Streets and Sidewalks.

Editor Reporter:

DEAR SIR,—As the year is closing I here give a full statement of road work done for 1922.

Paid out for pine plank for sidewalks.....$183 32
4,010 feet of stringers..... 67 75
and having same..... 11 37
413 lbs of nails..... 6 60
Stone for underpinning walks 6 60
Flag stones for street crossings 22 00
1184 yards of broken stone..... 118 25
Tearing..... 29 75
Dy. labor and material..... 95 38
Three culverts, say 120 feet,
70 feet of box drains..... 60 58

$601 00

There have been 544 feet of sidewalk put down on Wellington street and 1070 feet on Elgin street; also 2 stone crossings 210 feet, some at the corners measuring 3 feet 9, by 14 feet 6 and weighing about 3 tons. The road commissioners think that they will do the year and tear for year. In going over the different streets, repairing old sidewalks, I find there are three miles of sidewalk and a great many crossings to be kept in repair; also 5 1/2 miles of roads and streets to look after, and over 20 culverts and bridges to keep in repair. I give these figures to show that it needs some care to look after it. The three culverts put down this year are all built of stone and covered over with large flag stones, with manholes, say 2 feet 6 inches, so that all the sediment can be removed from the main drain at those places.

Plank and stringers were furnished to parties that put the sidewalk down on Wellington street. The trustees of the Presbyterian church paid their share of the expenses. On Elgin street we found parties willing to help to build a good walk. They contributed the following sums:

Charles Vign.....$10 00
Carpenter and Lillie W. Hines..... 5 00
W. A. Hains..... 5 00
Ed. McLean..... 5 00
Mrs. Jane Slack..... 5 00
Mrs. Emma Kilburn..... 5 00
George K. Breman..... 5 00

48 00

Mr. McLean also put in a stone crossing and Mr. Ogal Webster the same, free of charge. In front of Dr. Cornell's place there is a good crossing put in by a few living there for their own convenience. I mention these facts to show that men are willing to do something extra to help to improve the village.

Joseph and Elgin street got about 50 rods of grading done, which makes them good.

The $95.38 paid out for day labor takes in small items that Mr. Wm. Karley paid out, and also some items of expenses that were paid by myself. One thing is satisfactory to think of, that all the crossings now put down will stand for years, as they are stone, and what matters have been put down ought to last a long time.

I think another year there might be 800 yards of stone put on our roads, as the weather the last four years have drawn heavily on the amount paid out. If any one wishes to know any further particulars, they can call on me and I will try and satisfy them if I can.

Closing Exercises at Addition School.

The closing exercises at the Addition public school took place on Thursday last. There was a large representation of the parents and scholars present. Cyrus Stowell, Esq., occupied the chair. After a lengthy and searching examination of the pupils in the different classes by the teacher, Mr. J. D. Wright, a number of addresses were delivered by H. S. Moffat, Esq., trustee, and by the parents of the children, eulogistic of the work of the teacher during the past year. Then two of the pupils, Masters Clara Pritchard and Joe M. Kelly, stepped forward and read the following address, and presented Mr. Wright with a very handsome watch-chain and charm.

To Mr. JOHN D. WRIGHT,
DEAR FATHER.—We, the undersigned, in behalf of your pupils of school section No. 1, Elizabethton, cannot allow this favorable opportunity to pass without in some way expressing our appreciation of your kindness, ability, courage and generally dear the year now hastening to a close. We regret very much that circumstances were such as to prevent us to sever our connection as teacher and pupils, although there was no fault-finding with you—inspector and trustees testifying to the satisfactory condition of pupils and school. But we trust our great loss will be others gain, and we are sure you will have secured another school, with an increase of scholars.

Teacher, may you have progress, and of the best kind, and may you be successful in all your undertakings.

And the crowd is sure to cheer and cheer, not on account of their intrinsic value, but as a mark of the respect in which you are held by both pupils and parents.

Wishing you a merry Christmas and a happy New Year, and every year to come, and of labor, we remain on behalf of your pupils,
JOHN M. KELLY

ADDITION, Dec. 22, 1922.

Mr. Wright is engaged to teach the public school at Burritt's Rapids during the coming year.

HUNTING IN THE NORTH WOODS.

Ye Scribe of the Reporter recounts the Many and Varied Incidents of the Hunting Party in Search of Sport and Venison, in the Wild and Woody North Woods.

The work of unloading and carrying the loads of the hunter had been left to the hunter's boys, and the hunter himself had to handle the load and the Hunter decided to go on ahead to the settler's and get him to help with a horse and a pair of men, and whatever still could not be piled on the horse, he had left the party, he found the hunter from the station on his way for the load. He was in trouble, having got his team down in the woods, and he had to get the settler's help. The settler's son was on the back trail after the hunter, and he had to get the settler's help. The settler's son was on the back trail after the hunter, and he had to get the settler's help. The settler's son was on the back trail after the hunter, and he had to get the settler's help.

Well Satisfied!

I am well satisfied with my Xmas trade; in fact, it exceeded my most sanguine expectations.

Of course, there are some lines that did not go as fast as they might, the demand being principally for fancy goods.

In order to work off as much as possible before stock-taking, I shall mark everything down for the next month about 15 per cent on the average.

You had better take advantage of this while the roads are good.
