We'd moved late their neighborhood a little An, as I now remember it, I hadn't seen But anyhow some circus fellers came alor An put up bills 'stsaid 'at they was going to be I'd jest ask 'Liza if she'd go to see what she

It happened ever thing went right For pass he told me I should go an' he'p thar An' when the dinner hour come I sort o' hung A'chance to ask her ; an' her may she said abe guessed she could An' mebby all that afternoon I wasn't feelin' An aggeria up how long 't would be till me and her d go-Jest me an' her, an no one else erlong-to Put on the very best I had-it wasn't An' driv my rig to 'Liza's house, an' nervous-A waitin' fer her at the gate, my heart a-thump-That when she come along by me she must heard, I know. Au' I remember wouderin' if each beau ; got The first time 'at he tried to take his sweetheart anywhere. As 'Liza come a trippin' down the path she stopped to pick Some pink an' yeller roses growin' all about so You could get a bushel of 'em, an' she pulled off' Inever since that day have looked upon the Peace to her dust. Long. happy years we ourneyed side by side, An' yet it seems but yesterday when she become my bride.

The pink and yeller roses in the summer breezes Above the spot where she's asleep, her soul at An' when I close my eyes, at times, I fancy 1 Her standin' by the pearly gates awaitin' there While all the happy scenes of life through An' angel hands pin roses on the lapel of my WATERMAN NIXON.

Your Mission. (A poem that was asked for.) If you cannot on the ocean Sail among the swiftest fleet, Rocking on the highest billows, Laughing at the storms you meet You can stand among the sallors Anchored yet within the bay ; You can lend a hand to help them As they launch their boats away.

If you are too weak to journey Up the mountain steep and high, You can stand within the valley While the multitude go by ; You can chant in happy measure As they slowly pass along, Though they may forget the singer They may not forget the song.

If you cannot in the conflict Prove yourself a soldier true, If where smoke and fire are thickest There's no work for you to do-You can go with careful tread; You can bear away the wounded, You can cover up the dead, If you cannot in the harvest arner up the richest sheaves, Many & grain both ripe and golden May the careless reapers leave : Go and glean among the briers Growing rank and the wall, For it may be that their shadow lides the heaviest wheat of all. Do not then, stand idly waiting

For some gre ter work to do Fortune is a fickle goddess, She will never come to you; Go and toil in any vineyard. Do not fear to do and dare, If you want a field of labor You can find it anywhere.

At the Pound. Shaggy dogs and hairless ones, roubled dogs and careless ones; umble dogs and blooded ones, Dainty dogs and muddled ones. ordial dogs and surly ones. liny dogs and burly ones; lively dogs and lazy ones. iet dogs and crazy ones. Ugly dogs and pretty ones, country dogs and city ones; oreign doses and native ones. oble dogs and caltiff ones. Gentle dogs and anappy ones, Whining dogs and happy ones; Paupers dogs and wealthy ones, Scurvy dogs and healthy ones. Cautions dogs and curious ones, rightened dogs and furious one :logs of high and low degree. Howling, yelping to be free : Spaniel, pointer, cur and hound,

Three Elsses. The purcut kiss In the world is this-The kies that a mother lavs On her child's fresh lips As he bitthely trips To meet the world and its ways.

The sweetest kies In the world is this-The first long kiss of love. hen time is not And the earth's forgot, And Eden drops from above.

In the world is this-The kiss on unanswering clay han dead lips tell amust sob farewell Till the cawn of the Judgment Day.

The Fot Weather Annual. Oh, for a lodge in the garden of encumbers! Oh, for an iceberg or two to control! Oh, for a home in the vale that the dew cun Oh, for a pleasure trip to the North Pole! Oh, for a soda fount sponting up boldly From every hot lamp post beneath t Oh, for a malden to look at me coldly And freeze up my soul with a glance of he Oh, that this cold world were twenty times That's irony, red hot, it seemeth to me! Oh, for a turn of its dreaded cold shoulder! Oh, what a comfort the ague would be! He Never tiets There. Ha is always in a hurry.

He has always " lots to do,"
It's a treat to see him scurry.
As the streets he dashes through. He is ever wildly working, and his energy's immense; He talks scornfully of " shirking "-

Mows about his diligence. He's a painful, brainful moller,

And this martyr of a toiler Is the man who's always late.

A Most Unhappy Weman. "Mary Queen of Scots was a most unhappy woman, wasn't she?" inquired a thin man of a friend on a Woodward avenue car | and the shamp made her wondrously lovely "Indeed she was," replied the other, "Queen Elirabeth was also a wretched aresture, waen't she ?"

" Very wretched, I should say, if history to to be helieved." " Then there was Catharine"-" What are you driving at, anyway?" broke in the man who was being regaled with the names of the unhappy women of "I was just about to remark," continued unhappiest woman in this world does not present she is the most wretched women on | parative strauger. he face of the earth." "What's the matter with her-ahille ?"

"Lumbago" broke in the other. band bought her a twenty-dollar bonnet"

"That was not it as all. She was na "And what do you want me to do?" "That was not it as all. She was as happy as a bobolick in a June meadow until she tripped and fell going up the front purps and fractured her aboli. She is now lying in bed, unable to wear the hat, and by the time she can wear it it will probably be out of fashion. I tell you it is sad to watch her looking tearfully at that bonnet, which she had adjusted to a bedpost, Talk about the unhappy women of history! Why, she is more unhappy than any ten of them put tegesher."—Detroit Free Frees.

"And wheet do you want me to do?" she had be show the folly of running the risk of harm, and to deter thoughtful persons from exposing themselves to a dauger so easily noncert."

"I see what you mean," she said with a joyous leugh. "Mre Van Renseler shail sing at it, and you will bring my brother."

The concert was to be of the most distanced.

The concert was to be of the most distanced.

The concert was to be of the most distanced.

The concert was to be of the most distanced.

The concert was to be of the most distanced.

The concert was to be of the most distanced.

The concert was to be of the most distanced.

The concert was to be of the most distanced.

The concert was to be of the most distanced.

The concert was to be of the most distanced.

The concert was to be of the most distanced.

The concert was to be of the most distanced.

The concert was to be of the most distanced.

The concert was to be of the most distanced and articles and with a popular and articles.

The concert was to be of the most distanced and articles.

DECEPTION

He Was Oured.

