Hunting Ethics

- Ethical hunters are concerned about the environment and non-game species.
- Ethical hunters support sound wildlife research, management, laws and enforcement.
- Ethical hunters are skilled in the use of the tools of the sport. Be it rifle, shotgun, or bow, they know its capabilities and its limits.
- Ethical hunters do not measure the success of the day afield by the quantity of game taken, rather by the quality of the experience.
- Ethical hunters observe the rules of safe and skillful firearm handling and fair chase as well as all of the regulations that apply.
- Ethical hunters do not trespass.
- Ethical hunters obey all laws.
