The mystic whisper of the trees,
The drawsy hum of bumble bees;
A recue destruct the gods to piease,
A dream of happiness and case, That all our betog thrells. weary, dreadful picaio night l almost wish that I were doad, m looking like a perfect fright, And filled with aches from feet to head, rained incommitty since more; ty clothes are wet and stained and torn, in feeling miserably forlorn, m sorry I was ever born. The woods were full of beggar's lice,

We drank rain water without ice;

nd dinners full of ants aren't nice ; after a picuio device Will catch me-in a horn. What's the Ess ? What's the use of always fretting Over ills that can't be cured ! bat's the use of finding fault with That we know must be endured ! loss it make our burdens lighter ir wa grumble 'neath their load i loos it make life's pathway smoothe we frut about the road ? letter use our time than fill it Fall of sighs and yain regrets over some imagined blunder, n he does who always frets. "Laugh a Little Bit." Here's a motto, just your fit; lough a little bit." When you think you're trouble-hit. Brave the beldam's rude grimace; Ten to one 'twill yield its place If you have the grit and wit ist to laugh a little bit.

Keep your face with sunshine lit-"Laugh a little bit." Gloomy shadows off will flit you have the wit and grit ust to laugh a little bit. Cherish this as sacred writ Laugh a little bit." Keep it with you, sample itttle lils will sure betide you, rrtune may not sit beside yo fen may mock and Fame deride you

but you'll mind them not a whit

THE OPERA AT SCUDDY.

If you laugh a little bit.

a HE little town of Souddy, away proposed line of the B., K. & N. | yellow-haired man was kneeling beside the Railway, was enjoying a boom of bed, with his face buried in his hands. His no mean proportions. Sua gere alighe frame was shaking with sobs. no mean proportions. Sua gere taking upon itself metropolitan airs. Its citizens were jealously proud of man who would have dared to assert that | bouquet. the town was not beeming would have been very liable to be endangered.

Badgerton was Scuddy's own rival, th only thorn in the side of its citizen. Badgerton did not exist except upon the map, they scornfully asserted, but for all that, it of The Scuddyites hailed with delight any was the man who had called the yellowcasionally made its presence felt. portunity to gain advantage over Badgerton, and were feveriably alert to secure any thing that would boom Scuddy on toward prominence and discomfit its rival. It was this spirit that caused Jack Bates to prevail upon the Acme Opera Company pany at one of the towns further east, and had learned that they intended to visit Badgerton and not Souddy. It was not much in the way of an opera company and Jack did not admire operas, any-

How. But, as he expressed it, "he didn't keer two whoops in Halifax for operys nohow ; he was plump alive to the interests uv Scuddy, and didn't propose that no onehoss place like Badgerton should get the bulge on her." To have it said that the opera company had visited Souddy and had scorned to appear at its rival, would be a cause for the most profound satisfaction to every resident of the latter place. By guaranteeing that every place of busiperformance, and that every person in town and from as far out as the Yellowhammer unable to be present should send the dollar, anyhow. Jack was able to secure the company. In return the manager signed a contract to the effect that he would not visit taked his reason, he promised to reply that Jack Bates announced the good news. A cowboys. mass-meeting was held, and Jack's acumen and fostering care of Scuddy's prosperity were lauded to the skies. His name was the Mayorship at the next election. When the stage drew up to the combined tlement was there to welcome its arrival. | must be very rare.

"You bet !" was driver Bill's reply. A dangerous.
shout of welcome went up from the crowd If a lamp has been left stending with a covery that a very large sum was owing to as the door of the stage opened and the little oil in, it should not be lighted until the Government for freights over the rail-bed, and, softly removing the wrappings, To prevent chimneys from cracking, put revealed a baby, uneasily sleeping and them before using into a large pan and catching its broath by fitful gasps. Its cover them with cold water. Bring the hands feebly toward the yellow-haired man. I the water. All day long the yellow-haired man sat with the heat, These catches are easily beside the fever-stricken baby. Oftimes I loosened without injuring the lamp. his bead cank on his breast, as if from phoer exhaustion, but he was always ready to intantly attend to the feeble cry of "'Ant a l'ink, paps," oft repeated. The shild seemed to be sinking rapidly.

its hot breath came and went in painful Often the yellow-haired man's eyes closed avoluntarily, but the baby's feeble wail for water always aroused him. and, as the sun sauk from sight behind the friends, with the evident intention take in return what that other had to sell. listant mound, he seated himself before the open window.

hat crossed the window. It dallied about the little hot face, fanned the burning cheeks, and kissed the small ! parched lips. It toyed with the baby's rellow curis, so like those of the pale-faced man who bent above it. The little head neetled closer to the man's "Sing, Papa," the parched lips whis- to see Moses. It was only an old-fashioned Inliaby, look at Elijah. mple, even silly perhaps, but the tenor If there is no song in your heart, listen to voice that sang it so softly glorified the David.

homely air. The swift, Indian summer twilight of the plains came and went : and still the yellow- with Isaiah. haired man sat in the dim room by the open window and sang the sweet old lullaby. The song want steadily on, and presently the bedy was still, except for the feverish

Out in the darkness a sight hawk fel camingly from the very clouds almost to the carth, uttering, as he turned to begin his ascent, his woird, becoming, discordant

The door spened softly and someone tiptoed into the room. " Paul," said a low voice, your oue comes in five minutes. You must go now," The yellow-hatterd men left the alsophy shild softly on the bed, and followed the newcomer out into the darkness. He staggered weakly as easy needs along the dark street, and once would have fallen lind not his comrade caught him. "Take my arm, Paul," the comrade St. Louis Globe-Democrat : It has been

