GENOA, Oct. 2.—The steamer Remo, which sailed from this port for Rio de Janeiro and Santos, Brazil, on August 15, with 1,433 emigrants, has arrived at Santa Cruz de Teneriffs, in the Canaries, on her return voyage. Cholera broke out aboard her during the outward voyage and the health officers at the Brazilian ports refused to let her passengers be landed. Up to the time of her arrival at Santa Cruz there were 123 cases of cholera on the Remo and officers say that the return voyage has been made under great difficulty. She was in great need of coal, water and provisions, and the lack of proper food and drink is believed to have facilitated the disease among the emigrants.
