A FOOLISH GIRL Steals Her Father's Money and Elopes With a Hufflan.

A Chicago despatch says : The infatua- man who resisted his attempt at robbery in tion of a young girl for a worthless scamp, the street. From Itsly Hadelt went to and her ruin in a second-class hotel in this Bosnia, where he robbed a convent and a city have come to light here to-day. I church. In Berlin he passed a few weeks Christie Jackson, the daughter of Hon. D. in spending about 12,000f. which he had A. Jackson, of Sharon Springs, N. Y., is realized from his monastic life, and then the victim. There were four characters in proceeded to Hanover, where he joined the drama, Miss Jackson, Louis Marcott, an infantry regiment. He stole George Hoffman and Teresa Smith, the leight hundred marks from the officer George Hoffman and Torses Similit, the diagraged of a leading clergyman of Sharco Springs, and Miss Jackson's boon companion. Miss Smith and agreed to be a placed, and deserted while making a whose personal service he was a placed, and deserted while making a placed, and deserted while making a placed, and deserted while making is a balin serving to the clopement, but backed out at the last moment. The others left Sharco Springs while Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, were sawy from home and cane west. At placed in the skirts of his habit. All the stands are shared and serving the loss of almost 100,000? and a pit moment. The others left Sharco Springs while Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, were Missing the cores to England. Before Springs while Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, were Missing the cores to England. Before the Mrs. And Mrs. Jackson, were Missing the cores to England. Before the station they missed the basics of the countring the monkey, but deceded to leave without him and telegraph to the police form London. En route to St. Donis, Mrs. Rubini as a light. We write the said it far an engine of the clurch of the country of the clurch of the country of the clurch of the mother of Mary gave to her and through him the whereabouts of the run away pair became known. Sheriff Black, of the work of the day as long as he remained men. With the money obtained in this period he set up a flashy establishment, the mother of the clurch of the police of the work of the work of the work of the country of the clurch of the police of the work of the country of the clurch of the police of the work of the work of the work of the clurch of the police of the work of the work of the country of the clurch of the police of the work of the w utterly broken down. The sheriff and his introducing himself as a foreign count who ing to Calais, followed him thither. They prisoners left for New York to-night. It is had adopted France as his country. On found so trace of the thief or monkey at on exhibition until 10 o'clock. stated that the young woman's brother will the strength of his military experience the Paris station. On Tuesday Mr. Rubini

A MINING HORROR.

Fifty Hen Believed to have Been Milled by a Gas Explosion.

A special to the Seattle Post Intelligencer from Roslyn, Wash., says : This afternoon a terrible gas explosion happened in the alope of mine No. 2, of the Northern Pacific or three hundred francs, which he had with him when he entered it. One night, Coal Company at this point, in which the loss of life has exceeded in number that of | in the sixth month of his residence there, he any other disaster that has ever been chronicled in the Northwest. The exact pature of the explosion or the circumstances that led to it will probably never be known, since it is believed that every miner who was at work in the slope at the time ha perished. It is not definitely known how many men were in the vicinity of the disaster, but it is believed that between 45 and 50 were on the three levels that were affected by the gas explosion. Large relief forces are at work, and at this time two bodies have been recovered. These men Hadelt will be guillotined at the end of this were working nearest to the opening and at | month, it is said some distance from the point where it is supposed the explosion took place. Most of the men were 1,500 and 2,000 feet farther in the slope and in the immediate vicinity of the accident. There is no doubt either in the minds of the miners or the company's officials that every man was instantly who is said to be a member of the suicid

E-BROCKING SPRICEAGER

A Berlin Youth Leaps from a Righ Build- authority for like assertion that Kraker A Berlin cable says: A horrible sight was which is bound by oath to commit suivide. witnessed to-day in the Neue Friedrich- Rudman is under arrest. Before being strasse, a young man committing suicide in taken into custody Rudman, who like the presence of hundreds of spectators by Kraker worked in a brewing establishment, jumping from the top of a building. The had written a letter announcing a purpose unfortunate youth, a clerk named Bauer, had g of perpetrating self-murder. Then Rudman for some time past shown signs of failing broke open a room-mate's trunk, abstracted mind. His insanity finally took the $30, bought a revolver, attempted to kill A London and Nearly Meets His Death by shape of a delusion to the effect that he was Miss Eva Diesaler, to whom he has been the son of the late King Ludwig of Bavaria, sengaged, and fired a shot at one Meister, who committed suicide by jumping into a who was the foreman who recently dis lake in the Royal grounds at Munich. Today Bauer climbed to the parapet of a house in the street mentioned and stood there bullet into a policeman who arrested him. a long time singing selections from Rudman's unsteady aim was due to the fact death on Saturday morning. He was en-Lohengrin and shouting incoherent words that he had been drinking heavily. He gaged in picking watercress along the west to the people who gathered below. will have to postpone further tragic moves A physician who lived in the vicinity and a pending his appearance in the Criminal police officer endeavored to rescue the man Jourt, to which he was remanded this after. jar and picked it up. A boy of about 14 from his perilous position, but he resisted all their efforts, and they nearly lost their lives in the attempt to reach him. Finally they succeeded in getting upon the roof, and were about to seize the maniac, when he ahrieking out, "I will die as my father did," he sprang to the pavement. His body formation from the northern coasts depict a ear. Fortunately the force of the leaden Enby's Meals. to partake of cooked food, says Babyhood perishing during the winter. For five Dr. Graham extracted the bullet and dressed bring to the consumption of regular rations side world by ice. Early in February the is not known. by intervening nibbles and lunches. He people watched with horror the consump will learn to expect and demand these, and I tion of the last handful of flour. How they be discombented when they are withheld. I have lived since God alone knows. For two The practice of appearing him when rest- months the cry of hunger has been heard. John Anderson, the Man Who Could Not less, from whatever cause, by thrusting a Whole families had not a crust of bread. cracker, a slice of bread or, worse yet, a There is not a barrel of flour on the whole " hunk" of gingerbread or a "cookey" into | coast between Bonne Bay and St. Anthony.

contact with the stones.

continual want for himself. When the hour comes for feeding him give him his quantum of proper food, roperly prepared. Let him eat it leisurely, and as soon as he is old snough to sit at a table serve his mast neatly in plate, cup or esnoer, set on a mast cloth, his own spoon, china and finger napkin laid in order. These are not trifles. More Americans would death of her step-daughter, aged 9 years. and the need of popular essays on "Table Manners would be less urgent.

dances on the summer air; the shimmer of had discovered the girl telling falsehoods, take a vacation. sunset, the glimmer of yellow gold, the rich she tied a string about her tongue and left red-brown of autumnal forests, blend in en- | her for hours to suffer excruciating torture. teameing beauty in its-

Just then her hair came off in his hands, mother's treatment and died. and he forgot what to say next. There was a moment of profound silence, and then Aurelia took it from him and went out of the room with it. When Aurelia camb back | Austher English Lady a Victim et a Four he was gone, -Roselent.

