

TOWNSHIP OF REAR OF LEEDS & LANSDOWNE

ST. JOHN'S ACW

The November meeting held at the home of Jean Roantree opened with the Lord's Prayer, followed by Prayer #3 from the ACW Book.

Ruth Anna Glover read the Scripture St. Mark 12: 38-44.

Mabel Standen read the Meditation and all members repeated the Prayer.

Roll call was answered by 9 members, who answered with a verse of St. John, containing the word "Love". The October minutes were read and approved.

Denise Gordanier gave the treasurer's report and the collection was taken.

A nice sum of money was made at our October Arts and Crafts Fair and Fall Rummage Sale.

A thank you card will be sent to Elaine Bryan to express our heart-felt thanks for her lovely crafts and time she provides at our Arts and Crafts.

The ACW will give Miriam Houghton a Christmas Gift Certificate from the Glen House on the Parkway, in appreciation for playing our Church organ.

Each lady will make 2 dozen cookies to send to Carveth Nursing Home in Gananoque, and one extra dozen cookies to be divided among ourselves at our Christmas Party.

In place of a Christmas Gift exchange, we will give money to an "Almost Home", house in Kingston, for parents with sick children in the hospital. The December roll call will be answered with the word "Glory".

The December meeting will be held at the home of Eleanor Wills.

Meeting closed with Grace. Etta Glover and Denise Gordanier served a lovely lunch.

in Ontario

Betty Tudor, a pubkeeper from Exeter, England, finally gave up trying to get a driver's license. She had taken 273 driving lessons during the past 19 years and ultimately had been barred from at least three driving schools. After she failed her most recent driving test, her examiner was admitted to a mental hospital, although the 55-year-old woman told a reporter, "I'm not sure I was totally to blame."
