Land STORE NEWS STORE

We live in an age that is distinctly progressive. Business is competitive. It is aggressive; that is, modern business. It used to be that merchants bought as much of anything as they could pay for and held it at a profit until sold. Sometimes it took years to sell what should have changed hands in a month or two. The seasons were ignored and advertising considered as expensive. Things are different to-day. Stocks are cleared at intervals and nothing allowed to grow old. Out they go, and we encourage quick buying by reducing prices for this month. To-day we will apply the pruning knife to all kinds of Prints, Sateens and Cotton Challies. This stock must be cut down and prices will be made to suit each and every buyer,