A Chance For Shorthand Writers. writers in that country. A while ago an axamination was held in Melbourne for minute, and fewer still the test of 150. Sir John Thurston, who had tried to engage a $1,000 a year and board, complained that most of the applicants were unable either to write rapidly or to read their notes after-Time to Understand Her.

Jones (who has quarrelled with his sweetheart, Cora Bellows) -- And shall this parting be forever, Miss Bellows? Cora Bellows-Of course it shall. Haven't I told you it should every time we ever arrelled ! It looks like you ought to unarstand ma by this time.

Disguests at Fault. Lafe : Doctor -- H'm ! You are run down, sir. You need an oosen voyage. What is your business ? Patient-Second mate of the Anna Maria, can be short. A dear brother was praying with me one day at such length that I had just in from Hong Kong.

Not to Be Interrupted. Servant-Madam, there is a poor man at the door who says he is out of work, and has a large family who depend upon him for support, and have nothing to eat. He wants Cady-Do tell him to go away. He should have come before Lent was over, when charity was all the go.

Bertha-Oh, de tell me, mamma. comise I wen't understood a word. German railway directors are exper menting with mails made of paper, which are said to be as superior to steel rails as paper earwheelt are to those made of from M. Guirand, a componer and one of the readest authorities on penale in France, in

JEKYLL-HYDE CASE.

Versatile Ruffian Alternately Monk and brother in Aigne-Belle. He affected the utmost piety, and gave to the Order two entered the room of Pere Ildefonse, the bursar, killed him and fled, taking with him

12,135 france in notes and securities belonging to the Order. During his trial

Hadelt behaved with the utmost callousness, alternately laughing at the testimony against

A SUICIDE CLUB.

Windy City.

An Uncoulh Fraternity Discovered in

A CRY FOR BREAD.

Lack of Food.

A STEP-HOTHER'S CRUELTY.

THE COMPARTMENT CAR.

Outrage in it.

the train. The police are looking for the Bid Not Want Too kinch of Yt.

solves perfect sames. We all thought a me to pray with him anying : "I know you to say: 'Stop, stop! I can't beer any more," Good Words.

A Smart Child.

Mrs. Brown Stone—Impossible, my child... It was not a story for children of your age.

Good News: Bertha-What are you civols said, please ? Tell me what Mrs.

affairs existed.

condemned murderer, is kept in from to keep him from injuring himself and others, as he is at times very savage. He is re-ported as saying that his mother predicted that he would be hanged before he reached HE WILL LOSE WIR HEAD. A Paris cable says : In the Departmen the age of 40. With regard to his family history he states that his father's mind was of the Drome to-day Mathias Eladelt was unhinged, that he was of a very violent tomper, and that he died in a lunatio asylum tery at Aigne-Belle on the Arc. In at Birken had. His mother he describes as good and kind, but she also was confined in a lunatio saylara notil shortly before the than Desming. For the last fifteen years lunatio agricin, out the fact is only ing without rest. He speaks all Continental known to his other brother, Albert. When in England last year the prisoner crimes. He began his criminal career declares he vainly endeavored to ascertain the whereabouts of his brother Sam. He has a sister, who is employed as a housemaid at New Brighton, near Liverpool, and entered a monastery near Berne, where Deeming has also given information as to piety. At the end of six months he stole some serious family trouble, which he says ! part of the communion service, rifled the occurred between 1880 and 1881. These treasury of 5,000f. and fled to Italy. After stories, however, are emphatically denied by equandering the money in Rome he entered persona who knew the Deeming family, and another monastery, from which he disap peared shortly after with several hundred special energy of character, its members, francs' worth of silver plate. This robbery except Deeming, were always respectable and clear-headed. Nobody in Melbourne was committed near Ficrence. Thence he went through Southern Italy and Sicily puts any faith whatever in the murderer's alternately as a highwayman and monk stories about himself and others, although it ! Near Palermo he is said to have killed a is believed that the manuscript which he is propering may give a substantially correct account of the tragedies at Rainhill and MONEY AND MONKEY GONG.

An Aged Venezuela Couple Victimized in and Miss Jackson. The girl is this period he set up a flashy establishment, train back to Paris, and she, after proceedarmy. He served some time in the French | that he carried much ready money with him, Legion of Honor. When his funds began shadowed him to the Paris station and took to dwindle he again put on the garb of a the satchel and backet while they sat in the attempted murders in French monasteries monkey is following the thief. She says he brought up, one year ago, as a Trappist she had left "Jocko," as she calls him, out of his basket for a little air, and when she securely. She had trained him to attack believes he may have jumped out after the dragging after him the basket to which he

DESMINO'S PAMILY HISTORY.

His Story of Mcceditary Susanity Finds

Little Credence.

