IN THRUED RVERY TUESDAY AFTERNOON

man BY ---LOVERI

EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR SUBSCRIPTION

1.00 PER YEAR IN ADVANCE, OR $1.25 IF NOT PAID IN THREE MONTHS.

are paid, excest at the option of the publisher. lent, unless a settlement to date has been

ADVERTISING

line for each subsequent insertion.
refracional Cards, 8 lines or under, per year, I.ega advertisements, Sc. per line for first Insertion and Rc. per line for each subse-A liberal discount for contract advertisements.

Advortisements sent without written in-atructions will be inserted until forbidden and charged full time All advertisements measured by a scale of solid nonparell-32 lines to the inch.

CONVICTED OF MURDER.

CHAS. LUCKEY, THE NEWBLISS MUR-DERER, MUST DIE

The Crown Proves Him to Have Been His Sister's Slayer and the Judge Sentences Him to be Hanged on December 16

BROCKVILLE, Nov. 1 .- The Luckey trial was opened yesterday afternoon at 2.30. The prisoner on his way into the court house walked with a firm step. He was somewhat pale at first, but flushed up while the jury were being empanelled. He seemed deeply interested in the opening proceedings, but did not act in the least nervously, and is apparently going to show that iron nerve so noticeable

The presenting attorney commenced to open up the case at 2.50, after the clerk read the indictment charging the prisoner with the murder of Mary Ann Luckey, his

BROCKVILLE, Nov. 2. - The court room was crowded yesterday morning when the Walter Dicks, the Ottawa constable, who took the prisoner from the court house to the jail after his sentence, told of

B. W. Granger, the turnkey in the Ottawa jail, also heard him say that it might be better for his friends if they had helped

Herman Taylor, a new witness, and a fellow prigoner with Luckey in the Central, gave some startling and damaging evidence. He had several conversations in prison with Luckey, whom he knew as McPherson, and he told him that he was three-storey window during a row in a has Falls hotel, and that his friends would give him no assistance out of the scrape. His father would likely have done so but he thought his step-mother, with whom he never got along, must have used her influence against him. The day before Luckey was released, witness said, he told him he was going right home, and had some friends near Smith's Falls for whom he would make it hot. James Stewart gave some new and important testimony that will break up the ence of the defence at the last trial that old man Luckey wore boots much smaller than those taken from the prisoner and said to be his father's. These boots were sevens and considerable evidence was adduced last spring showing that the old man put on shoes as small as fours. Yesterday, however, this crown witness testified that a pair of slippers produced in court, size six, were given by the deseased to the witness' wife, saying that they were too small for him, as he wors sevens. James Whiting was placed in the box in the afternoon." He is a very old man and deaf and was stubborn with his answers. The crown had great difficulty in getting his story. Whiting and that he crossed the Luckey farm one day and he saw a girl struck down by a man and dragged back to the house. This caused a big segsation, but owing to the extreme deafness and ogliness of the old man he could not be cross examined.

evidence, much stronger than at the pro- on a pedestal, which is shaped like a vious trial. When the prisoner was placed | pyramid, is 11 feet high and made of gray | come to her to settle all disputes and would in the dock at the opening of the court | New Brunswick granite. The names of | always respect her decision wore on the day of the tragedy. The boots it will only be told by the result of the Luckey in Smith's Falls on the day of the | ber of the Legislature, member of the fire and noticed that he had on a pair of executive conneil of Canada and first mingaiters. James McCrum, of Irish Cres h | later of the Dominion of Conada. was an intimate friend of the murdered man and knew he had galters. He had and the total cost of the memorial will be often noticed that old Mr. Luckey had a about $6,000. peculiar way of running over the outside of his right book, but not the left. The right gaiter in court showed this to a gross

axtent, but the left was not run over. The rest of the morning was taken up with a history of the relations of the per- English court rules perced out of observsoner with his father previous to going to | ance, and when they were in vogue nothan in South Carolina. A rule provided John James Lookey, brother of the | that a lawyer when he spoke in court must prisoner. The old man had once deeded wear a black gown and coat, and that the the prisoner his property, but took action | sheriff must wear a cooked hat and sword. to get it back. Since that time he did not | On one occasion a lawyer named Pettigrue

