WINTER UNDERWEAR
We are at last commencing to have weather more like winter and to feel the need of heavier clothing. We are well prepared for the demand, and have the fullest stock of Men's and Women's Underwear in Brockville. We have two special lines—a line of German Underwear, the special characteristic of which is its extreme softness, soft as down, will not scratch, and almost unshrinkable. Another is a line of Canadian Underwear, better than any Scotch goods imported, all wool, yet almost impossible to shrink them. These are two lines that sell whenever shown. We have them in Men's, Women's and Children's. We keep Men's heavy Undershirts from 25c up, and Women's vests from 25c up.

This is the month we begin. We close on the 1st Feb. We offer the public all classes of Dry Goods at closest prices.
This chronic old story of goods at cost—at 25 per cent to 35 per cent off, we don't believe in and you don't.
You generally find that the prices of people who advertise thus and thus are very much higher than their neighbors.
We believe our prices are right and we don't resort to any excuse, but let the goods and prices speak for themselves. Buyers are asked to visit 205 King St.

TUPPER AT WOLVERHAMPTON.
The High Commissioner speaks on the Unity of the Empire.
London, Jan. 18.—Sir Charles Tupper, Canadian High Commissioner in London, in speaking in Wolverhampton last night, emphasized the mutual necessity that Great Britain and her colonies should preserve the unity of the Empire. Separation of the colonies would diminish materially the empire's greatness, he said, and would cause the colonies to suffer in many ways, notably by loss of prestige and the protection of the British flag. If Great Britain's present policy toward Canada had been adopted in the last century toward the American colonies, the American empire might now be the bright star of the empire.
Fined for Whipping a Peep.
Hamilton, Jan. 19.—John Robinson, head master of the Ancestral Public School, was fined $3 by the magistrate yesterday for assaulting Harry Richardson, a peep, in the school yard. Robinson punished the boy by strapping his hands and the lad's father says the boy's hands were very much injured as a result. Robinson gave notice of appeal.
Canada vs. United States.
Hamilton, Jan. 19.—In the Hamilton Gun Club competition yesterday the match between J. A. Elliott, of Toronto, and W. Edmond, of Toronto, the Canadian champion, Edmond won, the score standing 41 to 43. The result was a great surprise to the Toronto sports press, who backed their man heavily.
Montreal Elections.
Montreal, Jan. 22.—Nominations for mayor and aldermen of the city of Montreal on Saturday in connection with the purpose of selecting a candidate for the Lord Lieutenant. Mr. James Cleland, who has represented the riding for the past four years and who obtained a majority of about 400 of the last election, was the choice of the convention.
E. M. F. Dead.
Quebec, Ont., Jan. 22.—Arthur McQuay, ex-M.P., died last night of paralysis. He resided South Victoria.

CHARGE TO THE JURY.
Judge Delormier Goes Undoubtedly Against Prisoner Hooper.
THE JURY SAYS "NOT GUILTY."
Hooper Remanded to Jail Pending Action in Connection with the Alleged Attempted Drowning at Louiseville Four Months Ago.
JOLIETTE, Jan. 20.—The jury last night in a verdict of "Not guilty."
The closing scene in the Hooper trial was enacted when Judge Delormier arose to make his charge to the jury. The court room was crowded with visitors, who paid the most breathless attention during the delivery of the charge.
As has been stated, it was expected that the judge would charge directly against the prisoner, which was undoubtedly the case.
At 10 o'clock Judge Delormier began his charge, speaking first in French, for

