LOCAL WOMAN TO ATTEND BRAZILIAN CONFERENCE

Mrs. Marjorie Jackson, Elgin, Diocesan President of the Anglican Church Women will be attending the World Wide Anglican Encounter, in Salvador, Bahia, Brazil. This is an Anglican participation in the Ecumenical Decade "Churches in Solidarity with Women" presents opportunity for celebrating life for a reign of justice and peace. Planned by an international committee, the program focuses on empowering women to challenge structures oppressive to all of humankind and on affirming and giving visibility to women's perspectives in the struggle for peace and justice.

Stories of women's lives and plans for change strategies are intended to encourage solidarity and positive action in the Decade of Evangelism in the home churches of the participants.

Four other ladies from the Diocese of Ontario who will be attending this conference are Helene Hannah, Kingston, Judy Graham, Tweed, Anne Skowronski, Marmora and Sandra Laporte, Frankford. In preparation they meet regularly, share information concerning global issues such as economy, violence, militarism, family life, spirituality and theology. About 2000 people from around the world are expected at this conference in March.