A Melbourne cable says : Desming, the

THE GERMAN SOLDIER'S LIFE. him and glorying in the narrative of some | The Brutality of Officers Briving Privates exceptionally atrocious bit of crime. The A Berlin cable says : The body of the Police of Italian, Swiss, German, Austrian Grenadier Hermsdorf, of the 1st Regiment and Danish cities were active in securing evidence as to his past life, and the testiof Foot Guards in Potsdam, who disappeared some time ago, has been found in the mony sent in writing fills hundreds of pages. River Navel. At the time of his disappearance August Bebel, Social Democrat, said that Hermadorf had been driven to suicide by abuse from the non-commissioned officers of the regiment. Hermsdorf had told his friends that he was compelled to do the work of a scavenger, was kicked or cuffed A Chicago despatch says : Another man club which is declared to exist in this city was a typical case of abuse such as thoushot himself in Douglas Park last night dying instantly. He was Joseph Kraker, ercwery-employee Andrew Rudman is am contended that Hermsdorf had deserted. Hef." The finding of the body and the accompanying proof of suicide will be made the asis of a motion in the next session of

THE DANGEROUS REVOLVER.

n Bullet. A London despatch says: The 12-year-old son of Mr. J. E. Moorehouse, who lives charged Rudman. The latter fired into a of Victoria Bridge, when he came across a years was standing on the opposite bank, and saw Moorehouse with the jar, and shoot you." Almost immediately there-Newfoundlanders Starving and Bying for after the young rascal pulled the trigger of small revolver and discharged it, the A St. John's (Nild.) despatch says : In- | bullet striking Moorehouse behind the left was smashed into a shapeless mass by wretched condition of affairs. Owing to the messenger was about spent when it reached habitants were unable to gather their usual upward about two inches and lodged in the is kept. In his attempt to saw off a piece thought for a momant that it gave women you shall believe?" catch of fish. Just before navigation closed flesh. Had it struck a quarter of an inch of the arm the saw was broken. Mgr. The seasons of baby's meals should be the Government sent the people of Flower's lower the effect would have been very Marquis had a saw also, and be cut off as household habits by the time he is allowed Cove 60 barrels of flour to save them from serious, but the lad is now all right again. Do not blunt the rest which he ought to months they have been cut off from the out. The culprit who fired the shot skin still adhere.

MARRIED TWESTY WOMEN. Resist the Maidens.

evidence against John Anderson, the Dane, I the arm of St. Anne, Mother of the Blessed his hand is discountenanced by wise Some people have already perished from who is supposed to have married twenty mothers. He besmears his face and clothes, starvation, and, at the date of the last ad- women, was submitted yesterday. Mrs. drops grambs on the carpet and makes a vices, March 26th, a terrible condition of Elien Purcell, of St. Louis, his latest bride, lescribed how Anderson had brought her to the city, stole a note and cash amounting to $1,200 from an inner pocket of her Tetreau's safe. under garments, and fled to the east. The She Tortured a Nine-Year-Old Girl Till Death defence. He proved to be anything but a Tetreau as he talked to me last night. A London cable says: The second wife of Jas. Clark, a carman, was arraigned to- simpleton, and, though his story was "There, before you," he said, " lies the day on the charge of having caused the interesting and plausible, the prosecution bone of the forearm of her who clasped to breakfast, dine or sup in healthful decorum | She was committed for trial, and her examination. He admitted his marriage | we doubt that that arm also held the infant and fewer "feed" if they were trained to husband was severely censured by the to Mrs. Parcell, but refused to answer Jesus? I am proud to have such a relic to consider a meal as a ceremonial observance, magistrate for not having prevented the questions concerning the Elmira marriage. show to my people. And I am glad cruelties that led to the death of his He claimed Mrs. Purcell had forced him know that now on its way across the sea daughter. The evidence showed that the into marrying her by putting a policeman is another similar fragment of the arm of hild had been treated with the groutest on his track after he had become intimate the blessed St. Ann, which has been given Condemnation of a Three-Velume Novel. brutality. The girl was often tied tightly with her, and that she insisted upon his to our little Church of St. Jean Baptiste." "Beautiful silken hair," Philip murmured to the balusters of the house and was kept taking all her money and keeping it for his fondly, toying lovingly with one of her nut- there for hours at a stretch. Mrs. Clark own use. His reason for deserting her brown tresses ; "soft as the plumage of an frequently beat her terribly with a strap or was that she was fold and so affectionate angel's wing ; light as the thistledown that cane, and often, when she claimed that she that he became disgusted and resolved to Shecking Outrage of Two Young Ladies by

Coal Bricks for Fuel. The child finally gave way under her step-A London cable says : Another railway great distributing points. Then by pressing escort was getting his buggy out of the shed have been that of St. Ann. Yet there are outrage is reported. The violim is a dress it into bricks it is claimed that the consumer across the street. Suddenly a gang of five documents attesting its genuineness for maker, named Amy Faulkner, and from will be able to secure a glow-burning coal, ruffians saized the young women, and in many centuries prior to the placing of the there is a great chance for shorthand present indications her assailant, if arrested, which will leave few ashes, and will cost no spite of their struggles, and a fighting effort on arm in the Beatlica of St. Paul's Outside

Some men walking along the railway near suppl

A Prevalent Evil.

Buffalo is suffering from a thing that once I saw Spurgeon once lying on a couch and with waste paper. The papers are comwitching in great pain from gout. He plaining of it, and may that no amount of you applaud so vigorously when that said : " Some of our friends think there." picking up will keep the streets clean. Try comedian made his speech before the Jilos's theory of punishing those who curtain ? pertain brother perfect till he said its was. offend by throwing bills, dodgers and sample | Spriggins' (confidently)—So folks would be with "other men's wives." Most of these are old maids or retired of these are old maids or retired of copies of cheap publications around the streets, and teach people that the public streets are streets as the street is not a domping ground for their with Miss open would find an elegant gold medal, such as is street is not a domping ground for their with Miss open would find an elegant gold medal, such as is street is not a domping ground for their with Miss open would find an elegant gold medal, such as the streets are streets as the streets are streets. Unlies as the streets are streets as the streets are streets as the streets are streets. of the old dorif both in them." His saked lots of paper, too. - Utica Observer.

> A Poner for License Law Amondoic. A Brooklyn divise was endesvering to osswince a young man that high Houses was | head in matrimony ; prescher. "Suppose you would close up all but one of the salounc of Brooklyn," was the reply, "would it be right of me to keep this milet of the reply, "would it be right of me to keep this milet for me to right for me to It be right for me to vote that some oth man shall keep it ?"

Die so little is because it tells them so nany things they don't want to know ing him is liable to have her hands full as ragment of the Arm of St. Ann Coming

MOTHER OF MARY.

