ADDISON.

SATURDAY, Jan. 14.—Our creamery is closed for the winter. The patrons were well pleased with the returns and all wish it success the coming year.

Mr. Levi Monroe, of Mt. Pleasant, has been on the sick list for a few days, but under the skillful treatment of Dr. Cornell, of Athens, is around again.

Mr. Hay, of Spencerville, paid our village a short visit recently, it is said, on some very important business, of which due notice will appear in a few weeks.

Mr. Williams, of Lake st., has moved into our village, having leased his ranch for this season.

Mr. Gordon McLean left on the 9th inst. for Chicago. Mrs. McLean will accompany him in the spring.

Large quantities of square timber are being got out in this section for the English market.

Mr. Root, of Rockport, was registered at the Florida House last week for a few days. He is organizing a lodge of Friends in this place. We wish him success in his enterprise.

GLOSSVILLE.

Mr. Abel Cadiff is the happy man. It is a boy.

Miss Addie Barlow has returned to Whitby Ladies College.

Mrs. Sheldon Brown is on the sick list.

Mr. Delbert Dobbs has been engaged as teacher in the Redan school for the present year.

Quite a number from here attended the L. O. B. A. concert in Brockville last Thursday evening and report having had a very pleasant time.

The L. O. B. A. lodge no 9, of Addison, intend giving a concert in Ashwood Hall on Friday evening, Dec. 27th. A good time is expected, as many eloquent speakers have offered their assistance, and the concert will be enlivened by music, both vocal and instrumental.

Wedding bells are about to ring in our midst.

Mr. Rob. Nunn is visiting friends in this vicinity.

Miss Anna Scott has been engaged as teacher in Dublin school. We wish her every success.

Mrs Earl's children are suffering from a severe attack of the measles.

TO PUPILS OF HAWKE SCHOOL.—I wish to thank you heartily for the very valuable and beautiful present which you presented me with on the last day of school. To thank you by mere words is beyond my ability, for my thanks lie far deeper than words; they lie deep in my heart. Among your gifts, there is nothing that has the value in my eyes, which the gifts from old pupils possess, and the present given me now will always rank with the best in my possession.

There were occasions, when unpleasantness would arise between pupils and teacher, but between my pupils and myself uniform good feeling has always existed. I am now replaced by my successor, and will impress upon the pupils the obligation of according the same respect and attention to your present teacher, which it was my happy lot always to receive. I now wish you the compliments of the season and a happy future.

ANNA SCOTT, Teacher

DELTA.

SATURDAY, Jan. 16.—Messrs. R. J. Whaley and Guy Curtis have returned to their studies at Toronto and Kingston, after spending the holidays at home.

Rev. Mr. Pierce, of Maberly, visited his brother E. A. Pierce and filled his pulpit in the Methodist church on 8th.

A. Baker makes it warm for the farmers about building Shedd's fence in this section.

The pupils of our school are all pleased with their new teacher, Mr. Wilson, and consider him a fine teacher.

The trustees have placed a furnace costing $135 in the school. Frank W. Singleton was the contractor.

A. Vanalstine has rented for sample rooms the premises occupied by J. A. Sheppard, the harness maker.

A bad fire took place at Soperton last Thursday, the barn owned by Robert Tabor of that place being completely burned down. The fire was caused by his boy's carelessness in setting straw on fire to warm the root-house.

FRONT OF YONGE.

MONDAY, Jan. 16.—The family of the late Mathew Leader, of Wexford, is passing through a serious affliction in the form of a disease which has carried two of them to the grave, and the rest of the family are in a dangerous condition. The head of the household first succumbed to the fatal disease, and next a married daughter. The family have the sympathy of the community at large in their bereavement.

Father Kelly, of Wexford, takes a deep interest in the church to which he belongs; he also has a close care and watchful eye over his parishioners under his charge. Since his appointment to said rural locality, Mr. Kelly has been very energetic in the establishment of churches for the better accommodation of his flock in Wexford and elsewhere. In all this said gentleman's energies have been pretty well exhausted, and now a season of rest would be advisable.

Mr. Z. Parris, of Jamestown, has put his mare, Lady Comstock, in training for the winter reps.

Could not Mr. Shepherd be induced to lecture on high tariff, the Lady boarders are very [illegible] the present day, provided [illegible] time with the general [illegible] and work for the [illegible] weather [illegible] wanted [illegible]

WESTPORT.

SATURDAY, Jan. 14.—Both the Kingston and Perth stages were very late on Monday night on account of the heavy roads.

On Tuesday the 10th inst. Miss Anastatie Welsh and Mr. Dennis Carty were married in St. Edward's church by Rev. P. A. Twohey.

In spite of the unfavorable weather, the social given at Mr. Frank Provost's on Thursday, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church, was a grand success.

The cold was very intense on Wednesday and Thursday, the thermometer registering as low as 36° below zero.

Large quantities of good maple wood are now being drawn into the village.

