LYNDHURST UCW

Our meeting was held in the church hall June 3 at 8 p.m. The President, Audrey Welch welcomed our sister UCW's from Delta, Olivet and Seeley's Bay and the Lyndhurst Anglican Women. The theme "The Right Time for Everything" was read by Audrey Welch. Hazel Gilfillen had the devotional, she read scripture Ecclesiastes Chapter 3, verses 3-11. Ruby Sweet read an interesting test about "Time for Everything". The devotional ended with prayer. The offering was taken and dedicated by Mary Townsend. Hymn 500 was sung, "Take Time to be Holy". Mary Townsend read a poem "Three Days" and the Lord's Prayer was repeated in unison. It was moved by Marion Warren the June minutes be adopted and seconded by Vienna Kelsey. The guest speaker was Lloyd Crabb and his wife Jean from Newboro. They have been on a two year assignment as Mr. Crabb is an Engineer in Pakistan. Mrs. Crabb helped at homes and in hospitals. An interesting talk was given on India, Pakistan and surrounding districts. They had on display, rugs made from goat hair, hats, pine cones, toe socks, shoes, etc. They were also dressed in attire for the evening. A delicious lunch was served by the ladies. Thanks was given by all UCW's and guests for the evening. Ethel Tye

ST. LUKE'S LYNDHURST ACW

On June 6, at the home of Vera McElroy, seven members were present. The meeting was opened by Betty Hudson reading from the Anglican Magazine, Invocation. Marjorie Hughes Scripture Reading Mark 4 - 35-41. Meditation and prayer by all. Roll call was answered with a verse of scripture reading containing the word "Observe". The word for September is "shine". A report from the Rummage Sale showed a great success, thanks to all supporters. Winners of the Anglican Parish of Leeds Rear Grocery Basket Hazel Gilfillen and Heather Dean had been announced in three local papers. A new cruet set for St. Luke's purchased by ACW members was discussed. Hopefully the interior of St. Luke's will be painted during summer months also steps at Vestry are to be replaced. Members from ACW reported having an interesting and enjoyable evening June 3 at Lyndhurst UCW Church Hall with the speaker being Mr. Lloyd Crabb. The September 5 meeting will be held at Marjorie Hughes' home. The Lord's Prayer and Grace was said by all. A Penny Auction was enjoyed. Sandwiches and tea were made by Ruth Johnson and Vera.