The defence's first witness said that "Mr. Pettigrue," said the judge, "you while at the Luckey five he heard a loud | have on a light coat, You cannot speak, explosion and saw flames shout up twenty | sir." feet. The defence, as at the last trial, are daveloping oridence to show that the de- "may it please the court, I conform to the sented Luckey had a much smaller foot law." when one who would wear a seven, and "No, Mr. Pettigrae," declared the judge, willed come witnesses who knew that the ''you have old man wors sixes and one who saw him | speak, sin"

posture a pair of woman's fours. hen the supplier interest in the case been so intense as when the pricenter was placed in the witness box years any to give avicance on his own bahalf. Then the public heard from his own lips a version of his governments and how he came into preses | answered his honor. cten of the boots and money said to bare been baken from his father. Luckey admitted being on like farme of isla father and others in the neighborhood the entire day of the tregody, and was to special comowhat impationally. the bush within five or six hundred yards . "And do you mean to say, your house," of the house the whole afternoon. The Questioned Pattigrate, "that the sweet much . boots he cisimed to here got from a man be cooked as well as the hear" on the train on the way to Smith's Falls, "Ehr-er-h'm," mused his honor, "Joe and the muney, $30 in all, before going to -er-continue your speech, Mr. Pettigree." -- Sometral Re couries it past the Op-

town jail officials in his socks, and in and out of the Central Prison in his month. " Did you hear screams ?" demanded

" And yet you were within five hundred yards of the house most of the afternoon?

was the next question. "Yes," was the answer. One question asked by the judge as the more than snything also that was said. In his story he said he saw the fire and know it was at his father's house, and when he head in the barber shop that three perone had been burned he thought it might ave been his relatives. "Why, witness," asked the judge in his gravest tones, "when you thought the dictima might have been your relatives did not you make preparations for going to Ottawal Why did you go to hed, and Texas, writes a Belcherville correspo why did you not go back and make sure

The prisoner grew confused and muttered that he did not feel like it. Business notices in local or news column, 10c. crown was of a nature to break up the among the Carolina mountains. Under story told by Luckey of securing the boots just what circumstances she came no one

Hannah, who was with Luckey on the The turnkey of the Ottawa jail stated most emphatically that Luckey did not have

and the socks turned inside out and all other articles of clothing examined. impressive manner and is working on the | winds of winter.

ed four hours and twenty minutes. the evidence presented by the Crown was one of the ablest ever listened to in the deeply impressed by the address, and the prisoner for the first time showed visible firm a step as any man in the room.

THE STATUE

HAMILTON, Nov. 2. - Sunshine and a balmy breeze greeted the thousands of event one long to be remembered. They succeeded, and their efforts were admirably seconded by Senator W. S. Sanford a conversation with the prisoner in re- and the committee who had charge of gard to his family, in waich the prisoner | the ceremonies. said that if he ever got out he would make

Sir John Thompson, Sir Oliver Mowat, Sir Charles H. Tupper, Sir Adolphe Caron, Hon. Clarke Wallace, and Hon. J. M. Gibson, Grand Master of the Masonic order, mainly due, acted as master of ceremonies, and, after a short address of welcome,

Sir John Thompson referred in feeling terms to the position that his great predecessor had occupied in the hearts of all and nobody cared to look for it. Canadians irrespective of religious or pol-dingy law office in Kingston, and dwelt at trusted her implicitly. By degrees she aclength upon his career as a lawyer and statesman. He was visibly affected by the remembrances of other days when both started out in life, and pleased all by the eloquent tribute he paid to his most vigorons opponent in political life.

Short addresses were also given by the other members of the Dominion Cabinet present, and then the people quietly dispersed to discuss in their homes incidents in the career of him whose cheery face was recalled to memory. It had been the intention of Senator

Sanford to entertain the distinguished visitors at dinner last evening, but that event was cancelled out of regard to the memory of Sir John Abbott, whose funeral takes place in Montreal to-morrow, which will be attended by the same party.

