Mr. W. Hartwell, lately returned from California, was visiting his sister, Miss Jessie, in Athens last week.

Mr. J. T. Tiley, inspector of Model schools, visited the Athens school last week and after a careful examination, complimented the principal, Mr. Sharman, very highly on the condition of the school. The accommodation, however, was deficient, and next year, if more room is not provided, some of the Athens modistes will be obliged to go to Gananoque. At present there is an attendance here of 83 teachers in training.

Mr. James Judson, who has spent the last six months in one of the largest manufacturing towns in western Ontario, returned to Athens last week and has been engaged by Wm. M. Stevens as assistant carriage trimmer. They will have to get a "finsht" on Mr. Stevens' hands the contract to trim 49 cutters for D. Fisher, Athene, and a large number for parties in Delta and Westport.

The Athens Oldfellows had the pleasure of entertaining at their regular meeting on Wednesday evening brethren from Brier Hill, N. Y., Dundas, Brockville and Montreal, including W. Marriag, grand master of the Province of Quebec, and Mr. Wilkinson, one of the oldest members of Brock Lodge. The former is a member of the oldest lodges in Quebec and the latter a member of the oldest lodges in Ontario.

One of the Comptrollers' Wonders.

The FAMILY HERALD and WEEKLY BELL, Montreal, has been enlarged and vastly improved. It is really a wonderful paper. Its success is phenomenal. It's not strange people are wondering how such a magnificent paper can be supplied for so small a subscription. People who are interested in the wonders of the age should see the FAMILY HERALD and WEEKLY STAR of Montreal.

The period during which deer could be lawfully killed closed on Friday last.

Mr. J. Kerfoot having gone to Toronto, his brother is now in charge of Rev. Mr. Kerr, formerly of Agnes St. church, Toronto.