The bitisens of Souddy were proposed abe reads first ! Why, the advertices

Spade ranches more in attendance. Jack Bates, within a bonquest clutched to that I devote to the market reports. ale head, recepted a preminent position and emplanded every part of the perform-and pallid. When he began to magudience regarded him with marked disfavor. He was intoxicated, they thought. His tones were inharmonious and often almost harsh and broken by chaking catches, now and then, as if the singer had smothered a sob in his throat. Then as his of music, it broke in a discordant, croak-like sound, that completely destroyed the

The cowboys began to hiss, and Jack Bates expressed his disfavor in an audible growl. The singer did not heed them, but continued the discordant and often halfnaudible song, as if it had been the most ielightful melody in the world. The cowboys yelled their disapproval at the top of their voices, and one or two fired The tener ceased and one of the ladies began a song that was like the sweet music of a lark's liquid notes. A wild shout of applause aross from the cowhoys, and Jack liates stood up and cast his bouquet upon the stage. The yellow-haired man leaned wearily against one of the supports of the impromptu scenery. Then, as his term came again, he broke into the lady's happy song with his doleful, tuneless croak.

The cowboys gave a howl of disgust and wrath and half a dozen of them started toward the stage, as if to wreak summary engeance upon the miserable singer. He ceased just as they reached the stage. Bending forward, he seized the bouquet that Jack Bates had thrown to the lady, and, without a word, the yellow-haired man disappeared from the view of the audience. They heard the door of the back entrance slam behind him. Jack Bates, with a shout of wrath, dashed down the aisle and out into the darkness, followed by the half-dosen irate cowboys and a few others. A light was shining from the vine-class window in the " L" of the hotel when the angry little crowd reached it. The cowboys were for rushing into the hotel and severely drubbing the offending singer, but Jack Bates restrained them. " Hold on," he said " Let's see what the coward's a-doin' first." "Like's not be's a hidin' under the bed, growled one. Jack Bates gazed through the interlaced rines a moment and then stepped back. "What's he up to ?" saked one. "Look fer yerself?" Jack whispered. One by one they poered in through the morning glory vines, and each drew back out on the Kansas border, on the without a word. Within the room the

The little pinened face of the bacy was were going on at every hand, and the now, and the painful gasping for the little trading post was fast breath had ceased. The baby had died alone while the father was away. The little hands were folded across the advancements, and the personal safety of a small besom, and upon them lay Jack Bates' No sound came from the little mob outside except one, when the jingles on a cowboy's spur clanked against a fellow, and there was a sound from Jack Bates like an Adark figure came among them, and whispered for the crowd to follow him. It haired tenor to the performance. "Boys," he said simply, "his wife died last month, leaving him alone in the world except for the baby. Last week the child | was stricken with the fever and has grown worse since. Hardly a moment at a time stant in sleep. He has missed his moals A few moments later an awkward squad, man knelt by the dead baby. Their hate were off and their bared heads were bowed. The man who had spoken outside was "Paul, he said," "here are some friends who wish to speak to you." The yellow-haired man rose to his and confronted them without a word. Jack

Bates cleared his throat and began awk-" Pardner," said he, "yere's a leetle bundle we found in the road just now. Hit belongs to you an' the dead baby." They turned and filed out into the dark

The tenor's comrade opened the little Badgerton under any circumstances. If package that Jack Bates had placed on the bed. When the old, soiled handkerchief the place was not of sufficient importance to | was untied, there was revealed a little heap of money-gold, ailver and notes to a good-Great was the rejoicing at Souddy when I y amount—the gift of Jack Bates and the

Lines About Lamps,

To prevent oil from cozing over the toy even mantioned as that of a candidate for of the burner, turn the wick down after he Rub the wicks, do not out them. A new hotel and post office, a few days later, with | wick must be started right. Loose threads | excepting also the schedules. The commitseemed as if every person in the little set- once in shape, the necessity for clipping | leave to sit again. Bill Hankley, the driver, seemed to have | Be sure that no bit of charred wick or little face was thin and burning with fever. | water slowly to a boil. Take the pan off of It opened its ble eyes and stretched its tiny | the fire and let the chimneys cool slowly in "I 'ant a d'ink, papa," the parched fips I If the brass catches of a burner are too tight, the chimney will break as it expands up, sniffed at the defunct fowl with much | Mr. Mills contended that the prime diffi-The onlooker, who is a student of natural barriers in the way of imports from the history, knew what that meant and re- West Indies. The experience of the world or two the rat came back with half a dozen | nation to another unless it was prepared to The soft southwestern breeze, laden with lain the rat raised a loud squeak of aston- such enormous proportions.

The soft southwestern breeze, laden with lain the rat raised a loud squeak of aston- such enormous proportions.

After further discussion the item passed. exitated the interlaced morning glory vines rate fell upon him so savagely that they left him dead on the field as a warning not to play practical jokes with his friends,-Leeds (Eng.) Evening Post. When and What to Sond. If you are impatient, sit down quietly and have a talk with Job. If you are just a little strong-headed, g If you are gotting weak-kneed, take

If you are a pelicy man, read Daniel. If you are getting sordid, spend a while If you feel chilly, get the beloved disc ple to put his arms around you. If your faith is below par, rend Paul, If you are getting lazy, watch James.

Hank Monk-the Whitest, Biggest-Hearted, and Best-Known Stage-Driver of the West; Hafased by Enforces, Dallas-I hear that you proposed to M Testy last night and get o refucal? bluntly refuse me ; che wouldn't wound my seelings by doing that, yet the inference her remark was plate exough. Dallas-What reply did she make to your Callous-She said if I was the on earth she might consider it.