The status is cast in bronze and is 8 feet

o inches in height. It represents Sir John in a closely buttoned frock coat standing BROCKVILLE, Nov. 3 .- The Crown offi- slightly extended, and a benigant exprescials are gradully winding about Charles | sion upon his face, as though addressing a Luckey a strong chain of circumstantial sympathetic audience. The status stands appear to be one of the crown's strongest | dian statesman, who valued British insticards, and how well the officers are playing | tutions as a true basis of the strength and prosperity of the Dominion." Another shield on the opposite side is inscribed Samuel Steacy told of . ing old Mr. | with the periods in which he was a mem-The cost of the statue alone is $3,500,

> His Monor Convinced. It has not been so very long since the old arose to speak in a case on trial.

"Oh, your honor," Pettigrue replied, a light cost. You cannot "Bgt, your honor," insisted the lawyer, WENVILLE, Nov. 4. -- Not since the en- 'you misinterpret. Allow me to Westrate. commont of the awful Nowblies tragedy we black gown and cont, does it ment "Yes," replied the judge.

"And doza your honor hold that it means that both gown and cost must be black?" "Certainly, Mr. Petilgrue; certainly, sir," "And the law further says," coassisted Mr. Puttierne, "that the sheriff must west" a booked has and aword, does it not?" "Yes, yes, Mr. Pettigrae," the court an

Remarkable Life and Heroic Death of a Prairie Queen.

prinoner was leaving the box confused him | SHE KMLLED ELEVEN COMANCHES.

A Brave Pioneer on the Outposts of Civi- the creek bank, I'll hold the Indians long lization-A Primary School For-Grown Mon-Strict Discipline-Elien Quinn's Noble Sacrifice.

from western North Carolina to this part of of the St. Louis Globe Democrat. As would be judged from her name, she had Irish blood in her veins, but it was mixed with a coplous strain of Indian, derived from the The rebuttal evidence adduced by the | Cherokees that still inhabit a reserve on the train and accounting for the money | seems to remember, but she soon announces her intention to open a school for the bene

THE QUEEN AS SUPREME JUDGE.

fit of the surrounding country. It seemed as if the school would likely benefit the "country," literally so called, as there were very few inhabitants to get the good of it. What few men there were, however, got together and put up a house for her. It was surrounding the base of what is now known as Queen's peak. It was situated It was just 10,40 when Mr. Lavelle about half way up and on the southern side started to address the jury. He has an | in order to protect it from the cold northern

School opened with four pupils, all of old theory of accidental fire and the sufcome to Texas when boys and who had | lines nearer the summit. Doubtless they livel on the frontier without educational | were unable to tell whether it was defendand returned in a little over an hour with Irish woman was mistress, for all that. On of her subjects. one occasion a big six footer refused to All this took time, and time was valuable discipline. Trouble might have arisen, but | the night. visitors who poured into the city from all to see how to shoot, had he been so in- peak. There, behind a big bowlder on the slightest relief. The priest then ardents of the Ambitious City bestirred was then informed that if he ever entered and six shooter were both missing. Around ing day both the priest and the docunruly pupil "expelled," and there is no | told the story. evidence that any similar case ever came

The teacher always had a loaded rifle sit ting in the corner of the schoolroom during school hours and had it slung behind her saddle as she rode. She was a fearless rider and an unerring shot. There was a general pression that she would shoot to kill if necessary, and it was probably well founderecting of the handsome memorial is ed, though there is no record of her ever having actually justified it. There was one loud mouthed, blatant blackguard named placed in the hands of Sir John Thompson | Starke, who was once heard to make filthy the cord which when pulled stripped the remarks in regard to the teacher and to statue of the Union Jack that had hidden | boast of his personal powers of fascination it from public gaze since it was placed in | for women generally. One night, shortly afterward, his riderless mustang came up to the ranch where Starke had been working. Nobody ever happened to find the body.

