HE GETS THREE YEARS IN STATES PRIBOR. A Covington, Ky., despatch asyu: The against Albert Fauster for bigamy was con-cluded at dark last night and was generally THE HORRORS OF HIGH LIFE. of a very damaging nature to the defendant. very materially injured his case. Witnesses blought particulars of the suit for divorce malicious. He decired that they were had been brought from Canada, the home brought by Counters Rossell, a beautiful trumped up in order to give strength to an of the accused, to testing against him, and woman, against her buchand, Earl Russell, otherwise weak case, and that though the they were around him a net of such convincing proof that it will be barely possible for him to escape the penitentiary. The for him to escape the penitentiary. The portion of her husband's cruel conduct to either the earl or the professor.

Solution of her husband's cruel conduct to either the earl or the professor. vincing proof that it will be barely possible man, Lord John Equiell : The Countess was willing to come forward and make a music teacher in London, Ontario, and the influence Professor Roberts had over A London cable says: The first witness several minutes in examining the paper, and declared he had never seen it before.

Colonel O Neil, who represented the defence, seemed to be dumbfoun led, so unexpectedly had the sheft street his electron on the floor. There was a general tittering in the floor and collected against her nuswapon of that description is the house. Warenouse and there was not a single explosion was quite cool and collected, and weapon of that description is the house. When the band he considered it was a deliberate plot to kill himself and to destroy the building. The man with the handbar was a total floor. There was a general tittering in the floor. There was a general tittering in the floor of that description is the house. Was not a single explosion was quite cool and collected, and weapon of that description is the house. With reference to the charge that when the band never seen it before. Countess on one occasion asked farm after a floor of that description is the house. Was not a single explosion was quite cool and collected, and weapon of that description is the house. With reference to the charge that when the band never seen it before. The man with the handbar was a total floor of the countess testified that when the band never seen it before. The man with the handbar was a total floor of the countess and there was not a single explosion was quite cool and collected, and weapon of that description is the house. Was not a single explosion was quite cool and collected, and was not a single explosion was quite cool and collected, and the countess testified that when the band never seen it before. The dead are: George J. Reis, aged 50:

Countess on one occasion asked farm after a considered it was a few points. The considered it was not a single explosion was quite cool and collected, and the considered it was not a single explosion was quite cool and collected, and the considered it was not a single explosion was quite cool and collected, and the considered it was not a single explosion was quite cool and collected, and the ter of that country was present to testify to yelling and striking the walls with his fists. Country was present to testify to of Mr. Foster, who kept the brick noted in the village of Lambeth for some years. On the 19th of September, 1881, he married lists Carrie Eichenberger, of the village of Delaware, a very estimable and highly re Delaware and necessituh. She building known as the down of the captain's over Micro delaware, a very estimable and highly re Delaware and necessituh. She building known as the down of the sheek. From the building known as the down of the sheek. She hould not be successing the captain's over Micro delaware and the captain

A SHILLELAN FIGHT.

Paraelitics Lay for McCarthyites, but Find Them Ready.

A London cable says : A disgraceful scene occurred to-day at the railway station action against Mr. Munroe to decide the debts. When asked whether the state of ownership of the funds, and to compel him her health had anything to do with her to restore the money to the to restore the money to those who are en- separation from her husband, the Countess seduced her. This intimacy continued until titled to the possession of it.

THE CHINESE TROUBLE.

The Present Uprising the Bestit of the places along the great wall where it is the time the latter was at Pembroke Lodge. expected the rebels will attempt to force a A number of letters from the Countess to the

being a concerted rising to depose the husband had been repaid all the money he Emperor, is nothing more than an attempt | had advanced ! pay her debts. During her to wreak private vengeance. According to married life she had been constantly rethese advices, the wife of the leader of an minded of her debte by the Earl. armed band of maranders was seized and | The next witness called on behalf of the forcibly abducted from her husband. The petitioner was Dr. Godson, the family latter swore vengeance against those who physician of Lady Scott. Dr. Godson toshad taken his wife, and calling his followers | tified that he had constantly attended the together started in pursuit of her. The Scott family in their sicknesses since 1880. suffer with the guilty, and so he swept on the part of the Countess. Before her through the country, instructing the men | marriage also periodically suffered severe who followed his banner to make reprisals pains. At the time of her marriage she was saw the letter and never heard what it was upon the inhabitants for the loss of his wife. | attacked by the influenza. This developed | or what was in it.

on June 30th, 1880, according to the report, She these companionated the manner in which was 163,597 miles. The increase is mileage her husband had wanted her. She was very My college was Balloil. The Date of Manner in Which where he issued in a bank of rubbish. The was 103,007 miles. The increase to milesge her husband had wented her. She was very but in operation during the year was 3,030 weak, and her narrous system was comin railway mileage during the year, being The swidence for the Countess hereclosed. | nected with my leaving college were known in Cathay, but I'll bet that it will take a 459 miles, and Georgia comes next with an Sir Charles Russell presented the case for 10 my relations. increased mileage of 438. Group V., made | Earl Russell. He said he would limit him-

The Presdful Halami. Tommy-Mr. Wilkinson, nin't you shaped just like other men I Mr. Wilkinson-I suppose so, Testiny, square and Belle says you cram to be always round.