Women Rend Advertisements. The Impromptu opera house, a new, this hotel to be seated at table with three balf finished building, with a make-chift or four bright women. Every one of them stage and scenery, was crowded to over comes down to breakfast with a newspaper in her hands. And what do you suppose almost to a man, and even the onghoys of the big dry goods houses, of course. She from as far out as the Yellowhammar and dwells and comments on every form of the dvertisements with the serious interes

"I say, my friend," said a tensailer from good, when $2 would have bought not only Maine, "one you tell me where there's a life posts but his everlasting gratitude."— The performance had been seeing on for some with important vision when the yellow-haired tenor appeared. He came upon the stage with unstendy, stumbling stops. His yellow hair was tossed about and his face was drawn will some deare with a crash.

been issued for a new election.

the expanditure of several millions. Now ling?" she said.

Mr. McMillan (Huron) drew attention to | "Oh, yes; I will." gate to the Maritime Provinces. He anything should happen to my boy ? said this report was suppressed by the Gov- Oh, nothing will happen to me, rament, and only brought to light when | ling." the Opposition insisted upon its production. rade relations for his province with the Inited States. Mr. Mills (Bothwell) drew attention indian Affairs, which he claimed, demanded on to a car while it is in motion." of the large amount expended on salaries, yourself, darling." no less than $560,000 being paid out in this way, out of all proportion to the services | time." rendered. He was confident that the efficiency of the service could be increased and $100,000 wiped off the salaries. The service had no other purpose than to pension off party followers on the public | Wen't you miss me ?" treasury. In one agency the amount distributed among the Indians was less than | minute. half that paid the white men for salaries.

payment of salaries to unnoccessary "Oh, George !" Mr. Dewdney, replying, said he was dis as he usually profited by his criticism, but a way ?" he feared he could not upon this occasion. He contended that the expenditures alleged | so much attention." the strict supervision of the Indians, with attract, and I-I-have to cry !" It must not be forgotten that the agencies were spread over a vast area.

under this head were not all upon com-Mr. Foster said that already the commercial agency system had been established in France. The representative of Canada there had been instructed to send in a report hanges. In Britain the immigration agents were also made commercial agents. There were two agents in the Leeward Islands, one in the Windward Islands, one in Jamaica, and one in British Guiana. The v next mail. He was making arrange- | you, darling?" ments also with a view to establishing a were not extravagantly paid. The system was admittedly an experimental one. The The House resurred in Committee of Good-bye." late Premier, Sir John Macdonald, has the baby been out of his arms for the last few days and nights, and all that time he has barely closed his eyes for an inpublic men who had passed away, he could not be men who had passed away, he could not be men who had passed away, he could not be men who had passed away, he could not be men who had passed away, he could not be men who had passed away, he could not be men who had passed away, he could not be men who had passed away, he could not be men who had passed away, he could not be men who had passed away, he could not be men who had passed away, he could not be men who had passed away. not fairly object to this item. But Canada Minneapolis Times. to-day for fear his absence would disturb the had lately lost a great man, one of her paby. The baby's dead now. That's all, ablest statesmen, one who in his (Mr. Laurier's) estimation, stood as high as the late Premier. If this policy was to be pursued, onsisting of Jack Bates and the cowboys, the liberality of the Government and the entered the room where the yellow-haired Mr. Foster said he agreed with the view taken of the late Mr. Mackenzie. The Louis Chronicle. Government had considered the subject of a monument in his memory, and would con- magnificent proportions; "I don't object 12.4 per cent. Of the native population in sider it further, but they did not reach such to my size, but I simply can't bear that 1891, 77.7 per cent. were born in the Proa conclusion as would justify a vote being word!" Another woman has not the least vince and 2.2 per cent. in other Provinces.

asked at this time. Mr. McMullen said that though Sir John | called a "spinster." Macdonald had ruled the destines of the try as a good thing, but many regarded it with the remark : rather as a misfortune. It was not right to ask political opponents to contribute to a monument of a dead political leader. Mr. Foster said such references to Sir spirit, and he thought were unworthy of the not! I can't bear it!"

The item passed. Mr. Foster promised to bring down on like it. Monday the report of the recent conference at Washington.

the sections except those reserved at the former sittings for further discussion, and a more elaborate flourish than usual, it must be clipped off to start with; but when toe rose and reported progress and asked Mr. Mulock asked as to the truth of the statements he had heard that the Governbequired a new and added dignity since the clare had seen him last.

"Air they thar?" asked Jack Bates, anx
"Air they statements he had heard that the Governacquired a new and added dignity since the | burned fly or moth is left in the lower part | ment had had an inquiry made into certain reservoir. A clean, unbroken lamp is not had been enquiring into the amount due to nice?"

satisfaction, and went away in some haste. | culty as to exports was that Canada put moved the hen from the spot. In a minute proved that goods could not be sold by one It was because she recognized this principle that Britain's foreign trade had grown to Remarkable are two epitaphs, the first of bad examples. city of Sacramento: "Here is laid Daniel your neighbora. Borrowed little from Nature except his for a bubble speculation to redskins; who was nevertheless a gentle- | concerning other people. at last went under, beneath the bullets of I tell you everything he knows. Morris, did so in the sure and certain hope treats other gentlemen with courtesy.

of a glorious and everlasting morrow." The Or with your lover because he mit other, which belongs to a Nevada burying common sense with love making. place, is such a noteworthy achievement in To go in debt because the shopkeepers this line that it may fitly conclude our com- have confidence in your honesty. - Cincinpilation of a few of the curiosities of epitaph | nats Enquirer.

iterature: "Sacred to the Memory who was kind to All and Thought Ill of none. He Lived in a Strange Era, and was a Hero, and the Wheels of his Coach are now Ringing on Golden Streets.' A Veccousin Bolls Fighting. "And you went a penalon?" "That's what." How long ware you in the war ?" " Well, sir, I was married long in '6 an' peace ain't been declared yit; so you kin jen' calkilate fer yerself !"

She-Just the thing t Inever did believe laundry marked 'Sarch T. Borer,' I draw the long engagements. -"Oh, minery!" cried the editor "What's the matter new?" "I just throw a post out of the window, and his wife, who was waiting for him below, has presented one of our insurance component the cashier's deck. He had it on him! Another $500

A detective from Soutland Yard, Londo is in Quebec, looking up the autecedents Dr. L. M. Queen.

