

BEVERLEY SENIOR CITIZENS

The Beverley Senior Citizens will be starting their meal program again this fall. The first meal will be served at 12 noon on Wednesday, September 27th, thereafter on every 2nd and 4th Wednesday of each month. The price will remain the same, $3.00 for members, seniors and shut-ins. For all others the price is $5.00.

Our regular meetings will start on Friday, September 15th and on the third Friday each month at 2p.m.

The draw on our afgan (1st prize) and 2 cushions (2nd prize) will be made on September 15 at our first meeting. The afgan was donated by a friend of one of our members and the cushions were made and donated by Jane Breedyk.

Again we had a very successful home-made candy sale at the Delta Fair. Also I am sure everyone was very pleased to learn that the oldest active member of our club, Eva Dougall, won first and special prize on her apron at the Fair. She also won a prize for the oldest entrant. Eva, may I say for the club we are all proud of you.

Some of our members joined with Lyndhurst Seniors on a bus trip to the Kitten Mills at Lanark and a tour of the Hershey Plant in Smiths Falls.

DELTA FAIR PARADE MARCHES ONWARD

Hundreds of spectators lined the streets as they anxiously awaited the arrival of the 159th edition of the Delta Fair Parade. 58 entries were registered for the August 1st event which followed Highway #42 from Beverley Elementary School to the Fair Grounds. The Westport detachment of the Ontario Provincial Police led the parade with Car #01, a 1941 Chev Cruiser which was floated down from Toronto especially for this event. Following behind was the Village of Delta's 1937 Ford LaFrance fire truck, escorting this year's parade marshal, Jill Patterson. Jill is Ontario's Queen of the Furrow for 1988-89 and the recipient of the 1989 Canada Day Award of Excellence.

Other local dignitaries present for the parade included Fair President Gordon French, Hon. Fair Director Howard Jones, Hon. Fair Director and Reeve of Bastard and South Burgess Arch Ostrom, Leeds-Grenville County Warden Betty Weedmark, Leeds M.P.P. Bob Runciman, Josephine Asquith and James Paul both of whom are directors of the Ontario Association of Agricultural Societies.

This year's parade boasted 4 musical entries: The HMCS Ontario Drum and Bugle Corps from Kingston, Indian River Central School Band from Philadelphia, N.Y., Roy Fawcett's Organ Display from Winchester, and the O.Y.B. Lamplighters from Smiths Falls. Marching in front of the military band was the colour party from the Prescott Legion.

As the parade passed in front of the grandstand, Director Ronald Morris gave a brief description of each entry while judges Gail Astley of Ottawa, Roma Wing of Westport and Hugo Hoogenraad of Brockville made their final revisions. In the category of entries representing an organization, the following prizes were awarded:

Float: 1st Delta Park, 2nd Delta Ball Team, 3rd Leeds Syrup Producers.

Motorized Vehicles: 1st Old Stone Mill, 2nd Seeleys Bay Fire Department, 3rd Kitley Twp. Fire Department.

Pedestrians: 1st Land O' Lakes Shriners Clowns.

In the category of prizes awarded to individuals, the following entries were selected:

Float: 1st Bill Jordan of Elgin, 2nd Coon's Lumber.

Motorized Vehicle: 1st Patricia Bond, 2nd Ross Moore, 3rd George Jackson.

Clowns: 1st Steve Marshall of Delta, 2nd Carrie Leith of Delta, 3rd Miss Piggy.

Horse Entries: 1st Arnold Covey of Lyndhurst, 2nd Edith Brown of Napanee, 3rd Wilson Lakes of Athens.

Bicycle Entries: 1st Trevor French of Delta, 2nd Kim Warren, 3rd Clifford Gallenger and Dog of Brockville.

Best Overall Float: Lombardy Agricultural Society - Homecraft Division.

