State Convention.

WANTE TO SE A PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE

The Times says: At most and at the trorst, Mr. Hill's convention can serve only as a hindrance to the nemination of Mr. | THE SENSATION OF Cleveland. That it will serve as an effective hindrance we do not believe, and the revelation of Democratic sentiment in all parts of the country diminishes every day the doubt upon that point. That the work of this convention with its body of instructed legates will lead to the nomination of Mr. Hill for the presidency is a notion too absurd to be entertained for a moment.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—The Sun makes no comment on the Democratic convention. The Tribune says: The action of the midwinter convention leaves Hill master of the annals of crime in this Province has been situation so far as the "regular" State con- committed.
