

THE REPORTER

COUNTY NEWS.

INTERESTING LETTERS FROM OUR STAFF OF CORRESPONDENTS.

A Student of Hires and Gossip. Persons-Intelligences-A Little of Every-thing well mixed up.

WILKESBORO.

Monday, Sept. 24.—We have enjoyed several short showers but require more before ploughing can be made a success.

ELBE MILLS

Monday, Sept. 24.—G. M. Bates and staff are thrashing here this week and last.

Messrs. White & Dillabough have concluded to move their engine to a more convenient place.

Mr. Chas. Wing's cheese secured Derbyshire's special, and a 1st, 2nd and 3rd of the society's prizes at Unionville Fair.

Recent visitors: Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Pyke, Ottawa; Miss Lizzie Leith, Seelye's Bay; Misses Hattie Cornell and Edith Purvis, Lynn.

TOLEDO.

Saturday, Sept. 22.—A large number from here have attended Crosby and Hunter's services at Smith's Falls.

While a load of our young people were going down to Smith's Falls to hear Crosby and Hunter last Sunday they met with an accident very rarely.

FOSTERVILLE.

Monday, Sept. 24.—Threshing is the order of the day.

Alexander Whalen, while wrestling, had two of his fingers broken.

We regret the departure of Thomas Doyle, who has left for Michigan.

Fosterville has lost one of her most popular young ladies in the person of Miss Sade Fleming, who was married on the 19th inst. to Fred Gray, Morton.

The bride and bridesmaid looked charming, dressed in light gray.

A number from here attended the Kingston fair.

Mrs. M. Freeman has returned after visiting friends in Kingston.

Miss Annie McDonald, of Newboro, is the guest of Mrs. Geo. Fleming.

Visitors: Miss A. Salmon, Smith's Falls; Miss M. Murray, Kingston; Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Martin, Cusheuden; Mrs. Timlin and daughter, Jones Falls.

FRONT OF YONGE.

Monday, Sept. 24.—A tramp lodged in the Caintown school house one night last week, and befouled the room.

We have rag pickers and bone gleaners in this township.

Blue Mountain is being searched at present for bears, raccoons and partridge.

Apples are being bought in this township for $1.25 and $1.50 per barrel.

It is reported that Italians will be employed to work on the Jones' pond, as our boys do not take to the water very kindly.

Mr. Ormon Gibson and Mr. Pool went to Sand Bay last week and were rewarded with a fine catch of fish.

Mr. Gibson is a lucky fisherman.

Mr. Henry Powell, of Catdown, has, within the last month, lost three valuable cows from some mysterious disease.

These little cow-horse fairs will soon be things of the past.

Mr. Newton Avery, who has been in the Kingston hospital for treatment, has pretty well recovered, and of this his many friends will be glad, as he is a fine young man and highly esteemed by all who know him.

SEELYE'S BAY.

Friday, Sept. 21.—Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Russell returned home last Saturday from a trip to Niagara Falls and the Toronto fair.

Mrs. W. H. Ralph passed away Tuesday, 11th inst., after a long illness with consumption.

The community deeply sympathize with the afflicted husband and family in their sad bereavement.

During the storm last Saturday night the barn and contents owned by Mr. Josh Hill was struck by lightning and burned.

Dr. W. J. Christie, of Brockville, is practicing with Dr. Bowen.

The government dredge "Ridwan" arrived last Wednesday from Kingston Mills and will finish the job of dredging here here.

C. C. Gilbert is building a winter repository for his bees.

A large number attended the fair at Kingston this week.

Mr. Henslip has sold his tin-shop and property to Stacy Bros., of Warburton. They will take possession on the 15th October.

CHARLESTON LAKE

Our Summer Boats

Ob. Charleston Lake! thy arched charms I would in vain describe.

The white sails or rippled oar by summer's balmy breeze

With colors on the shore, light with whispering trees.

Thy rock-groves hills arrayed in green, or clad in Autumn's haze,

Where faces wreathed in sunny smiles, thy bosom's breast a maze.

Thy broom's decked with fern-clad isles, whose cheerful song is heard,

Where faces wreathed in sunny smiles, thy bosom's breast a maze.

"Point Gendron" I Oh, charming spot! "Camp Jolly," "The White"

And many another cozy cot, Crowned with a wreath of white.

"Cedar Park" and "Duffield House" Adorn thy sloping sides,

Where spacious rooms for guest or spouse, The blush of ocean meets the sky.

