The Elgin and District Co-op Nursery School finished up an exciting and interesting year with a graduation celebration held on Monday, May 27 at the school.

President, Lorraine Porter greeted an audience of more than 100 friends and family. The evening program began with entertainment by the teachers and children. Teacher, Penny Capell, dressed as Mother Goose, and helped by assistant Barb Neff lead the program. Children either individually or in small groups recited various nursery rhymes for the audience. Next the boys and girls received their graduation certificates. The final part of the evening was a social time for the children and their families and friends. Refreshments were lemonade and two specially decorated graduation cakes. It was a delightful evening enjoyed by all.

The children and their families want to thank Penny and Barb and Anna for the work they put into the program for that evening.

Penny Capell is leaving the nursery school. The children have benefitted from her hard work and caring nature during the year. They will all miss her.

The new teacher for next fall is Sue Wade. She brings a great deal of enthusiasm and experience to the nursery school. We welcome her and look forward to getting to know her in September.