The Body of an Unknown Man Found Near Toronto.
A GASH IN HIS FOREHEAD.
The Corpse Has the Appearance of Being in the Water Several Days—A Missing Unfortunate Man Said to Correspond to the Description.
TORONTO, Jan. 22.—The good people who reside in the neighborhood of the mouth of the Humber river, a mile or two west of the city limits, are evidently anxious to know a young man, whose body was washed ashore in that vicinity yesterday, came to his death.
Two boys on their way home from Sunday school were strolling along the sandy beach south of High park, when by chance they espied a strange object floating in the water a few feet from the shore. On closer observation the boys found the dark mass to be a corpse.
Frightened at the ghastly spectacle they ran as fast as their legs could carry them to Nurse's hotel, a few hundred yards distant, and informed the inmates of the find. The whole neighborhood had been aroused and the landing of the corpse was witnessed by a concourse of people unusually large for the quiet nook in which Nurse's hotel is situated.
A few minutes later Dr. Cotton drove up to the hotel, and after a careful examination of the corpse and of his clothing elicited no information whatever of his identity and very little as to the manner in which death overtook him.
The coroner found the corpse to be that of a man 30 to 35 years of age. The dead man stood 5 feet 8 inches in his stocking feet, was of good physique, had a well-developed chest and splendid arm and leg muscles, and was evidently a man of some means. The face, as far as could be seen in its bruised condition, was that of an Englishman.
The clothing was carefully examined with the hope of finding some name or mark that might serve as a clue to the man's identity, but no such result was achieved. The only letter or mark of any kind whatsoever to be found was the word "Lorne," printed on the hanging strap of the overcoat. The body had evidently been in the water several days, for the rigor mortis stage, which comes on about 24 hours after death, had been in full force for 36 hours, had come and gone, as was indicated by the purple appearance of the abdomen of the corpse.
An angry contention on the dead man's forehead, and the fact that there appeared no froth at the mouth or nose, and that the body, as previously stated, was not at all bloated, led Coroner Cotton to think it advisable to hold legal inquiry as to the cause of death. After due consultation with County Crown Attorney Dewar by telephone, he issued a warrant for an inquest to be held this afternoon.
Fred Bacon, an Uxbridge young man, left there on December 27 to work for Farmer Gibson, near Agincourt, and was seen by the coroner on Friday noon. The description of the body found corresponds to the appearance of the missing man.
ANOTHER SKATING FATALITY.
Three Young Ladies Go Through a Hole in the Ice—One is Drowned.
DUNDAS, Ont., Jan. 22.—A most distressing drowning accident occurred on the canal here Saturday through which a young lady lost her life and two others had a very close call. The recent rains had broken down the ice and covered all the rough spots, making it like a sheet of glass, and crowds were enjoying a skate. No bad spots in the ice were noticed except one near the bridge where a hole was plainly visible, and all avoided it by keeping to the opposite side of the canal except three young ladies, Miss Clark, Miss McKay and Miss Rose, who were going down the canal, did not notice the hole and skated into it.

BOY GUARD FOR QUEEN LIL.
Another Report of the Formation of Canadian Troops for Hawaii.
CHICAGO, Jan. 18.—A special to the Herald from Victoria, B. C., says: The Canadian-Australian steamer, which sailed for Honolulu, takes to the Hawaiian capital letters which have been entrusted into the care of a modest, uncommunicative passenger. They are addressed to Theophilus Davies and contain the summarized information of what has already been accomplished by his agents in the Dominion of Canada in the direction of placing at Queen Liliohalakana's command a picked bodyguard of 250 men, as the monarch could desire.
For some days past indefinite rumors have been afloat that a company of volunteers was being secretly organized at Vancouver for the purpose of aiding the Queen with rifles and swords, a regular hereditary. These rumors were held to be true, and it was reported that although they were ready to enlist the scheme had been abandoned owing to the failure of the principals to provide "the shovels of war." It was hinted that but for this the company to be known as the Queen's Own Guard would have been taken to Honolulu in the Hawaiian steamer.

If Great Britain's present policy toward Canada had been adopted in the last century toward the American colonies, the American empire might now be the bright star of the empire.
Fined for Whipping a Peep.
Hamilton, Jan. 19.—John Robinson, head master of the Ancestral Public School, was fined $3 by the magistrate yesterday for assaulting Harry Richardson, a peep, in the school yard. Robinson punished the boy by strapping his hands and the lad's father says the boy's hands were very much injured as a result. Robinson gave notice of appeal.
Canada vs. United States.
Hamilton, Jan. 19.—In the Hamilton Gun Club competition yesterday the match between J. A. Elliott, of Toronto, and W. Edmond, of Toronto, the Canadian champion, Edmond won, the score standing 41 to 43. The result was a great surprise to the Toronto sports press, who backed their man heavily.