MIRAGLES WROUGHT BY IT.

ceured Through His Holiness, the Pape, For the Chrine of Saint Anne de Beaupre on the iit. Lawrence-The Preclous Relie prisoner's birth. His brother Sam, he also night mays : With more than wonton reverence the feet of the worship asserts, was likewise confined in a pers in the quaint little French Church of St. Jean Baptiste, No. 159 East Seventysixth street, tread the aisles this week. In a gold-lined carket on the alter has lain each day since Monday from half-past six until 10 a. m. the most sacred relic to

This relic, which will be regarded by divine in this matter of fact ninete Catholics everywhere with the deepest feel. | century. through the efforts of the Cardinal-Arch. evening service in English. The church was dict? They had, answered Foreman Albert bishop of Quebec and the Right Rev. Mgr. crowded and the priests attached to the A. Steininger.

not await the slow process of the law to in Hanover he posed as a military man, and eventually joined the French He thinks that the thief, having learned been here three separate and wonderful choice lot of sentences for half a dozente. the arm of St. Ann in the beautiful church | within the sound of my voice. on the St. Lawrence, which bears her name anybody touching her belongings, and she and over which she is believed to have must admit that it is probable that it is exerted her blessed influence in many remarkable ways.

> situated. Thousands have already seen it, the persecutions by the Jews, and afterand as each day passes the number who crowd the little church during the hours | in France, where it remains to this day. A the doors are open constantly increases. The Church of Sainte Anne de Beaupre is twenty miles below Quebec. There nearly three centuries ago it was established as a little mariners' chapel, amid scenery wonderfully grand and impressive, and it has working miracles is only the arm and slowly risen from its lowly beginnings to be shadow of the arm of Jesus Christ Himself.

It has seemed that over the church which | you and bless you. bore her name St. Ann has ever hovered with her beneficient influence. To Catholics almost daily, and had been kept standingon | the place, as Mgr. O'Reilly, of this city, reverently kissed it. one leg for an hour frequently while his describes it, "it is like a fountain of living orporal was eating dinner. Bebel said this | waters, which purify souls, cure bodily ills, | the waiting crowd of several thousand perrevive and nourish faith in the Incarnate | sons was admitted. sands of privates suffered in the best Prus- God and is the solemn protestation of a sian regiments. The commander in Pots- whole people against anti-Christian unbe-

There is already at the shrine of Sainte Anne de Beaupre a very small fragment o one of the fingers of St. Ann, but in view of the Reichstag for the investigation of the the fact that so famous had become the maltreatment of soldiers in Prussian regi- shrine for the afflicted and the faithful a larger memento was earnestly desired. More than 100,000 pilgrims resorted to the church last year. Thousands and thousands | claim to have been instantly cured through the intercession of her who was, in the flesh, he grandparent of the Redeemer.

The body of St. Ann was taken from Jerusalem to Constantinople in the year 710. on the corner of Bruce and Teress streets, The arm has been in Rome for many cen-South London, had a narrow escape from turies. The Popes have for ages refused to have any part of the member mutilated. In the "Revelations" of the great St bank of the Thames, a short distance south | Bridget, who died in 1873, there is a striking passage connected with the relic. St. Bridget made a pilgrimage to Rome and had the happiness of venerating the arm of St. Ann. That night St. Ann appeared to her called over to him to "put it down or I'll and assured her that the arm was her own. The body of the saint must have been carefully ambalmed, as was the Jewish custom. The arm, through nearly nineteen hundred years, was in a good state of preservation when Mgr. Marquis beheld it. The Prior of St. Paul's accompanied the

The fragment is about three inches in length. Mgr. Marquis had made for it a little casket of bronze, lined with gold, around which runs a band of satin, studded with silver stars. Around the relic is a iece of paper with this lettering : "Ex A Cleveland despatch says: The main Brachio S. Anne, M. B. M. V."-" From

The casket has a glass top through which Abbot of St. Panl's is still unbroken. " At night the relic is kept in Fathe Mgr. Marquis, happy in the possession of his treasure, beamed smilingly on Father succeeded in tangling him upon cross- her maternal bosom the Virgin Mary. Can

A BRUTAL AFFAIR.

A London despatch says : Further particulars of the recent horrible affair at Dreaney's Corners show that two respect-Interested experts have been making an able young women of this city were driven The plan as outlined is certainly a novel a engaged. At about 10 o'clock the young will have to answer a charge of murder. more than under the present method of the part of the young man, carried them off the Walls. Scattered all over Europe are to a lonely spot in the woods, gagged them, portions of this body still in a remarkable shorthand writers in the courts. Ont of 13 Leeds found a woman lying near the refla. Wallace C. Andrews, President of the and outraged them in a most brutal man-Her clothing was disarranged and also was New York Steam Heating Company, is at | ner. The girls were beaten insensible, and is the belief in their authenticity in the terribly injured. She was just able to state the head of the movement. He made a remained in that state until the morning, that she had been assaulted in the compart- success of steam distribution through pipes | when they were found and brought back to | shaken by any amount of derision of disment of a railway carriage and that after in New York city and claims to have good this city. The police were notified, but cussio her assailant had outraged her be had thrown | financial backing in his present enterprise. | their efforts to catch the desperadoes were her headlong from the carriage. The train was running at full speed, and her injuries coal pipes from the Pennsylvania mines to reluctance to let the nifair become known, were sustained by her being thrown from Jersey City.—Rechester Herald. Two young men, Geo. Lee and Armstrong, have been arrested on suspicion of being concerned in the outrage.

spriggins' Little Game. Friend (at a French play)-Why di-

A Cautions Lover. " Did I understand you to offer me you Hens are doing all right now. They need no lay conference to encourage others in

HAS WORKED MIRACLES.

A New York despatch says: " income for the crippled! Make way for the blind! Lend a hand there to help the feeble along!" "Tis the afflicted who long have found that she was guilty of keeping a dissuffered that most do need the intercession orderly house. The punishment prescribed by law is one year's imprisonment in the chancel rail, where they can venerate the well." Thus the good fathers of the little fined and not imprisoned for the full term. Seventy-sixth atreat, addressed the press. | But if Judge Fitzgerald's utterances during the trial are to serve as indications Hattie neaded in the bright hisy sunshine on the Penal church steps yesterday. Calmly and kindly Catholic eyes of the days when Christ they spoke, soothing injured feelings after walked the earth which ever reached they had come in contact with the gruffer America.

It is a large fragment of the arm of St.

Ann, mother of the blessed Virgin Mary, never would be able to reach the shrine.

