

LYNDHURST

Lynhurst U.C.W.

Marion Warren, the president, opened the meeting with a poem, "Mother". We observed one minute of silence in memory of Myrtle Compeau. We sang hymn 394, "Happy the Home When God is There". The Lord's prayer was said in unison. Marior's theme for Devotional was "Mother". The Devotional closed with prayer.

The offering was received and dedicated by Rev. Turner.

Roll call was answered by 13 members. Each told how many children and grandchildren they had.

Marion thanked everyone who helped with the Daffodil Tea.

Minutes were read and approved and the treasurer's report given.

Marion attended an executive meeting at Elgin to make plans for the Rally at Portland in September. Lynhurst will have the worship.

There will be an executive meeting at Glenburnie May 11th.

There were also plans made for the lunch to be held on Anniversary Sunday, May 15th, after the dedication of the hall.

A letter was read by Rev. Turner from "The Community of Major Concern" on views of sexual orientation.

It was moved by Velma Kelsey and seconded by Vienna Kelsey to take action on road conditions on Hwys. 15 and 32 due to so many accidents.

There will be a church council meeting at Lyndhurst on May 10th at 8 p.m.

Velma Kelsey gave a vote of thanks to Iva Sweet for being hostess, to Ruby Sweet and Mary Townsend for lunch and to all who helped with the meeting.

ST. JOHN'S A.C.W.

The May meeting was held at the home of Ruth Anna Glover. The meeting opened with the Lord's Prayer and the Guild Prayers. Ruth Anna Glover read the scripture, St. John 16:7-16. Roll call was answered by nine members. The April minutes were read and approved. Treasurer's report was given. The Collector was given.

Joyce Brown and Jean Roantree handed in their birthtree money. Joyce Brown and Carol Jacob gave a donation towards an altar table cloth in memory of Phyllis Nolan. The Spring Rummage Sale was discussed. Carol Jacob gave a donation towards the Bake Table. The A.C.W. is planning a Fall Arts and Crafts the 15th October at the Lyndhurst Legion Hall. The A.C.W. are planning a Craft and Bake Table at Etta Glover's Store in July.

The A.C.W. gave a donation to Floyd Standen's little boy, Kristopher Standen towards his heart operation in Sick Children's Hospital in Toronto.

Bob Perkins will look at our Church and give an estimate on the siding. The carpet repair in our Church was discussed.

Joyce Brown will have the June meeting. Ruth Anna Glover closed the meeting with Grace.

We were pleased to have little Bri Anra Gordanier as our visitor.
