

SEELEY'S BAY U.C.W.

Myrtle Simpson welcomed us all to the June meeting, as usual in the C.E. room at 8 p.m.

Cathie DeGraff took the devotional for all of us.

Business - Secretary's minutes and treasurer's report were read and approved.

Members are asked to supply 300 "squares" for a special event for July 2.

We were reminded that our usual July 30, food sale is cancelled, as we are catering to a wedding reception that day.

A good deal of discussion took place concerning plans and events in the future, especially needed at this time because we close our meetings for July and August.

Program - Our special program this month was on "India" presented by Mrs. Turner who recently spent 4 months travelling.

It is impossible (at least for me) to try to give a report of her presentation of India. Her picture told the story so well, along with her own story.

It was new information to many of us, as she described the people, their life as compared to ours, the gardens, pasture for cattle, where there is almost no rain (no rain there for past 3 years), and their ways of coping with daily living.

It was so interesting and worth while that we were pleased to welcome several members from Lyndhurst and Olivet U.C.W. to share our evening.

Our President Dorothy Heys presented Mrs. Turner with a Seeley's Bay Church plate and coffee mug. Mrs. Turner remarked that she always tried to have a plate from each place she has served.

A social time followed. See everyone at September meeting. No meeting July and August - summer holidays.

SEELEY'S BAY SENIORS

The June meeting opened with the Lord's Prayer with the president, Freda Tempest, presiding.

Minutes of previous meeting approved as read, and the treasurer's report adopted.

Thanks was expressed to Orvin Martin for his excellent planning for the 'Moonwalk'. Led by the antique fire truck from Seeley's Bay Fire Dept. we walked 143.4 km. We did well this year and will do better next year.

Plans were made for the Zone Rally in Brockville on June 15th. We will go by bus and are asked to provide sandwiches and squares.

The gift of two plastic tablecloths from Jean Rogers is much appreciated. Happy birthday was sung and best wishes to those having birthdays this month.

Jean Rogers read of the early days in our village and Linda Horsey gave her response to the question "What is a Senior?"

Social time enjoyed with cards and rummy.

PHILIPPSVILLE WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The institute held their June meeting in their hall. Leorene called the meeting to order with the Ode & Mary Stewart Collect.

Roll Call was relate your first attempt at using makeup. Motto was Age is a state of mind.

Marion introduced our guest speaker Moreen McCarthy who gave a very interesting talk on skin care, make up application. There are different skin types, and ways to care for each, as you age so does your skin, but there are ways to help it to keep a youthful appearance.

There was an interesting question period.

Moreen used Marion to demonstrate the proper way to care for your skin, and the right colours to use in your makeup, how to apply it discreetly.

The meeting closed, and a social hour was enjoyed, lunch had been prepared by Ethel Day, Leorene Hayes, and Marion Stone.

Veta Bolton had the marked tea cup, Moreen Ready won the door prize.

The Philipsville Outreach Neighbours held their monthly dinner on June 2nd. The hall and tables were decorated in keeping with the theme "Everything is coming up roses".

Our M.P.P. and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Runciman and Reeve Arch Ostrom sat at the head table. Mr. Runciman spoke on happenings at Queen's Park informing us about Sunday shopping, car insurance and abortion clinics to be set up.

Anna Greenhorn said Grace, and over 85 were served, with more than 25 take-out dinners.

Vera and Gerald Hart were surprised to receive a cersage and boutonniere respectively, presented by Jeanette Runciman on behalf of Outreach Neighbours. They celebrate their 50th Wedding Anniversary on June 15.

Pictures were taken of the occasion. Don and Kaye Williams donated lovely african violets and Joe Reason did a great job of auctioning them off, many thanks to all who helped, we are in the process of adding an addition to our hall.

Our next dinner for our seniors is July 7th.