She was a Pole ; and when I saw her, I, who had been astonished at Van Renseler's | submitted to my fraud. marriage with one who was not an American, swallowed my surprise completely. To call her charming would be by no neans doing justice to ber. Besides this she was in the very bloom of Jersey City until close upon 8 o'clock, youth, while Van Renseler was much about | However, we got to the door of the hall the slowed-up train. The trolley doesn't An so I got to thinkin' an' made up my mind shady side of 40. I was surprised, for I and, in consequence of the crush within knew that the Colonel when a boy had lost and around it, we were unable to enter. his heart to a French singer who had run | Wo could merely see the surging and goods. There's no place to hang a baby away with him, only to turn away from him | heaving mass of heads before us. Then carriage or tie a dog on the flyers. Travel away with him, only to turn away from him heaving mass of heads before us. Then a year late. After which he became a minanthrope and fairly hated music. I had entered the Academy of Music be tween the first and second acts of the opers, when the first person upon whom my eyes all in the corridor was the Colonel. Rushing towards me he peized both hands and shook them heartily.

" How are you, my dear old boy ?" "In capital health, as you may per-ceive, Eugene, and delighted to see you again, after your having so long left me in doubt as to your continuance above It seemed ez though the day'd never come, but

At this moment the second act was about o commence, and he said : " Come with me to my box and I will introduce you to my wife. As he uttered this he opened the the box and we entered. Adelaide Van Renseler looked around with her finger upon her lip and a saucily nutinous expression, as soon as she her husband's step. Renseler seated himself upon the opposite side of the box. A married aister of the colonal's, whom him. A very cordial greeting had been in- actor in private life. The nicest o' the lot—an' come a-smillin' up to

The nicest o' the lot—an' come a-smillin' up to

For a moment or two I might probably note from have envied Eugene Van Renseler his posithe thir.

tion as a married man had I not chanced to turn my eyes towards him. There was the fellow who hated music, An', oh! the sight I got of eyes, an' checks, an' who only endured it " for Addie's sake," | wants you to compliment her. When Liza pinned them roses on the lapel of as he had just told me, with his eyes closed and a ridiculous expression upon his face of the most supreme delight, listening to Nilsson, and beating time lowing morning, his wife told me the the time. gently upon his knee to the aria she was

When the curtain fell the Colonel turned round, just as his wife folded up the programme of the opera, on which I had seen her scribbling a few words with the little jewelled pencil-caseattached to her bracelet, apphed it into my hand. After Eugene had invited me to dine with hem, he bade me offer my arm to his wife, and, appropriating Mrs. Corby to himself,

As the Colonel, with his sister, preceded Mrs. Van Renseler and myself, I felt her The children who have to think of their little kid-gloved fingers tighten upon my arm like a vise. " You must not fail me, Major." Shortly after they were whirling away. Crossing the corner of the square stepped up, so as to catch the light of a lamp, and read the lines traced upon the programme : "Come to me to-morrow at 12 o'clock. Eugene will be away. Mind, you must A. VAN RENSELER," Precisely at noon next day I sent up my card to the wife of a friend.

I was not long before the waiter returned and asked me to step upstairs to Mrs. Van Renseler's apartments I he had been charmingly pretty the night before she was exquisitely so now." 'Come nearer, Major," she said, slightly coloring. Then she pointed to an attoman near the centre window. She turned to her maid. "Go into my bedroom, Rosalie, and wait there until I call you.'

No sooner had she said this than she placed herself in a fautenil immediately " And so," she began, " you are Engene's oldest and best friend in New York. really fancy I may compliment him on his With a profound bow I placed my hand with any question I may ask you, and to " Children's Rights," by Mrs. Kate Douglas answer as truthfully as you can ?" "I promise, " Have you and Eugene had relations together in many affairs?" She colored a little, but upon my soul reddened to the very roots of my hair. "Wait a moment," she impetuously contiqued, "before you answer. Do not imagine that I am asking you about my husband from any foolish curiosity. It is because Eugene is making me very miser-"When I became the bride of Eugene had only known him for five weeks. He met me, procured an introduction to my parents, and won my affection-oh, no, the whole of my heart ! were passed in Italy. They were to me divinely happy days! It was long before I noticed, while he took me everywhere else, he never took me to the opera. One day I told him I should like to have a "And what did he say ?" I was compelled to inquire. " He tel i me in a cruelly hard voice h detested music in every shape and must leave me if I insisted upon 'squalling' t him. I thought Eugene 'really detested music,' as he told me he did !"

"Then you don't think so now ?" " How can I? You were watching him last night. And now, my friend, you must allow me to put my question in a somewhat clearer and narrower shape." I had almost forgotten the question to which she referred, and was searching my memory for it, " Has Eugene ever had an affair with any vocalist before he met me ?" How the dence had she managed, at her sge, to stumble upon the idea of such a How could I reply to her? friend some twenty-eight or thirty years, yet she had wheedled me into passing her my word of honor to answer her " Will you tell me, Mrs. Van Renseler, how it was the Colonel came to take you to the Academy of Music last night? Did you ask him to go ?" " Certainly not," she replied, with a look of perplexed wonder. "When he came it before dinner he told me, if I liked to go he would take me." " And where had he been in the morn I only know he had an engagement with his aister on some business. "How of en have you seen Mrs. Con

Some three or four times." " Have you thought of telling her what

The color came scarletly to her cheeks, "I have been very wrong," she said pen tently, "but I thought you as a man could tell me so much more of his life in what I wished to know than it was possible ah "So," I said, rising and extending my hand to har, "you will permit me to bid yo

"You forget, sir, she exclaimed, " your parole d'honneur is yet unredeemed. " May I not ask you to trust me for three weeks, Mrs. Van Renseler? " If you do not choose, sir, to te

"I presume, madam, you would prefer appear in history. Now, I've got a mater- having the answer to your question direct in-law named Martha Tobbs, and just at from your husband rather than from a com-" Can you promise that to me ?" " If within three weeks he does not tell last week her hup- | Ten minutes later she allowed me to de-

you all, I pledge myself to be your infor-

This did away with the chances of pro-

But the reheareals ! About a week before the concert was come off I was summoned to Washington | trolleys, Buffale, N. Y. There are more of who had recently returned from on business. I heard the Colonel announce them than anywhere else ringing outside Europe with his last year's bride, his intention of visiting that city before St. Joe's tower, and the Chimes of Norwho had recently returned from | on business. I heard the Colonel announce had given me a cordial invitation | Congress should adjourn. What could be to dipe with them on the follow- more natural than that I, as a friend, should Monday, after having intro-ask him to accompany me or that he should accede to my request? I could corroely help laughing in my sleeve as I saw how amiably the Colonel sleeve as I saw how amiably the Colonel Cold Spring, but there's little "good-by, my tower, good-by" in the business now. People must make their adicux before the car arrive in ample time to attend the concert. Comes. There's no time to kiss and The train on which we had started was | awap dates of future meetings or arrange for considerably delayed, and we did not reach | correspondence after the tang tang of the he same age as myself, and I was on the some time after the second part had begun, | wait like the old red car for travellers to get of smoke. somsone in the crowd said : " Here she is again."

