marry his first cousin and wicked three days. W. W. Pranony, Pres't and as that we should do somebody else an colonies or between Canada or other countries. Many also believed that charente, M. Paul Deroulede, was hero sails away, perhaps never, never to Mr. Foster said that he did not intend to the clauses prevented, or if not discuss this question, but he thought it prevented, at any rate hampered Says a writer in the New York Ledger : would be unfortunate to allow the expression the negotiations of a treaty between Canada peared in the Chamber of Deputies all the precious documents in his own breast such mater in the New York Leaguer would be unfortunate to allow the dissolution of the said the precious documents in his own breast such mater in the New York Leaguer was varied by the land of the league was varied by the land of the l pocket; then he rejudiantly granted Patty's request, and the girl went upstairs again with feet not quite so light as those that had with rect not quite so ignit as those that had just spoken had chosen to make such a carried her down. Upstairs, however, she subordinated her own interests to the consubordinated her own interes as nearly like the sacking material as I can lions of the Batt Act. Canada's protest had ment in favor of what the Opposition always act. If you don't, you will see that he will be been entered and lodged with the Imperial should have a right to provide her companies been entered and lodged with the Imperial should have a right to provide her companies her Government a year before the mission to should have a right to negotiate her own treaties. He objected to the vague state ! meents about the Imperial Trade League The House went into Committee of Sup-Mr. Paterson (Brant), on the item of leaning instinctively upon this more bound her self and the colonies from beyong ladies by and by. Man was made beyong ladies by and by would prevent herself and the colonies from beyong ladies by and by would prevent herself and the colonies from would prevent herself and the colonies from some day entering into a trade league. postoffice and other Government offices was

The Government Frauds Bill was amended so as to make it a misdemeanor for cook, bake, sew, play the piano, writeshort-Government contractors to contribute funds hand, play laws sensis, strum the mandolin towards elections. The bill was read the and speak Volapuk. This concluded the business of the House.

Another Variation of an Old Joke. there was an election petition. He would may that the counsel in the election case "I own a thousand acres of land," said against him were Mercier, Beausoleil & the heiress. " How delightful!" And there are twenty young men after

" For the land's sake !"

Mrs. Lucian Mayberry, of Little Rock, Farnham. The revenue it yielded to the Ark., is the mother of 10 boys, all born of a blast yesterday. Government was more than ten times as within a married life of 39 months. There great, but yet, although the Board of Trade are two sets of triplets and two pairs of and the Municipal Council had made every | twins. Mrn. Mayberry is a pretty blonde, possible representation for the arection of a plump and hearty, of barely 21 years of age. West Farnham, they found it impossible to | election will leave Charles Stewart Parnell

Lady Harris, wife of the Governor of Cure, Failure Impossible. resolution moved by Mr. Mills (Bothwell) simply symptoms of Catarrh, peclaring that building books not be such as headache, losing sense and spitting, general feeling of debility, etc. If you are troubled with any of those or Mr. Landerkin charged that the item for the West Farnham post-office had been put time procuring a bottle of Nanat Batm. Be warned in time, neglected cold in head results in Catarrh, followed in the estimates to appears Mr. Baker and in Catarrh, followed sumption and death.

amid a don'ening uproar, and said that after its publication the money had been granted A Great Ship Caugh to Slice Mor

