COUNTY NEWS.

INTERESTING LETTERS FROM OUR STAFF OF CORRESPONDENTS.

ATHENS.—A letter of every thing well mixed up. MALLOTTOWN. MONDAY, March 6.—It is rumored that there is to be another wedding in the village very soon. Mrs. Henry Kelly is slowly recovering from a severe attack of typhoid fever. Mr. W. Chick is turning out a large number of tin sap buckets in anticipation of the coming sugar season. Spring is almost here and Rob has not got up that wood pile or purchased those false teeth either.

WILSETTOWN. MONDAY, March 6.—Miss Addie Kincaid, of Smith Falls, is visiting friends and relatives in this vicinity. A number of young people spent a very pleasant evening at the house of Mr. N. J. Brown on last night. Mrs. Judge, of Frankville, is visiting at his daughter's Mrs. N. J. Roman. A large funeral procession passed through here on Thursday last, the deceased being Mrs. Keyes. The remains were placed in the Athens vault.

HARD ISLAND. MONDAY, March 6.—Mr. Philip H. Robson is placing material on the ground for the erection of an addition to his house in the spring. We notice that there is a farm in this neighborhood with good outbuildings that is unoccupied and not yet leased for this year. We would advise the owner to invest in printer's ink.

ATHENS. MONDAY, March 6.—The pupils of our public school are progressing rapidly under the proficient tuition of Miss L. Halliday who seems it better to rule with kindness than with a rod. Mr. Chas. Wdaley of this place was united in marriage to Miss Julia Hazelton, of Delta, on Wednesday evening last.

ATHENS. WEDNESDAY, March 7.—Three young men from Athens with what may have been insanity, but what was probably whiskey, blazing in their eyes, honored this village with their presence about midnight on Sunday last, shouting with not a little emphasis, "Hallelujah, Bas Lake Brick School," and more of the same tenor. We suppose they fought Bass Lake, but it is very doubtful whether their eyes were clear enough to decide whether they brought up at the "Brick School" or a barn. The party returned on Monday with insanity still blazing in their eyes. We sincerely hope these young men don't attend the high school in the classic village of Athens and if they are not a sample of the rising generation in that community.

ALGUIRE'S CORNERS. MONDAY, March 6.—Mr. Taylor's family are moving into the village today. We are sorry to lose such estimable people, but our loss will be their gain. Mr. Wm. Mott has leased the Latham place for the year. Some of our gentlemen (?) I guess, were speeding their horses the other day and forgot to give half road to a passing gentleman until the speaker got by them, according to all accounts, both had more of the road than they required, one of them getting against a telegraph post, breaking his cutter and hurting his horse. We think it would be a good idea to bring these racers up before the Cadf for future offences.

NEWBORO. SATURDAY, March 4.—The ice houses are filled again with a very good quality of the cooling material. Our old eagle-clawed weather prophet predicts a general food this spring. Beech fishing has been carried on in this vicinity very successfully for some time. Large quantities of fish have been caught and shipped to outside markets. R. O. Leggett is going to erect a large barn on his farm north of the village this spring. Large quantities of wood are coming into the village at reasonable prices. John McNally, who has been quite ill for some time, is slowly recovering. Black Prince is still doing good service. Mr. and Mrs. H. Laying have returned home after an extensive tour through the western townships. Our tenorial artists are laying plans for a siege, and the war is likely to be long and bitter as both are noted for determination and great staying powers. While this civil war is being waged the village should procure the services of a professional barber to attend to the wants of the public.

DELTA. MONDAY, March 6.—Beside the number of young people already gone to the United States, we regret to lose Mr. Levi Soper. He intended moving with his family to Manitoba next Tuesday, 14th. We hope sincerely that they may all meet with good fortune. Mr. Stephen Robinson, who has been here since the death of his mother in November, returned to Chicago last Thursday. There was a party at Matthew Denant's house last Saturday night, honoring the departure of Miss Lou Soper to Manitoba. She will be very much missed by her Sunday school children. A number of gentlemen and ladies attended the party at Joseph Barlow's house on last Saturday night. Mr. Lincoln Jackson, who has been at Grand Forks, Dakota, returned home and is looking well. Mrs. Lewis Bush and her son, of Port Hope, are at present visiting her father, here. Mr. Andrews and wife visited the latter's parents this week. Miss Herba Horne, of New Dublin, is at present visiting her uncle, John Horton. Mr. John H. Moulton was accompanied by his wife and child to Kempville, visiting their relatives. Mr. A. E. Biocock preached at the Methodist church last Sunday during W. F. Peirley's illness.