And such a thundering storm of applause rang through the audience ! Next, a few notes were played by the belis, except the last signal in starting, prohestra, and a pure, clear resonant voice | which is the one the motor man has to do ross through them in Bellini's beautiful in- with. Sometimes a green motor man starts vocation, " Casta Diva." Although I was unable to see from whom | rear cars. Then the train starts up with that voice came, I knew it rose, bird-like, someone on the step. A lady came near yet human, from the throat of Mrs. Van being thrown from one of the through trains 1,600 men.

My wandering thought was recalled to are clear enough, however, and the motor profit of 250 per cent. on the actual present by the voice of Eugene | man will learn to wait his bell every time. | money invested. Van Reneseler, whom I had for the moment covered up so completely in my mind as if he had no share in the present. "So this was the cause, Major, of your ready to start, two sharp tinkles are heard trip to Washington. I have to thank you from the rear car; then two from the and my sister for having made me a thorough | second forward, then two from the third, I turned myself as soon as I could, but

I sank into a chair behind her, while Van looked around, but he was nowhere to be his brake and turns on the power he When I rose on the next day I felt a qualm or two regarding the net result of had long known, occupied the seat before my first appearance in Washington as an The arrival, while I was at breakfast, of a this signal is transmitted all through the

the Colonel was no longer behind me.

note from the Colonel, sent by hand, set train to release all the brakes. Then there a pink one at one end for a 3 cent fare, and It ran thus : " Come, old fellow, and dine with us at 6 a white one at the other end for a 5 cent this evening, sharp. Mrs. Van Renseler fare, "all in the presence of the passenjare," and the punch for the transfer

" EUGENE VAN R." Need I say I was there, and before I left the cars are open and business is good, one them in the "wee sma' hours" of the fol- can "hear dem bells a ringing" about all Colonel had abandoned his sensitive secretiveness, and confessed his unworthy and unhappy marriage. - Exchange.

Give the Children a Chance to be Natural | when a long train comes swinging around As to keeping children too clean for any mortal use, I don't suppose anything is more disastrous. The divine right to be gloriously dirty a large portion of the time, when dirt is a necessary consequence of direct, useful, lendly contact with all sorts of interesting, helpful things, is too clear to be denied clothes before playing with the dogs, digging in the sand, helping the stableman, working in the shed, building a bridge, or weeding the garden, never get half their goes on. legitimate enjoyment out of life. And oh unhappy fate, do not many of us have to bring up children without a vestige of a og, or a sand heap, [a stable, or a shed, or a brook, or a garden ! Conceive, if you can, a more difficult problem than giving a child his rights in a city flat. You may say that neither do we get ours ; but bad as we are, we are always good enough to wish for our children the joys we miss ourselves. Thrice happy is the country child, or the ginger and a quarter ounce of cream one who can spend a part of his young tartar. Over these pour five quarter life among living things, near to Nature's boiling water. Let it stand, and heart. How blessed is the little toddling lukewarm add a tablespoonful of brewers thing who can lie flat in the sunshine and yeast, which must be quite fresh. Stir drink in the beauty of the "green things this quickly together a short time and growing"; who can live among the other then leave it until next day to fer little animals, his brothers and sisters in ment. Skim off the yeast, and having feathers and fur ; who can put his hand in carefully poured the liquid from the sedithat of dear mother nature and learn his ment it may then be bottled for use. Take first baby lessons without any meddlesome care that the corks are good ; just before middleman; who is cradled in sweet using put them into boiling water, and, sounds "from early morn to dewey eve"; having placed them in the bottles, let them lulled to his morning nap by hum of be firmly secured with wire. This quantity crickets and bees, and to his night's slumber will make rather more than a dozen bottles, by the sighing of the wind, the splash of and will be ready in two days. Another waves, or the ripple of a river. He is a part of the "abining web of creation," learning to spell out the universe letter by letter, as he grows sweetly, serenely, "Will you promise not to be annoyed into a knowledge of its laws. From When it has remained until lukewarm, Wiggin, in August (fiction number) Scribner. What Mothers Should Do. As the boys grow up, make companions of them; then they will not seek conpanion-Respect their little secrets ; if they have concenlment, worrying them will never make them tell and patience will probably I that the women who are agitating the ques- | most elequent. Allow them, as they grow older to have No, my positive friend, you will rise at this opinions of their own; make them indviduals and say that these other women are under low tone not to distract the attention of the and say that these other women are under low tone not to distract the attention of the analysis and say that these other women are under low tone not to distract the attention of th

both mind and body. sible for your child's inherited character, I tate all you wish at club meetings and at | to the one whose list is made up of the and have patience with faults and feel-

Talk hopefully to your children of life and its possibilities ; you have no right to your club, but in your home, at the side of depress them because you have suffered. Teach boys and girls the sctual facts of life as soon as they are old enough to understand them and give them the sense of responsibility without saddening them. Find out what their special tastes are and dreds of women to-day if they would be a spoke in a very high key.

Special tastes are and dreds of women to-day if they would be a spoke in a very high key.

Special tastes are and dreds of women to-day if they would be a spoke in a very high key. develop them, instead of spending time, little more old-fiashioned in this respect. money and patience in forcing them into studies that are repugnant to them. As your daughters grow up teach them at least the true merits of housekeeping and cookery; they will thank you for it later in life a great deal more than for accomplish Try and sympathize with girlish flight w fanoy, even if they seem absurd to you ; by Let your trouble tarry till its own time ;

your daughters, and not teach them to seek sympathy elsewhere .- Detroit Free Press. catablishment where a dezen giggling girls, | but go along. - Sunday Magazine, and as many rural awains were suppling cooling drinks and asked ; 'Would it be possible for me to get a glass of beer anywhere in this town? " No, sir,' was the prompt and emphatic reply. 'We do not will beer or any other intoxicating drinks in this place.' " As he spoke he passed a glass of sod water across the marble counter to a simpering miss, and, turning, drew an amber-colored liquid from a barrel which stood beside the soda fountain, and passed it over to me, remarking: 'Yes, sir; this 'ere's a probibition town through and through. Nothin' but soft drinks sold here."

