James also was at the head table.

Immediate Past President, Doris Potter, was unable to attend due to illness. Cards were signed for her and another Past President, Mary Townsend, who is recuperating from a recent illness.

District Director, Mary McCauley, brought several items of importance to be considered at the convention in Trenton, June 6-8. She mentioned some upcoming changes in insurance, membership fees and refunds, constitution changes, and urged delegates to be prepared to vote on resolutions at the convention.

She concluded her discussion with a humorous poem, "Senior Serenade," which illustrated some of the eccentricities induced by age.

At this juncture in the meeting, Kathryn Scott made a presentation of the Certificate of Merit to Doris Potter (in absentia). She spoke of Doris being a deserving member, having been president and also a faithful director of this area for many years and very eligible for this honour. (The certificate was delivered to Mrs. Potter following the meeting.)

The Grades 3 and 4 of Lansdowne Public School, under the capable direction of Mrs. Michie and Mrs. Bater, provided a variety of songs from their Spring Festival Animal Dance program. Some of the numbers were "When the Hippos Crash the Dance," and "There will be no Hippos at the Dance" solo by Owl, and "Hail to You, Animal Zoo" solo by Turtle. The children's enthusiasm during their presentation demonstrated their enjoyment in singing. The pupils and instructors were thanked by Mrs. Doreen DeWolfe.

The new officers were installed by past president, Nina Churchill. These were the ladies at the head table and archivist, Ethelene Tye. Telephone convenors for the year include Edna McCalpin, Rita Hollister, Anna Smith, Sybil Smith, Ruth Chisamore, Ethelene Tye and Virginia