After the school at the peak had been itical affiliations. He also reviewed the going on for about two years a singular deceased chieftain's early struggles as a state of affairs gradually arose. The fame achievements. His address although too rounding country. She had exactly those Germany, 67; Italy, 40; France, 29; Bel- so weak I could barely move around brief to satisfy the assemblage, was a accomplishments and exactly that turn of gium, 24; England, 23; Russia, 20, and the house with the aid of a cane. mind calculated to win for her the respect | Spain, 14. Sir Oliver Mowat recalled his early asso- and admiration of the men of the frontier, ciation with the dead statesman in the The result was that they respected and quired almost unlimited influence over the men for over 100 miles around. They would

yesterday morning he wore an anxious | each of the provinces are carved upon the | If any given man felt inclined to resist pedestal, and upon the front is a carved | her decision, such feeling was useless, as The efforts of the crown yesterday morn- shield with an inscription bearing the every other man felt honor bound to help couple of months. -- Brooklyn Life. ing were directed to proving that the guit- name "The Right Hon. John Alexander enforce it. If a question arose as to the ers taken from the prisoner at the time of | Macdonald," with his titles and the date | ownership of stock, the parties would bring his arrest were the very ones the old man | and place of his birth and death. At the | the cattle or horses involved up to the peak. bottom of the shield the words " A Cans- | Each claimant would state his side of the choose to substantiate it. If necessary, a glance would be taken at the brands on the stock. Then came the decision, from which there was no appeal. If a man was suspected of stealing stock or of committing murder, the process was the same. The prisoner told his story, and his captors told theirs. No legal technicality ever thwarted the ends of justice as administered in this court. If the prisoner was considered guilty, the verdict was, "Well, he ought to die." The sentence would be executed as soon as passed. A case could be disposed of completely in 30 minutes which in the present time would occupy the attention of the court as many weeks or months. In the course of time the name of the mountain, which had been known as Quinn's peak, gradually changed to Queen's peak. A little later the men began very naturally to speak of the mistress of Queen's peak as the queen. It sounded ess manicure me boots,"-Truth. better than "Miss Quinn," and so by that name she is remembered even to the pres-The death of the brave little schoolmis tress was, so is abould have been, the climax and crowning point of her life. It was all that was necessary to make her subjects worship her-not almost, but alto-Daring the fall of 1800 the Comanches began once mers to make raids through this portion of Texas. The Comanches have been called the Ishmaelices of the west, their hand being against every man and had formerly acquired almost as much influence over the Indiana as sho had over the whiten, and in periods of open Indian hontility this influence stood her in good aland. The Indiana memed to consider that her indien blood cands her one of themselves, and es allowed her to pass backward and forstrict to some from their camps anmolested, Though a Corroleo, she had soon sequired. the language of the Commolies. For # long time are juffuence was successful in protecting the nettlers around the peak from may distorbence, but on one occasion is failed. All "the men for 40 miles around ; had gone some distance felow to fleet.

were advancing. While the country was thus unprotected, a 14-year-old boy came dashing up on his pony and called to the PHYSICIANS PRONOUNCED RECOVERY IMPOSSIBLE were coming as fast og they could travel. He begged her to go meet them and pacify knowledgment of His Gratitude.

There has appeared in the columns tage over her foes. We can imagine her

SHE SENT OUT A RINGING YELL AND DEBI-

ing she threw the pepper square into his stormed, and about 10 o'clock a force of surprised to see me in such men have gone to Clear creek, and they enough for that."

tail. She wanted the half cent, of course; she always does. So the butcher placed a cleaver, and gave her the half cent.

Sulcide Among European Soldiers. of Europe per 100,000 men: Austria, 131;

Suicide by Crocodile. one's self to be devoured by a crocodile.

could only manage to raise the rent!" Mr. Hunter Howes-Oh, I've no doubt Bis Request.

"Whist, Moike! It's manicurin me "Oho! Whin ye finian that hand, ye been reported that a large band of hostiles A Chateauguay Miracle.

