 PROTECTIVE FACTORS

This teleconference is for parents who want to raise their children to make the right choices about alcohol and drugs. We will talk about issues related to alcohol and drug use, and positive parenting techniques. We will also look at the kinds of strategies to use with children, from pre-schoolers to adolescents, to limit the risk of their involvement with alcohol and drugs. Time will be set aside for you to talk to a panel of experts and to raise specific parenting questions concerning substance abuse.

Teleconferencing enables you to participate in this unique learning opportunity with other parents across Ontario without leaving your own community.

Teleconference sites will be set up in each community and linked together via telephone. Site coordinators will lead a pre-conference discussion and arrange for the hook-up to the teleconference. You will be advised of the location of your site upon submission of your application.

ELGIN UNITED CHURCH WOMEN

Elgin U.C.W. met on Tuesday, Oct. 13th, at 8 pm. in the church. President Sandra Freeman welcomed everyone and opened the meeting with thoughts on the 30th Anniversary of the U.C.W. "Caring & Sharing".

The theme of the worship service was "Thankfulness", the call to worship being Psalm 95 read in unison. Hymn #570, "For the fruits of His Creation" was sung followed by responsive reading from Psalm 103, "My soul give thanks to the Lord." Hilda Campbell read the meditation, based on Psalm 92, verse 1, which told a story from Fulton Oursler's book of a slave woman's life of thankfulness. Thanksgiving Day should be a daily routine in our lives. Janet Weisiger led in prayer, and the offering was received and dedicated. Hymn, "Count your blessings" closed the worship.

Jaye Salisbury and Susan Stone reported on the Quin-Mo-Lac U.C.W. week-end in September.

The program was led by Rev. Don McLean on the Mission & Service fund. What projects does the M. & S. fund support and who are the people that do the work in carrying out the mission of the church. Eight projects in the Toronto Conference, supported by M. & S., were studied, and from this exercise we learned how difficult it is to make the money extend to cover all the need. Half of the M & S funds support Overseas mission, and half the home mission in Canada.

Due to the late hour, the minutes of the last meeting were approved as written. Twenty-one members answered the roll call, and 2 visitors were present. Correspondence consisted of several thank-you notes and an invitation to meet with Portland U.C.W. on Tues. Oct. 20th to celebrate the U.C.W. 30th Anniversary. The planning meeting for the bazaar is Monday, the 19th at 1:30 pm. at Sandra Freeman's. The date for the bazaar was changed from Nov. 6th to Wednesday, Nov. 4th. Lydia Tackaberry reported for Leorene Hayes for the flower fund. Loree Smith gave the treasurer's report. Roll call for the next meeting will be articles for Bridge House, Kingston. Several items were reported for the happiness file, and prayer was requested for Rick & Laurie Bryden's little baby daughter who will be entering Sick Children's Hospital in Toronto.

Sandra closed the meeting with a poem. Lunch and a time of fellowship was enjoyed by all.