With various fish thy waters teem, To tempt the angler's art,

Beasts and birds, large and gleam, To cheer the fisher's heart.

Here and there white sails appear, Spread to the favoring gale,

With boats and yachts, that seem to live, Some sail, some row, some fish, some dive,

Some sail, some row, some fish, some dive, Some row, some sail, some play.

As on thy bosoms we were, Our thoughts, our wishes, rise

To him whose matchless power and grace lie on earth and in the sky.

To him who paints the lilies fair that on thy bosom grow,

Who shows the rainbow's arch, Thy silvery waters flow.

Long may thy charms, Oh, nesting lake! Attract the young, the old,

The choicest blossoms to thy banks, Business unbought with gold.

Long may the Union Jack on high, And stars and stripes, beneath one sky,

Proclaim eternal peace.

Long may thy Athol to thy shrine, His annual field make

Long may thy Athol to thy shrine, His annual field make

Long may the tourist come and go, To breathe thy healing air,

Thou all thy charms, thy beauties share.

Long may the tourist come and go, To breathe thy healing air,

Thou all thy charms, thy beauties share.

Long may the tourist come and go, To breathe thy healing air,

Thou all thy charms, thy beauties share.

Long may the tourist come and go, To breathe thy healing air,

Thou all thy charms, thy beauties share.

Long may the tourist come and go, To breathe thy healing air,

Thou all thy charms, thy beauties share.

Long may the tourist come and go, To breathe thy healing air,

Thou all thy charms, thy beauties share.

Long may the tourist come and go, To breathe thy healing air,

Thou all thy charms, thy beauties share.

Long may the tourist come and go, To breathe thy healing air,

Thou all thy charms, thy beauties share.

Long may the tourist come and go, To breathe thy healing air,

Thou all thy charms, thy beauties share.

Long may the tourist come and go, To breathe thy healing air,

Thou all thy charms, thy beauties share.

MEETING OF WEST LEEDS TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The meeting was held in the school house, Delta, the 20th and 21st Sept., 1894.

The president, Inspector Johnston called the meeting to order at 10 a.m.

Mr. H. S. Moffatt is preparing for a rushing business this fall. He has enlarged his store and in order to make necessary changes will conduct a sale clearing sale at prices that are bound to move the goods.

Ask for Ferd Bouillon's kid gloves at Beach's.

Students intending to write for the prize medals to be given by the W. G. E. U. will please remember that the time for handing in their names expires on Oct. 1st.

Carriage repairing of all kinds done in first class style at lowest prices—at A. James'.

G. W. DeLair was in Athens yesterday and purchased about fifty pounds of ginseng root from Felix Rogers, who gathered it in the vicinity. It is an article of export from this country to China where it is highly valued as a medicine.

The prize list of the Unionville fair appears in this issue. Prize winners will please remember that if they claim any errors or omissions they will please notify the secretary of same before Monday, Oct. 1st, at which time the board will meet to close up the business of the fair.

Chief Constable Brown arrested a young man named Jesse Thomas yesterday charged with stealing a watch, valued at $12.50, from Wm. Steadman, and brought him before Justice Wright.

While everybody is talking of the salmon fishing at Charleston, we are pleased to be in a position to state that the season for black bass is not yet over.

As a result of a day's fishing last week, with the companionship and pilotage of Mr. R. D. Judson, we enriched the editorial table with a fine sample of bass and other pan-fish.

The anniversary services in connection with St. Paul's Presbyterian Church will be held on Sunday, 14th Oct. Tea will be served on the following Monday evening, when addresses by various speakers, interspersed with choice musical selections, will be given.

We are pleased to announce that Mr. Jasper C. Eaton has decided to give one of his popular concerts at Lyndhurst on Friday evening, the last day of the fair.

The annual meeting of the Beekeepers Association of Leeds and Grenville will be held in Brockville, Oct. 29th, beginning at 10.30 a.m.

A special meeting called by the mayor, will be held at the town hall, Friday evening, 21st inst., to transact some business under the Ditches and Watercourses Act, 1894.

After discussion as to the Teachers' Library, the following resolution was passed: That fifty dollars of the interest funds be appropriated for purchasing additional library books, and that Mr. Graham, M. A., Mr. Linklater and Inspector Johnston act as a committee for selecting said books.

