SEELEY'S BAY-

The October 6 meeting of the St. Peter's Anglican Church Women was held at Jenny Goodier's house with 12 plus one visitor present.

The meeting opened with the Worship Service led by Mary Dean and Vera Bennett. Hymn 310-1 Will Sing of the Mercies at the Lord for Ever and 312 Great is the Faithfulness was sung. Mary led us in a Thankfulness Prayer. Then Vera presented part of a tape from the AWARE CONFERENCE (standing for "Anglican Women's Alive, Renewed and Enriched")

The speaker was a teacher from British Columbia, Maudine Fee, who reminded us that we were chosen people even if we don't always think so, Mary read the scripture and singled out Peter 4:10 to tell us to use what gift we have for the glory of God. She went on to exhort us to use the gifts because God calls us to do so. She then gave us a questionnaire to fill out and return next month to see where are gifts are.

The Business followed, The minutes were read by Gail Moore and approved as read. The smorgasbord to be held October 28th from 4:30 to 7:30 adults $7.00 and children $3.50 in the Legion Hall, was discussed as well as the Rummage Sale to be held at St. Luke's Hall Lyndhurst Friday the 23rd of October and Saturday the 24th.

We were told there would be refreshments after each church service.

We were informed that Ethelene Tye's 80th birthday was the 14th of October and it was decided to get together and celebrate it at the lodge at lunch-time that day. Gail mentioned the need for a crib for the nursery.

Mary closed with prayer and we said Grace.

Jenny Goodier's lunch was enjoyed by all.