" As I surrounded a glass of an good book beer ; but I'll have to make the best of it. Let me have another glass of that-that Coldwater isn't a first-class place, but ta 'ginger ale' beats any brand that Fever atruck may where else."- Chicago Mail.

Wattont's Bangerous Ruce Trielt. Another once is reported, mayo the Boston Courses, in which a woman has probably lamed because for life through the habit so enerally prevalent among women, the trick of shutting bureau drawers with the knee. net made her more unhappy then Mary friend of mine.

Queen of Scots was, when his discovered Contequently I had no difficulty in con- tomed to do it. The instances in which that her neighbor had one that cost thirty fiding to her all that Mrs. Van Remeeler evil results, are of course not large in number dollars." in comparison to the number of persons who do this; but they are sufficiently numerous to show the folly of running the risk of harm, and to deter thoughtful persons from emporing themselves to a danger so easily avoided, yet of consequences so serious in reason for atologing work. Keep your

The orange was originally pear-shape and about the size of the wild cherry. I evolution has required 1,200 years.

THE WORLD OF LABOR.

THE BUTTALO BELLS.

he Trelley and the Trailers and the

Buffalo Nesca : It is a pity that Edgar Chines of Bells.

Pos couldn't have postponed dying long enough to hear the bells on the Main street

mandy are not in serious competition with

There's lot of fun " watching this train go round the bend," when a yellow trolley with, two or three trailers swings through leader is heard and the dust cloud envelops

up and make a breakfast and pack a picnic

basket, or for shoppers to stop off and match

That is to say the signals are all double

Trains are stopped and storted on double his car on hearing the bell from one of the ings back one bell to his conductor, and

The system is necessarily imposing as to

A HOT-WEATHER DEINE.

Two Ways to Make Ginger Ale and How t

earthen pan with juice, which must have been previously strained; one pound and s

quarter of loaf sugar, one ounce of bruised ginger and a quarter ounce of cream of way : Two ounces of whole ginger, bruised

two pounds of loaf sugar, the thinly pared

rind and strained juice of four lemons, over this pour two gallons of boiling water.

spread a toast with yeast and put it is

Let it stand all night, then bottle it off.

Managing a Husband.

manage a husband is not at the meeting of your husband and with your children.

The Uselessness of Worry.

Youths at the World's Fair.

Provision has been made for the holding in Chicago at the time of the World's Fair,

of a congress composed of youths of al

France, Germany, Norway, Sweden, Spain,

school grades. Their ages are to range between 13 and 20 years. No World's Fair congress has been thus far arranged for, it is thought, that will excite move interest than

tude : it is a nuisance to himself and makes | me things that no livin' human mortal coul-

him a nuisance to all that are about him, of told her about me."

to get under way

two-bell basis.

A $1 bill costs 3 2-10 milis. Artificial quinina is made. Michigan has 115 enit firms. Coreans wear paper clothes. Teath are pulled by electricity. Dublin has the biggest brewary. Moscow bas a 443,772-pound bell. An electric machine counts coins. Textiles are made from pine leaves. spenish America has produced the

New York makes 2,000,000,000 cigarettes

China's foreign trade last year aggregate $250,000,000. An express engine uses ten gallons is business now, and business is done on a water per mile. A lamp shows the interior of while under steam.

New York women since 1809. Two-fifths of the companies started annually in England are said to fail. The Manufacturers' Building for the World's Fair furnishes employment to over trains that way this morning. The signals | Many coffee planters in Mexico make a

There have been patents granted to 646

When the care are open, as now, the A New Yorker has made a clock which uccession of tinkles is interesting. When contains 34,000 pieces of wood, comprising a train of three or four cars is at a stop, about 325 varieties.

ocean it will not rise again on account of the great pressure of the water. and the conductor of the trolley proper Among the most recent uses to which gives one sharp bell to the motor man. The brakes are released in the same | electricity has been applied is that of trans Forcing my way to the top of the stairs I order. When the motorman releases mitting photographs and drawings by wire Scientists say that an average man of 154 outs down his beel twice on the alarm pounds weight has enough iron in his system bell, and this he repeats most of the to make a ploughshare and enough phostime as he goes along. When he sees a phorons to make 500,000 matches. passenger and wants to stop his train he A recent test of brick made by the dry clay process at the Watertown Arsenal, according to Paving, showed an average compressive strength of 3,972 pounds per square are two fare registers with bells in each car, I nch. The end of another hundred years may tickets rings a bell, and, all in all, when it is not a fit metal to do so. The longest railroad is in Canada-the Canadian Pacific, the main line of which is nearly 3,000 miles long. The company congeneral effect, though not at all intricate, trolling the largest mileage is the Atobiand it is ever so much better every way son, Topeka & Santa Fe ; it contains 7,384

than calling out signals of any kind. But | miles. curves, swaying with the motion like a throne once used by Queen Hatafu, who regarded with superstitious awe by the more atring of sleepers, one looks to see a brake- flourished in Egypt 1600 B. C. It is made | ignorant of the natives, over whom she man lean off the side of a platform as the of ebony, beautifully carved, and is so could undoubtedly exercise great influence procession slows up and wave his arms and | hardened with age as to appear to be carved | were her morals not so notoriously bad. call out " All right," as the train prepares from black marble.

There is juterest enough in the new ransparent during the process of manufacsystem of trolleys and trailers to keep the cure consists, according to the Industrial cars loaded for a few days with people a stream of oxygen gas, the enormous hoat breed Indian doctor exercised over he who don't want to go anywhere except generated oxidizing all deleterious materials. when she was a child. She says she will just for the cake of going and seeing what John J. Taylor, of Streator, Ill., once wrote 4,100 words on the blank side of a postal card without artificial aid. The words on that single card, if printed in regular newspaper type, would fill two and three quarter columns of any of the great This is a beverage at once healthful and metropolitan dailies. refreshing in warm weather. Thinly peel two large lemons and put the rinds into an The results given out by some of the tapperies of France using the electrical be married to a young Chilian of considermethod show that there is accomplished in ninety hours by this method what would require from seventeen to eighteen months by tanning in a vat and from five to six months by process of agitation.

John Good, the cordage king, lives at Far royalties on the rope-making machinery which he invented. He worked at the trade following specimen : of rope-making in an ordinary rope-walk.