"No," she answered sadly, "it's no use The Remarkable Experience of Mr. this time. Their blood's up because our Friends Cailed to His Supposed pany, from, either address. Deathbod-How He Regained Miswon't be pacified. You ride like the wind and get all the somen and children hid in Health and Strongth A Public Au

From La Prouce, Montreal. Even as she was speaking the Indians of La Presse during the past two They would willingly have passed her by without molestation, but she was deter years, many articles bearing witness mined they should not. Taking deliberate to the great good accomplished in aim at long range, she fired, and one In- various parts of the country by a dian tumbled from his horse. Then she remedy the name of which is now one sprang upon the segment stone of the peak, of the most familiar household words and standing at full height sent out a ring. And ing yell and derisively waved her gun. The in all parts of the Dominion. And boy waited to see no more, but keeping the now comes a statement, from the wooded base of the peak between himself county of Chateauguay, ever the signature of a well-known resident of St. No one will ever know the details of what Urbain, which speaks in positive and happened after this. There was a natural unmistakable language as to the value arricade of stones on top of the peak, of this wonder-working medicine. and keeping behind it she had the advan-

MR. BEAUDIN'S STATEMENT. "I feel that I owe my life to your Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I desire to make grateful acknowledgement and to give you a complete statement of my illness and cure in the hope that my experience may be of benefit to some other sufferer. About the middle of October, 1891, acting on the advice of an American doctor whom I had consulted, I left home for the north to invest in farming them myself. I had been afflicted with a species of paralysis caused by the rupture of a blood vessel over the right eye, and which stopped the cirulation of the blood on the left side. book-keeper by Messrs. Lacaillade Bros., Lawrence, Mass. The doctor had advised a change of work so as to have less mental and more physical exercise. This I resolved upon, but focation of the victims. His address lastwhom came from the only house within into her long range Sharp's, and her grim two miles of the place. Soon, however, the half smile when she saw a shot take effect. The preocuting attorney, Mr. Chute, oc- attendance began to increase as the fact of The Indians seem finally to have taken po- at my destination I perceived sympupied just 45 minutes, and his presents the school's existence got noised abroad sition inside the timber around the peak, toms of my previous illness making tion of the damaging facts contained in through the country. Grown men who had and then gradually to have drawn their themselves felt once more. I went at once to a local physician who declared court here. The jury were evidently advantages would come to school to Miss ed by one person alone or by more. Doubt himself unable to understand my case. Quinn in order to redeem their lost time. less, when they had drawn nearer and were However, he gave me some medicine It must have been an interesting sight to | prepared to make the last fatal rush, she | to ease the pain I felt in my head, signs of anxiety on his countenance as see the little room crowded with big, beardpoint after point was scored against him. see the little room crowded with big, beardshooter with deadly effect. Certain it is At 4.45 the judge began his charge, probably had spurs jingling at their heels that she was game to the last. Finally the me relief for a few minutes, and which was strongly against the prisoner in and big six shooters dangling from their last cruel rush was made, and the brave sometimes enabled me to get a little every particular. At 5.30 the jury retired belts, but the black haired little Indian- teacher queen had given her life for those sleep, but the awakening was always worse than before. On the last of The judge addressed a few words of obey some command she had given him. just then. There were not more than three October I went to bed as usual after counsel to the prisoner and condemned | Going to the old flour sack in which she | or four families then living within several | taking my medicine as directed, and him to be hanged on December 14. The kept a collection of her miscellaneous be- miles of the peak, and the boy messenger slopt the whole night, but the followcondemned man took his sontence very longings, she gathered up a handful of bad ample time to notify them and get ing morning on trying to rise I found them hidden in the timbered bank of the court room in black pepper. She had probably prepared them hidden in the timbered bank of the court room in black pepper. company with Jailer McDougall with as this for just such emergencies, and before creek. It must have been after nightfall myself so weak that I could not stand her recalcitrant pupil knew what was com- when the summit of the peak was finally and could scarcely speak. My wife, eyes. The bully sprang to his fect with a men came galloping in from Clear creek, ran to a neighbor's and requested him roar of pain, while the rest of the school having heard of the threatened attack. The shouted uproarious approval of the act of Indians still remaining left under cover of to go for a doctor and the priest. before the fellow's eyes were clear enough | Next morning the settlers visited the ately, but could not afford me the directions to witness the unveiling of the monument of Sir John A. Macdonald, which stands at the junction of King and John streets. Thousands more of the resible to see how to shoot, had he been so it very summit they found Ellen Quinn, the prairie queen, stiff and cold in death. Her body had been pierced by half a dozen bullons of the resible to prepare for death. On the followthe schoolroom again or in any way mosend guests from a distance and did everylested the teacher there would be a feast base and out in the open prairie they thing that lay in their power to make the for buzzards and coyotes. Thus was one counted the bodies of 11 Comanches. That approaching, and two days later my two brothers arrived. The doctor then asked if I preferred that be A Portland woman sold a pig to a butch- should hold a consultation with aner the other day, and he killed it on the other physician, and on my replying some butchers that to cut off a pig's tail in the affirmative, he telegraphed to insures the preservation of the meat. The a doctor living at a distance of about pig's little tail was cut off. But the wom- fifteen miles. They both came to see an was on the watch. She picked up the me, asked some questions and retired weighed, saying, "I want pay for the whole | for consultation. The result of this of him." But the butcher got even with | was that my wife was told that I her. The reckoning came to half a cent, | could not possibly get better. | Said probably because of the addition of the the doctor to her, "with the greatest possible care he cannot live a year."