Mr. Haggart presented the resolutions in | ful days." like had gone to the station to | could accomplish in the death-dealing line favor of railway subsidies of which notice see him off, and was clinging tightly to his when one of the Ninth street and Concy had already been given, and which have arm as they walked up and down the platform waiting for his train to back into the derkilt avenue horse care on Ninth avenue, the report of John McQueen, British farm | "Oh, you must. What would I do if

Mr. Colter followed in a plea for free | kill me if anything should happen to you." "You foolish little girl to be so fond of me. But I'll be all right." "Be so careful getting the administration of the Department of cars. Promise me that you won't get off or that the horse car was knocked completely | Scotland's claim to the honororable fulinvestigation by the House. He complained "Oh, I won't. You take good care of "Oh, I shall just

" Shall you mist me so much !" "Mian you ? Oh, George !" " My durling !" " The minutes will seem tome like years! " Miss you? I shall think of you every " You dear old boy ! Mr. Mills concluded his address on the | train coming in ?" ndian Department management, criticizing "Yes."

' You must be a brave and atrong li le ppointed in the hon. gentleman's speech, | "How can I when you are go-go-going-a-"There, there, don't ory ; you'll attract to be extravagant were in fact necessary to | " I .- I -- don't care how much attention I out which the Indians would retrograde. "No, you mustn't. Come now, kiss me " Oh, George I'

promptly dismissed.

PATENT MEDICINE PROFITS.

The Manufacturer's Friend is the Fellow who Buys the Second Bottle.

Native Born and Other Canadians.

Native born in every 10,000

Newfoundland .

other Bri ish possessions European countries

Native born, Not native born

The End of a Long Suit.

None but the Brave, Etc.

"Why," she exclaimed, "how corupt

"I can't do it," he snapped. "This is a

And so they were married and lived hap

Ethel-Old Mrs. Matchmaker has found

Ethe -No. She simply said, " Is it

Time for Action.

Mrs. Brown-I know it is. But I see

On the Other Post.

"The Irish are incapable of self-govern

Little Johnnie-It's early yee, ma.

"Will you marry me?" he ou are! You won't give me time."

husband for Miss Frestique.

beautiful and rich.

Born in England.

of the druggists the other day.

On the item, commercial agencies $5,000, " Good-bye, darling." Mr. Paterson asked for an explanation, "You'll be so careful ?" for, as he understood, the expenditures "Yes, yes. Good-bye !" "And you'll be sure to come home Fri- family on. The druggist pays 60 cents for ment, "Oh, I'll come home all right. Good-"Good-bye, darling." " Good-bye.

"Oh, George, how can I let you go?" "You must, my pet. Good-bye." Jamaica, and one in British Guiana. The "Good-bye, my treasure boy. Wave first reports of these officers were expected your handkerchief from the window, won't "Yes, yes. I must go now; similar agency in Yokohoma. The agents ringing. Good-bye." New York Herald. "There, there; don't cry. Bye, bye! "Good-bye. Be just-as-careful-as-

"Good-bye !" he shricks from the car ate Premier, Sir John Macdonald,
Mr. Laurier and that it was to be the window as long as the train is in sight, and each nationality according to the birth- but no more willing to be called English

Too Expressive Words. One is sometimes startled at the discovery of a new and most disagreeable force in a House should not be confined to one side of single word, when that word is ap, lied to nimself to characterize some unpleasant fact of which he has long been aware, says the St. "Don't call me fleshy!" said a lady of 79.1. In 1881 the figures were 77.6 and lishman of the present day. Instances

Not long ago a pretty woman in the thir- native and foreign born population in each a deeds of Englishmen done to maintain Engcountry for a quarter of a century, this was | ties announced her intention of taking a | Province in the two periods : not regarded by all the people of this coun- somewhat extended trip alone, and ended "An old maid like manual n't peed an

Then Marjorie, the little maid of the family, New Brunswick. 299,154 burst into a torrent of tears. "You're not | Nova Scotia.... 423,890 412,589 25,506 27,983 Ontario......1,710,703 1,493,509 403,618 429,719 John Macdonald did not show a generous an old maid, auntie!" she wailed; " you're "But I am, Marjorie," said her aunt, aughing; "why, it's a nice thing to be. "Oh, but you're not, you're not !" cried Marjorie, as she rushed off to the study to French Canadian population is not increasask, passionately : "Papa, is auntie an old ing in a greater degree than the English mittee on the criminal code, and passed all maid?" "No, dear," said her father, sooth-That proved wondrous comforting. The enquire sweetly and in a tone so innocent of the whole in 1881 and only 7.03 per cent. dicular sides of rocks or piles by means of

On the item $103,000 to subsidize three lines of steamers from Halifax and St. John lines of steamers from Halifax and St. John to the West Indies and South America,

Mr. Landerkin asked if the trade with sir. Did he shoot himself, or "You have supported and held to the west indies and stance, which are applied as the patent should live. From this mussels from a distance, which are applied to every interstice of the stone work. The him any encouragement whatever?" "No, himself, or "You himself, or "You have supported and held to the west indies as the patent should live. From this mussels from a distance, which are applied to every interstice of the stone work. The himself, or "You himself, or "You have supported and held to be trial bottle free to Fit cases. Send to Dr. Kline, where the patent should live. From this mussels from a distance, which are applied to every interstice of the stone work. The himself, or "You have been discov—" "No, papa. Has as the patent should live. From this mussels from a distance, which are applied to every interstice of the stone work. The himself, or "No, him any encouragement whatever?" "No, papa. Has as the patent should live. From this mussels from a distance, which are applied to every interstice of the stone work. The himself, or "No, him any encouragement whatever?" "No, himself, or "No, himself, or "You have been discov—" "You have been discov—" "You have been discov—" "You have been discov—" "No, himself, or Mr. Landerkin asked if the trade with sir. Did he shoot himself, or ____ "You to the Court of Appeal, and both appeals gether by the strong threads these Mr. Landerkin asked if the trade with the West Indies was growing in a manner rejected him finally and irrevocably, did satisfactory to the Minister of Finance.