The man who claimed that the world owed sim a living is slowly collecting the debt. He is a tramp. Within sixty-two years Mexico has had by-four Presidents, one Rogency and one

A London cable given the following addi-fence, seemed to be dumbfounled, so unexpectedly had the shaft struct his client, and from that moment he seemed to have lost to scept it. Mr. Sage was completely the case.

The authenticity of the document was the latter had rushed about the room money." The Earl denied the various other the damage to the building and contents. The authenticity of the document was proved by a Canadian official, and a barris-

Faustre's first wife was present, and when The witness was cross-examined by Sir the former was asked if he recognized her, | Charles Russell. He opened by asking the he turned, stared brazenly at her for a countess if she meant to make any imputa- his version of the bedroom incident, when me turned, stared brazeniy at her for a countess if she meant to me $1,200,000 I will blow you all to pieces.'

A Cleveland despatch says: The steam me $1,200,000 I will blow you all to pieces.' moment, and said he did not; then turning moment, and said he did not; then turning tion against her husband or Roberts. The moment, and said he did not; then turning tion against her husband or Roberts. The barge James S. Pease, which came into port with severe the from Lake Superior on Tuesday, caught fire answer created a sensation. The witness replied with decision, "Yes." This witness replied with decision, "Yes." This barge James S. Pease, which came into port from Lake Superior on Tuesday, caught fire answer created a sensation. The witness replied with decision, "Yes." This barge James S. Pease, which came into port from Lake Superior on Tuesday, caught fire answer created a sensation. The witness replied with decision, "Yes." This witness replied with decision, "Yes." This barge James S. Pease, which came into port from Lake Superior on Tuesday, caught fire and his wife had retired he declared he and his wife had retired the face and head and bruised; at the hospital suffering from shock.

William Lalor, Wall street, broker, cut about the fire department extinguished the flames. The countess admitted that she large crowds upon the street. The sound the fire department extinguished the flames. There were two men and the cook in the large crowds upon the street. The sound the fire department extinguished the flames. There were two men and the cook in the large crowds upon the street. The sound the flames and his wife had retired the declared he would not go to Lord Salisbury's owing to the flames. There were two men and the cook in the declared he and his wife had retired the flames. The large crowds upon the floor. The Salisbury is the face and head and bruised; at the hospital would not go to Lord Salisbury. The search is the face and head and bruised from head to foot and falling on the floor. The Conner search would not go to Lord Salisbury. The search is the face and head and th babe is her arms.

Later.—The jury was out only twenty minutes, and returned a verdict of guilty, with a sentence of three years in State's prison.

Roberts. The countess admitted that the hospital suffering from the street. The discharge of a heavy had written a letter to Harry Marriellier, was like that of the discharge of a heavy had written a letter to Harry Marriellier, was like that of the discharge of a heavy had written a letter to Harry Marriellier, was like that of the discharge of a heavy one of the three, the cook, Anna L. Bennen, who was the best man at her wedding, was saved. The latter was in the floor. When she came to he said, the floor. When she came to he said, was saved. The countess got out of bed and fainted on after cabin, which was like that of the discharge of a heavy one of the three, the cook, Anna L. Bennen, was like that of the discharge of a heavy one of the three, the cook, Anna L. Bennen, was like that of the discharge of a heavy one of the three, the cook, Anna L. Bennen, was like that of the discharge of a heavy one of the three, the cook, Anna L. Bennen, was like that of the discharge of a heavy one of the three, the cook, Anna L. Bennen, was like that of the discharge of a heavy one of the three, the cook in the discharge of a heavy one of the three, the cook, Anna L. Bennen, was like that of the discharge of a heavy one of the three, the cook in the discharge of a heavy one of the three, the cook, Anna L. Bennen, was like that of the discharge of a heavy one of the three, the cook, Anna L. Bennen, was like that of the discharge of a heavy one of the three, the cook, Anna L. Bennen, was like that of the discharge of a heavy one of the three, the cook in the discharge of a heavy one of the three of the cook in the discharge of a heavy one of the three of the cook in the discharge of a heavy one of the three of the cook in the discharge of a heavy one of the three of the cook in the discharge of a heavy one of the cook in the discharge of a heavy one of the three of the cook in spected young lady. In the following spring marry she had entered into before her be-that the doctors mentioned had given her cause she had lunched with a divorces who sank before aid could reach him. He was ing form of Russell Sage, the great financier have received stocks, or have delivered stocks, or have d examination was finished.

