ASavanah, Ga., despatch says: More comliving a few miles from Reedsville. Freeto her by a neighbor named Kennedy. Finally his jealous rage led to the tragedy. Soon after dusk on Thursday night, arming himself with a Winchester rifle, Freeman announced to his wife that he was going to make her kill Kennedy. Taking a rope he tied it around her body, and dragged her through the woods and along the road to within a few feet of the house of the man whose life he desired to take. Then he forced a pistol into the hands of the almost unconscious woman, threatening her with instant death if the I learning that its opening sentences were: did not sater the house and shoot Kennedy.