It was further resolved that the subscription of fifty cents on the part of each teacher of the Inspectors be supplemented by the Inspectors, who shall be authorized to obtain the Educational Journal for one year.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mr. Withier; Vice-president, Mr. Dunn; Sec.-Treasurer, Mr. Cook; managing committee, Messrs. Jones, Knowlton, and Messrs. McNally, Wilson, Rhodes; Librarian, Mr. Linklater.

It was decided that the next meeting would be held in Gananoque.

Mr. Houston then took up some additional points in composition and showed that essays should be written twice, and in a book for that purpose.

He afterwards dealt with grammar. He said that grammar is a science, but not an art. He also claimed, and with good reason, that it is the science of word-function in making statements, that it is the opposite of composition, and that it is one of the first analytic or inductive sciences.

Mr. Houston all through his work emphasized for the pupil abundant practice, proper correction and discipline. He said that in this way correct habits would be built up.

Inspector Johnston, in well chosen terms, showed the necessity of thorough knowledge on the part of the teacher, in order to secure proper results.

This was the most successful Institute meeting ever held in this Inspectorate.

Monday, Sept. 24.—Mr. Ezra Ireland is at present quite ill.

Miss Lynch, of Jasper, is visiting relatives here.

Miss Hamilton, who has been visiting relatives here for the past month, has returned to her home in Richmond.

Mr. Samuel Ranning had a bee on Friday last for raising his saw-mill. The building is 34 ft by 70, with a boiler room at the rear of this 15 by 30 ft.

A meeting of the 3rd North League of Christian Endeavor was held at the Methodist church on Wednesday evening when the following officers were elected: pres. J. Jones; sec. C. Hall; treas. Miss Eaton; christian work dept., G. Church; library dept., Miss Gallagher; social dept., Miss Ridd. Miss Broughton was also elected. It was decided that this meeting was finished through the session. The above society have

MEETING OF WEST LEEDS TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The meeting was held in the school house, Delta, the 20th and 21st Sept., 1894.

The president, Inspector Johnston called the meeting to order at 10 a.m.

Mr. H. S. Moffatt is preparing for a rushing business this fall. He has enlarged his store and in order to make necessary changes will conduct a sale clearing sale at prices that are bound to move the goods.

Ask for Ferd Bouillon's kid gloves at Beach's.

Students intending to write for the prize medals to be given by the W. G. E. U. will please remember that the time for handing in their names expires on Oct. 1st.

Carriage repairing of all kinds done in first class style at lowest prices—at A. James'.

G. W. DeLair was in Athens yesterday and purchased about fifty pounds of ginseng root from Felix Rogers, who gathered it in the vicinity. It is an article of export from this country to China where it is highly valued as a medicine.

The prize list of the Unionville fair appears in this issue. Prize winners will please remember that if they claim any errors or omissions they will please notify the secretary of same before Monday, Oct. 1st, at which time the board will meet to close up the business of the fair.

Chief Constable Brown arrested a young man named Jesse Thomas yesterday charged with stealing a watch, valued at $12.50, from Wm. Steadman, and brought him before Justice Wright.

While everybody is talking of the salmon fishing at Charleston, we are pleased to be in a position to state that the season for black bass is not yet over.

As a result of a day's fishing last week, with the companionship and pilotage of Mr. R. D. Judson, we enriched the editorial table with a fine sample of bass and other pan-fish.

The anniversary services in connection with St. Paul's Presbyterian Church will be held on Sunday, 14th Oct. Tea will be served on the following Monday evening, when addresses by various speakers, interspersed with choice musical selections, will be given.

We are pleased to announce that Mr. Jasper C. Eaton has decided to give one of his popular concerts at Lyndhurst on Friday evening, the last day of the fair.

The annual meeting of the Beekeepers Association of Leeds and Grenville will be held in Brockville, Oct. 29th, beginning at 10.30 a.m.

A special meeting called by the mayor, will be held at the town hall, Friday evening, 21st inst., to transact some business under the Ditches and Watercourses Act, 1894.

After discussion as to the Teachers' Library, the following resolution was passed: That fifty dollars of the interest funds be appropriated for purchasing additional library books, and that Mr. Graham, M. A., Mr. Linklater and Inspector Johnston act as a committee for selecting said books.

It was further resolved that the subscription of fifty cents on the part of each teacher of the Inspectors be supplemented by the Inspectors, who shall be authorized to obtain the Educational Journal for one year.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mr. Withier; Vice-president, Mr. Dunn; Sec.-Treasurer, Mr. Cook; managing committee, Messrs. Jones, Knowlton, and Messrs. McNally, Wilson, Rhodes; Librarian, Mr. Linklater.