The countess was attired in an elegant blue velvet dress. She wore an expensive entertained by the two factions of the Irish boa, about her neck and a large hat, which party for each other. The McCarthyites set off her beauty to great advantage. She unaccustomed restraints. had been holding a convention at Limerick, displayed much modesty, and was greatly and among the prominent speakers present to her. To most of the inquiries she were Mr. Wm. O'Brien and Mr. John presponded in a mask and almost foundable.

Timothy Healy have now commenced an company for the purpose of settling her found that no reason to discard him. be better if she separated from the Earl for action against him for breach of promise of some little time. It was then agreed that marriage. He paid £500 down and was to she and the Earl should part for at least | pay her £1 a week. He is still paying A Pekin cable says: The advices re- her husband would treat her. During this payment as to the strength of the Covernment as to the strength. The advices re- her husband would treat her. During this payment as to the strength.

further state that the movement, instead of | his bal." Countees Russell testified that her | " When did you leave Oxford !"

leader determined to make the innocent | He had never seen any indication of hysteria into pituriny, and witness attended her | Sir Edward-Do you mean to say twice daily until she went to Torquay. on June 30th, 1890, according to the report, She then complained of the manner in which up of the States of Kentucky, Tennessee, sold as the broad issue of the case. So far Musissippi, Alabama, Georgia and Flordia, as the separation of the Countees and Earl shows an increased mileage of 1,370 miles. Russell was concerned, all he would say was proceeded to re-examine him. In during the year. The total length of truck the ledy was at liberty to leave have shows an increased mileage of 1,570 miles during the year. The total length of track for the United States, including all tracks, sidings and apure, is 209,000 miles.

Detroit Free Frees: That was a delight for the questions put to him by his fully shrewd answer of this good wife of the count that the lady was at liberty to leave her that the lady was at liberty to leave her that the lady was at liberty to leave her that the lady was at liberty to leave her that the lady was at liberty to leave her that the lady was at liberty to leave her that the lady was at liberty to leave her that the lady was at liberty to leave her that the lady was at liberty to leave her that the lady was at liberty to leave her that the lady was at liberty to leave her that the lady was at liberty to leave her that the lady was at liberty to leave her that the lady was at liberty to leave her that the lady was proceeded to re-examine and Mr. Menzies, attache of the lady shrewd answer of this good wife of lyr; and Mr. Menzies, attache of the lady shrewd answer of the questions put to him by his fully shrewd answer. The total length of track has been proceeded to re-examine and Mr. Menzies, attache of the lady shrewd answer of the questions put to him by his fully shrewd answer of the good wife of lyr; and Mr. Menzies, attache of the local proceeded to re-examine and Mr. Menzies, attache of the lady shrewd answer of the good wife of lyr; and Mr. Menzies, attache of the lady shrewd answer of the good wife of lyr; and Mr. Menzies, attache of the lady shrewd answer of the good wife of lyr; and Mr. Menzies, attache of the lady shrewd answer of the good wife of lyr; and Mr. Menzies, attache of the lady shrewd answer of the good wife of lyr; and Mr. Menzies, attache of the lady shrewd answer of the good wife of lyr; and Mr. Menzies, attache of the lady shrewd answer of the good wife of lyr; and Mr. Menzies, attache of the lady shrewd answer of the lady shrewd answer. in the Christmas number of the New May where their injuries against him in connection with the alleged ag dand Mayasine is an erticle or Countries of the Willis on seeing a note of the society of the Mark Defends of the Society of Jesus as few of the society do."

The Cocupanis of the way, where their injuries headed in Jesus of the books of the in bringing it forward. Bir Charles then rebutted the charges of cruelty. He asked the jury not so be carried away by a clever and engaging woman telling them a story that was nation in all its emential details a woman so perverted as to put forward the Roberts incident in order to support o hopeless case by odious imputations. These tations were made not only against the Earl but against another man, whose name and reputation might have been blasted by them if he had not stood high in the opinion

Court then adjourned. HER DIVORCE-COURT DRESS. The plaintiff, the beautiful Mabel Edith, Countess of Russell, wors a stunning blue pairet dress, mink bon and ohio hat. She to only 22 years of age, and has a reputation and in a good sculler. She is also known

Her pretty dress has a curious story be-The court then adjourned.

A mob surrounded the Law Courts at the to have called and found her in an unclose of the day's proceedings, and as the usually bright and cheerful frame of mind.

