SENIORS MEET MARY COOK

One hundred and fifty Senior Citizens from Westport and neighbouring communities filled the Canadian Legion Hall to hear noted speaker and writer Mary Cook of Carleton Place and they were not disappointed. With her wit and ability to paint word pictures she took her listeners on a nostalgic journey to Renfrew County where she grew up during the depression. Money was scarce but there was an abundance of love, family unity, high moral values and ingenuous ways of making do and making the best of bad situations. As she used expressions like, "redding up the kitchen", "closing a deal with a handshake" or "trusting your neighbour", her audience was nodding in agreement. As Mary talked about her mother and her care of the family, many eyes were moist as they too remembered the hard work and sacrifice of parents when times were tough.

Following a standing ovation for the speaker, Frances Murphy of the Hands Across The Year Committee, presented her with a scenic clock with a view of Westport from Foley Mountain.

Previous to Mrs. Cook's address, everyone enjoyed a hot meal and brief talk by Marian McLeod of the North Leeds Senior Support Group.