Mr. Foster replied that it was improving.

Mr. Landerkin quoted the trade and navigation returns to show that from 1875 to 1877 pected that you had rejected him when I to the Court of Appeal, and both appeals were dismissed with costs by the unanimous valves spin, and the law makes it a crime, judgments of the courts appealed to. The defendants' solicitors then took the case to the Supreme Court, where it was argued that it awful! "Yes, it's awful. I susting the show that from 1875 to 1877 pected that you had rejected him when I had done to day." "Oh Lynch Law Among Rats.

Lynch Law Among Rats.

Lynch Law Among Rats.

Lynch Law Among Rats.

In the neighborhood of Burley the other day a gentleman looking over a wall saw a dead hen in the field. Presently a rat ran dead hen in the field. Presently a rat ran dead hen in the field. Presently a rat ran dead hen in the field. Presently a rat ran dead hen in the field at the defunct fowl with much a satisfactory state of affairs.

Lynch Law Among Rats.

Lync

Don't be in Haste. To break off an old and tried friendship. Or contract a new and doubtful alliance. | gled to know that this long and stubborn like the other." To give advice without being asked for it. | fight is ended at last, and in their favor.

To spend your salary in advance of earn-To make love to more than one woman at To give up a reputable business to dabble To blame your children for following your which is said to be upon a tombatone in the To take part in the difference between cash transaction." Borrow, who was born in Sorrow, and To give up a safe but plodding business pily to a good old age. name and his love to mankind and hatred ! To accept the scandalous stories you hear man and a dead shot; who, through a long To quarrel with your wife because she defence or by accident; and who, when he Or with your husband because he doesn't lot of questions when she was told of it? his cowardly enemies in the saloon of Jeff | Or with your sweetheart because she man?" and when she was told it was, she

> Brow a Line at the Shirts. The husband of Mrs. Sarah T. Rorer, the tooking lecturer of this city, is a mildmannered gentleman, who is contented to don't think he caught many fish to-day. sink his personality, mind his own affairs, and let his wife travel about and gather fame unhindered. He broke over the traces | New York Times, when he burns into her presence with his arms niled high with a fresh delivery from the laundry. "This thing must aton right have " man his arms his a man his a greeting. "Why, what is the trouble, The man who always agrees with you may asked his sponse. "Trouble! be a pleasant companion, but when you trouble enough !" he retorted, his voice | want advice go to someone else.

Wentthy, but-ob, My ! Mes. Pry-Thone Watkinses Mr. Pry-Why ! How so ! Mrs. Pry-They never give a beggar any hing-never.
Mr. Pry-Do you?
Mrs. Pry-No; but it isn't because haven't plenty.

The searlet fever epidemic in old Lon-growing man poster a

Britain's Glory,

resolutions numbered sixty, and called for "You'li write every day, won't you, dar- driver. Fortunately there were only diaregard of the national soutiment of four passuagers on board, two of whom smaller nationalities is part of their car came thundering along behind. At that custom against which we protest has point the latter runs on the same track as sprung up. We have no idea of relinthe borse car. Robert A. Sharkey, a quishing that which is our own, or any lawyer, who has an office in the Jefferson idea of demanding a repeal of the union. milding, was riding on the front seat of On the contrary, our demand resolves itmight. It would the trolley car, and he says the motorman self into this, that the spirit of the treaty happen to you." was talking with the conductor, who stood should be observed. We have therefore no on the step. For this reason he did not see intention of submitting to domineering prethe horse car until he had run fult tilt into tensions which have not a shadow of a it. The force of the collision was so great | foundation to rest upon. off the track and turned sideways, and Kon- | fillment by England of these treaty obligaboard, the fall seriously injuring his hip. land's share in the work of the United cry all the Both horses were thrown to the ground, one Kingdom is considered. Who built up of them falling directly in front of the this British Empire? What was its con-

"If it does," he added, "the manufac- and never did. Our loyalty is due solely to

In Ontario in 1891 the native born population was 80.9 per cent. and foreign born the stirring memories of unconquered ancestors that inspires them " to do the deeds of

The attempt to merge Scotland in Eng

Contrary to the general impression the speaking. In 1881 the French Canadians

the Supreme courts and in the courts below. | ling on the elevated railroad. " Put on Several shareholders of the defendant com- airs, but when I get you there won't be any pany live in Hamilton, and they will be airs, and one of you will look pretty much Maud-I suppose Miss Frostique asked a fem." Cooking by Observation. Perhaps you don's use enough coffee.

Did you measure the water ? your father coming down the street, and I Huh! Who ever heard of measur water? All cooks pour right out teaksitis. I've seen 'em often-se there. He Bida'l Care. iveres wouldn't hold water.

A Becomerang.

Young Van der Million—Wouldn't it be rare fun for us to become engaged just for the summer, you know?

She—Just the thing t Inever did believe the first tender of the summer of the su

Ocot. Elemann Gleis, of the Commission of the Co

he Scotch Chim Equal Share in Great

BUT AKE SOUTURNESS FIRST. Mr. Laurier protested strongly against station. Both of them were as selemn as between 10th and 1th alrests, and made to they would have been had be been exiled to one of the horse. The wrecked horse car little disposition to regard the feelings the large sum and upon so important a question. Siberia and was about to start for that was in charge of Conductor William habits, and the ideas of others," is exerted to sum in the charge of the session. The delectable country. that so many members were absent, and so many others were preparing to go, it was quite impossible that these questions should be fairly and fully discussed.