Elisha Rosewell, formerly resident of South Crosby, but who has been living for the last 13 years at Edmonton, N. W. T., was visiting a few old acquaintances here Friday.

Mr. Frank Alguire from Dakota with Miss Amanda Alguire of Philipsville, were visiting at Mr. D. P. Alguire's on Friday.

Five teams are now busily engaged in drawing saw-logs down the West Rideau and Sand Lakes from Mr. W. C. Fredenburgh's timber limit.

On account of the heavy snow storms of Monday, the delegation that was to have gone from here to the County Division of S. O. T. at Ellisville on 10th, remained at home.

Miss Kate McKim lost a lady's silver watch on the 11th inst. between R. Janson & Co.'s store and the post office. The finder will be suitably rewarded by returning the same.

Mr. Joel Clark, who has been on the sick list for a few days, is now improving.

Mr. G. F. Reynolds had a narrow escape on Saturday, if not from a watery grave at least from a cold bath in the Rideau. While standing on the ice in front of Mr. W. J. Webster's boat house, the ice, which is very thin there on account of the current, suddenly gave away, and only the timely assistance of Mr. Webster, who was standing near, saved Mr. Reynolds from a ducking. As it was he escaped with a wetting up to the knees.

Rev. Mr. Russel, who preached in the Presbyterian church on Sunday, will give a lecture in that church on Thursday evening, the 19th inst. His subject will be "Dynamite for Doubting Castle, the Necessity of the Times; Is the Jesuit Right?" All are invited.

DULSEMAIN.

MONDAY, Jan. 9.—Messrs. Herb Leacock and Truman Cowan are visiting friends in Addison.

We regret very much that Mr. John Cowan intends removing from our midst, he having traded farms with a Mr. Bulger from near Charleston. Mr. C. and family have ever been held in the highest estimation of the people of this and surrounding neighborhood's, and one and all express great sorrow at his departure.

Death has again entered our midst and the one called to go was George, the second son of John Cowan, on Tuesday Dec. 27th. He was hurt by the upsetting of a load of hay Dec. 17th, being thrown across a fence. During his illness he suffered a great deal; everything that could be done to restore him to health was of no avail. His family have the blessed assurance that it was well with his soul. He talked to each of the family, bade them good-bye, and desired them one and all to meet him in heaven. In the absence of the resident minister, Rev. D. T. Cumming, Rev. Mr. Woods of Escott conducted the funeral services, preaching from the text "For dust thou art, and unto dust shalt thou return."—Gen. 3:19. It was one of the largest funeral processions that ever passed through the neighborhood. He was a member of the Sons of Temperance Lodge held in Sand Bay, and the lodge assembled in a body and conducted their burial service, which was both solemn and impressive. We are thus reminded of the brevity of life, George being only 21 years and 6 days old. The pall bearers were chosen from his Sunday school class and were also members of the same lodge to which he belonged, and were Ernest Elgin and Bert McCready, Ed. Patience, Sam Hesslip and Mert Stringer. Mr. Cowan and family desire to tender their sincere thanks to their many friends for the kindness shown them in their bereavement.

Bees and Cold Weather.

Bee-keepers, the frost is fast penetrating the best cellars in the land. Avoid letting the bees remain any great length of time in a temperature of 32° without extra covers—rugs or carpets. Newspapers may be placed under the covers and tucked in at the bottom of the sides in such a way as to nearly box a row of hives perfectly from the cold for a time. I have, however, only bees remain at 10 below freezing in trees and some out all right (in an earth beehouse) Though none the worse for it, there is a risk in long continued cold.

We prefer 43 deg., 45 deg. is good for heavy hives over forest leaves in pure air. There is absolutely no perceptible loss in the weight of a colony in ten weeks at 10 deg. below freezing.—W. S. H.

Williams, 50cts. per week during winter; W. G. Parish, insurance on town hall $12. H. C. Phillips to purchase wood for town hall.

Athens is situated 15 miles from Brockville and has good railway connections with front and rear by railway and macadamized roads and with G. T. R. via Mallorytown 12 miles distant per daily stage.

500 Miles Then—50,000 Miles Now.

It is difficult in these days when distance is annihilated by the steamboat, railway, telegraph and telephone, to properly appreciate the great disadvantages under which the early settlers of this country lived in respect to means of communication. Some time ago, while in Brockville, we were handed a letter of ancient date by Judge McDonald, which serves to illustrate this disadvantage. The letter is dated Jan. 3, 1800, from E. Dunscombe, of New York City, and is addressed to "Hon. Kenneth Cook, wife of Michael Cook, New Johnstown, Upper Canada." From it we learn that over a month was consumed in getting a letter from New Johnstown (Brockville) to New York, and that the channel of communication was the wife of one of the Methodist church, the letter being addressed "Recommended to the Rev. Wm. Manley." The writer speaks of the kindness of his correspondent (Mrs. Cook) in writing for him "while a prisoner and in sore distress during the late war." While steam and electricity are securing our command to-day, [illegible] seemingly impossible [illegible] things as well
