FORMAL DECLARATION OF WAR

Japan Apologizes to Great Britain for tho Loss of the Kow Shing-Eight Russian Warships Sail for the East - Ambassadors Called Home.

LONDON, Aug. 2 .- The Exchange Telegraph Company declares that war between China and Japan has been formally declared by Japan.

The admiralty has ordered Vice-Admiral Fremantle, who commands the British squadron off the east Asiatic coast, to approach Chinese and Japanese ports, and while observing strict neutrality, to watch the progress of operations. Private despatches say that Japan has closed her legation and recalled her min ister and all her consuls from China. Tokio, Ang. 2 .- The Japanese government has instructed its minister in London to apologize to Great Britain for firing upon and sinking the transport Kow Shing while she was flying the British flag, and to inform Great Britain that the commander of the Japanese eruiser did not know the Kow Shing was a British vessel until after the fight.

Captain Galeworthy, of the Kow Shing, and many other persons who were on board the transport, were rescued by the boats of the Japanese warship Naniwa. SHANGHAI, Aug. 2.—At 11 o'clock in the morning of July 27, the day after the attack on the Chinese transports which resulted in the sinking of the Kow Shing, the Japanese warships Takachio and Hiyei made an attack upon the Chinese Chen Yuen. After a long and desperate fight the Japanese vessels were beaten off, the Hiyei being disabled and rendered helpless. The Chen Yuen, though badly damaged, succeeded in reaching port in safety in company with two gunboats, which also took part in the engagement, which also took part in the engagement, and immediately went into dry dock for repairs after her two days' fighting.