PROGRESSIVE CONVEMSATION. A New Social Entertainment Which

Very Enjoyable. A progressive conversation party is takes a numbered card from a backet in the cnough to have you, This quantity will make about four dezen hall, the women picking from one basket, the men from another. Every woman takes one of the pair of chairs, and the man who holds a corresponding number becomes her We hear a great deal nowadays about the companion for the opening tete-a-tete, Bok in "AtHome With the Editor" in the Agust Ladies' Home Journal. But I notice to gain or "eyes discourse that the women who are agitating the open.

found the secret of " managing a husband," a slip of paper the three subjects he has way or another, that which owes its being Bear in mind that you are largely respon- and you have not. Prate all you like, agi- found most interesting, and the award goes to us. women's gatherings, but the secret will not | three winning topics. Twenty to 25 subjects thus be found. The place to learn how to make a sufficiently long list. Got Just What She Wanted. I was sitting in a depot waiting-room or That's the old-fashioned ides," said a pos- day recently when two women came in an

tive woman contemptuously to me the other | sat down so near me that I could not hel day. Yes, thank God it is, my friend, and hearing everything they said, particular it would be better for the happiness of hnu- as the one who did nearly all of the talking seated herself, "I've been to see Madan C-, the clairvoyant, and it was perfect Worry is the one thing not needful. It wonderful what she told me, perfec belittles a man and makes him petty ; it | wonderful. They needn't no one try to te writes its mark in furrows and wrinkles, me hereafter that there ain't nothing and filehes away his strength and forti- clarryvoyance, for I know better. She to

"What did she tell you?" asked th so doing you will retain your influence over climb one stair at a time; that is the other woman eagerly. best way to get to the top. We do not " Well, the first thing she told me ignorant of what is coming that it is said don't think you're a single woman. The minnit body and soul does not cry out: "Why, ignorant of what is coming that it is said don't think you're a single woman." The unforseen always happens." And don't think you're a single woman. The minnit body and soul does not cry out: "Why, ignorant of what is coming that it is said don't think you're a single woman. The minnit body and soul does not cry out: "Why, ignorant of what is coming that it is said don't think you're a single woman. The minnit body and soul does not cry out: "Why, I went into the room she says, says she, if the says you suffered me to be!"—Mrs. Kate says I, I ain't. And then she went of bave you suffered me to be!"—Mrs. Kate says I, I ain't. And then she went of body and soul does not cry out: "Why, I went into the room she says, says she, if the says you suffered me to be!"—Mrs. Kate says I, I ain't. And then she went of body and soul does not cry out: "Why, I went into the room she says, says she, if the says you suffered me to be!"—Mrs. Kate says I, I ain't. And then she went of body and soul does not cry out: "Why, I went into the room she says, says she, if the says you suffered me to be!"—Mrs. Kate says I, I ain't. And then she went of body and soul does not cry out: "Why, I went into the room she says, says she, if the says you suffered me to be!"—Mrs. Kate says I, I ain't. And then she went of body and soul does not cry out: "Why, I went into the room she says, says she, if the says you suffered me to be!"—Mrs. Kate says I ain't. And then she went of body and soul does not cry out: "Why, I went into the room she says, says she, if the says you suffered me to be!"—Mrs. Kate says I ain't. And then she went of body and soul does not cry out: "Why, I went into the room she says, says she, if the says you suffered me to be!"—Mrs. Kate says I ain't. And then she went of body and soul does not cry out: "Why, I went into the room she says, says she, if the says you suffered me to be!"—Mrs. Kate says is night with a sigh. "Coldwater is a nice Am I not right in saying that the troubles than I s'posed anybody knew. She told me town-for people who like just that sort of we most feared passed over like swift I'd have trouble with a dark complected town. It is a 'dry' town-nothing stronger clouds, while the things that really troubled woman, and I know just who that is, keeping, many of them could become clerks than pop is sold. I had walked about a us were not what we expected to happen? and she told me to look out for a light and bookkeepers instead of trying to get dozen miles on the Fourth, and was tired Do not cross the bridge till you come to complected woman, and I know exactly mearly to death. When I got back to Coldwater I was so thirsty that even pop, which usually nauseates me, seemed to be a drink fit for the gods. I belted into a code-water

it; it will be in sound enough condition,
for God does not give men tasks to which they are unequal. Everything will fall into that is, and she warned me against
for God does not give men tasks to which they are unequal. Everything will fall into
that is, and said I'd get an important letter are remunerative. The two or three cocuare remunerative. The two or three cocuare remunerative. The two or three cocuare remunerative. The two or three cocunearly to death. When I got back to Cold- it; it will be in sound enough condition, who that is, and she warned me against soon, and she thinks I'm to go on a journey pations which are considered genteel for the attendance of the family doctor, and by ten or twelve years, and that we must often a demand for girls as feather workers, two nurses on the side of the bed to keep both look for a certain person with black or for average II trades such as the making brown eyes and dark hair, who would do us of jewelry, surgical instruments and simi-any injury she could. I know who she lar manufactures were taught here in techmeant. Then she said we were likely to nical and industrial schools like those of inherit a large fortune scon from a totally paris, girls would receive better wages than unexpected source, and that it would upset they do now. Even now girls of equal ability nations of the world. Delegates will be sent, it is expected, from England, Japan, us a bit to get it. She just went on in that Austria, Italy, Russia and countries of the way telling me more things that I'd no Orient. These young men are to be selected idea anybody on earth knew. I know there from the high schools and the grammar-

> Free Press. Without going further back then thereig to have 5,000 at the congress, and a special ture of palaces and the houses of nobility the other hand, commerce with France, small number of Parisian bits of furniture from the workshops of leading French arti-

contrary, only the simple and common oak franciscre of the time of James II. was to be anniversary, china; twenty-fifth anniversary, cotton; the morning pour off the jules and bulk it stand all night; is continuous pattern, the like of which anniversary, which anniversary, linen; fortieth anniversary, moden; the morning pour off the jules and bulk it think; adding allows anniversary, golden; anniversary, golden; and let it beil till it is thick; adding allows of lemon and grass ginger improves it.

The nouses of the finding classes, on the post of them, and put comething on the plate to press down tight, and let it stand all night; in the morning pour off the jules and let it beil till it is thick; adding allows of lemon and grass ginger improves it.

The nouses of the finding classes, on the plate to press down tight, and let it bein till it is thick; adding allows of lemon and grass ginger improves it.