cent on the block, cut it in two with his | When my wife told me this I determined to pay the doctors and discontinue their services. It cost me about $30 to hear this verdict. Two or The following figures give the annual three weeks passed without any improvement in my condition and I was One day I noticed a parcel lying on | | have painted myself.-Life. the table wrapped in a newspaper Among the Kondeh people, who live on | Having nothing better to do I began Lake Nyassa, in Africa, the favorite form to read it, and after a while came across an article headed "Miraculous Cure." I read it, and the longer I read the more interested I became, because I saw the case of the person referred to resembled my own in many respects. When I finished the article I saw that the cure had been effected by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. It seemed as though there was a struggle within me between the facts

so small was the faith I had in medicines advertised in the papers.

read the article and re-read it several times. I seemed to hear the doctor's words "he cannot live a year," and then I saw the effects of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in the case I had just read about. The result of these reflections was that I decided to give Pink Pills a triel, and I immediately wrote the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. for a supply. On their arrival I commenced using them according to directions, and before the first box was done I found they were helping me, and it was not long before I was able to walk to the village, a distance of half mile, without the aid of a cane, and I was rapidly gaining health and strength. At the time I was taken sick I weighed 212 pounds, and at the time I began the use of the Pink Pills I was reduced to 162 pounds, a loss of 50 pounds in a little more than a month. I took the pills for about three months and in that time I gained | ment? 40 pounds. To-day I am as well as I ever was in my life, and my recovery | her father's money when he dies."-Life. is due entirely to the use of Dr. 1 Williams' Pink Pilts and I cannot recommend them too highly to those who do not enjoy the blessing of perfeet health. Yours gratefully, L. Jos. BEAUDIN. An analysis shows that Dr. Wil lisms' Pink Pills contain in a condensed form all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood, and restore shattered nerves. They are an usfailing speciataxia, partial paralysis, St. Vitus dance, sciatics, neuralgia, rheumatism, nervous bendache, the after effects of in grippe, palpitation of the hears, nervous prostration, all diseases depending upon vitiated humors in the blood, such as scrofuls, chronic erysipelas, etc. They are also a specific for troubles peculiar to females, such as suppressions, irregularities, and all forms of weakness. They build up | Manager of Stand-Well, old isdy, the blood, and restere the glow of what can I do for you? health to pale and callow cheeks. In | Dear Old Lady (who has been gazing men they effect a radical ours in all about for some time)-Nothin, sir. But overwork, or excesses of whatever how she was going to make dates now, metaged by the Dr. Williams' Medi- -Truth.

ine Company, Brookville, Ont., and onenessaly, N. Y., and are sold in boxes (never in loose form by the dozen or hundred, and the public are [ ] H cautioned against numerous imitations sold in this shape) at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, and may be had of all druggists or direct by mail 172 67 Jos. Beaudin, of St. Urbain-Ria from Dr. Williams' Medicine Com

"I thank you, sir, for your kind permission to call on your daughter." "Remember that I turn out the gas at "All right, sir. I'll not come before that time,"-Life,