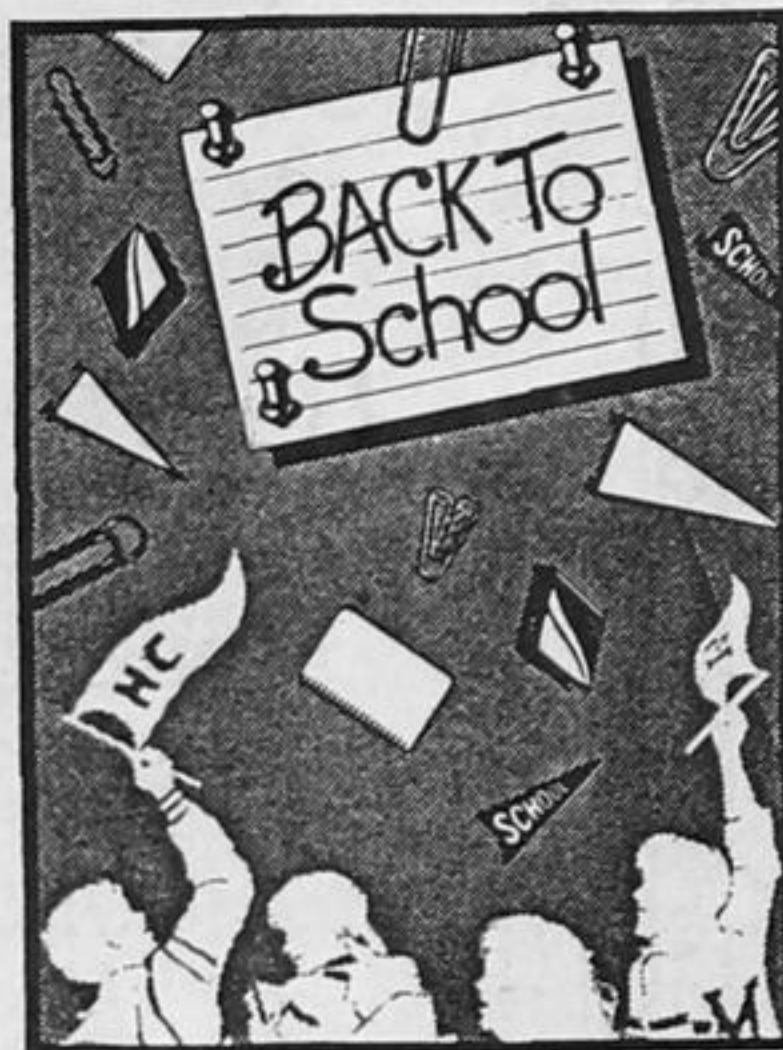

Best Overall Horsedrawn: Elwood Gamble of Lyndhurst.

Following the parade, the bands put on a musical display in front of the grandstand for the onlooking crowds while the visiting dignitaries were treated to a light snack and refreshments in the Board room. The hospitality was arranged by Hon Fair Director Betty Ostrom in her usual competent fashion.

Parade organizers William Morris and Beth Sawyer would like to thank all participants, guests, judges, drivers and spectators for making this year's parade one of the best in recent history. We look forward to seeing everyone at next year's 160th Anniversary!

*As of September 1, 1989,
my practice will be closed
due to my retirement.
I would like to take this opportunity to thank all my patients for their loyalty and support.*

THANKSGIVING AT THE OLD STONE MILL - DELTA

October 7, 8 and 9, 1989

Saturday, October 8, starting at nine a.m. there's the Bake & Produce Sale. Once again, Dr. Paul Fritz, Professor of History, McMaster University will conduct Historical walking tours of the village. Mr. and Mrs. Denault will arrive in appropriate costume to talk about social events of the time and the operation of the Mill. During the day you are free to browse through the mill and members will be there to answer questions or guide you on a tour. Fresh cider will be made from a 100 year old press.

Scarecrow and Jack O'Lantern contests will add to the fun. Watch the October Lantern and the posters if you wish to enter.

As a special attraction this year Mother Barnes (the Witch of Plum Hollow) will be at the Mill during the celebrations telling fortunes at 25¢ each (Inflation hasn't hit this item in a century.)

Sunday the Mill will be open for visitors and the festival will close with the drawing for the doll, sweater and turkey. At this time the mystery object's identity will be revealed and we will discover if anyone was able to recognize its use.

Monday, Thanksgiving Day the Mill will be open for the last time this season.

Plan to attend THANKSGIVING AT THE OLD MILL. ENTRY IS FREE.

P.S. We welcome your contributions of baking and produce. Call Myrla 924-2444 or Betty 928-2088 or Anna 359-5847.