Earl left he was hooted at, and attempts She were the new frock, and she seemed were made to strike him. The police en particularly pleased with it. " Do you like my new dress ?" she seken deavoyed to protect him, but the crowd The visitor very politely replied, "I think Your Ladyship looks charming." overpowered them, and the Farl was obliged to stell refuge in the Temple. Being still followed, however, he jumped into a cab, "Ah !" mid the Countess with a little sigh of satisfaction, "I'm so glad you had and succeeded to getting away amid the it, because it's my divorce-court dress. joers and hisses of the mob. know-the one I shall wear when my oren Sir Charles Russell resumed his argumen comes off." Lady Scott, the mother of this for the defendant. He attempted to refute the statements of violence at the hands of | Counters, is a beauty of a somewhat corpulent type, who were a long fur coat which the Earl. Sir Charles then turned to the charges against Prof. Roberts. Sir Charles was thrown open and a tiny Erench bonnet classed them as luke and decidedly on the back of her curiy head. PERISHED IN THE FLAMES.

RURNED AT THE DOCK.

Sir Chas. Russell then drew from the Earl A Steam Barge Fire in Which Two Men Lose wife's health or nerves suffered during her barge Planet, which was lying at the dock side. married life. Her ailments were caused by close to the Pease, caught fire, and wassaved unaccustomed restraints.

Sir Edward Clarke asked witness to give oss on the Pease is about $10,000.

DOM PEDRO DEAD.

A SMALL HAUL.

A Difference in Cycles.

Wouldn't Expect litter.

Detroit Free Press : That was a delight-

Masked Robbers Hold Up a Train Bont

Turner.

secreted Mears. Dilos and O'Dires is the secreted at the station with the evident institution of insulting the and over all the ware a magnificant insultine of insulting the and over all the ware as magnificant insultine of insulting the and over all the ware as magnificant insultine of the secrete and over all the ware as magnificant insultine of the secrete and over all the ware as magnificant insultine of the secrete and over all the ware as magnificant insultine of the secrete and over all the ware as magnificant insultine of the secrete and over all the ware as magnificant in the secrete and over all the ware as magnificant in the secrete and over all the ware as magnificant in the secrete and over all the ware as a secrete and the secrete and over all the ware as magnificant in the secrete and over all the ware as magnificant in the secrete and over all the ware as magnificant in the secrete and over all the ware as magnificant in the secrete and over all the ware as magnificant in the secrete and over all the ware as magnificant in the secrete and the secretary of the The earl replied that one instance was his Brazil's Old Ruler Will Never Again See Himiting his wife to six digarettes a day.

Witness declared he was not unduly anxious to have a son. He denied that he ever had to have a son. He denied that he ever had to have a son. He denied that he ever had the clerk living at Bergen Point. W. J. cut and the clerk living at the clerk

GALLED HER " DARLING."

he had only used it in fun.

ceived by the Government as to the strength period she went to stay with relatives of named Moyse, but he persisted in his employ, saying that he was a good servant division arrived at a station about two slowly and distinctly, "$1,900,000. We mow 6,000 imperial troops guarding the changed by the Earl and Countess during liams and was in no way connected with the Williams and when stopped two masked men bounded. Sir Edward Clarke now went on a new The advices received by the Government of the Earl to the Counters began " Dear tack. He started in by asking the Earl, their pistols and demanded the cash. Mes-Sir Edward-Had you been there a full college course ? The Earl-No. Sir. Edward-Were you sent down ? The Earl-I was. Sir Edward-What was the complaint against you? The Earl-That I had written an improper

Sir Edward-To a man or a woman? The Earl-To a man, I suppose. I never were sent down on a complaint of which you Sir Edward aunounced thee he was quested him not to do so.

her intimates at "the had Coun-am running because I one's fly."

Delibur a Doubtlet Sed

The Man Who Carried and Dropped the

New Beriously Hurt. are also on the ground. At 12.15 o'clock admitted but the pervante. this afternoon a small, shabbily-dressed gay party of excursionists, they were marked that subsequently he had beft her and come to this country, where he had suggest the come to this country, where he had suggest the come to this country, where he had suggest the come to this country, where he had suggest the come to this country, where he had suggest the country, where he had suggest the country of the substitute of the country, where he had suggest the country of the country of the substitute of the country of the coun and the second properties of the second proper the earl with disgust.

Continuing her evidence against her hus
Continuing her evidence against her hus-

Russell Sage is not fatally hurt, but his hair, eyebrows and face are burned. He said: "A man who gave his name as H. D. Wilson came to my office just now. I had the unknown dead.
The injured-Russell Sage, millionaire, broker never seen him before. He had a carpet bag and investor, bleeding from many cuts in the in his hand and said : 'If you will not give head; partly unconscious.

spected young lady. In the following spring the young couple moved to Unleville.