Yes, indeed. And you must write me a second for a smoke ; you know, and of the arts for which Englishmen are hall at 16th street and Ninth avenue, and of the arts for which Englishmen are hall at 16th street and Ninth avenue, and of the arts for which Englishmen are hall at 16th street and Ninth avenue, when the trolley ignorance of historical facts that this ignorance ignor > motor, which could not be stopped in time. I dition at the time of the union? Save a The struggling animal was struck, and as few islands in the West Indies and the the wire underneath the motor touched him | plantations in North America which were the circuit was completed, and it was afterward lost through criminal folly, shocked to death. Mrs. Murphy was found | there were few possessions. The rise of to be suffering so intensely from the shock | the empire dates from the union. Our that a physician had to be sent for, and he Highland regiments, which have fought considered her condition critical. At the so valiantly in every part of the world, did office of the trolley company it was said so to maintain the honor, not of England, that a strict investigation would be made, but of the United Kingdom. Go where and if the accident was found to be due to you may and you will find Scotsmen occu- you dear fibber, you are just too good for sah, and you will oblige me now by nomithe motorman's carelessness he would be pying foremost places and doing more than anything '?" their proportionate share in adding to the lignity and lustre of the British name. | your whiskers as she did so." Why, then, insult Scotland by speaking of Britain as England, ignoring Scotland and what she has done? No difficulty is experienced in using the proper names in all dip- cuse me, kind sir, while I shed a pearly "A patent medicine that is retailed at lomatic correspondence. Why not in all $1 a bottle must not cost the manufacturer | references common to both? In all matters more than 10 cents a bottle," declared the affecting the British Empire we inventor of a medicine at a scoret meeting | acknowledge but one interest-and regard to loyalty, we owe none to England, turer won't make enough to maintain his the British Crown and the British Governlately a politician had the audacity to the preparation. That leaves an apparent Yes, indeed. Good-bye, sweetheart." margin of 50 cents a bottle to the producer. declare that Scottish nationality had ceased myself. I know the symptoms which have "Good-Oh, I shall be so anxious about But at the start, the advertising will cost to exist. To declare that Scottish nation- frightened you. But take my advice, old him 75 cents a bottle, leaving a deficit of 25 ality had ceased to exist or is a mere dream fellow. It is your only chance now." cents. In other words, it costs about 75 | without an object is to deny history and to | "In heaven's name, tell me!" cents to induce one man to buy his first fly in the face of fact. We possess and "Sneak down stairs, crawl stealthily cherish glorious historical tradition unsur- along the hall, then suddenly burst open "The profit lies in the fact that the man passed by any other nation on the face of your door, bound into the room, whoop like doesn't stop at the first bottle, but keeps on this earth. We are bound together by a swild Indian, roar out for your hat and buying it and advising his friends to buy it. name with which are associated the stirring coat, bawl out something about off for the A medicine has to turn the corner, as it memories of a thousand years. For cen- Black Hills and farewell forever; then were, before producing it pays. Some of turies the Scottish people maintained their | wildly dash down the fire escape, and join the concerns collapse while they're waiting individuality against powerful invasions me here on the corner. I will take care of for the citizen to buy his second bottle. from without and the efforts of kingcraft you for the next two weeks." from within, and they have retained that individuality after living for nearly 200 years under the same Government with may have forgotten." Census Bulletin, No. 11, which deals with another nation seven times as numerous and in spite of the influence of an absent Court and the nationality of the population of Canada, has just been issued. The component parts | Legislature. Scotemen are willing to unite On item $10,000 for a monument to the window. She waves her handkerchief ex- of the Dominion are shown with the other nationalities in constituting "English disease."

> We further protest against another usur pation in being robbed of the fame of great names and the memory of brave deeds. Great Scotsmen-great in politics, in science or in letters-are often classed as 6 Englishmen. The leader of Her Majesty's | Gen. Booth says that nine-tenths of the Opposition (Mr. Gladatone) we have been evil that he has to fight against in the lived. The leader of the House of Com- drink. mone (Mr. Balfour) is the noblest Enginnumerable might be multiplied. word! Another woman has not the least | vince and 2.2 per cent. in other Provinces. | Britons afterward—but Englishmen never ! | The mobile achievements of our Scottish called a "epinater." The following table shows the numbers of land's honor. What is England's honor > > deathless fame " which honor the British of a birthright of inestimable value. Every public man so acting, we declare, stands performed by totaller among them."—The Youths' TemSend stamped envelope for particulars to Ben.

> > Lomand, advertising manager, San Francisco, self-convicted of a deliberate wrong. The perance Banner. union neither did nor could denationalize un.

A Tunkee Tale of Bideford Bridge. Some folks have a curiously interesting universal acceptance and approval of the ingly, "not at all. She's only a postponed were 30.1 per cent. of the population of the way of relating facts, or of intertwining pleasant liquid fruit remedy, Syrup of Figs, whole Dominion, but in 1891 the per cent- sober facts with flashes of imagination. The last the most excellent laxative known, age had fallen to 29.4 percent. The greatest following appeared in the Washington Star, illustrate the value of the qualities on which trated catalogue and terms. tears were speedily dried, but auntie herself changes have been in Manitoba and the and has been copied into other American its success is based and are abundantly was somewhat electrified when a caller Northwest Territories. In the former the papers: "It is very interesting to see how gratifying to the California Fig Syrup Company.

The mussel manages to climb up the perpenthe direction in which the animal wishes to perusing a newspaper is certain to miss a control of climb, each one being fastened a little newspaper contains more accurate inform- profits to pushing People. Send stamp for higher than the last. Thus the heavy shell attended to the condition of the needle than particulars to Dominion Silver Company "Tell me, my daughter," said Mr. Munn, with some anxiety in his manner, as he led his only child to a seat in the parlor. Company of Paris, an action to company of Paris, an action to company to company of Paris, an action to company to company to company of Paris, an action to company ment insisted upon delivering an address of welcome.

