

Lyndhurst

ST. LUKE'S A.C.W.

At the home of Jean Lafferty six members were present. The meeting was opened by all repeating the Lord's Prayer. The Scripture was read by Betty Hudson, Sally Stoner, and Ruth Johnson. Meditation by Hilda Talboys. Prayer was read by all.

Minutes from the January meeting were read and approved. Roll call was taken in turn by a scripture reading containing the word "beginning." The word for March is "spirit."

It was agreed by members that Jean should purchase a vacuum cleaner for St. Luke's church from the A.C.W. A letter from the Anglican Women's Diocese of Ontario inviting members to the Annual Meeting April 22 at St. Peter's Anglican Church, Collins Bay, was read. Also read were a thank-you card from Rev. Boerger and family for the Christmas Poinsettia; a letter of thanks with a donation for Mary Woods' memorial luncheon from her husband Leon, Jamie and Katrina Driscoll. Vera McElroy has the travelling shirt. The go-ahead has been given to purchase a Dossal Curtain, burse and veil, bookmarkers, material or ready-made to be selected by Ruth Johnson and Sally Stoner.

The program was given by Betty Hudson, readings from the book Ideals called "February and the Friendly Touch."

Grace was said by all members. Lunch was served by Jean.