Albert being possessed of musical talent, entered albert becoming thoroughly trained in music. In bacouning thoroughly trained in music, for which honor he dubbed himself a professor.

There was no the side of the boat and that it was broken in propriety between himself and goest an impropriety between himself and stocks were in the office of Sage & Co. at the vicinity of an inexpressible sadness and professor.

There was a faint ticking of the clock, we seem by several witnesses.

There was no the side of the boat and troube to the dock. The first engineer, but the side of the wood. There was not the silence of the wood of cause she had mindled with a sank before sid count reset and to have smitten and railway magnate. Other mangled forms stocks to Russell, Sage & Co., will kindly closer. And so, too, he died, died when the house of splendor, and to have smitten and railway magnate. Other mangled forms stocks to Russell, Sage & Co., will kindly closer. The court adjourned before the cross- Earl admitted he had once used the word family in Buffalo, The other, who was at were afterwards brought out. In some was Karl admitted he had once used the work in the bold in the after part of the still the breath of life, and others were certificates, and what stocks. Also what on the bosom of the tide had swept away, soon after, at the close of a little West certificates, and what stocks. Also what on the bosom of the tide had swept away, soon after, at the close of a little West certificates, and what stocks. Also what on the bosom of the tide had swept away, soon after, at the close of a little West certificates, and what stocks. boat, was the fireman, and he has not been motionless in death. One man was blown cheques and the amounts." The Earl stated he did not think his seen since. It is thought he perished. The bodily from a window on the Rector street

In all, three were killed and five wounded The wounded were: B. F. Morton, abroker, 26 years old, of Far Rockaway, burned trustees of these funds, and upon his death, acting upon instructions from Mrs. Parnell, Mr. Munres refused to let anyone draw the money. Mr. Justin McCarthy and Mr. The the money of setting her to borrow £1,500 from an insurance found that no reason to discard him.

The story is that at 12.10 0 clock this found the man and arrested him. When the seduced a constitution story is that before he married her be seduced a constitution of the station house a large found when after independence had been desired in the station house a large found when after independence had been desired in the station house a large found when after independence had been desired in the station house a large found when after independence had been desired in the station house a large found when after independence had been desired in the station house a large found when after independence had been desired in the station house a large found when after independence had been desired in the station house a large found when after independence had been desired in the station house a large found when after independence had been desired in the station house a large found when after independence had been desired in the station house a large found when after independence had been desired in the station house a large found when after independence had been desired in the station house a large found when after independence had been desired in the station house a large found when after independence had been desired in the station house a large found when after independence had been desired in the station house a large found when after independence had been desired in the station house a large found when after independence had been desired in the station house a large found when after independence had been desired in the station house a large found when after independence had been desired in the station house a large found when after independence had been desired in the station house a large found when after independence had been desired in the station h the second floor of No. 71 Broadway, and asked to see Mr. Sage. W. B. Laidlaw, Mr. Sage's clerk, told him that Mr. Sage was busy, and could not be seen. The man persisted, and continued to talk in a loud tone.

Mr. Sage, who was in an inner office, came out to see what was the matter. He asked onto the seamination as to his sanity.

"My last will and testament; to the grandest political work ever conceived, was the production of Alexander Hamilton, a Scotch-American, and one of the greatest minds that ever figured in American history. Mr. Carnogle told the judge he wrote the letter in a spirit told the judge he wrote the letter in a spirit of fun. He was committed pending an examination as to his sanity. A Rome, Ga., despatch says: A daring the man what it was he wanted, and the train robbery occurred on the East Ten- man said: "I demand a private interview and when stopped two masked men boarded | Mr. Begs started back, but, instantly the express car. Messenger Sims and one recevering his presence of mind, he said it of the train hands were in the car at the was a great deal of money, and that he time, and the robbers covered them with would have to think about it. He knew senger Sims handed them the money, which preparing to gain time. But the subterfuges was only $65, and when assured that was were in vain with this crank. He had no all they could secure, they quietly retired | time to wait and he said so from the car and escaped through the "We cannot wait. I told your clerk our bushes. So quietly was the robbery con- business was urgent. The money is wanted ducted that the thieves had carried out now. In this satchel I have dynamite, their purpose and escaped before anyone on pounds of it. Unless you hand over the the train realized the situation. Deputy money up she goes." Sheriff Turner left here this morning with a Mr. Sage made one more attempt to teraposse of men and a pack of bloodhounds in porize. He had not got the money, he purauit of the robbers, and another posse said. His visitor might come sgain. At left on a special engine to join Sheriff the word the man made an angry gesture, and, raising the satchel at arm's length,