In spite of her gally flowered hat and her red, chiny, apple-like cheeks and the purple and green and violet beads on her cream mother of Jesus. For many centuries it has | More eagernant was never shown at the been guarded more jealously than were ever troubling of the pool by those racked with who say that, while never distinguished by special energy of character, its members the Benedictine monks at Rome in the great access to the little church. Faces lined and Basilica of St. Paul's outside the walls. furrowed with distress, eyes beaming be Now, by special request of His Holiness the anew with hope, all striving to reach to Pope, a portion of it is sent to increase the sacred place where they could venerate the sat at her right hand. Judge Fitzgerald faith and devotion of all members of the flesh and boke of the blessed saint—surely a burried to his seat upon the bench. The church in the United States and Canada. | wonderful spectacle of human faith in things colork, with his emotionless voice, a wiftly

Marquis, Prothonotary Apostolic, one of parish and the venerable Mgr. Marquis sat Quebec's most patriotic and distinguished | within the chancel. He spoke of the various | recommendation to mercy. A Paris cable says: Sala Rubini and his Ste. Anne de Beaupre, on the St. Lawrence wife, natives of Venezuela, now travelling River.

Paris.

P It can be seen to day, to-morrow and gives testimony that it is authentic by per. absence of curling papers will rob her yellow find the man who stole the mare not guilty."

" If God performs such miracles yo part of the wrist of the mother of the Virgin Mary and flesh of His flesh. I have The news that the relic was at the Church | not time now to tell you how the body came of St. Jean Baptiste has spread all through | to reach Constantinople from Jerusalem, but it was taken there for safe keeping during ward was removed to the Cathedral of Apt arm, by direction of the Pope, was removed to the basilica of St. Paul's Outside th

Walts, of Rome, where Paul was slain. "Why should I detain you. You are anxious to come. The arm of St. Ann in a spacious and beautiful temple rising from | Before we come into His sacramental presence let me take the relic, hold it above Holding the relic aloft Mgr. O'Reilly blessed every ore in the church and After the congregation venerated the relic

WOMEN IN THE "HOUSE,"

A Fancy Pleture which May yet Become

Suffrage question is perhaps a picture and I 'I cannot elevate him to the level of my sketch in the Daily Graphic, written in the contempt.' style of the " Battle of Dorking." A mem- | During all this vehemence Dr. Parkhuret ber of Parliament, after a long absence did not look happy. He sat half hidden by from England, returns to the House of the judge's bench, a newspaper partly Commons and finds, to his horror, the screening his dark and impassive face. He majority of seats in Parliament occupied by seemed to be paying polite attention to all women. He thought at first " he had en- I the unsolicited tributes Mr. Howe was tered a purgatory of politicians," or that heaping upon him. It would be a slight he was mad, drunk or dreaming. But he sexaggeration to say that he looked amused. was informed by an old fellow-member the Assistant District Attorney John F. Mofacta in Tea Room No. 8. The ancient friend told him that in the prosecution will be Home Secretary in the next Liberal | teen minutes past 6 o'clock. Ministry-s clever woman and a good lawyer, but rather too free with her tongue. Harcourt's young friend?" "Oh, that's illy Fiske, the junior whip." "And the one who has the audacity to ait in my old seat ?" "Oh, that is Mrs. Brodgers, Secretary of the Amalgamated Society of Journeywomen Laundressee -- a most worthy woman, I assure you, and very influentia

but a sad trial to Gladstane, for she will not suck peppermint lozenges." It was enough. The member fled from the House to ponder over the statistics handed to him by his old friend, from which he learned that there are a million more females than males in England, and that it they were given the right to vote, to sit in Parliament and to occupy State offices the great nation to which he belongs would be practically ruled by woman.

The Relie of St. Aum

Catholic mind that it is not likely to be

Would You Have Pence at Mouse ? When you don't know what to say, say, Open doors quietly and shut them without a bang.

marpet, for a foot-scraper. Live sociably with your family and peaceably with your neighbors. Let your manners at home be a little bet- thing ? Woman (weeping)—I began by er than they are abroad. ter than they are sbroad. Be as agreeable to your wife as you would | while he was asleep. Then the descent was | the men in despair, Look out for the claws of the family cat

Earth-worm Oil. re. In a few moments the worms will impolve into a free oil, which is then strained and may be bottled, tightly oorked, and set away in a cool place for use. It should be amployed as a liniment, and the stiffent rhounatic joints, well rubbed with this natural lubricant, will recover their former when its paws are fairly let out of the bag.

-Good Housekeeping.

RATTIE ADAMS GUILTY.

Key. Dr. Parkhurst Winz His Famous Case in Court. THE SENTENCE AWAITING MER. VENERATED BY GREAT CROWDS.

A New York despatch of last Mondty Ruttin Ariams is convioled. After two hears' deliberation the jury in the Court of General Sessions penitentiary of $5000 fine, or both. That is ing, pushing throng as they stood bare. I may as well prepare herself for the full

Mme. Hattie had no appetite for dinner. She sat alone in the prisoners' pen at halfpast six o'clock. The jury had just retired. colored wrap, she was a very dejected look. | get well.

scores of feet at a quarter past 8 o'clock. growing better. The door of the pen was unlocked and Hattie advanced to the bar. Abe Hummel called the roll of the jury, and the twelve men answered "Here!" like so many ings of piety and joy, is brought to America Mgr. Bernard O'Reilly preached at the schoolboys. Had they agreed upon a ver-

" We find the defendant guilty, with a Hattie's hard face did not exhibit any city who desire an opportunity to gaze on been here three separate and wonderful choice lot of sentences for half a dozen what they must all regard as being so very | cures have been made. A man who was so minor criminals, the last day of Hattie near the person of the Incarnate God. Also | deaf that he has not heard a sound for years | Adams' trial began near noon yesterday. monk, and after numerous robberies and waiting room. Mrs. Rubini thinks that the can it be seen on Monday up to the hour of can now hear perfectly well. A young Lawyer William F. Howe, in splendid con- my husband kissed you yesterday. Jane— An of Nature jints were limbered, an she sash attempted murders in French monasteries monkey is following the thief. She says noon, and Monday night the distinguished woman who was palsied has been restored to dition as to diamonda, voice and a new blue of the hour of can now hear perfectly well. A young Lawyer William F. Howe, in splendid con- my husband kissed you yesterday. Jane— An of Nature jints were limbered, an she sash attempted murders in French monasteries monkey is following the thief. She says noon, and Monday night the distinguished woman who was palsied has been restored to distinguished. divine and his companions will resume their perfect health. And there is another, of and white cravat, epened for the defence, to it now. homeward journey to place the fragment of which I will not specially speak, who is He said:

of the Gospel, as an instigator of crime, the Lord, who make their wives carry roaming about this city, paying with his all the wood .- Ram's Horn. own money poor, degraded women to disgrace themselves to such an extent that you | 18,500 Societies of Christian Endeavor with must be disgusted when you think of it! I a total membership of 1,100,000. Ten years declare to you that by the law of God, by | ago there were six societies with 481 memthe moral law, age ! by the statutes of the bers State of New York, Parkhurst, the minister, is a criminal. I will show "---" If Your Honor please," protested Assis tant District Attorney McIntyre.

