

THE ROYAL CANADIAN LEGION, BRANCH 491, SEELEY'S BAY President Les Smyth held a Past President's dinner and honours and awards night on Saturday 18 June 1988. The highlight of the evening was the presentation of a Certificate of Merit to a deserving and surprised Comrade Joe Turner. Master of Ceremonies Orvin Martin kept the evening rolling along in a professional manner and Deputy Zone Commander Bill Nolan called upon our Zone Commander Marg Moule to present some of the many awards that were issued throughout the evening. Forty Year pins went to Charter members Edgar Nash, Ralph Webb, Sandy Gray and Past President Terry Carlo. Past Officers medals went to Comrades Les McTaggart, Bob Hope and Ted Smith. A Five Year Sargeant at Arms pin went to Comrade Don Charboneau. Immediate Past President Len Whiteford received a Past President's medal, pin and special plaque, and expressed his thanks. Ladies Auxiliary President Grace Tryon assisted by Zone Commander Mary Battams presented the following awards, to Immediate Past President Joan Whiteford a Past President's Medal, pin and special plaque. Service medals and pins to Comrades Norleen Hope, Martha Bennet and June Smith. A Ten Year pin to Comrade Theresa Stewart, a Five Year pin to Comrade Barbara Cross and a special plaque for her kindness and assistance to Zone Commander Mary Battams. Past Presidents Joan and Len Whiteford expressed their appreciation to the incoming Presidents, their committees and all who contributed to such a gala evening in their honour.

Standing: 1st Vice President Les Taggart, Treasurer and Past President Joe Turner. Building Chairman Ted Smith. Deputy zone Commander Bill Nolan and Zone Commander Marg Moule.

Standing: Sargeant at Arms Velma Turner, Immediate Past President Joan Whiteford, President Grace Tryon and Zone Commander Mary Battams.
