VOL. VIII. NO. 31.

GEO. G. HUTCHESON & CO.

We want to engage your attention about our Dress Goods Stock. If you have any thought of buying a dress you ought to see it. We are told repeatedly that there is nothing like them in Brockville for style and value. Ladies are good judges, and when they pass judgment it is generally correct. We have all the new makes and styles in Dress Goods, and some lovely new patterns in Challies. We will show the stock with pleasure.

Our stock of Spring Carpets has all arrived. As usual it is the largest selection you will see in this section, probably twice as large as any other stock. It comprises all grades of Brussels, Tapestry, Wool, Union and Hemp Carpets, also Velvet Carpets, Matting, Carpet Squares with border all around, and Floor Oilcloths. Tapestry Carpets range from 30c. to $1.00 per yard. Brussels Carpets at 85c., 95c., $1.00, $1.10 to $1.25. Borders to match a great many patterns. Also Stair Carpets. Prices guaranteed as low or lower than the same quality of goods can be bought for, either in Brockville or in the city. We tell no false about our goods; we guarantee them as represented or money refunded. We solicit the favor of a call of inspection. Carpet laying and making attended to when desired.

STORE NEWS STORE NEWS

We live in an age that is distinctly progressive.
Business is competitive. It is aggressive; that is, modern business.

It used to be that merchants bought as much of anything as they could pay for and held it at a profit until sold. Sometimes it took years to sell what should have changed hands in a month or two. The seasons were ignored and advertising considered as expensive. Things are different to-day. Stocks are cleared at intervals and nothing allowed to grow old.
Out they go, and we encourage quick buying by reducing prices for this month.

To-day we will apply the pruning knife to all kinds of Prints, Sateens and Cotton Challies. This stock must be cut down and prices will be made to suit each and every buyer.

CHARLESTON LAKE.

Rock-Sided Emerald-Crowned—the Peerless Beauty of Many Rivers.

Long before Leeds County had a name, the lake of the Charleston Lake fishing spread throughout a large section of country, and the Indians and early pioneers were supplying their larder from its crystal depths. Then, too, on its wooded shores the red deer roamed in immense numbers, so that it must have been, to use a somewhat hackneyed phrase, a veritable "sportsman's paradise." But as settlement increased the deer were either slaughtered or driven back until now scarcely a trace remains of that noble game, save occasionally are found bleached and weather-worn antlers that have withstood the test of time, or when the fact of their past existence is pleasantly impressed upon a visitor while listening to the stories of Charleston's "oldest inhabitant," "Uncle Riley."

The deer have passed away and the pristine glory of the fishing, but enough of the latter remains to endow the lake with an irresistible charm for disciples of "the gentle Isaac."

The lake is very deep, and contains no marshes. There are, however, what the fishermen term "deep weed-beds," and it is while anchored at one of these that the majority of fish are taken with the rod and line.
Many of the anglers look with disdain on this method of catching bass, and lure their fishy favorites with a fly cast ahead of the boat while being rowed slowly along the shore. A good idea of the sport to be had may be formed from a consideration of the kind of fish to be found in the lake, and we here give a partial list: Salmon, black bass, white fish, pike, Oswego bass, rock bass, musk fish, perch, trout, bluegill and many others.

The lake is the property of the United States Government, but it is the first national lake, and the only one of its kind in the world. It is a great source of recreation for the people of the United States, and it is a great source of food for the people
