BARCLAY - A very sincere thank you to the nurses of the 4th floor Brockville General Hospital for their excellent care; to all those who visited me, sent cards or flowers while I was a patient in hospital. A special thanks to Rev. Seeley of Elgin, to Brockville ministers who visited me and to Dr. Chillcott and Dr. G. Bhatt for their extra kindness.
 Doris Barclay
 *****

MAINSE - I would like to express my sincere thanks to my friends, relatives and neighbours, for the cards, letters, gifts, flowers, visits and phone calls I received while I was hospitalized a few weeks ago. Special thanks to my family for all the help and support they gave me. May God bless all of you.
 Keitha Mainse

In April, a door to door fund raising canvas was conducted in Seeley's Bay and surrounding area for the Cancer Society. The backbone of this campaign is the volunteer canvasser. A very special thank you to the canvassers, both rookies and veterans, thanks for joining the team. Also to all those who donated, thank you, we are winning and with your continued support we will some day be able to say with pride, WE WON! Your efforts are appreciated by the many victims of this disease and by the Canadian Cancer Society. Canvassers Bev Alberts, Cheryl Berry, Jane Billings, Barb Donaldson, Karen Hudson, Irene Hartley, Lynne McGlynn, Linda Mainse, Betty McRae, Shirley McAlonen, Peggy Sweet-McCumber, Helen Sweet, Kay Stafford, Karen Simpson and Margaret Keith.

Help Keep up the Loon Population - Their numbers are decreasing
 It would be appreciated if people operating power boats during May and June would take care not to swamp low lying islands and shoreland areas where loons may be nesting.