The nouses of the finding of the plate to press down tight, and let it bein till it is thick; adding allows of lemon and grass ginger improves it.

WOLSELLY NOT AN IRRESPEAN.

The General says He Loves Ireland But is Not One of Her Sent. Ganaral Lord Wolseley has written the lowing letter to the Rev. David R. Wilof Kirkmaiden, Wigtownshire with reference to a heroic poem : "DEAR MR. WILLIAMSON,-Thank you very much for your dedication of your Irish poom to me. "I am circid I cannot claim to have a drop of Irish blood in my body; and my grandfather was the first of my belongings who was born in Ireland. We are a Stafedshire family, and come from Wolseley, where we have been for at least three or four centuries before the conquest of England. I am very fond of Ireland and of the Irish people, among whom I was brought up. I have been very little there, however, since I was a boy, I remember seeing the Chicago has a society for the prevention book you refer to years ago, which gives an account of my boyhood full of inaccuracies. But life is too short to correct all the non-sense that is published about one now-adays, and I have no time for such work, even if I had the inclination to put busy-

44 Irish history is wrapped in obscurity. One thing only is certain, that there never and solved the problem. You know the was a kingdom of Ireland. No man ever | plebes 'at the Point have to walk for the ruled there until we conquered it. At pre- first six months of their unhappy existence sent the only presperous part of Ireland is | with their arms close, palms of hands out that region where the people speak broad and little fingers on these ams of their trouser Scotch, and have Scotch names, and are legs. This discipline puts the shoulder blades Protestants like the Scotch.

" My family's connection with Ireland be- and military carriage adored by those who gan with a Colonel Welseley who fought in love gold buttons. the Protestant North and won some hardfought battles there, as you will find in Fort Keogh to Tampa Barracks is the result Macaulay's History of 1689-90. Our Irish of the swell girl trying to acquire a mili-Wexford, Carlow and County Dublin. We palms out—where the seams of her trousers used to be on very good terms with our ten-ants; but now I hear from my cousin, Sir World. Clement Wolseley, that none of his peopl ever go near him " Mr. Gladatone knows as much of Ire land as I do of Timbuctoo. With best wishee, I remain, very sincerely yours,

MAS SHE THE SECRET?

Remarkable Chilian Who is Supposed to Have the Sceret of Perpetual Youth.

left Cunningham & Curren's wharf to-day " Perhaps the most remarkable woman in he world lives in Santiago, Chili," said on her mission. Robert A. Bonham, an American who has spent several years in South America. She is apparently a well-preserved woman ford, Guysboro', who is in charge of see aluminum the most widely-used metal of 35, rather good looking, spry as a girl, in the world next to iron and steel, but it is and is a pronounced coquette, yet it is tioned (and although it sounds like a "puff" never destined to supersede them because known positively that she is 80 years of age of a patent medicine it is worth noting).

In the world next to iron and atest, but it is known positively that she is 80 years of age of a patent medicine it is worth noting).

In the world next to iron and atest, but it is known positively that she is 80 years of age of a patent medicine it is worth noting). daughter who looks old enough to be her friend; "that is Captain McConnell, who mother. This remarkable woman is of is going after Esquimaux. I have known Spanish extraction, a native of Peru, and him for years, and he was that bad with her name is Boeckman, her second husband, now dead, being a German. Middle-aged people aver that she was a grown woman when hey werechildren, and that she does not look The oldest armchair in the world is the a day older now than she did then. She is She is passionately fond of dancing, has a A new method of quickly rendering glass musical voice, snappy black eyes, and a beautiful set of teeth. "She claims that she owes her wonderfu World, in forcing into the melted materials preservation to a charm which an old halfneither grow old nor die until the charm i broken. Some of the natives express the belief that she is in league with the devil She got into an altercation with a youn woman not long ago and out her seriously but the latter was afraid to enter con plaint against her, leat she should exercise some baieful influence over her. It is said that she has many admirers, and is soon to able wealth."-St. Louis Globe Democrat.

THE REJECTED LOVER

Tells How and Why his Sweetheart Dis- of Harvard College; Mr. Lyle Vincent, St. missed Him. London Tit-Bits lately offered a prize for guished naturalist; Prof. Gillette, New ten." The prize tell to the writer of the 50 Esquimaux, with dogs, kematicks, rates. Reopens Sept. 19th. " Mabel was the object on whom my osities from Esquimaux, land. The schooner heart's affections were centred. I was sure is a handsome modes, so tone, my love was reciprocated, bit a coolness sailer. John Silver & Co. furnished the Brantford Ladies College arose, not to say indifference, which was supplies. received in answer to my request for an " DEAR SIE, -I decline to create in you prevent their guests from sinking to the a false hope. You can afford to go to post-office in favor of Miss Margaret J. theatres, sources and other places, but on mamma's birthday you could not even buy woman of 21. L. O. Landers, a grizzled, depths of plain conversation. In describing theatres, socrees and other places, but on chairs are arranged through the rooms in her an umbrella. With best wishes to you farm on Vashon Island, near Tacoma. " I am, sir, yours obediently,

" MABEL --. Parental Responsibility. The parent whose sole answer to criticis tion are not the gentlewomen of this country. No talking across groups is allowed, and with you; let's meet as little as we can." and not mere echoes.

In any that we see the subjection of their husbands and are member that without physical health ment is worthless; let them lead free, happy lives, which will strengthen in the hearts of their mankind. They have lead free, happy lives, which will strengthen in the hearts of their mankind. They have lead force, happy lives, which will strengthen in the hearts of their mankind. They have lead force, happy lives, which will strengthen in the hearts of their mankind. They have lead force, happy lives, which will strengthen in the hearts of their mankind. They have lead force the interest of the in

We should all agree if put to the vote that a child has a right to be well born. That was a trenchant speech Henry Ward beecher on the subject of being born again; that if rank," says Washington Irving, " may be a gratitude, for a day or two ago he stumped receive bushels of mail. Send AT ONCE and could be born right the first time he'd take spare and a delusion, but hereditary virtue is a patent of innate nobility which far outshines the blazonry of heraldry."