"Allow me, sir," roared Mr. Howe, shaking his great sides in an avalanche of fury. "Allow me. I'll prove it. I propose to criminal and therefore ought not to Judge Fitzgerald dryly suggested that Hattie Adams was on trial just now. Hattie promptly began to weep. Her little green of jury dissolving tears. She spoiled their effect somewhat by calmly fanning herself

Mr. Howe denounced Dr. Parkhurst by reading these words from the Penal Code 'Any person who directly or indirectly commands, induces or procures another Then he said: " I do not know that I ever A London cable says : The best thing loathing and disgust for any man as I do produced by the discussion on the Woman for Parkhurst. In the words of M. Thiers, Intyre delivered a stunning oration for the elections of 1892 the G. O. M. had got a f "In my honest judgment," he said, "Dr. majority of fifty, whereupon Salisbury re- Parkhurst was actuated by laudable, honest signed. The Home Rule Bill got through and sincere motives. It is the duty of any to his ides, and they pretty quickly showed upon the stand and call upon his God and make intelligible phases of his public more artistic and beautiful than the ordinate that they meant to vote. Gladatone hedged to witness that he would tell the truth, life which to the casual observer seem contoo late. He got badly beaten in 1894. and then deliberately give perjurious testi. I tradictory. The great Women's Suffrage Bill was brought mony? Do you believe his story? Conin, and in its passage through committee trast his character with that of Hattie velopes is the invention of an Australian, and more difficult to get them to learn and ravages of grip last year the miserable in its victim, and, striking a bone, it glanced Canadian divine to the spot where the relic was enormously enlarged. Still no one Adams. Can there be any doubt as to which The stamp receiver is supported by a pair of practice dancing. Girls, on the other hand,

"A Single Line." Oats are "brain food." Vectoring is in scuption. India has 287,200,000 soul. The Vatican has 4,422 rooms. Venezula licenses gambling. Longevity is on the increase. Java leads in thunder storms. Uncle Sam has 250,000 Indians. Scotland had 143 divorces in '91 China is "a nation of gamblers." Japan has returned to cremation. Rome has now 400,000 population Baby farming is shocking England. The Japanese language has no oaths.

Victoria's reign has seen fifteen wars. The World's Fair. The scene which the Exposition grounds now afford, with most of the buildings nearing completion and the construction being | smoky appearance, says the Indianapolis New York Herald: The exhibition now pushed forward by more than 6,000 work. Sentinel. To remove this use a fine sponge, of ability is not extended, at least in our in progress at the astaporary shrine in the men, is accounted so interesting and won- tepid water and castile soap. Go over the French Canadian Church of St. Jean derful that from 1,000 to 5,000 visitors a case, a little at a time. The water alone, Baptiste, this city, is likely not only to day willingly pay the admission fee of 25 without the soap, will usually be all taken is create the utmost interest among Catholics cents to witness it. Before the abolition of needed. A chamois skin, as dry as one be in this country, but arouse discussion as to the free pass system, the visitors often wrung out of water, should be used to dry the authenticity of the relic as a portion of numbered as high as 15,000 or 20,000. The the surface after using the sponge. For old the body of Ann, the mother of the Virgin | work of construction was interfered with, pianos a polish of raw linseed oil (two investigation of the proposed process of out to Dreamey's Corners, on Sunday even. the body of Ann, the mother of the Virgin work of construction was interfered with, pianos a polish of raw linseed oil (two manufacturing bricks out of coal for fuel. 'eg, by a young man to whom one of them land best vinegar (one part and them desired and the church was thought best to charge and parts), alcohol and best vinegar (one part and them desired and the church was interfered with, pianos a polish of raw linseed oil (two manufacturing bricks out of coal for fuel. 'eg, by a young man to whom one of them one. It is to crush the coal at the mine, people were preparing to return home, and Many people have asserted that under no crowd of sightseers and at the same time care be taken to use a very little at a time

> A Good Cook. She-Darling, please tell the grocer to send me up two quarts of nice fresh sponges. Sho-I want the kind used for making sponge cake, and tell him they must

Me Was Lentent. Browns (in barber's chair)-New, look sers, barber, be careful. The last man who shaved me nearly killed me, and I won't be as sany on you as I was on him. Barber (anxiously)-No one in this shop who shaved you, was it, sir? Use the door-mat, instead of the floor-Browne-No. I did it myself.

Judge (to woman arrested for shop fting)-When did you begin this sort of reign. It is a rare historic souveniand was given to Earl Somers, the father of Lady Somerset. His daughter hopes that there medal may bring a helpful sum to the Run ? Sather Why, of course, my child. World's W. C. T. U. for the purpose of | Why do you salt that? Alice-Uncle George twenty-eight yours old and weight 415 i pounds. It is impossible for her to stond 000 a year. Sallie Groen-Belle Brown doesn't admira nergalf betore the mirror as order 25 she seed to. Minnie Thorn-I gress her new eyaglasses have greatly improved her night.

TEA TABLE GOSSIP.

STREET, irius, southward sloping slow, catteroth liberian snow. Sylorks soon shall souther sing unimer sweet succeeded spring; unabline seeking swallows the wirling, akim sershest sky, ylvia, sighing, smiles. Shall and trophon slight so approfully; summer shall spring above; the shall sure that suffer above; She shall surely section so.

-Love is blind, but the neighbore are -Paris may just now be described us a -The sheriff would hate to be known by the company he keeps. IN THE SPEING.

