

PORTLAND UNITED CHURCH WOMEN

The UCW met in the friendship room on Tuesday May 20, 1992 at 7:30 p.m. Shirley Scott opened the worship with a poem about gardens. Their theme being "The importance of the growing of our children and gardens". Hymn 23 "In the garden" was sung. Psalm no. 148 was read responsively with Jean Polk. Vulnerability of birds was read by Pat Carr, followed by Prayer. Vivian Perrin read a poem "The Childs Appeal". Hymn 11 "Beautiful Garden of Prayer" was sung. "Daily Thoughts and Daily Needs" was read by Peggy Bond followed by prayer. Verna Sled gave her thoughts of life and how important it is for everyone to live a good Christian life, putting our church and God in first place. Jennifer Bond who had visited Paris, France from April 25 to May 13 shared with us some of her experiences there with her pen pal. Jean Polk thanked Jennifer and presented her with a small gift. Peggy Bond welcomed everyone and opened the business with "Our Garden". The minutes were read and approved. Roma Derraugh gave the treasurer's report. Myrtena McVean gave the community friendship report in the absence of Ruby Simmons. Peggy closed the business with an appropriate poem. All enjoyed a social time.