Over the unborn our power is almost that of God, and our responsibility, like His toward us; as we acquit ourselves toward Why should we be estomehed at the warped, cold, unhappy, suspicious creatures we see about us, when we reflect upon the number of unwished for, unwelcomed children in the world ; children who at best were never loved until they were seen and known, and often grudged their being from the moment they began to be. I wonder if sometimes a starved, crippled, agonized human If the normal schools taught girls book-places as teachers, and when they find no women are overcrowded, while there is both look for a certain person with black or for example. If trades such as the making the nowing patient. make more money in factories than in stores, excepting the few who have positions of trest. Occupations like feather-making are not overcrowded. The only trouble is in the dull sesson, when there is lack of employment, but the wages when there is work are sufficient to enable a girl to get along are adept with tools you can make a whistle women in mercantile pursuits is undezirtrodes, it is less remunerative. The long of the heard to the other, you will have a favorable terms. Apply to hours that are exacted of saleswomen coompanied by any extra compensation.-

First anniversary, fron ; fifth anniver on until you have as much an you want to

ribbon counters

Manager—Ey dear child, that is no have, at once, a bottle of the best family reason for stockping work. Keep your place. System when costive or billions. For sale line, he will.

Pitts otspect free by Sr. Ritne's Mrs. C. Harper, Ottaws, Out., writes to Great Herre Restorers. No fits after first day's use. Mrs. C. Harper, Ottaws, Out., writes to Great Herre Restorers. No fits after first day's use. Mrs. C. Harper, Ottaws, Out., writes to Great Herre Restorers. No fits after first day's use. Mrs. C. Harper, Ottaws, Out., writes to Find a use. Mrs. C. Harper, Ottaws, Out., writes to Find a use. Mrs. C. Harper, Ottaws, Out., writes to Find a use. Mrs. C. Harper, Ottaws, Out., writes to Find a use. Mrs. C. Harper, Ottaws, Out., writes to Find a use. Mrs. C. Harper, Ottaws, Out., writes to Find a use. Mrs. C. Harper, Ottaws, Out., writes to Find a use. Mrs. C. Harper, Ottaws, Out., writes to Find a use. Mrs. C. Harper, Ottaws, Out., writes to Find a use. Mrs. C. Harper, Ottaws, Out., writes to Find a use. Mrs. C. Harper, Ottaws, Out., writes to Find a use of the system. I have pleasure in stating that your Pink day's use. Mrs. C. Harper, Ottaws, Out., writes to Find a use of the system of the system. But a use of the system of the system of the system. But a use of the system of the sys Mrs. C. Harper, Ottawn, Ont., writes : their use I have gained on an average a pound of flesh a week. I have recommended them to a number of my friends, who declare that they are the only medicine that they have ever used that done all that is claimed for it. Sold by all declara-

CORKS, GALLS, SORE SHOULDERS, SCHATCHES, OF ANY OUNDS on HORSIGS or CATTLE Quickly Braled.

HER LATEST WALK.

Why she Affects It.

down the ballroom, or the big hotel dining-waiters, in the seclusion of the servants

quarters, refer to her as 'the girl with s

She is atriving for a awashing and a martial

in place and gives the cade a the flat backs

"The gait that has puzzled me from off for the Labrador.

(Acadian Recorder, Halifax, N. S.)

Prof. W. M. Reid, J. D. Scomborger

Lyle Vincent and W. D. Vincent, arrived

by the Halifax last night. They are some of the party who go to Labrador in the schooner Evelina in the interests of the World's Fair to secure an Esquimaux village

with some fifty inhabitants and all appurtenances thereto belonging. The schooner

A Recorder reporter was talking to-day

asthma that he had sometimes to be held wood in a cord measure to take on board)-

Out of curiosity, the reporter secured an introduction to the captain, and after some

" And baven't been troubled since?"

A Polite Girl's Quandary.

counter, saying, "That's for you." Before jewelry shop an order for a diamond necklace and earrings for her, and in explanation he said to the shopkeeper that she was the only person who had ever spoken a kind

Reese, but Landers was not to be thwarted into her hand, remarked that it was something she could not return. Miss Reese, on deed for five acres of land, which, she has !

been told, is worth $600 an acre. She is at I

Indiscretions of the Tourist.

The sea air rouses a wolf of an appetite,

men who, the night before took pigeons and chicken, and claret, and Hock, and Burgundy, and Old Tom, and Cheshire cheese, and sardines, and anchovies, and grouse, and gravies, complaining that they felt minerable in the morning, and wondered what made them ill ! Much of the seanickness is an insurrection of the atomach

the attendance of the family doctor, and

Now to Make a Whistle.

Willow is about the best wood for whiatles, and from the time the sap begins to flow in the spring till it has produced the layer of wood which indicates a season's growth is the period during which the bark will alip easily. Select a small green shoot. Be sure that the notch in the top is the cavity within is long and deep. If you by boring a hole in hardwood, making the notch down to the hole and fitting a plug,

Watermelon Proportion.

long, put in a porcelain kettle, first a laver

of sugar then a layer of watermolon, and so

Pare off the rind, out in pieces two inches

calliope whistle.

*hall pursue. - Tacoma Letter.

word to him.

up on board his vessel "-(he was piling

" he is a well man, and he attributes it took, two after each meal."

covered after taking them.

" But last winter ?"

was about as bad as it could be."

thing about it.

to Captain Wm. McConnell, of Port Hi

" Well, I have found out what ails

Who on earth is that girl?"

walk on her.

room people stare not unkindly and ask :

busedy Cure GUARANTEED If you use TEXALS HALLSAM.

TOMONTO, CAN. AGENTS Wonted Everywhere. TESTIMONIALS.

The Girl Prencher. Louisville has a "girl preacher" aged 14 Where the Fashionable Cirl Got 25, 8386 whose professional card bears the legend Sanday meetings for men only," mays the indianapolis Journal. "Weekly meetings "I have solved a very puzzling question," aid a clever woman who had just returned open to both sexes. (Plenty of fans and ice from a military post.
"I have noticed at the several summer water.)" This parenthetic bit of informareserts and at Washington how queerly some girls walk, and oddly enough, in warm for her hearers, and supports the assertion of her admirers that her evangelistic power is truly wenderful. The phenomenon's widely separated parts of the country one comes across the same peculiar gait.
"When a girl afflicted with it slashes mother travels with her, but it done not appear whether or not that lady's sense of meetings for men only. A recently returned traveller says he saw outside. I was up at West Point last week | " Holyland, Floor & Heal," " Baldwillie, Trear & Co.," " Peace & Plenty," " Heavens," and many others equally as odd.

propriety permits her to be present at the

ISSUE NO 32. 1892

In replying to any of these Advertisments kindly mention this pape some of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that he And Conservatory of Music, Hamilton, Ont. ON SEPTEMBER 6th. Over 300 graduates in literary course alone, a talk about the expedition, remarked : " Is large and experienced faculty, University affili ation, thorough instruction in University work that correct, Captain, about your recovery as well as preparatory, in Music, Art, Elocu from asthma, and that you attribute it to those wills?"