"You will not?" he said; "then here An explosion followed which almost raised Albany Journal : Tennyson may have the roof from the building, and Mr. Sage known what he was writing about when he was blown clear through the doorway of across the way, where their injuries be a kiss with which to salute exists; a running for !" The men stopped met, nor Everywhere the walls were cracked, and did he turn his head, but yelled back : "I big clumps of plaster locsened from the oming fall with a drash. The panic in the upper stories was something awful. People ran over and trampled on each other in their mad haste to get down the stairways. Philadelphic Jedger ; Mr. Balfour is re-There were two slavators in operation ported to hove declared that " no matter what the feture may be, it will never bring both filled with passengers, at the time. Home Rule to Ireland." "What, never?" How they escaped death no one knows, for Mr. Balfour should not set up for a seer, the confusion was so great for half an hour but "set, set in the living present." narrow escape that many must have had sell Eage after the explosion was one of ruin and chaos. The large main office has a small office on each side. The explosion apparently occurred in the main office, and extended its force westward toward the arger of the smaller offices, and through it | the following to the offices of the elevated railroad. In ings were bared of plaster in great patches, dense forests of harmone and spruce, the little closet built under the west basin Lake Ah-Mik. There are numerous islands was wrecked, broken ink bottles and other in the lake, one of which, by its pac-

A last night's New York despatch gives A telephone message so & o'clock from the following later report of the attempt on
hir. Sage's house announced that Mr. Sage was probably much were hurt then was at | " B" for convenience sake, but be suplore now known is as follows : entire cost being estimated at $5,000. Large Dend.-H. H. Wiston, alies Lord, the thrower of the bomb, frightfully mangled and verandas will surround two sides of the cottage, and there is where the members of the court room when the countess, in describthe court room when the countess, in describto accept it. Mr. Sage was completely ing a quarrel that had occurred between to give her the money she had asked for spend many

ing a quarrel that had occurred between to give her the money she had asked for spend many
ing a quarrel that had occurred between to give her the money she had asked for spend many
ing a quarrel that had occurred between to give her the money she had asked for spend many
ing a quarrel that had occurred between to give her the money she had asked for spend many
ing a quarrel that had occurred between to give her the money she had asked for spend many
ing a quarrel that had occurred between to give her the money she had asked for spend many
ing a quarrel that had occurred between to give her the money she had asked for spend many
ing a quarrel that had occurred between to give her the money she had asked for spend many
ing a quarrel that had occurred between to give her the money she had asked for spend many ing a quarrel that had occurred between the money she had asked for spend many
ing a quarrel that had occurred between the money she had asked for spend many
ing a quarrel that had occurred between the money she had asked for spend many
ing a quarrel that had occurred between the money she had asked for spend many
ing a quarrel that had occurred between the money she had asked for spend many
ing a quarrel that had occurred between the money she had asked for spend many
ing a quarrel that had occurred between the money she had asked for spend many
ing a quarrel that had occurred between the money she had asked for spend many
ing a quarrel that had occurred between the money she had asked for spend many
ing a quarrel that had occurred between the money she had asked for spend many
ing a quarrel that had occurred between the money she had asked for spend many
ing a quarrel that had occurred between the money she had asked for spend many ing a quarrel that had occurred between the money she had Unknown man, portions of whose mutilated | the St. Bernard Dominion Club, with their

but not seriously; able to walk away.
C. W. Osborne, cashler of Russell Sage, cut

London Free Press: Albert was the son of Mr. Foster, who kept the brick hotel in charges against the earl unless she was fully of Mr. Foster, who kept the brick hotel in charges against the earl unless she was fully with the poker. She threatened to throw was unsuccessful. She was compelled to charges against the earl unless she was fully with the poker. She threatened in the first state of the poker and the brick hotel in the poker and the poker are the brick hotel in the poker and the poker are the brick hotel in the poker and the poker are the brick hotel in the poker are the poker and the poker are the poker are the poker are the poker and the poker are th season is booming. The incarceration in and in the case of death a tide in some "Your name please?" inquired the nally ; C. W. Osborne, aged 52, of No. 192 season is booming. The incarceration in strange sort blended and acting in keeping superintendent. Berkely Place, Brooklyn, severe injuries Dr. Hall last Sunday, and the deplorable with the circle of the tide that runs out to

A HAVEN FOR CHANES. Species of the Gentry.