The last to leave the coach was a small, pale-faced, yallow-haired man, who bore in is arms a little bundle. It might have been a roll of clothing, or it might have been a roll of clothing as well as the parker of most valuable on the subject up to this time, nor had he account. At the town of Bideford, in the parker of company, of Paris, an action to compel the defendants to pay royalties on a patent. "You would hardly imagine that so small a condition of reade. Occasion when suspending an unusually large victim.

Mr. Foster said all be could say was that the parker of reade of the defendants to pay royalties on a patent. "You would hardly imagine that so small a condition of reade of the defendants to pay royalties on a patent. "You would hardly imagine that so small a condition of reade. The haddle of the condition of reade. The planting of this is to be found the best instruction as to the parker of each of the dorn of the dorn on the condition of reade. The parker of the dorn on the subject of twenty four been a roll of clothing, or it might have been a baby,
The yellow-haired man was assigned a little room in the "L" of the hotel, on the first floor. He placed the bundle on the first floor. He placed the bundle on the been and, softly removing the wrappings.

To prevent chimneys from cracking, put

The secures a clear, steady of the interval as night as possible, which is the solicitor and Messra. Crerar & Devonshire, is a long bridge of twenty-four even and any extended verbal statement of the cover in the subject up to this time, nor had he subject up to this time a long as possible. The defendants is a long but wants to the best advantage, but he did he not propose marriage to you? "Yes, but he did he not propose marriage to you?" "Yes, but he did he not propose marriage to you?" "Yes, but he did he not propose marriage to you?" "Yes, but he did he not propose marriage to you?" "Yes, but he did he not propose marriage to you?" "Yes, but he did he not propose marriage to you?" "Yes, but he did he not propose in the subject up to this time deven mate to the went in the subject up to this did he not propose marriage to you?" "Ye

A bevy of bright and haughty damsels had poarded the train at Twenty-eighth street and their bearing annoyed the undertaker. I new don't sneer at the poor old undertaker, either. I never saw a proud looking corpse in my life, and I've buried thousands. No difference, sir! The millionaire in the ion-box and the pauper you couldn't tell apart, Put a Precident or a Senator in the morgue and I defy any one to nick them are for paralysis, solution related to the pauper of the morgue and I defy any one to nick them are for paralysis, solution related to the pauper of the morgue and I defy any one to nick them are for paralysis, solution related to the pauper of the morgue and I defy any one to nick them are for paralysis, solution related to the pauper of the morgue and I defy any one to nick them are for paralysis, solution related to the pauper of the paralysis and the pauper of the pauper of the morgue and I defy any one to nick them are for paralysis, solution related to the pauper of the pauper and I defy any one to pick them out from the other people there.

"That's what I think always when I see people putting on airs. It doesn't worry Dr. Williams' Pink Pills stand unrivalled.

Mr. Newweded-This coffee is as weak said, " Let him bring a preacher along with | sa water again Mrs. N .- I can't account for it, my dear. No matter how careful I am, it's always the have only cups of china. I can give you Mrs. Brown-You'd better harry to bed, Nonsense. I put in a whole half cupful, to drop a cube of sugar into the receptac and everybody says that's plenty.

> Wool-Joblets is married again, and his Van Pelt-What did he say ? not ; they are going to Kentucky to live.

This in the settlement of the controversy because to nurse when they are not hungry. If kept warm, dry, clean and quiet most obligate and had his eye injured, was almost as unfortunate as Mr. Gladstone, at whom a woman hurled a "chunk" of gingerbread.

The looking for a guested with lighted the analysis against conditions that are in-

WOUNDS on HORSEES or CATTLE Caledly Healed. Popoly Cure GUARANTEED If you use TEXTAR HALL WARM. done by Mail on receipt of Pelco 25 Cents, By C. F. SEGSWORTH, TOBONTO, CAN. AGENTS Wanted Every miner. TENTIMONIALS.

for Once Are Correct. made bold to say to his male guest "My dear fellow, suppose we so out on prictor of the hestely noticed a fine fight amall flats there are no verandas." In these ing cook strutting about the etreet. When they arrived on the roof he turned, held up a warning finger and mid : "Shoo! Don't give me away,

" Why, what's up now !" "I'm after information. Will you awar everything without equivocation ?" " Go ahead." " Did you notice the bird in the cage ?"

water." " Did you notice that the pet poodle had pparently been given fresh meat, and that | city. here were no papers scattered around the

" Did you notice that the children all had on shoes and stockings ?" "That the hired girl had the soup hot?"

Billie 't" "She did, three times; and each times he I member what you staked against my rooster, smiled aweetly." "And-and that once she said : "Oh, | real Yankes trick I ever experimented with, She said that, too, and she coyly pulled | Chicago Mail.

" It is that ! " "Well, then, I am lost for good. Ex-"On my neck," said the other man, they embraced in the moonlight. "You understand, old fellow?" sobbed the first man, as he clung tighter. " I do that ; yes, of course."