He put down a half doson carpets. And with woo his life is replete : For he hasn't a nell to his flugers. But numberless tacks to his feet. This is a treacherous spring. The wise

-His Uncle's Heir-Doctor, tell me the worst, Doctor (feelingly)-Your uncle will -When a man notices an improvement [Hattie heard the scraping and shuffling of in himself he always feels that the world is -A wife is wholly unlike a carpet-the

> of her being beaten. Castle on the 22nd uit. A TEMPORARY ENTERRUPTION.

Two pairs of lips just meeting-Two persons quickly separate As they would meet no more, It proves to be a false alarm-Two persons as before. -The good is the worst enemy of the extraordinary relic is exposed to view and is Ask me not what proof I have that it is the Penitentiary, where she will have to work __" My Lord," said the foreman of an body of St. Ann. I will reply that God and wear striped skirts and where the Irish jury when giving in his verdict, "we An' I felt just like a mountin' on the meeting -" He was a lonely man in spite of money," is the comment of a friend of Wil- | Each grass blade in the medder was a string to liam Astor upon the dead millionaire's life. -Mistress-Jane, Willie informs me that

> -There are men who stand up in church "Think, think of Parkhurst, the minister | and say they are willing to do anything for -There are now in the United States

> > -Scribbler-I am getting up a McKinley ! campaign ballad for the Republican Committee. Give me a good word to rhyme with tariff. Friend (after reflection)-I can't think of anything but sheriff. - Puck. -" Thickhed is one of the most ignorant show by the evidence that Parkhurst is a men I ever knew. He doesn't know any thing." "That's because he shaves himself. If he were shaved by a barber every morning, same as I am, he would know every-

-The Prince of Wales is said to have a ish eyes almost faded out of sight in a flood lively dislike to see any man wear, in evening dress, a black tie. His Royal Highness regards this as a grave infraction of the [unwritten canons of good taste and pro- minuet, and the umbrella-shaped skirt of you was perfectly scandalous. Mrs. Home- dancer ; but, as fashions go, that is no exbody-So she has been talking about me, traordinary width." a nice time you two must have had !" VIVID REMEMBRANCE. remember, I remember

The house where I was born, Where father always gave a yell To wake me up at morn. He always yelled an hour too soon-Just at the break of day, And if I didn't hop right out My hide he'd fairly flay. -The ironical phrase of the street, "talk ing through your hat," has evidently sugcity. He has devised a hat which contains an ear trumpet with the opening at the ! crown. The bell to collect the sound may tell you that some of my pupils begged waves runs from the hat band to this -Mr. Gladstone gives as the key to all h its second reading. Meanwhile the Tories citizen to go about and detect crime and political changes this fact : "I was edu- it was really impossible for any one but went in neck and crop, or rather heart and visit these houses if necessary. Do you be cated to regard liberty as an evil: I have Lottie Collins to sing and dance that, soul, for women's suffrage. Balfour engilieve that Dr. Parkhurst lied? Do you be learned to regard it as good." This, he "One thing which is greatly in favor of neered it splendidly, and get all the women lieve that a minister of the gospel would go believes, will explain his political evolution skirt dancing is the fact that it is so much cated to regard liberty as an evil : I have Lottie Collins to sing and dance that -An apparatus for affixing stamps on enpivoted arms while another pair of arms are extremely fond of it. Of course two any right to sit in the House. Never was a Judge Fitzgerald was all unmoved by the carry a damping roller. By pressing a girls can dance a round dance together, and bigger mistake. Fifty-three women were fierce storm of denunciation and counter handle the stamps within the holder are

Once again Balfour grasped the situation. "I desire, gentlemen, said he, "to attract —"The man," says Freedley, "who aims He reconciled the ladies by making Miss your attention to the nature of the case that to succeed in business must aim at these Glitters First Commissioner of Works, and has been actually on trial here." Then gave minor offices to half a dozen other without blas or oratorical effort he went satisfy the demand for the articles he deals women. Yes, that was Miss Glitters who over the indictment, the testimony and the in ; secondly, that everybody within the was being attacked by Mrs. Blakins, who law in the matter. The jury retired at nine proper scope of his business is made aware of his ability to do so. These points attained his fortune is secure." A SOURCE OF WEALTH. Quite receptly I met a man Rich, shrewd and enterprising, Who had succeeded on the plan Of always advertising. His business had grown very great, His wealth was quite extensive. And to maintain his rank and state His habits were expensive.

I often used to wonder how His wealth accumulated And, as the chance presented, now My wonder to him stated. Oh, well," he answered in reply, Perhaps twill make you wiser I'm rich, and here's the reason why-I am an advertiser!"

Care of the Plane. Everyone has observed after purchasing a new piano that it soon takes on a dull admission and thus diminish the size of the each) may be applied with good results if mix it with water, and transport this pesty the two young girls stood in front of Young's circumstances could the body which was add to the financial resources of the Expo- and to theroughly rub that little off. Shake the polish frequently, use soft cotton cloth. the polish frequently, use soft cotton cloth, one piece to rub it on and a large, clean lovely hair which the crownless beenet piece to finish it off with. Bruises, usually on the front, oan be taken off by rubbing of the very lightness and inefficiency of

> A Reacon to Expect Trouble. The cashier passed the word of on long the line. "Everybody look out ?" he said. "The the front round Eavenge is sweet .- Nese boas is mad."

"At me?" saked the head bookkesper. "Worse than that," replied the cashier "At you ?" saked one of the clerks. " Oh, no ! It's more serious than that." "His snyone done anything that seriously wrong?" saked the new clerk. and then he added, f bot everyone in the office wants to look

"He's mad at himself," returned the sick man."