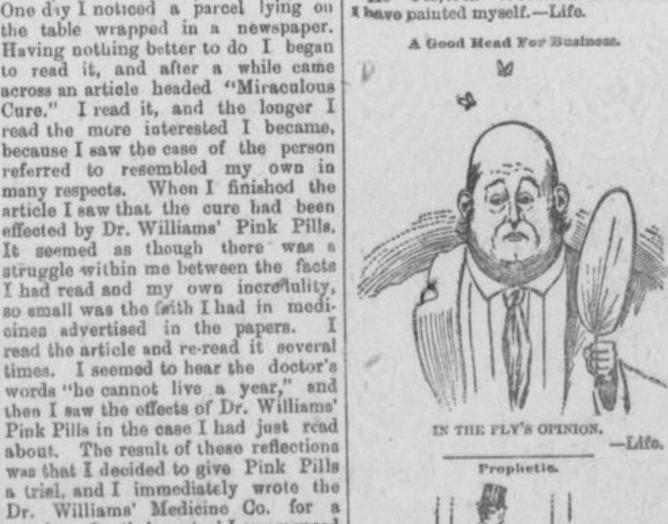

Boarders Wanted.

She-Isn't that a lovely sunset? He-Yes, it is. It reminds me of some

"Oh, yes! She says she will get all of canes arising from mental worry, I heerd one of them young ladies may as right along. An as I ailus thought they grew before, I thought I'd sheer Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are mann- | yound a bit and the her make 'em!

LARDINE MACHINE OIL The Champion Gold Medal Oil, which cannot be Excelled.

HAS NO EQUAL MANUFACTURED BY Ask your Dealer for "Lardine" and beware of

For sale by all leading dealers in the country

Woollen Mil

Have a good stock of genuine all-wool Yarn and Cloth, will be prepared to sell the same at moderate prices, and will as all times be prepared to pay the highest market price for wool in cash or trade.

Lyn, May 20, 189

R. WALKER

ATHENS, Sept. 25, 1893.

To Our Customers and the Public:

After nearly twenty years' experience with a credit business, we have no hesitation in saying that it is a very unsatisfactory system for both buyer and seller, as goods cost twenty or twenty-five per cent more than for cash. We have therefore decided to adopt

THE STRICTLY CASH SYSTEM

We shall close our books on the 1st of October, when we will commence to sell for cash or produce only. We shall expect all accounts to be settled by 1st Nov.

During our time in business we have sold tao great many who have never paid their accounts, and our loss in that way has been considerable. We have also met very many with whom it was a pleasure to do a credit business, who paid their accounts promptly, and always endeavored to carry out the Golden Rule. To such of you, we are thankful, and trust you will appreciate and approve our forward step, and that we may have the pleasure of counting you among our Cash Customers, when we will endeavor to make it clear that it is to your advantage to buy For Cash. Our present stock, which was marked at credit prices, will be Reduced to cash marks, and all new goods as they come in will be marked at cash prices, and sold for eash or produce only. We shall keep no books, open no accounts, but will sell so low that you will see it is to your advantage to buy from us for cash.

You can buy of us and save money. Look at some of our quotations:

ea worth 25c	1
	G ea worth 40c for 85c
offee worth 40c for 36c
ngar, yellow	i ranulated Sugar
oda3c lb.	15
ure Cr. Tartar for 35c per lb.
and spices of all kind and flavoring extracts very cheap.
ardine Oil for 35c per gal.
eamless Grain Bags for 2.25 per doz.
len's Kip Boots worth 8.00 , for 2.70
fen's Split Boots worth 1.75 for 1.40	S fen's Lace Boots worth 1.50 for 1.25
adies Dongola Bootsfor 1.20
adies' Rubbers
Ien's Lined Rubbers for 60c
fen's Lumberman's Rubbers for 1.00
and all sizes in childrens' Boots at	8
the same reduction.
complete stock of men's and boys'
overcoats and suits to be sold out	10

Thanking you'for past favors, and trusting to see you among our cash customers, we are

Yours truly, PHIL. WILTSE & CO.

N.B .- You can save money by taking advantageof the close prices we will offer you.

Buy It! Try It!

Buy the favorite brand of Machine Oil, viz,

Peerless Machine Oil

A LL general dealers and Hardware men keep it. Does not A gum or corrode and wears better wan castor oil. Ask for it, insist on having is, and when you have given it a trial you will be delighted with the wearing qualities.

Samuel Rogers Oil Co.