"Well, I don't know anything else. I re- For terms address the Principal,
A. BURNS, S. F. D., LL. D. " No. Of course we will see what this winter may bring forth; Thaven't said any- | ALBERT : COLLEGE, Belleville, Ont.

iscipline, and the social advantages of a city.

"I began taking them in December, and found the change brought about in my con- Leads the colleges-enrollment 290. Largest of marticulants of any college is WILL RE-OPEN TUESDAY, SEPT dition, which Dr. Parker, of Halifax, said It isn't often that a patent medicine gets PRINCIPAL DYER, M. A., B. Sc. such a big boom in the incidence of newsgathering, as is furnished in the above ; but it is all set down just as it transpired,

The whole Labrador party consists of Meatrs. Tabor and Vincent, Prof. Reid, To 60-page Illustrated Catalogue free. Louis ; Dr. Baur, Philadelphia, a distin-Graduating Courses in Literature, Music, income is said to be $1,000 each day and the best letter from any man in the world Haven, Conn., and Hon. W. F. Ryder, Fine Arts, Commercial Science, Elecution. $1,000 each night. These sums are from descriptive was "given the mit- Quebec. They expect to return with about the pulldings and furnishings are furnished as a furnishing and furnishings are furnished as a furnishing and furnishings are furnished as a furnishing and PRINCIPAL AUSTIN, A. M., St. Thomas, Ont. kayacks, and a general collection of cori-

> The old saying, " It pays to be polite," And Conservatory of Music. has been illustrated again in the Tacoma Reopens September 7th, 1892. The most largely attended Presbyterian Ladies' College in Ontario, with students from Manitoba, British Columbia, Quebec and the The faculty consists of twenty members Although he lives the life of a hermit, it is a chiefly specialists, affording students superic believed that he is rich, for the Vashon advantages in Literature, Science, Madera fruit lands are among the most productive Languages, Elecution, Planeforte, Voice on the State, and his farm has been under tag, etc. For new calendar address cultivation for a number of years. He Rev. Wm. Cochrane, D. D., Governor visits the Tacoma office every week or two, and he always asks Miss Reese to get his their happiness is as important as your discussed as if, like embalming the dead, it nerves.

Respect their little secrets; if they have Rok in "At Home With the Editor" in the No. 29 Carleton Street, Toronto. Some months ago, after she had handed

A THREELING detactive Stories, 18 Com

JOURNAL one year. Best Stories and other reading for old and young. Regular price 50c, per year, but to introduce, we will send one year on trial for only one dime and also insert your name one year in the "AGENTS' DIRECTORY" which we send all over the United States to firms who wish to mail papers, magazines, pictures, carde, etc., as into the post-office and, thrusting a paper BELL, X 97, Boyleston, Ind., U. S. A.

opening the document, found that it was a WANTED, 500 Teachers to canvace first-class subscription books. Send for illus present in a quandary as to what course she trated catalogue and terms. WILLAM BRIGGS, Publisher, TOKONTO.

and nine-tenths of the passengers turn into DOMINION SILVER COMPANY meat-stuffers, writes Rev. T. De Witt Talmage in the August Ladies' Home Journal. From morn till night down go the avalanches of provender. Invalids, on their way to Europe for the cure of dyspepaia, are seen gorging themselves at 9 o'clock, at 1, at 5, and at 9. I heard 9 o'clock, at 1, at 5, and at 9. I heard | agonta. DOMINION SILVER COMPANY,

10 Cent Sample rainted Cushion Top. Hand painting done to order. Seed THE ! LADIES ART your own material or SEPPLY CO.," Tereste, Ont. ing for painting or embroidery dons.

ally solicited. Fancy work supplies of all kinds CHEAP FARMS IN VIRGINIA

And good land from $5 to $20 PER AORE. PYLE & DEHAVEN, Petersburg, Va. LUCKIDA'S ADVANTAGES FOR SMALL

Journal Arcedia, Fla. Sample and map 10c. not too large, that it is clean cut, and that silver whittled off on one side, at the mouth of the | 12,000 Of good Farming Landa, title per hole, letting it run back just even with the notch. If you make asveral of these whistles side by side in one piece of wood, the holes increasing in depth from one end R. M. PIERCE, West Bay Otty.

J. W. OURTIS, Whittempre, Milei Please mention this paper when writing pour neck Permanently Cured, en-close a Stamp and Send for Circular and price of medicine to Warse Than Murder. Burdette says that many people who would recoil with horror from cutting a human creature's throat, which really does It is so much easier to push a drawer to, will murder a woman's good name without Fifteen minutes later I was with Mrs. even when it moves with difficulty, by a remove or compunction; that hurta worse motion of the hard always been a capital motion of the hard street or compunction; that hurta worse than it is to stoop, that Rnew the Men.

ing, he will.

Salesgirl-I wish to recige my place. I'm opecial committee has been issued by A. F. the Elizabethan epoch and that of James I., Nightingale, Chairman, and F. E. Bliss, with some acquisitious from abroad, brought

All are entitled to the Mot that their

"Every time I see Mary in the park with the children there is a pollognan sitting with her." "A nurse male in the only "Why not?" saked the sebra. "Why not?" saked the sobrawagrant an officer moofs for a rook."

in something in clarryvoyance."-Detroit this project. The idea in to get from each, of Charles II., writes Meredith Jackson in even if she is idle a part of the time. Many glass and said: 'I'm sorry you don't sell country not more than from afteen to forty a paper in the August Peterson, it can be provide for this by learning two or three announced as a general rule that the furni- trades. On the whole, the employment of committee has been appointed to see that consisted chiefly of pieces transmitted from | able ; it is poorly paid ; it is not regulated proper encouragement is lent to induce generation to generation along with the hy hiw as it should be; and while it is conntrendence. The preliminary address of the landed estates, and belonging in great part to home by anomatorn, who have travelled. On | on Saturdays and at holiday times are not chiefly under Louis XIV., had introduced a Ida Van Bush in Ludies' Home Journal. In the houses of the middle classes, on the sary, wooden; tenth anniversary, tin; fif- put up; lay a plate on the top of them, I guttitled to the Pipt.