Allee Asks a Question.

estate that it produces a rental of $7,000,-Learn from the burglar. Does it ever bother him who may get the oredit for his The man who strikes an attitude imaI seet a friend of mine the other day Upon the planterm of a West End day;
We shook hands, and my triend lagrat to my Quintly, as if he were not round far.
Latel summar samething rather is your way Came to my knowleshes. I man accord to see A verse mean who had some to walk with me Recause I was a clery min; and he Told me at once that he and served his time
In the state sprison for a haisous crime,
And was just out. He had no triends, or more
To speak of; and he seemed far gueso
With a told rough. He told he had not done
The thing. They all say that. You cannot tell,
He might not have been walks of h. Well
What he now wanted was some place to riey.
And work that he could be. I managed if
With no great trounds. And then, there began
The strangest thing I ever knew. The man.
Who showed no other ages of a weak wil,
Was birdly sottled in his place a week
When he came round to me me, and to speak About his bulging. What the matter was
He could not say, or would not tell the cause,
But he must leave that place; he gould not bear To sloy. I found smother room, but there atter mother week he could not stay.
Again I placed him, and he came to say
At the week a cut he must go away.
So it went on, week after week, and then
That any place he happened to remain
Longer than one day in began to speak
He was quite frantic till he could escape.
Curtous, was not it? And tragical.
"Tragical? I believe you? Was that all?
What has become of him? "Oh, he is dead.
I teld some people of him, and we made A decent functal for him. At the end
It came out that his mother was alive—
An outcast—and she asked our loave to attend
The correspony, and then asked our loave to attend
The correspony and then asked our loave to attend
The correspony and then asked our loave to attend Materials of a Story. cet a friend of mine the other day more dust she has the less likelihood is there | It came out that his mother was alive—An outcast—and she asked our leave to attend -Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Carnegie were The ceremony, and then asked us to give The silver coffin plate, carved with his name, And the flowers, to her." "That was touching

"Why, I don't know! I think she sold the Together with a neck-plu and some rings.

That he had left, and drank.

But as to Good-day to you!" My friend stepped down At the street crossing. I went on up town. -W. D. Howells in May Harper's,

The boblinks bubbled over in a music water-That Paradise was open, with admission free

Thet was played on by the zephyrs with a velvely caress: wen Melindy, my Melindy, tol' me "Yes I" An' the angels played so bully that the music reached the gateway An' came spillin' through the op'nin', and asingin' down to earth-Came a singin' such a great way that the un verse wuz straightway

Shoutin' in the glad redem'tion of a holy gor on' birth : An' I-I set a straddle on the ridge An' only fit to holler in my hootin' happiness. W'en Melindy, my Melindy, filled my heart ith Wen Melindy, my Melindy, tol' me "Yes!" -Yankee Blade

DINNER PARTY DANCES. A Pashionable "At Home" in the Beart of Old London Town.

Step-dancing is now in high favor in London. Girls dance after a dinner party as formerly they gave gave a song. "You see," said Miss Elizabeth Garratt, pupil of aglioni and most noted teacher of ladies in all London, "you see the style of dress that is required for these dances is almost identical with the ordinary dinner dress. A this season is just the right thing for ekirt--Mrs. Telltale-I've been to see Mrs. dancing. It must be twelve yards wide, so Tittletattle, and the way she ran on about that it can be gracefully taken up by the has she! "Yes, indeed she has." "What "Then," suggested her interviewer, who bailed from the Pall Mall Gazette office, "it is namouly the daring few who have the heart to perform singly before a drawing-room of spectators? "Oh, no," continued Miss Garratt, " skirt dancing will be very general indeed at this season's dancing. I am teaching & great number of leading society ladies. among them some of those whose word in society is law. Step dancing will, indeed, be 'all the rage,' and I have no

"To show you the extent of the craze ! Boom-de-ay,' and amongst those were two well-known leaders of society. I told them lazy. They won't dance, and it gets more large a piece as he in decency could. It is one-half of the wrist, and to it the flesh and skin still adhere.

| Starquis had a saw also, and he cut off as leader to the flesh and large a piece as he in decency could. It is clearly denunciation that had been sweeping around forced by a plunger upon the envelope, the start words of his charge were a stamps being at the same moment moistened and skirt denunciation that had been sweeping around forced by a plunger upon the envelope, the start words of his charge were a stamps being at the same moment moistened and skirt denunciation that had been sweeping around forced by a plunger upon the envelope, the dancing it is quite different. It looks very any party which objected to their presence. national dance, or if one girl alone does skirt dancing. It makes them entirely independent of men as partners in a dance, and that, of course, is of the greatest advan-"And which of the dances will be the most popular this sesson ?" eaked the news-he has only to do his business properly and paper visitor.

his fortune is above." anid bias Garratt; "gavottes by all means !"

The "Coming Meial." The "coming metal," alumiunm, which has been coming for several years without arriving at any particular destination, has had another stone cast at it as an efficient anbatitute for better known materials. According to Herren, Lubbert and Rorcher, alumium cannot be used for articles which have to withstand the action of water at its boiling point; consequently it is not suitable for vessels now to some extent made of silver, as tea and coffee sets, chafing dishes, sto. The same experimenters also find that such mildly corrosive liquids as claret, tea, coffee and horring brine, act on it appreciably. As it is also attacked by alicylic and boric acids, it is unavailable for table ware, as spoons, forks, knives, etc. trades, though for spectacles, eye-glasses, optical instruments and devices, and certain classes of jewelry, its advantages are many.

-Jeweler's Oircular Air and Sunshine for the Hair. Women have been ridiculed by men on account of the absord little bonnets they wear, and the gentle creatures have patiently endured the criticism because reveals is really the result in many cases He—You can't get sponges at the grocer's, with sapolio. Clean the keys with alcohol and sunshine are really the best promoters and water, equal parts.—Interview with a of growth and beauty of coloring in the hair, and, says a woman writer, if keen would wear a crownless or perforated hat instead of shutting the hair up in an uniton | ventilated tunnel every time they go into the air there gould be fewer bald pates in > Comsoling to the Envaled. " Bourning goods, please," she mid t the floor-walker. "Yes, Madame, this way, and then he added, feelingly, " death is a "It is, indeed!" and responded. "I'll not make any purchases this morning "Well, what's the matter?" asked one of only want to see the latest things you have in the mourning line; my husband is a very

> > The Sent Curtosity. The telautograph is the next electrica marvel which will be put upon the market. With this instrument Prof. Gray, the inventor, proposes to dispute for public favor with the telephone. The machine will send over the wires and reproduce in fac-rimile written memogas or pun symbols of any kind and will do many more seemingly impossible chings. The process of telautography is assemted by seven patents, and a complay lies been required to introduce it in all pirts of the

The Detroit Flying Rollers, to the num-ber of forty-eight, have patitioned the Bett-ish Minister at Washington for protection against the alleged unjust treatment to which they are subjected in the City of the York Bus.