It was decided that the next meeting would be held in Gananoque.

Mr. Houston then took up some additional points in composition and showed that essays should be written twice, and in a book for that purpose.

He afterwards dealt with grammar. He said that grammar is a science, but not an art. He also claimed, and with good reason, that it is the science of word-function in making statements, that it is the opposite of composition, and that it is one of the first analytic or inductive sciences.

Mr. Houston all through his work emphasized for the pupil abundant practice, proper correction and discipline. He said that in this way correct habits would be built up.

Inspector Johnston, in well chosen terms, showed the necessity of thorough knowledge on the part of the teacher, in order to secure proper results.

This was the most successful Institute meeting ever held in this Inspectorate.

Monday, Sept. 24.—Mr. Ezra Ireland is at present quite ill.

Miss Lynch, of Jasper, is visiting relatives here.

Miss Hamilton, who has been visiting relatives here for the past month, has returned to her home in Richmond.

Mr. Samuel Ranning had a bee on Friday last for raising his saw-mill. The building is 34 ft by 70, with a boiler room at the rear of this 15 by 30 ft.

A meeting of the 3rd North League of Christian Endeavor was held at the Methodist church on Wednesday evening when the following officers were elected: pres. J. Jones; sec. C. Hall; treas. Miss Eaton; christian work dept., G. Church; library dept., Miss Gallagher; social dept., Miss Ridd. Miss Broughton was also elected. It was decided that this meeting was finished through the session. The above society have

MEETING OF WEST LEEDS TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The meeting was held in the school house, Delta, the 20th and 21st Sept., 1894.

The president, Inspector Johnston called the meeting to order at 10 a.m.

Mr. H. S. Moffatt is preparing for a rushing business this fall. He has enlarged his store and in order to make necessary changes will conduct a sale clearing sale at prices that are bound to move the goods.

Ask for Ferd Bouillon's kid gloves at Beach's.

Students intending to write for the prize medals to be given by the W. G. E. U. will please remember that the time for handing in their names expires on Oct. 1st.

Carriage repairing of all kinds done in first class style at lowest prices—at A. James'.

G. W. DeLair was in Athens yesterday and purchased about fifty pounds of ginseng root from Felix Rogers, who gathered it in the vicinity. It is an article of export from this country to China where it is highly valued as a medicine.

The prize list of the Unionville fair appears in this issue. Prize winners will please remember that if they claim any errors or omissions they will please notify the secretary of same before Monday, Oct. 1st, at which time the board will meet to close up the business of the fair.

Chief Constable Brown arrested a young man named Jesse Thomas yesterday charged with stealing a watch, valued at $12.50, from Wm. Steadman, and brought him before Justice Wright.

While everybody is talking of the salmon fishing at Charleston, we are pleased to be in a position to state that the season for black bass is not yet over.

As a result of a day's fishing last week, with the companionship and pilotage of Mr. R. D. Judson, we enriched the editorial table with a fine sample of bass and other pan-fish.

The anniversary services in connection with St. Paul's Presbyterian Church will be held on Sunday, 14th Oct. Tea will be served on the following Monday evening, when addresses by various speakers, interspersed with choice musical selections, will be given.

We are pleased to announce that Mr. Jasper C. Eaton has decided to give one of his popular concerts at Lyndhurst on Friday evening, the last day of the fair.

The annual meeting of the Beekeepers Association of Leeds and Grenville will be held in Brockville, Oct. 29th, beginning at 10.30 a.m.

A special meeting called by the mayor, will be held at the town hall, Friday evening, 21st inst., to transact some business under the Ditches and Watercourses Act, 1894.

After discussion as to the Teachers' Library, the following resolution was passed: That fifty dollars of the interest funds be appropriated for purchasing additional library books, and that Mr. Graham, M. A., Mr. Linklater and Inspector Johnston act as a committee for selecting said books.

It was further resolved that the subscription of fifty cents on the part of each teacher of the Inspectors be supplemented by the Inspectors, who shall be authorized to obtain the Educational Journal for one year.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mr. Withier; Vice-president, Mr. Dunn; Sec.-Treasurer, Mr. Cook; managing committee, Messrs. Jones, Knowlton, and Messrs. McNally, Wilson, Rhodes; Librarian, Mr. Linklater.