A Monster Wave in the Pacific. the arrival last week of the steamer China lakes and more than 30 armored vessels in ways. from the Orient, says she was struck on her the harbors of our leading cities and could outward trip and nearly swamped by an | concentrate 75,000 regular troops in Canada, immense wave, believed to have been caused backed by a sturdy militia ready to march by the recent Japanearthquake. There can across our border, while in twice that time be little reason to doubt that this gigantic wave was due to a mighty throe in the deep bed of the Pacific. Such anomalous waves is a cobweb. No land defences of such are not unknown in the grandest of oceans. towns as Chicago, situated on the shore On the evening of stay 10th, 1876, one of itself, could save them from bombardment. bring home and I've forgotten what it is, these monster movements occurred in the The best army could not protect Chicago but I think I'll remember it if you sing." angle of the Pacific bounded by the against a mediocre modern fleet. The ship-Peruvian and Chilian shores and swept with | ping and commerce of the lakes is attracalmost resistless force over a vast expanse tive. The goods afloat and ashore suffice to pay a huge war indemnity. They are all the sea began a few hours after violent at the mercy of an English flotills. Some earthquake shocks in Peru—the sea people imagine that modern war has been first receding from the land and then, with humanized out of such measures as bomconcentrated force, rushing in sublimely bardment. But Paris was bombarded in upon Callao, Iquique and Arica eight times. 1870; so was Strasburg, and its beautiful following an earthquake, was most disas- has no asthetic maxima. The occupation of trons at Iquique and Arica, where its esti- a seaport leaves no elternative but submismixty five feet in Mixillones Bay and this would be followed by fire, and we all distant) very early the next morning. So 1871 .- The Forum. elevated and extensive an uprising of the sea, moving with engemous velocity, constitutes the greater peril to which a The persons in Mr. Sage's office at the pored to its full force and oustaining its the woman who keeps the apple stand.

The persons in Mr. Sage's office at the pored to its full force and oustaining its the woman who keeps the apple stand.

The persons in Mr. Sage's office at the pored to its full force and oustaining its the woman who keeps the apple stand.

What makes you think so?" asked her teresting to hear a talking match between the could supply the pored to its full force and oustaining its the woman who keeps the apple stand.

What makes you think so?" asked her teresting to hear a talking match between the could supply the pored to its full force and oustaining its the woman who keeps the apple stand. time of the explosion were: Mr. Sage, his brother-in-law, Col. Slocum, C. E. James, of No. 7 Nassau street; B. F. Norton, of steamer China would seem, therefore, to diocese of Vincennes, Indiana.

Far Rochaway; C. W. Osborne, of Brook-

It takes nearly 3,000 silkworms to prowills to have ego each The longest and honvies train ever carrie ever any road in America consisted chick Valley Railway.

We always envy a fat women when we see her laughing. There seems to be so much of her that is having a good time. Bernhardt Klins, Lamoneter, Pa., aged, cigarette fiend since boyhood, pains in 24, eigarette nend mice the head, dead. Next

BY, BEHNAME'S PRAND HOME. The Chicago Commandery Priys Embrella.

The Chicago Herald of the 5th Oct, has

Two handred miles or more north a Mr. Sage's main office the furniture was overturned and broken, the walls and ceilings were bared of plaster in great patches, dense forests of handcok and spruce, lies office implements were scattered about, shape, has long been known as Umbrella and valuable papers were strewn over the laland. It rises it has round top of a huge moor. twelve acres are thinkly covered with trees and shrubs from base to summit. Other names have been given to this little idend, surveyors placing it on their maps as island Seven embulances have gone down to the first supposed. It was assumery to carry it will be known as St. Bernard's land. Seems of the wrock at No. 71. The formal christening has not yet occurred, are also on the ground. At 12.15 o'clock admitted but the payants. bers of the St. Bernard Dominion Club, of

It was a marriage license wanted to Faustre and Miss Eichenberger four days before the trip to the Falls.

It was an unexpected blow, and the self-possession of the witness at once described by the spectators looked upon the carry of the building was badly wrecked. It is showed that he felt no compunction for his several persons there whom he did not wish three had been suffocated by the smoke. The bodies were taken from the burning by the force of the explosion. The bodies were taken from the burning by the force of the capinet in search of a pistol. Mr. Sage, in conversation after the building was badly wrecked. It is showed that he felt no compunction for his several persons there whom he did not wish several persons there whom he did not wish several persons there whom he did not wish the building was badly wrecked. It is showed that the felt no compunction for his several persons there whom he did not wish the building was badly wrecked. It is showed that the felt no compunction for his several persons there whom he did not wish the building was badly wrecked. It is showed that the felt no compunction for his several persons there whom he did not wish the other 48 feet long, each being several persons there whom he did not wish the other 48 feet long, each being several persons there whom he did not wish the other 48 feet long, each being several persons there whom he did not wish the other 48 feet long, each being several persons there whom he did not wish the other 48 feet long, each being several persons the capture of the building was believed that the badies of the building was believed that the other 48 feet long, each being seve terior finish will be of polished woods, the > Igrimages will also be made to Lake Ah-Mik during the winter season by those who are dayotees of the chase. WHEN THE TIDE GOES OUT.

