She also read the message of the President of the USCO as it appears every month in the Voice, our monthly paper. Emily Lester read her financial report, which showed a good balance. The meeting closed with singing of the Queen. After this we all moved with our pot luck suppers to the home of Florence and Lloyd Sawyer on Beverley Lake, who hosted our club for this event. With home-made entertainment, we enjoyed ourselves in the beautiful surroundings. We all had a good time, enjoyed the food and said goodbye till September 18, 1992. when we will start a new season.