It was decided that the next meeting would be held in Gananoque.

Mr. Houston then took up some additional points in composition and showed that essays should be written twice, and in a book for that purpose.

He afterwards dealt with grammar. He said that grammar is a science, but not an art. He also claimed, and with good reason, that it is the science of word-function in making statements, that it is the opposite of composition, and that it is one of the first analytic or inductive sciences.

Mr. Houston all through his work emphasized for the pupil abundant practice, proper correction and discipline. He said that in this way correct habits would be built up.

Inspector Johnston, in well chosen terms, showed the necessity of thorough knowledge on the part of the teacher, in order to secure proper results.

This was the most successful Institute meeting ever held in this Inspectorate.

Monday, Sept. 24.—Mr. Ezra Ireland is at present quite ill.

Miss Lynch, of Jasper, is visiting relatives here.

Miss Hamilton, who has been visiting relatives here for the past month, has returned to her home in Richmond.

Mr. Samuel Ranning had a bee on Friday last for raising his saw-mill. The building is 34 ft by 70, with a boiler room at the rear of this 15 by 30 ft.

A meeting of the 3rd North League of Christian Endeavor was held at the Methodist church on Wednesday evening when the following officers were elected: pres. J. Jones; sec. C. Hall; treas. Miss Eaton; christian work dept., G. Church; library dept., Miss Gallagher; social dept., Miss Ridd. Miss Broughton was also elected. It was decided that this meeting was finished through the session. The above society have

MEETING OF WEST LEEDS TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The meeting was held in the school house, Delta, the 20th and 21st Sept., 1894.

The president, Inspector Johnston called the meeting to order at 10 a.m.

Mr. H. S. Moffatt is preparing for a rushing business this fall. He has enlarged his store and in order to make necessary changes will conduct a sale clearing sale at prices that are bound to move the goods.

Ask for Ferd Bouillon's kid gloves at Beach's.

Students intending to write for the prize medals to be given by the W. G. E. U. will please remember that the time for handing in their names expires on Oct. 1st.

Carriage repairing of all kinds done in first class style at lowest prices—at A. James'.

G. W. DeLair was in Athens yesterday and purchased about fifty pounds of ginseng root from Felix Rogers, who gathered it in the vicinity. It is an article of export from this country to China where it is highly valued as a medicine.

The prize list of the Unionville fair appears in this issue. Prize winners will please remember that if they claim any errors or omissions they will please notify the secretary of same before Monday, Oct. 1st, at which time the board will meet to close up the business of the fair.

Chief Constable Brown arrested a young man named Jesse Thomas yesterday charged with stealing a watch, valued at $12.50, from Wm. Steadman, and brought him before Justice Wright.

While everybody is talking of the salmon fishing at Charleston, we are pleased to be in a position to state that the season for black bass is not yet over.

As a result of a day's fishing last week, with the companionship and pilotage of Mr. R. D. Judson, we enriched the editorial table with a fine sample of bass and other pan-fish.

The anniversary services in connection with St. Paul's Presbyterian Church will be held on Sunday, 14th Oct. Tea will be served on the following Monday evening, when addresses by various speakers, interspersed with choice musical selections, will be given.

We are pleased to announce that Mr. Jasper C. Eaton has decided to give one of his popular concerts at Lyndhurst on Friday evening, the last day of the fair.

The annual meeting of the Beekeepers Association of Leeds and Grenville will be held in Brockville, Oct. 29th, beginning at 10.30 a.m.

A special meeting called by the mayor, will be held at the town hall, Friday evening, 21st inst., to transact some business under the Ditches and Watercourses Act, 1894.

After discussion as to the Teachers' Library, the following resolution was passed: That fifty dollars of the interest funds be appropriated for purchasing additional library books, and that Mr. Graham, M. A., Mr. Linklater and Inspector Johnston act as a committee for selecting said books.

It was further resolved that the subscription of fifty cents on the part of each teacher of the Inspectors be supplemented by the Inspectors, who shall be authorized to obtain the Educational Journal for one year.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Mr. Withier; Vice-president, Mr. Dunn; Sec.-Treasurer, Mr. Cook; managing committee, Messrs. Jones, Knowlton, and Messrs. McNally, Wilson, Rhodes; Librarian, Mr. Linklater.

It was decided that the next meeting would be held in Gananoque.

Mr. Houston then took up some additional points in composition and showed that