

LYNDHURST UCW

Our first meeting of the New Year was held at the home of Audrey Welch on Monday afternoon, January 6, 1992.

Our president, Audrey Welch opened with a poem "Memory Time". This was quite appropriate as this year, 1992, will be the 30th Anniversary for the UCW. Ruth Galway chose her theme "Walking Through the Open Door" and looking into the New Year with prayer, joy strength, courage, etc. We repeated psalm 24 in unison. The hymn "Standing at the Portals" was sung and Ruth closed with prayer.

Offering was taken by Ruth and dedicated by Mary Townsend. Roll call was answered by eleven ladies, each one relating to an event or something unusual happening as a UCW member.

Annual reports were given by members holding office. Our membership and flower fund dues were paid.

Business and correspondence was attended to, including a thank-you note from Vienna Kelsey for being remembered at Christmas time. The meeting was adjourned followed by benediction. A lovely lunch was served by Audrey and Mary. Iva Sweet gave the courtesy remarks. Betty Moorhead