"When the tide goes out he will die." With assurance born of long experience beside deathbeds, the nurse in somber gray | a premium. There can be no surprise exwhispered these words to one of the suffer- pressed over the remarkable hold which er's friends last night in a tenement house Lady Somerset has won over the hearts of The man had been working on the dock, she is an illustrious example of the nobility and a crane had fallen and struck him on of true womankind.

squalid home. The company had sent a years ago in Eastnor Castle, Ledbury doctor and a nurse, but these were now of Herefordshire, the first daughter of Eart no avail." "It is only a legend." "Yes, it is only a legend, but wait and "It is only a legend, I know," said the lady arose from the congregation of shabbily nurse afterwards, " but I have been beside dressed and dirty people. be even in death, as in life, a strange tide, slams of Soho," she said quietly.

Sad Plight of Lake Usides. A San Francisco despatch, announcing England could place 50 gunboats on the many others have been helped in various A similar ocean wave on August 13th, 1868, cathedral spire was seriously injured. War mated height was fifty feet. On May 10th, sion and the payment of a heavy ransom— 1878, the sea was said to have risen or bombardment. In a town like Chicago reached the Sandwich Islands (6,000 miles remember the $23,000,000 lost in the fire of

New York Press : "I believe that boy A Bangerous Pisco.

Albany Journal : " I haven't seen Maunders for a week or two." "No : ha's vary slok. He went to faith-cure meeting and took a savere cold.

forks, great quantities of ivory dust are obtained. This dust is sold at the rate of stronce a pound, and when properly boiled ed and prepared it make the desce, purest and most nutritious animal jelly known.

You'l en' me " Sobity " if ye will for sie 'n memer oan sweat mee la. O'n 'niek names just tak' yer hil-I'm quite content wi' " Booting A'Scotchman has the knack to plod. Through thick and this he'll bear his load. His t-unt is aye in richt an' God-

He's tentive baith to kirk an mart. To friends his true an hard to part, In life's great race he oneds nac start " I'll win or des," says " Bootsy ! An' if he meets wi' ane or iwa O' Bootlan's cors when far awa', They'll 'cross the brithers are and a'— A "chantina" men is "Specity V's

Though aft he travels far frac hame, He's aye a Scotchman a' the same, An' prood to crack o' Scotlan's farue— A loyal son is "Scotty !"

And win the worship, trust and treasure Of men and monkeys at their pleasure. Dear Canada! for weel or woe To thee my heart I yield; For thee, I'll conquer every foe,

And with my latest breath proclaim Unbounded blessings on thy name. LADY SOMERSET'S MISSION.

Noble Englishwoman's Work for Man-Lady Henry Somerset, President of the British Woman's Temperance Association, and a delegate to the recent World's Conference in Boston, spoke the other afternoon before such a crowded hall as St. George's has probably never held. Every cent was taken, and standing room was at the women of England and America, for the head. They bore him away to his Isabella, Lady Somerset, was born forty and Countees Somers, and on her father's lying not only in five English counties, but also in the very wert of London -Sh There was a faint ticking of the clock, but became a shining streety favorite, the do-in 1888, a strikingly graceful and beautiful

New York Overron With a Dangerous | many deathbeds and never yet have I known | " I will gladly receive into my country the fancy to prove false. There seems to home some of the destitute poor in the " Lady Henry Scmerset," came the reply. From that day Lady Somerset has worked families in Watertown have, for some slight In two weeks after a declaration o war, service, been given comfortable homes, and

Association of Ideas. New York Press : "John," said a loving wife, "I wish you would sing two or three lines of a song for me." "What on earth do you want ma to do "There is something I want you to The good-natured husband complied and the charming wife said ; " I remember now. It's a file I want."

At Columbia College. Texas Siftings : Professor-How are the bivalves divided? Student-They ain't divided at all, Professor. You awallow them whole, with a little lemon jnice and pepper and salt.

theatre a girl named Aama, who, though only 15 years of age, is eight feat high. The doctors say she may grow two feet higher. Six stenographers attempted to report a sermon delivered by Bishop Philips droom of Massachusetta the other day, but when he began talking at the rate of over two hundred words a minute they dropped out There must be an improvement in the nev!

gating abilities of our scamen, or wheele will have to be placed under the vernels composing our navy. THE TRAMP'S PAREWELL Farewell, ye fields! Farewell, 70 runs hannts !

An employer of Gorman clerks mays that they work 20 per tout, slower than the English ones.

Italy has 0,800,000 lemon trees, which needens 1,280,000 000 lemons per annum. Apthropological Society. Min heart has The catgot in tennis from the entrails of sheep, erected to his memory at Ville d'Avray, The latest advices about The catgot in touris rackets is made.

where he died.

Daniel Defoe, the author of "Rebimore volcance and coulst-of laws hade, without