

DELTA LODGE No. 265

October 20th not only marked the installation of the Officers of Delta Lodge No. 265, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, but also witnessed the largest attendance of members and visitors in recent years.

Wallace Latham, Pat McCarthy, Bruce Teeple, Lloyd Sawyer, Charles French and Louis Burtch were installed in the office Noble Grand, Vice Grand, Recording Secretary, Financial Sec., Treasurer and Junior Past Grand respectively. The appointive officers for ensuing year are Sam Douds, Gary Raison, Bruce Moore, Carl White, Neil Jensen, Hiram Leegsma, Bill French, Ron Morris, Claude Raison, Ross Bell, Deloss Fuzzie and James Linton.

Visitors from Lodges in Brockville, Lyn, Prescott, Mallorytown, Gananoque and Kingston joined with the members of Delta Lodge in partaking of a hot dinner provided by the members of Delta Lodge and their ladies, which was followed by an enjoyable social hour.

One of the highlights of the evening was the presentation of a 25 year membership pin to Alphonse Catellier by District Deputy Don Howe.

DELTA WI

Our Nov. 18th meeting was held at the home of Nellie French. A very suitable poem written by Mrs. Stanley Mollard, Cloverdale Branch, was read in memory of Helen Gifford, followed by a minute of silence.

The roll call request was for stories or pictures suitable for the Tweedsmuir Book. Old and recent pictures of Delta places and people were passed around.

The Philipsville Branch generously invited us to their Dec. 11 Christmas dinner. The 4H Achievement Program will be Nov. 20th at the Lyn United Church.

A three hour course will be given on "45 minutes meals without a microwave". Anyone interested please contact Isabel Robert at 928-2527 or Eileen Jacques at 928-2170.

The Program was an interesting display of pictures and stories of Delta, past and present. The Tweedsmuir History Book was also on view and contained a wide variety of pictures, news stories and personal records of Delta. This is a valuable history record kept by our Tweedsmuir Curators, the present one being Nellie French.

Note Well: our next meeting is on Dec. 18th not the 16th at 1:30 p.m. All ladies welcome; for information please phone Florence Molony at 928-2801.

DELTA UCW

The November UCW meeting was opened by Pres. Irma Chant reading a Remembrance Day poem entitled "Let us have Peace".

Nine members answered the roll call with 3 hospital and 7 home visits being made. Edith led the devotional. Collection was received and dedicated. Secretary and Treasurer's reports were read and approved.

A stewardship reading on Student Internship was given. In all, there are 7 Theological colleges across Canada which receive support from the Mission and Service Fund.

Program was on the study of Inuit fight for survival against southern values. A graduate student, whose way was paid by the Dept. of Indian Affairs, to travel north and live with an Inuit family, told of his experiences. He was treated as one of family, taught their language, how to hunt, etc. Summing it up in a few words, the Inuits were ultimate survivors for in the harshest of all habitats, they with their values of cooperation and sharing, have lived contentedly. Edith closed with a very appropriate Indian Prayer.

Lunch was enjoyed by all. Our Christmas meeting will be held Dec. 10 at Edna Willard's place. Let's see you there!

PHILIPSVILLE W.I.

The Philipsville Women's Institute met in their hall on Nov. 13th. Meeting opened with Ode and Mary Stewart Collect. Roll call was "name the Prime Minister in the year you were born".

Minutes were read and approved and new business was dealt with.

Veta Bolton gave a report from the executive meeting. The district annual will be in Delta May 14th; next executive meeting is Mar. 31st in the library room in Elgin at 1:30 p.m.

New windows are to be installed on the building. This closed the business part of the meeting. The Christmas meeting will be Dec. 11th with Chaffey's Lock and Delta being invited.

Faye Jansen gave an interesting paper on Citizenship entitled "Freedom for all", outlining what we take for granted such as freedom of speech, worship, press, enterprize, voting and movement.

Thelma read a poem entitled "Should God go on strike". A contest was held matching the wives with the Prime Ministers.

Before the meeting Marion Stone and Darlene Sargent demonstrated on the short course they attended earlier on Short Order Meals, this was very good and everyone enjoyed the dishes they prepared for dinner.