Mr. Bowell, in answer to Mr. McMullen, said that the Intercolonial Railway was in a condition to fulfil its part in furnishing a big ship canal clear across Scotland, a fast transcontinental mail service all the that great steamers may be able to sail up way from the casternmost point of railway the Clyde on the West coast and some flown communication at North Sydney, C. B. The the First of Forth into the North Senon the loading of coal, was one for consideration there is actually a cansi between the loading of coal, was one for consideration there is not the loading of coal, was one for consideration there is not between the loading of coal, was one for consideration that the loading of coal, was one for coal, where the loading of coal, was one for coal, was one and 10 feet deep, so that it is of no use for Mr. Bowell moved in amendment at a coran steamers. The plans now under conbill authorizing the greating of reflway sideration provide for an entirely new canal, that within a month siter the commo nement of coach session of Parliament a state Loch Lomond and Loch Long, and strike and Lungs, and let me say to any ment of all moneys paid on account of the Clyde near its mouth. On this route, subsidies, and to whom paid, shall be laid however, the canal would strike a few miles. on the table, together with copies of all con-tracts between the Government and rail-two miles of it by a tunnel 150 feet high is that shown in the map, which is re- and colds. I recommend it to every produced from Cassell's Magazine. This one for these troubles. Sir John Thompson moved that there be line is very nearly direct between the two inserted in his Bill to further amend the termini, and is only twenty-nine miles. It Dominion Controverted Elections Act a is figured that a canal on this line could be ways and the present barge canal. Vessels tried your German Syrup. It gave in the same manner that they treated the Canadian fishermen. If something were not be an encouragement to worthless people to the next the same treated and a permanent to worthless people to the next the same treated and a permanent to worthless people to the next the same treated and a permanent to worthless people to the next the same treated and a permanent to worthless people to the next the same treated and a permanent to worthless people to the same treated treated the same treated treated treated the same treated tr rents and prevailing fogs, or else run down through the crowded English channel, and make a long circuit round the southern end of England. The proposed Forth-Clyde canal would lessen the dangers and save some hundreds

General Boulanger, who cut a big swath | imposing a tax on bachelors. Under its in European affairs a few years ago, and terms it will cost a Georgian $25 annually who, some people thought, would, like the to begin the bachelor business at thirty little corporal, be one day dictator of years of age, and on a rising scale of $25 for the three Governments was now approaching a condition in which the Government before the expected a satisfactory settlement before the next fishing season. They had no reason to believe that the position of affairs would be changed this year.

Mr. Mills (Bothwell)—What is the position of the position France, committed suicide this morning at each five years a man of sixty will be put to Mr. Mills (Bothwell)—What is the posi-tion of affairs?

Mr. Tupper replied that at the present Canada's young poet would rank higher time Canadian fishermen were not permitted than Longfellow if he were placed in a posi-time Canadian fishermen were not permitted than Longfellow if he were placed in a posi-time Canadian fishermen were not permitted than Longfellow if he were placed in a posi-time than Longfellow if he were placed in a posi-tion that would give him an opportunity lieutenant in 1857. He was sent to Algeria, to buy bait on any terms whatever in the ports of Newfoundiand, and the Legislature of that province had professed to clothe the Government with authority to prevent Canadian ships from obtaining bait at their Canadian ships from obtaining bait at their Canadian ships from obtaining bait at their canadian assert to Algeria, the was sent to Algeria th in her handkerchief. And the other sisters put their arms about her, Patty with a set put their arms about her, Patty with a set home, Elizabeth, and you and I will dine became a captain, the promotion became a captain becam having come as a reward for service in Cochin-China. He was made a major just the statement to the favorable consideration | before the war with Germany in 1870. At Mr. Laurier said that he understood from of the Government. While he did not pre- Metz he was with Bazaine, but he some-challenge from Boulanger, but Ferry, like a sheets a piece of hemp cloth. sensible man, declined to fight. In March, The accommodations of the Vatican may '88, the Government having decided to be imagined when the Pope put 3,200 bade cashier the general by placing him on the in it at the disposal of the French pilgrims retired list, Boulanger resolved to take free of charge. advantage of his growing popularity by Old French forts are being sold very beginning a vigorous campaign against the cheap. A French artist has bought the ministry. Vacancies shortly after occurred Fort du Guesclin for about $1,100. They go elected by 59,500 votes, as against 35,750 defeated at the polis. Boulanger ap- return. portentous solemnity, "this is a crisis for you, and you must be bold and you must be bold and brave. It is elections in the Nord, Somme and Charente Inferieure departments, and he was elected by large majorities. Then he stood for Paris, and was elected. For a time he was the idol of France, but stormy days came ; the General fied and took refuge in England, and moved an amendment to that part of the address which instructs Britain to keep and from the date of his flight his downfall commenced. He had gradually disappeared from public view, and the announcement of his death to-day only recalls the fact that

New York Herald: Wool-I came near hiring a girl to-day who could wash, iron, Van Pelt-How did you come to miss

Wool-She left on her wedding trip fifteen minutes before I reached the house Base is the Slave Who Payo. Jinks-How did Beate come to recover