"And you won't leave me for

"And in the meantime ?" "In the meantine, dear old chappie, she Temperance Notes. In Damascus drunkenness is known as the the World's Fair, through their President, than the English would be to consent to be Mrs. Palmer, have endorsed closed gates on Sunday and no liquor. Mayor Fleming, of Toronto, is trying by do away with the slot machine, a device by told is the greatest Englishman that ever | social department of his work is caused by profit on their goods, and the retailers over 100 per cent. This is hard on the man who Scotsmen they are in the first place. drinks, but harder on him who doesn't. receiving the attention of well-known in its. BARNARD BROS, 36 McCasi statesmen and journalists in England. It is them but a name and nothing more? It is drinks in order to raise the fund necessary, and as the drink traffic is the cause of so large a portion of poverty and want, this ply the materials. Send stamped envelope for particulars to Beu. Lomand, San Francisco, suggestion is exceedingly appropriate. A governor of Cantarbury jail once remarked: "I have had 22,000 prisoners through my hands since I have been the WANTED, each county to > Gratifying To All. The high position attained and the > Advertisements Are News. The man who skips the advertisements in Prudent Mother-I trust, my dear, that you do not encourage young men in Daughter-Oh, dear me, no! I threaten to tell you every time any Little Johnny on Managing Girls. I like girls. Some boys nt, but that's because they doesn't know how o manage 'em. Girls gets tired of ything so any other Real Estate, or forfelt $125. quick that all you got to do is to et 'em | Send stamp for reph have their own way till they gets dof it an' then you can boss 'em all the res of the day. I guess womens is the same way. 476 Myrtle Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

What Makes a Prohibitionist? One of the lofty lights of the Prohibition "I tell you," he said, "when I bury them they all look pretty much the same. but whiskey and still be a Probibitionist."

atism, female troubles such as suppress me in the least. I remember the time when Beware of imitations and substitutes. Sold PENNYROYAL WAFERS the undertaker will be laying 'sm out and when a live newaboy will be worth fifty of 'em."

Beware of limitations to mail post paid on by all dealers or sent by mail post paid on receipt of price—50 comto a box—The Dr. Williams' Med. Co., Brockville, Ont. The Retert Courteeus.

Tramp (to Salem Girl)-Can't you me a cup of coffee ? Salem Girl-No; some coffee in a cup, however. Tramp-Thanks, miss. And please be kind enough with a spoonful of bovins juice.

When the clocks tolled twelve strokes last night and the first day of July made its appearance, nearly 150,000 Pitteburg workmen, who had toiled almost incenmantly during the past year, were out of employment. The scale in force during the Delrote past year expired at midnight, and in all the mills, the proprietors of which had not signed the scale for the cosning year, work Wood-Didn't care whether it would or | ceased authory at that time. All was quist | at Homestrad and in the city to day. The streets were filled with idle men, but the best of order prevailed.

WON THE CRICKEN.

s Puzziod the Lover to Recollect the Op-Two years age a Chicago drummer stopped at Decator, Ala., and while sitting on the broad botel pirsts talking willi the pro " Yep," replied the hotel keeper, "both these parts I reckou." "I'm something of a chicken fancism

"So? Glad to know it sah." " Tell you what I'll do-I'll play you a game of seven-up for that rooster, remarked the Chicagoan. "Do it with pleasure sab," replied the

The cards were produced and the drum-mer won. The rooster was turned overto him and was brought to the world's fair A few days eg, the Chicagoan again registered at the same hotel in Decatur. The coprictor immediately recognised him. 'Aren't you the man who played me a

" Wall, I've been thinking you know, sah, I've never been able to renating the sort of poison you prefer,"- month. Is he making a good match? Mrs. B .-- I believe his fiasco is in every way auited to him.

Mrs. A .- So George is to be married next

SOOTHING, CLEANSING, AND SAVES HEALING. Instant Relief, Permanent Cure, Failure Impossible. Many so-called dispuses are simply symptoms of Catarrh such as headache, losing sense of smell, foul breath, bawki and spitting, general fooling of debility, etc. If you are roubled with any of these or rindred symptoms, you have Catarrh, and should lose no time procuring a bottle of NASAL BALM. Be warned in time, neglected cold in head results in Catarri, followed by consumption and death. Bold by all druggists, or sent, post paid, on recent of price FULFORD & CO. Brockville, Ont.

first-class subscription books. Send for illus

WILLAM BRIGGS. Publisher, TORONTO

AGENTS

MILD CLIMATE, GOOD MARKETS and good land from $5 to $20 PER ACRE with improvements. Send for our circular.

PYLE & DEHAVEN, Petersburg, Va. CLORIDA'S ADVANTAGES FOR SMALL I investments. See Florida Real Estate Journal, Arcadia, Fia. Sample and map 180,

J. W. CURTIS, Whittemore, Mich. Please mention this paper when writing A spectile morthly medicine for indictor restore and regulate the inerceasureducing free, healthy and painter discharge. No aches or pains on approach. Now used by over $5,000 ladie. Once used, will use again. Invigorate these organs. Buy of your droggie only those with our signature acrossing these of label. Avoid substitutes, feeled particulars oscillate to stamp. $1.00 pc. less. Address, EUREKA CHEMICAL COMPANY.

FREE

BRID UP CAPITAL, $18,000,000 nada or lifexico, without security. If you need manay, apply to Local Agents or write PO HENRY L. HAUPT, President BUTTE CITY, MORTANI

Agents PEGS Wanted.

This is a great encount, millions of feet now in ose. The clother cannot Brow ove. Free Cheulars. TARBOX SROS.

73 Adelaide St. W., Toronto. Bost, Excluse to Dec. slid Chestpark. CATARRH Did you ever really know a woman too busy to run to the parlor window to look at a neighbor with a now had?

game of cards two years ago for a rooster ?" quite a powerful lot since that time. "That my wife addressed me as 'my dear

Young Mr. Fiddleback-Is Miss Redbuck at home ? Servant-She is, sir ; but the minister ! talking to her just at present, sir. Fiddlebeck-Oh, all right. Don't wake

ISSUE NO 28. 1892.

Advertisments kindly mention this paper which boys still obtain eigarettes in defiance ally solicited. Fancy work supplies of all kinds. CHEAP FARMS IN VIRGINIA

NOTICE

I will sell your House, Farm, or ALFRED COLES, Real Estate Agent,

ILLUSTRATED MACHINE CATALOGUE WAR ENRILL

Agents Wanted Everywhere