The Philipsville Women's Institute held their meeting on Thursday, November 10 at 7:30 p.m.

Salute to agriculture and 4-H, we had Cindy French and Katie Bond as the two speakers. Diana Haskin outlined the 4-H club, it started in Manitoba in 1913, first one in Leeds was 1923, at Brockville it was called a pig club, because someone gave them two pigs to raise. The profit from their sale supported the club.

The girls told of projects they have done, and displayed the awards they had received, after which they had a question and answer period, then they served meat balls they had prepared.

Sylvia Graham was hostess for this meeting. She helped serve the lunch.