Filking-Why, Dr. Fourthly tried to console him by speaking of his debt to nature, and Beate said he'd be hanged if he paid it. William Flemming, of Campbellford, was severely injured by the premature expication Aaron Fetterly was killed at Morrisburg venterday in a collision between two ballast trains on the canal works. The wages of shop girls in London begin at $35 to $40 a year. A new infantry drill book is to be issued by the British War Office authorities within the next two or three weeks, and it is said to contain some striking changes and innovations in tactics. The marvelous accuracy cothe new weapons has doomed the close order, or " brick-wall formation," and the day of mathematical movements is Bombay, is an excellent cricketer, and was ; captain of the winning side in a successful cricketing match recently held. Clars-"I thought you expected your French maid on this steamer ?" Maud-"I did. But the steamer didn't stop at Queens-

The statue of William Ellery Chenois to be erected in Newport at a cost of $20,-000, is given by W. J. Weld, now of that city, but formerly a Bostonian. The granite base will stand ten feet above the ground, and the bronze will run nine feet higher. "Why did you talk in French to Ethel last night?" "Because I had something to impart to her that I wished no one else know." "But there was a French lady sitting close behind you." "Yes, but I have sings discovered she didn't understand

For Coughs & Colds.

John F. Jones, Edom, Tex., writes: I have used German Syrup for the past six years, for Sore Throat one wanting such a medicine-German Syrup is the best.

B. W. Baldwin, Carnesville, Tenn., writes: I have used your German Syrup in my family, and find it the best medicine I ever tried for coughs

R. Schmalhausen, Druggist, which had settled on my lungs,

G. G. GREEN, Sole Manufacturer, Woodbury, New Jersey, U. S.

A TAX ON BACHELORS. A Bill That Will Make Enmarried Georgians Warm. A bill has passed the Georgia Legislature

Holding Whans. Another "hold your wheat" circular has mittee, but it was restored to him in 1874. valuation. It looks now that while (In 1876 he represented France at the wheat will continue to go across the centennial exhibition in Philadelphia.) He ocean for the next six months that the became a brigadier poral in 1880, amount exported will depend upon the of the army of occupation in Tunis, but he cannot fix that price. Europe will do withthe De Freycinet Cabinet, formed January made to put an exorbitant price upon itgeneral was sent to Clermont Ferrand to of obtaining a fair price is as promising as suffer. - Rochester Herald,

Europe and the Far East. It has rained only twice in twenty-nine some rather free assertions about Gen. Fer- years in Aden, and then only enough to lay

It is estimated that the treasure lying In Corea sheets of paper pass for money;

The Funnels of Great Steamers. Most persons would say that the personally conducted the campaign, he diameter of the largest steamer funnel is scored 172,528 votes, against 85,548 for two four to six feet, and would want to wager that it is not more than eight feet. How This was on the 15th of April, 1888, a far from the actual size such guessen are date which he declared would be marked in | may be understood when it is stated that demonstrations wherever he went. The distance away this can hardly be believed.

Inquisitiveness Rebuked. Puck: Is Tuffy a drinking man? Bluffy-Yes; an eating man, and a sleep-

D. C. N. L. 49. 91

Curos Promptly and Permanently RHEUMATISM Lumbago, Headache, Toothache, MEURALGIA Sore Throat, Swellings, Frost-bites, SCIATICA Sprains, Bruises, Burns, Scalds. Sold by Druggists and Dealers Everywhere.

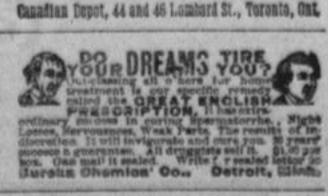

DIAMOND VERA-CURA DYSPEPSIA Stomach Troubles, INDICESTION. Nausea, Sour Stomach. Giddiness.

Canadian Depot, 44 and 46 Lombert St., Toronto, On Disagrecable Taste, Nervous-At Druggists and Dealers, or sent by mail on receipt of 25 ets. (5 boxes $1.00) in stamps.

pation, Fullness, Food Rising,

Heartburn, Constl-

E BEST COUGH ME BOLD BY DEVOSINGS EVERY WE